FAMOUS PARENTS WAS HER THEME

Mrs. Florence Howe Hall on Lives of Dr. Gridley Ward Howe and Julia W. Howe

PHILANTHROPIST - POET

Before the Equal Suffrage League Club, Daughter of Two Great Americans Reviews Their Work for Their Fellow Man.

Mrs. Florence Howe Hall delivered an address before the Equal Suffrage League yesterday afternoon at All Soul's church. Her topic was "Philanthropist-Poet" and she dwelt on the lives of her parents, Dr. Gridley Ward Howe and Julia Ward Howe.

In 1822 Dr. Howe, she said, went to Greece to help the Greeks throw off the Turkish yoke. Greece was then engaged in a life and death struggle with her Turkish oppressor. The country was at first overrun by Erwin Pasha. At this time Dr. Howe joined a band of guerrillas. They climbed mountains and endured the greatest privations. Food was scarce and he knew the sharp knawing of real hunger. He was forced to eat snails, wasps and the flesh of donkeys.

In course of a retreat Dr. Howe passed a wounded man and the look which the man gave him cut him to the heart. Turning, at the risk of his life, he lifted the man to his horse, saved him and thereby gained a loyal friend at this time.

As the Greeks were suffering from starvation, Dr. Howe came to this country and raised aid. He then founded a colony and was much interested in its development. He afterward became ill and returned to America, where later he went into the work for the blind, aiding them intellectually and physically.

Dr. Howe went to Europe to study methods of teaching the blind and while there he became interested in the revolt of the Poles. He was commissioned to carry American funds across the border but was watched by the Prussians and arrested, and was confined in prison for years, his whereabouts being unknown to his family. He was finally rescued. A comrade sent him to the borders, pitched him out and forbade his return, after which he went to Berlin Prussia sent Dr. Howe a gold medal, which when weighed, proved to be worth $40, the exact amount he had expended for his board while in the Prussian prison.

Dr. Howe then resumed his work of caring for the blind who were at this time physically helpless. He studied in Prussia and in various parts of Europe. His most wonderful accomplishment was the teaching of Laura Bridgman, his famous deaf, dumb and blind pupil, to read.

It was Laura Bridgman who brought Dr. Howe and Julia Ward together, at a time when Miss Ward and her sisters were visiting the institution with a party of friends. Miss Ward was driven by the poet, Longfellow, her sisters following in another vehicle.

In 1861 Mrs. Howe returned from the front, where she had been with her husband and in the grey dawn she wrote the famous "Battle Hymn of the Republic." That the poem was lifted above all sectional feeling is shown by the fact that Kipling, in "The Light That Failed," made his Englishman repeat the poem before going into battle. The writing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was the most striking and remarkable thing that Mrs. Howe ever did. The horrors of war caused her to devote two years of her life to the work for universal peace.

When Mrs. Howe was about fifty years of age her attention was directed to the cause of Woman's Suffrage and this new interest was to her like the discovery of a new continent. In Massachusetts the women went for thirty years to the Legislature and at the age of ninety Mrs. Howe still toiled up the stairs to use for influence for the vote. She did much to make this world a broader one for women. She was greatly beloved and reverenced, and during her later years, when she made her appearance in public places, the audience arose to do her honor.

ENTERTAINED AT EUCHRE.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Putnam, of Woodland avenue, entertained a company of friends at their home, last night, at euchre. There were three tables in play and the prize winners were: Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. J. L. Bennett, Charles Clark and E. E. Ripley. After the game refreshments were served.

ROOSEVELT, LA FOLLETTE, TAFT WILL TOUR STATE

G. O. P. Presidential Nomination Seekers to Invade New Jersey on Eve of Primaries --Politicians Make Forecasts.

(Special from Staff Correspondent.)

Trenton, May 1.—Politicians were unusually numerous at the State House yesterday, due largely to the fact that today was the last day for filing petitions for candidates for delegate to the National Conventions and the party leaders on both sides were here to see that the petitions were duly filed with the Secretary of State, or were made ready for filing today. The outlook for the primary election on the Presidential ticket May 28 was the chief topic of discussion.

The Republican campaign will culminate during the week preceding the 28th, when President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and United States Senator Robert M. La Follette will al be in the State in an effort to capture the delegates. The arrangements for the visit of the President will be made in a few days.

State Treasurer Daniel S. Voorhees, Winton C. Garrison, chief of the Bureau of Labor and Statistics, both members of the Republican State Committee, and Charles N. Codding, of Union, were among the Republican leaders who claimed that Taft will carry the State May 28. State Senator Isaac T. Nichols, of Cumberland, who was one of the politicians at the capital, and who has been more or less of a Progressive, was not so sure that Taft would win. "There is a lot of Roosevelt sentiment all through South Jersey and particularly in the factory centers," he said.

There was quite a gathering at the State House yesterday afternoon of State Democratic leaders. They were all Governor Wilson followers and all declared that the Governor would have no difficulty in winning the New Jersey delegation to the Baltimore convention.

MISS FULLER GIVEN A MAY DAY SHOWER

Friends and associate teachers of Miss Louise H. Fuller, daughter of F. D. Fuller, tendered her a miscellaneous shower this afternoon in the form of a May party at her home on Arlington avenue. The color scheme was yellow and white. This was carried out in the decorations which consisted of daffodils and wistaria. A large May basket contained many gifts, each of which was accompanied by a rhyme that caused much merriment.

Miss Fuler is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and has taught in the local schools for a number of years, and her engagement to Ralph B. Titsworth, of Detroit, Mich., was announced early in the year. Mr. Titsworth, who formerly lived in this city, is contracting engineer for the McClintor Marshall Steel Construction Company, of Pittsburg, having charge of its western territory. He was graduated from Rutgers in the class of 1901 and is a member of the Chi-Psi Fraternity.

BROADHURST'S LATEST SHOW IS COMING HERE

"Just Like John" opens an engagement at the Plainfield theatre Monday, May 6. It is by George Broadhurst, author of "Bought and Paid For," and Mark Swan. Walter Jones from the original cast of "Baby Mine," which played for a whole year in New York, will be seen here next week, as well as Rapley Holmes, who was the sheriff in "The Round Up," in which he established a very fine record for picturesque and clever acting. Herbert Yost and Wallace Worsley, the leading players in "Over Night," which was the attraction at the Hackett theatre, in New York, for a whole season, have principal parts in "Just Like John" and finally, Florine Arnold, who scored a most remarkable hit all over the United States, and at the Lyceum theatre in New York in the principal "character" part in "Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh," as presented by Mrs. Fiske.

The organization as it stands has been put together by William A. Brady and George Broadhurst not alone for the spring production of "Just Like John," but also for the opening next August of the new Forty-eighth Street theatre in New York, where it is thought that the new comedy may run far into the regular season, if not wholly to its finish.

Y. W. C. A. EXHIBITION.

A display of the work done by all of the educational classes of the Y. W. C. A. during the past season, will be on exhibition in the window at Shirley & Johnson's store on Saturday. This exhibition is given in order that the public may be given some idea of the work done by these different departments during the past year.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSN ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. J. H. Doane Reads Paper at Irving-Jefferson Schools Organization Session.

The annual meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Irving and Jefferson Schools was held at the Irving School, yesterday afternoon, and despite the inclement weather there were more than sixty members of the association present. These officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. George O. Stevens; vice president, Miss Genevieve Petrie; treasurer, Mrs. Wallace R. Clarke; secretary, Mrs. A. E. Force. In the absence of Mrs. Stevens, Miss Petrie presided at the meeting.

After the business, Mrs. J. Hervey Doane read an interesting paper prepared by herself on the subject of "Hearthstone and Hearts," in which she emphasized the importance of motherhood and then touched upon the relationship that should exist between the mother and school teacher. The paper showed great care in preparation and was filled with helpful suggestions which if followed should tend to make the association better and stronger than ever.

A social hour followed, during which refreshments were served. Miss Freda Gray, one of the teachers, also favored the guests with several piano selections. One more meeting will be held before school closes at the Jefferson School.

MISS MARY CASEY NOW MRS. EDWARD F. FORRY

Miss Mary E. Casey, of Kensington avenue, and Edward F. Forry, of New York, were married at St. Mary's church this afternoon. Rev. B. M. Bogan officiated. Miss Nora Casey, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Joseph Duffy, a cousin of the bride was best man. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends.

Afterwards a dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moran, of West Third street. The bride received many beautiful presnts.

PLAINFIELD FORESTERS HOLD A HOUSEWARMING

High Physician Marcus L. Clawson addressed the members of Court Plainfield No. 1144, Independent Order of Foresters, at its meeting and house-warming last night. He told of the good work being done at the satitarium for the fight against tuberculosis. The youngest Forester in the world was also initiated with two others, a special dispensation being necessary in his case. Past High Chief Ranger L. T. Titsworth and High Court Officer J. J. Praed also addressed the court.

After the regular meeting the members assembled in the banquet hall where the house-warming committee had a collation prepared. The committee in charge included John F. Casey, Jr., James T. McCarty, John R. Cline, Edward J. McCue, C. C. Pagliucca, Frank Donnolly and Cornelius Regan.

MISS HILL HONORED.

The name of Miss Marie P. Hill, of this city, is among those to receive honors at Wellsley College, receiving one of the junior scholarships. The other New Jersey girls to be mentioned are Miss Jessie DeHart, of Newark, a senior Wellesley College scholarship; Miss Hazel M. Lockwood, Westfield, senior Wellesley College scholarship; Miss Almira S. Morgan, Rutherford, senior Wellesley College scholarship; Miss Margaret S. Mitchell, Boonton, junior Durant scholarship; Miss Mildred H. Morris, Long Branch, and Miss Eva D. Rose, Montclair, junior Wellesley College scholarship.

AIDING MISS PIERSON'S WORK.

The Missionary and Aid Society of Warren chapel met yesterday afternoon and commenced the packing of a box of clothing and other articles to be sent to Miss Laura Pierson, at Clear Creek, Va., who is continuing the noble work among the Mountain Whites instituted by her father, the late Rev. Arthur W. Pierson. The shipment will not be made until next week as more articles are desired, particularly sheets and pillow cases.

BISHOP CONFIRMED 368 AT ST. MARY'S

One of the largest classes ever receiving the sacrament of confirmation in St. Mary's church was received yesterday afternoon, by Bishop John O'Connor, of the Newark diocese. It was the dignitary's first visit to the city in two years and as a result there were 364 children and twenty-two adults in readiness for the sacrament. The preliminary procession furnished a most impressive sight for the gathering of parents and friends.

Bishop O'Connor was assisted in the confirming by his secretary, Rev. Charles A. Smith, and also by the St Mary priests, Rev. Fathers Bogan, Hogan and Sciolla. At the conclusion the benediction of the blessed sacrament was pronounced by the bishop and he also made an address, dealing with an explanation of confirmation and helpful suggestions. He expressed gratification at the numerical strength of the class.

Father Bogan announced in conclusion that the daily classes for children preparing for first communion would continue to meet every afternoon at 3:30 until the end of the month.

PEEPER LIKES DUNELLEN; RETURNS TO OLD HAUNTS

Thomas Moore, a colored man, about sixty years old, was arrested by Marshal Smalley, of Dunellen, last night, upon a technical charge of disorderly conduct. He was found roaming around the borough in an aimless manner that aroused the suspicions of the authorities. When arraigned before Recorder Campbell, this morning, he was unable to give an accurate account of himself and was sent to New Brunswick for ten days.

Moore is the same person that was arrested in Dunellen last winter for peeping into windows after dark. At that time he was fired at by Earl Ising, who found him peeping, but disappeared, leaving only his tracks in the snow. He was apprehended the next day and warned to leave the borough but showed up again yesterday acting suspiciously.

Y. M. C. A. TO START OPEN AIR MEETINGS

The first of a series of open-air meetings, under the auspices of the Religious Work Committee of the Y. M. C. A., will be held at the corner of West Front street and Madison avenue, on Saturday evening, May 4. The speakers will be Mayor George W. V. Moy and Rev. Gabriel Reed Maguire. The meeting will begin at 8:15 and last for half an hour. The public is invited.

At these meetings the claims of the Christian religion upon the lives of men and women will be presented by pastors and laymen representing the different churches of the city and borough. The speaking will be from an automobile. Music will be furnished by a cornetist.

Similar meetings held last year had a large attendance and were much appreciated.

IN THE BOROUGH COURTS.

Thomas Bonafide, an Italian shoemaker, was arrested by Marshall Keller yesterday afternoon for throwing a dead cat upon an abandoned refuse heap. He was severely reprimanded this morning when brought before Recorder Gano and fined $2. Albertson Hutchinson, a school boy, rode his wheel upon the sidewalk when Chief Weiss happened to be looking. He paid a dollar. William Corbin, an Italian, was minus a light on his wheel last night. The Recorder fined him a dollar also. Henry O'Brien was asked to appear tomorrow morning by Chief Weiss for riding on the walk this morning.

Y. M. C. A. MUSICALE.

—The first straw hat of the season appeared today. A. E. Force was the wearer.

SUGGEST CITY CONTRACT FOR GARBAGE DISPOSAL

Leon R. Thurlow Gives Valuable Advice at Councilmanic Committee Meeting--G. H. Frost and C. H. Hand Express Their Views.

Many diverse opinions were expressed on the subject of the municipal collection and disposal of garbage at the open conference held under the auspices of the councilmanic public affairs committee last night, and after all had been given opportunity to be heard, it was the concensus of belief that it would be advisable for the city to make a definite contract with an individual or firm to collect and dispose of the garbage.

Leon R. Thurlow, former health officer of the city, upon the invitation of Councilman George S. Clay, chairman of the public affairs committee, was present and gave an informal talk, reviewing what has been done since 1902, and offering some helpful suggestions as to what might be done here to relieve the situation. In the opinion of Mr. Thurlow, Plainfield is not large enough according to population to build a crematory or reduction plant, it being estimated that the total amount of garbage collected during the year would not exceed 2,000 tons. This, according to Mr. Thurlow, was not sufficient to make the building of a disposal plant profitable to the city.

Mr. Thurlow suggested that a contract be made with some responsible party to collect the garbage and take it out of the city. He could see no objection to feding the garbage to hogs, although Health Officer John O'Brien cited a case of where a farmer in one of the nearby outside districts lost a number of hogs through disease supposed to have been contracted by feeding them garbage.

It was recalled by Mr. Thurlow that in 1904 the local health department sent out 1,000 letters for the purpose of getting an expression of

SUBPOENA SAUNDERS IN HARVESTER CASE

As a Director of Company, Which Government Seeks to Dissolve.

St. Paul, Minn., May 1.—The dissolution suit of the United States Government against the International Harvester Company, for the beginning of which the financial and corporate world has been in nervous expectancy for a week, was filed yesterday in the Federal District Court here. Judge Willard granted the order, and Charles L. Spencer, Clerk of the Fedral Court, St. Paul, forwarded the papers last night. Among those to be subpoened is William Lawrence Saunders, of North Plainfield, one of the directors of the Harvester Company.

It is asked that the so-called trust be dissolved, and that a receiver be appointed to wind up its affairs, if, in the opinion of the court, it be impossible otherwise so to rehabilitate the gigantic corporation that its business will square within the anti-trust laws and the decisions thereunder.

A group of men prominent in the financial and industrial world will be summoned wherever they are found. They are George W. Perkins and Charles Steele, members of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. at the time of the organization of the Harvester Company; George F. Baker, former President, now Chairman of the Board of the First National Bank, New York; Elbert H. Gary, former President, now Chairman of the Board of the United States Steel Corporation; Norman D. Ream, Chicago and New York capitalist, resident of Stamford, Conn.; Cyrus H. and Harold F. McCormick, Chicago; Charles and James Deering, Chicago, and John J. Glessner, William H. and Thomas Jones, Richard F. Howe, Edgar A. Bancroft, William J. Louterback, John A. Chapman, John P. Wilson, and William L. Saunders, prominent as officials or managers of the company or its subsidaries.

In brief, the Government charges the Harvester Company with being a combination in restraint of trade, monopolizing or attempting to monopolize the manufacture and sale of harvesting machinery. It is alleged that the company has advanced the prices of these articles "to the grave injury of the farmer and the general public," and is extending its business into all lines of agricultural implements with the purpose of monopolistic control.

The Government alleges that the International Harvester Company controls at least 90 per cent. of the trade in the United States in harvesters or grain binders, 75 per cent. of the powers, and more than 50 per cent. of the binder twine.

PETTY HELD ON CHARGE OF BANK EMBEZZLEMENT

Robert M. Petty, president of the Washington National Bank in Warren county, this State, who was arrested late Monday night by United States Marshal Snowden on a bench warrent following his indictment, was held in the United States Court yesterday at Trenton in $1,000 bail on a charge of embezzlement. He will have a hearing on Monday. He is well known in Plainfield.

Mr. Petty is charged with the embezzlement of $30,295 of the funds of the bank. The charge is made that he obtained this money through his position and applied it to his own uses.

The Controller of the Currency made an investigation and ordered the bank closed. A further investigation resulted in the charges and Mr. Petty's indictment.

RESTAURANT FIXTURES SOLD.

The fixtures of the former restaurant on North avenue, conducted by E. H. Cleveley, were sold at an assignee's sale, yesterday, under the direction of Attorney V. W. Nash, Jr. William A. Schorb was the auctioneer and about $40 was realized. The place is again to be conducted as a restaurant by two Elizabeth men while Mr. Cleveley is to act as manager of the Hotel and Home Restaurant Company, which is to open the former McVey place about May 15.

ARCHITECT WED TO MISS WEEKS

A. L. C. Marsh Becomes a Benedict at Ceremony Performed by Dr. Eaton.

COUPLE UNATTENDED

Miss Grace Weeks, formerly of this city, but more recently of Brooklyn, and A. L. C. Marsh, of this city, were quietly married at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York. The ceremony was performed in the parish house of the Madison Avenue Baptist church. There were no attendants.

The ceremony was witnessed by about twenty intimate friends of the couple, and immediately following Mr. and Mrs. Marsh left on an extended wedding trip. They will reside in this city upon their return.

The bride lived in this city for a number of years, and has many friends here. Mr. Marsh is well-known in Plainfield, where he has resided all his life. He is an architect of note and many handsome dwellings here and in many cities in the East have been designed by him. Monday night several intimate friends gave Mr. Marsh a dinner in New York.

CHURCH OFFICERS GUESTS AT A DINNER

George E. Hall, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Park Avenue Baptist church, entertained the trustees and deacons of the church at a dinner at The Homestead on Washington avenue, last night. All of the deacons and trustees were present, and in addition, Nelson Runyon and Rev. F. St. John Fitch were guests of Mr. Hall. After the excellent dinner served by Henry Johnson, there were a number of short addresses. Mr. Hall was the toastmaster.

The toastmaster spoke briefly on the subject "Our Church," in which he told of the excellent condition of the Park Avenue Baptist church, financially and spiritually. David M. Runyon spoke on the subject of "The Problem of Housing the People," commenting on the constantly increasing attendance at the church service. "Music" was the toast assigned to E. Frank Vail, chairman of the music committee, and he told of the plans for the coming year. Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, the pastor, spoke on "The Outlook for the Future." He pictured the success of the past year with the bright prospects for the future. Brief addresses were made by Nelson Runyon and Rev. F. St. John Fitch.

A feature was the passing of a resolution, congratulating William M. Tallman, aged 94 years, who is the oldest members of the church. This resolution was signed by all present and forwarded to Mr. Tallman. All of the guests present received favors and books, the gift of Mr. Hall.

FOREIGN MISSIONS THEME OF FIRST BAPTIST SOCIETY

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met at the home of Miss May Shreve on Grove street, yesterday afternoon and discussed topics of importance relative to the foreign and home mission field. Items of interest were brought and read by the different members. Features of the afternoon included a paper on "Foreign Mission Problems," by Miss Lyndon, while Mrs. Clifford D. Manning presented a paper on "Home Questions."

An instructive talk was given by Mrs. Reuben Knox, in which she told of the latest happenings in Mexico, especially among the missionaries in that part of the country. Following the program there was a social hour and refreshments were served by the young people.

Bound Brook.

"Orchard Cottage," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Naylor, at West Dunellen, was the scene of a charming home wedding at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Mary Naylor, was married to George Thomas Mehrkam, of Vienna, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George H. Gardner, formerly of New Market, but now living at Atlantic Highlands. Miss Minnie Naylor, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; Miss Hattie Van Lieu, of New Brunswick, and Miss Lillian Harris, of Plainfield, were bridesmaids. The ring bearer was Emmett Knox, of Newark. The flower girl was Miss Pearl Naylor, daughter of Robert Naylor, of New York. The ushers were George L. Wirtz and Benjamin H. Giles, of Bound Brook. The best man was Allen Bachman, of Palmerton, Pa. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Day, of New Market, assisted by Miss Irene Day. The groom gave his best man gold cuff buttons and the ushers stick pins. The house was decorated with cut flowers and greens. Many handsome and useful presents consisting of silver, cut glass, furniture and linen were given the happy couple. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Mehrkam will go to housekeeping in their new home at Vienna. About seventy-five guests were present from New York, Palmerton, Pa., Newark, Lambertville, New Brunswick, Milltown, Plainfield, Dunellen, Lincoln and Bound Brook.

Mining Camp Fare.

Those who cannot eat without a correctly folded napkin, spotless china and silver will do well to avoid the spreads described by E. Ecob in Outing. The author says:

"Eating at a temporary mining camp isn't altogether attractive. The array of blackened lard pails steaming about the hearth and the ribs of beef, picked nearly bare, on the table, may not at first sight seem alluring. But you'll find that the frijoles (strong red Mexican beans) and the cold sour doughs, flaked with black from the pan, and the strong tea don't taste so bad, after all. Maybe you think you couldn't eat from battered tin plates with battered black forks that paint the food amid a litter of saddles, soiled mattresses, rifles and tobacco juice. But, then, perhaps you thought you couldn't eat the sirup from which you had picked out flies and ants. All that's really necessary for perfect enjoyment is a good appetite."

Ancient Inoculation.

The practice of inoculation against smallpox is usually supposed to belong to the eighteenth century. The supposition is true enough so far as Europe is concerned, but it was no more than a rediscovery of facts well known ages ago. Inoculation was practiced by the ancient Brahmans, and their method is fully described in the Vedas. They rubbed the skin of the patient until it was red, then scratched it with a sharp instrument and laid upon it a piece of cotton soaked in the variolous pus obtained from smallpox vesicles of the previous year. Such reappearances of ancient knowledge are common enough, indeed far more common than is usually admitted. Among the major scientific theories and discoveries of today there is scarcely one that can sustain a claim to originality in the face of our increasing knowledge of oriental literature.

FORMER POLICE CHIEF IS PUT UNDER ARREST

For assaulting, it is alleged, Patrolman Robert Wright, of Millburn, Thomas P. Hurley, former chief of police, of that municipality, was arrested by the former at Main and Taylor streets, Millburn, shortly after midnight yesterday. He was arraigned before Police Justice William E. Summers at 9:30 yesterday morning. The hearing was postponed, however, until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Hurley, according to Wright, became abusive when the latter went to Main and Taylor streets at the request of a man, who told the officer that the former chief had beaten him and taken a bottle of whiskey from him. Wright asked Hurley about the matter and, it is said, the latter then became abusive. According to the blue-coat, Hurley defied the officer to arrest him.

Wright started to take the former police head to the jail, he declared, and Hurley thereupon struck him in the face. Wright retaliated by striking his prisoner over the back with his night stick. Hurley then walked with the policeman to the lock-up.

The resignation of Hurley as a member of the Millburn police department was sent in last November. He had been deposed as chief in July following alleged criticism by him of members of the Township Committee after a raid on the American House, an alleged disorderly resort in Millburn avenue. The chief, it was said, had not been notified that the raid was to be made until the raiding party, headed by a private detective, was about to descend upon the hotel.

BIRD BREAKS WINDOW AND PUTS OUT LIGHT

Califon, May 1.—A large pheasant that smashed through a kitchen window in the home of former Township Committeeman William H. Anderson Monday night caused a momentary scare.

The bird, probably attracted by the light, demolished the window shade. The fluttering of its wings extinguished the lamp, leaving the astonished household in darkness. Mr. Anderson was reading at the dining table when the bird crashed through the glass.

The bird was caught after some difficulty and was released yesterday.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

"Just Like John" opens an engagement at the Plainfield theatre, Monday, May 6. It is by George Broadhurst and Mark Swan. In the company will be Walter Jones, Rapley Holmes, Herbert Yost, Wallace Worsley and Florine Arnold. This organization as it stands has been put together by William A. Brady and George Broadhurst, not alone for the spring production of "Just Like John," but also for the opening next August of the new Forty-eighth Street theatre in New York, where it is thought the new comedy may run far into the regular season, if not wholly to its finish.

SIX POLICEMEN NEEDED TO FETTER INSANE MAN

Elizabeth, May 1.—It took six policemen and a patrol wagon to remove Joseph Birner at 10 o'clock Monday night from his home, 15 Loomis street, and lock him up.

The man, who is thirty years old, developed a violent attack of insanity, chased his family out of the house and then began to demolish the furniture.

Birner was taken to the county jail, but Warden Dood refused to admith him without a commitment, so Birner was locked up at police headquarters. He was removed to the Morris Plains Asylum yesterday afternoon.

Giving Just a Little More Than We Promise

That's the history of our success. It should be the foundation of every enterprise.

The most favorable and most powerful feature of any business is satisfaction. Satisfaction full and complete is our eternal aim.

As to quality and value, it goes without saying that our patrons are the recipients of both. We refuse to stock anything but the best, and we charge as little as we consistently can for it. We shall continue in these methods as long as the roof stays over us.

Millinery

That Minimizes Cost—of Worth & Beauty

Every woman may buy one of these charming Hats with the utmost confidence, because we have shopped for the latest shapes, the best materials, the trimmings that cost us plenty of time to select and good money to buy.

These we have combined for you with all the skill of our expert millinery force, and you will be amazed and delighted at the result.

Many of these models are cleverly copied from the creations of the authoritative leaders in hat making here and abroad. You will be able to satisfy your discriminating taste without sounding the depths of your pocket, or indeed hardly knowing that you have touched your pocket at all.

Correct Corsets

Enhance the Appearance of Your Costume.

On the correct Corset depends the success or failure of your Spring and Summer costumes and frocks. Therefore you can not be too careful in your selection.

The best of the Spring models are here in a most complete range of sizes. Every model is designed on the straight curveless lines—the correct fashion idea for this season.

Among the great variety of models is one for your figure. After you have been fitted with it by our expert Corsetiere you will know what real corset satisfaction is—for these new corsets are light, comfortable, plaistic and at the same time gently mold the figure in the prevailing styles. Prices range from 50c up to $5.00.

Our Boys' Clothing Department

Is conveniently located in our Men's Section—where the boys like to come. Its entrance opens right on Park Avenue thus obviating a walk thru department store aisles. Assortments here are immense from the little fellows' sizes on up; and comprise every model, style, material and color imaginable. Every suit is perfectly tailored, thereby assuring perfect fit, durability and lasting shape retention. A comparison will prove that our low prices cannot be equaled in most New York stores.

RUTGER COLLEGE NOTES.

New Brunswick, May 1.—The Mechanical and Electrical Engineers' Club met Monday night in the engineering building. The speakers were Professor Heck, on "The Properties of Steam;" Professor Couch, on "The Design of Arch-bar Trucks," and Henry A. Cozzens, Jr., of Newark, on "The Use of Rope for Power Transmission."

A recent issue of Science contains an appreciation of the late Dr. John B. Smith, by Dr. L. O. Howard, head of the department of Entomology of the United States Bureau of Agriculture.

Professor E. Livingston Barbour gave a recital of "David Harum" in the Kirkpatrick chapel Monday night. He was assisted by F. Marmaduke Potter, of Metuchen, on the violin, and Howard D. McKinney, accompanist. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Northfield Conference Fund of the Y. M. C. A.

The double quartet of the Glee Club will give a concert in Arion Hall, Newark, tomorrow evening. On Friday the club will sing at Nyack, N. Y.

The weather has seriously hindered athletic activities. The baseball game with N. Y. U. was not played because of rain, and the track men are hindered greatly in practise. A game will probably be played with the Catholic Club this week on Neilson Field. The first track meet of the season will be held this Saturday with Lehigh on Neilson Field. The Rutgers relay team finished fourth in its class at the University of Pennsylvania relays. On Saturday a baseball game will be played with Ursinus at New Brunswick.

POLICE ARE CALLED TO GUARD STRIKE SCENE

Perth Amboy, May 1.—Girl strikers formerly employed by the H. Kotler Company, shirtwaist makers in Park avenue, made so much trouble Monday night for strike-breakers that the policeman on duty asked for help to keep them in order today.

Comparatively few of the 150 who quit work last week have returned, but a number of girls came from South Amboy, South River and other places yesterday and were promptly employed by the company.

When the girls quit work Monday night they found the strikers waiting for them. No one was hurt, but a number of the strike-breakers were jostled from the sidewalk into muddy gutters or pools of water, and for a long distance from the factory they were followed by groups of girls hooting at and deriding them. Two policemen were detailed to patrol the vicinity of the factory today.

FOR SIX YEAR PRESIDENCY.

Resolution to Amend Constitution Introduced In Congress.

Washington, May 1.—Representative Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the judiciary committee, introduced a house joint resolution to provide an amendment to the constitution fixing the term of office of the president of the United States at six years and making him ineligible for a second term.

Mr. Clayton said that one of the reasons he proposed this resolution was President Taft's declaration in Massachusetts that a president should not be eligible for re-election.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED; TOWN IS OBLITERATED

Fire Makes 200 Homeless In Croghan, N. Y.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 1.—The business heart of the town of Croghan, in Lewis county, twenty miles from Carthage, is practically obliterated by a fire. Twenty-nine buildings, including stores, business blocks and residences, have been destroyed. Two hundred persons are homeless in the streets, and two children are dead.

The fire started in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Grounert. Mrs. Grounert had left the house for a few moments, leaving the little ones, Mary, aged three years, and Merrill, eleven months, behind. When she returned the dwelling was in flames. A stiff wind was blowing, and the fire spread to the house next door and thence across the street toward the business section. Despite efforts of the firemen, the blaze reached the business section.

It was reported from Carthage that the bodies of the Grounert children had been found in the ruins.

JEROME TO OPPOSE THAW.

Famous Prosecutor Retained by State to Fight Effort For Release.

Albany, N. Y., May 1.—William T. Jerome has been retained as special counsel by the state to oppose the latest move of Harry K. Thaw to get out of the State Hospital For Insane Criminals at Matteawan.

Attorney General Carmody employed Mr. Jerome because of his familiarity with all phases of the Thaw case and his experience with the work of alienists.

MEANS END OF TAFT'S CAMPAIGN, SAYS DIXON

Roosevelt Manager Says Colonel Will Win at Chicago.

Washington, May 1.—Senator Dixon, Colonel Roosevelt's manager, issued this statement after claiming that Roosevelt had carried Massachusetts by 6,000:

The result in Massachusetts settles Taft's candidacy beyond and to the exclusion of every reasonable doubt. Barometer readings of the sentiment of the Republican voters from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast tells one unbroken story. Wherever the Republican voters have been given an opportunity to express their sentiments, as in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Nebraska and Oregon, it has been one unbroken line of Roosevelt victories. The revolt of the rank and file of the Republican party against Taft's leadership is overwhelming and complete. They want Roosevelt as their candidate, and they intend to nominate him as their candidate.

No political machine can live in the face of the deep seated revolt of the masses of Republican voters against the attempt to deliver them over to the support of Taft's candidacy. The Republican states of the north have spoken. Roosevelt will be nominated at Chicago on the first ballot and will be elected in November by the biggest majority ever given a presidential candidate.

The Taft headquarters refused to concede the president's defeat in Massachusetts. No statement was issued. The information of the Taft managers was that it was a neck and neck race now.

FLORIDA FOR UNDERWOOD.

Carries Preferential Primaries and Will Have Delegation.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 1.—Oscar Underwood carried the preferential primaries in this state over Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, and will have twelve more instructed delegates at the Baltimore convention.

The returns of the vote thus far reported show Underwood has run away from Wilson by a vote of probably two to one, and it may be larger.

Holland's Flowers.

The Dutch are a nation of flower lovers, skilled gardeners and inventive farmers. On canal boats, on floating river houses, around farmhouses, in humble village and great city one finds flowers, flowers, flowers. Some one has said that Holland's illustrious conquerors have been her engineers and her florists. Through this flower culture has come her wealth, for this has been one of her chief industries.—Magazine Flowers.

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Now for the Best White Sale on Record in Newark

After months of painstaking preparation, during which time we have searched the markets of two worlds for superior undermuslins, we are at last ready with our half yearly White Sale. And such a sale as it is! We shall be much surprised if all records in this department are not totally eclipsed. The merchandise involved is different from that usually offered at sale prices. Our muslin pieces—notwithstanding their lowered cost—are all regularly made; the materials are good; the workmanship is of the very highest order. The garments are all full cut, which in itself is a factor of no little importance. Much additional space has been given over to this sale and a largely augmented salesforce will be in readiness to serve you. Every article of muslinwear in our store reduced.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S CLAIM.

New Brunswick, which proudly claims the title of "The City of Plenty," is going to hold an exposition during the last week of this month. It will be a "Boost New Brunswick Week" celebration and the Board of Trade which got up the affair plans to entertain thousands of visitors—so the press agent says. The promised presence of President Taft, former President Roosevelt and Governor Wilson, and some more, are announced as among the scheduled attractions.

"The celebration will be for the purpose of showing the world the marvelous industrial and commercial strength of New Brunswick and to demonstrate to new citizens and new industries that they should avail themselves of New Brunswick's advantages and hospitality," says a circular letter sent out by the Trade Board via the press agent route.

Seriously considered, New Brunswick certainly has some claims to recognition as an industrial centre if all the assertions of its Board of Trade are to be taken at face value. To quote from the circular to which reference has been made:

New Brunswick leads the world manufacturing druggist supplies; it has the two largest wall paper factories in the world; it leads all rivals in the manufacturing of rubber boots, arctics and rubber shoes, as well as soft rubber specialties; it manufactures two-thirds of all the washing blueing used on the American continent; it surpasses all rivals in the manufacturing of fine hosiery; it has the largest manufactory of musical strings in the world; it has one of the largest metal and brass specialty works in the world; its factories produce over 90 per cent. of medicated cotton and surgical bandages used in the world; it has the largest manufactory of wall paper machinery in the world; it has the largest manufacturing plant of horse shoe calks in the world; it has one of the most unique factories for cooling refrigerators and ice making machines, for homes, in the world; it manufactures over half of the knitting needles used in America; it is the home of the immense Simplex automobile works; it makes more automobile tires than any other place in the world; it has the largest brick manufacturing plant in the world; it has ten cigar factories, one of which manufactures 300,000 cigars daily and employs 1,800 hands.

THE TROLLEY TRACKS.

We must congratulate Mayor Moy in delegating Street Commissioner Andrew Gavett to make a thorough inspection of the local trolley service, rolling stock and trackage. By virtue of an ordinance recently enacted he is empowered to appoint one to do this work of investigation and he could not have made a better choice.

The Public Service Railway Company "with hat in hand" as usual is telling the Common Council that to improve the service more privileges are needed. Some years ago the same company assured Mayor Fisk that new cars would be placed on the local lines if the city would only grant the corporation the privilege of double tracking in the business section. It was also agreed that there should be a money consideration for brick paving between these double tracks. The money was paid and the privilege was granted. The new cars however never came. The agreement, which Mayor Fisk announced at the time regarding new cars, was only a verbal one he stated. It was never fulfilled. After the lapse of two years, the P. S. R. representatives denied that it was ever made. Old ramshackle cars were painted over and are still doing service. The condition of the rolling stock is no worse than the trackage in some parts of the community. True, the company is now improving its West Fourth street line. If it follows up its work on other lines, well and good. But will the company do it? The Netherwood and the Arlington avenue lines' tracks both are far below what they should be. Many believe that the unnecessary and unpleasant noise caused by the cars as they speed along the tracks is caused by the wheels or motors. Such is not the case. It is due almost entirely to the condition of the tracks.

Before the Common Council grants any more favors to the P. S. R. it should see to it that the tracks throughout the city are put in proper condition.

Merchants using weighing or measuring devices not properly sealed according to the provisions of the Prince law which went into effect today, are liable to prosecution. As superintendent for Union county of the department of weights and measures, A. W. Schwartz, of Elizabeth, has shown a very decided inclination to "drop in" at stores when least expected, it behooves the shopkeepers to get busy and fulfill the requirements of the law if they have not already done so. Even though the instrument may be entirely correct, if a dealer even have in his possession a device that has not been properly sealed he lays himself open to swift and possibly drastic prosecution.

For the proper regulation of the canning industry, the New Jersey Board of Health has adopted a new set of rules. One of these prescribes that on and after November 1, tomatoes offered for sale by the canners will be deemed adulterated if they show the presence of added water or pulp. We presume, however, that the canners will be permitted to add any amount of water to their stock.

Both on the hoof and in the retail shop, the price of fresh meat is the highest now at the Chicago market, which means therefore the whole east, than it has been in years. Coal and provisions and mostly all living expenses have reached the top notch. Is it any wonder therefore that there is unrest all over the country?

Despite the big ice crop this last winter, the retail price, according to report, is to be shoved up to forty-five cents a hundred pounds.

FINE LUNCHEON SERVED BY WARREN CHAPEL C. E.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Warren chapel made its initial bow as a luncheon given yesterday, and succeeded in establishing a most excellent reputation. The members attended to all the details with the adeptness of older people, serving eighty persons in all. A profit of about $25 was netted to be applied to the Juniors' missionary fund.

The luncheon comprised a most appetizing menu and was prepared directly under the direction of Miss Martha Marx, of New York. Five of the girls acted as waitresses, these being Bertha Bodine, Letha Hoagland, Ethel Hall, Madeline Layton and Bertha Martin. Mrs. Lewis Ely, superintendent of the Junior C. E. s., received the attendants, assisted by Mrs. George Compballe and Mrs. J. O. McKelvey. Clarence Higgins and George Hall also gave assistance in various ways.

FLORA HARDAWAY.

The death of Flora Hardaway, the eighteenth months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardaway, of West Fourth street, occurred at the home of her parents this morning. The funeral will be held Friday morning, with Rev. E. W. Roberts, of the Shiloh Baptist church, officiating. Burial will be in the Methodist cemetery.

TAFT AND 'T. R.' EVEN IN MASS.

CLARK BEATS WILSON

Boston, May 1.—Revised returns on the Presidential preference primary from 1,040 of the 1,080 election districts in the State give:

Clark, 32,972; Wilson, 14,859. Clark's lead 18,113.

Delegates at large: Group headed by Baxter and pledged to Roosevelt 82,687; group headed by Crane and pledged to Taft, 74,835.

It is expected that the Roosevelt delegates who appeared on the ballot as for Theodore Roosevelt will vote for the Colonel and disregard Taft's preferential majority.

At 9:45 o'clock it was announced that Taft and Roosevelt each had 18 delegates.

Speaker Champ Clark had a walkover with the assistance of the Boston Democratic machine. He swept Boston by 8,421 votes and throughout the State beat Governor Wilson by from two and three to one. The entire Democratic State Committee slate was elected.

Ballot Confusion Costly to Taft.

Owing to the presence on the ballot of nine names for delegate at large, all pledged to Taft, the regular slate, headed by Senator W. Murray Crane and former Governor John L. Bates, appears to have been defeated by the Roosevelt delegates.

The Roosevelt victory in the matter of delegates at large was due to the name of Frank Seiberlich being sandwiched in on the ballot between group one, consisting of eight names pledged to Roosevelt as delegates at large, and group three, comprising eight names pledged to Taft. Seiberlich was also pledged to Taft, but his name on the ballot caused endless confusion and substantial loss for the Taft delegates. In nearly all the polling places heard from Taft delegates ballots were invalidated by voters marking for Seiberlich as well as for the eight regular candidates. In each case the Taft preferential vote was counted, but the vote for his delegation was thrown out. The voters in their haste neglected to heed the instructions to vote for eight and marked every name pledged to Taft.

Lodge's Town For Taft.

Although Senator Lodge was silent in the campaign, his town of Nahant gave a two to one vote against the senator's old time friend, Roosevelt.

The first returns from the district of Congressman Gardner, the militant Taft leader, came from the town of Essex, which gave Roosevelt 90 to 43 for Taft. Wilbraham, on the other hand, which is in the special sphere of Senator Crane's influence, gave Taft 54 to 18 for Roosevelt.

The Back Bay silk stockings of Ward 11 saved Boston for the president, his majority in that ward being 852, which is larger than his majority in the city.

Despite the strenuous campaign waged by the two Republican candidates for the presidential nomination and the fact that Massachusetts had been looked upon as a pivotal state in this contest, the voting was light.

Clark Easy Winner.

Champ Clark won in a canter over Wilson, and La Follette was scarcely heard from. The speaker of the house beat the governor of New Jersey by 8,500 in Boston, but in the west of the state it was not quite as bad. The vote was light all over the state, probably not more than 40 or 45 per cent of the total strength of the state being cast. In many places the polls were not closed until 9 o'clock.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

The teachers and pupils of the Washington School will conduct an entertainment in the school auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening. An admission fee of ten cents for children and twenty-five cents for adults will be charged, the proceeds to be added to the fund being raised to secure a concert phonograph for the school. The program arranged is sure to be enjoyed and includes twenty minutes of stereopticon views of scenes in foreign lands, explained by Dr. Henry M. Maxson, and a phonograph concert of classical and popular numbers. The records will include selections by Caruso, Scotti, Tetrazzini and Lauder and Sousa and Pryor's bands.

Rev. Gilbert Lovell, who recently returned from China, will given an illustrated lecture on "China" at the regular weekly missionary prayer meeting in Warren chapel tonight. A large number of excellent slides, taken personally by Mr. Lovell, will be shown.

"IMPORTANT TO MEN"

Whereby you Save at Least 25 per cent

How's that you say. Well, in the first place an Exclusive Furnishing Store has only the one line to sell and has to make all their profit on that one line, whereas we with our kindred lines don't have to depend upon any particular one and are satisfied with a small average profit. But, you say I have to pay a quarter for sox, a half dollar for an undershirt or a dollar for a shirt, just the same as if I had bought it anywhere else. True, but we offer you a better article for the price than you get elsewhere. A large shirt manufacturer is a member of our company, one of the largest neckwear makers is also interested in this concern, and it stands to reason that we are in a better position than the other fellow when the plum tree is shaken. Then again we are one of a chain of stores controlled by this company, and are very large buyers; we get the very best prices obtainable and the savings we make, you get the benefit of. But what's the use of talking. The proof of the "Puddin'" is the eating. The very next time you want Furnishings of any sort, "Get the habit" and come here. You'll become like everybody else, a steady customer. The Men's Department is just to the left as you step in the door.

NEMO SELF-REDUCING CORSETS

The greatest figure reducing Corsets ever made.

In Model No. 319 the "Nemo Self-Reducing" front reduces and supports the abdomen, while the broad bands of "Lastikops Webbing" at the bottom of the long skirt produce the fashionable slender-hip effect and turn the corset edge inward, so that the ends of the bones and steels do not show through even the thinnest dress. Your gown fits closely and smoothly when you are standing, and when you sit down the semi-elastic hip-confining bands of "Lastikops Webbing" expand enough to give you complete ease, and the corset doesn't "side-up." Try a "Nemo" once and you won't buy any other kind. They sell at $3.00

The Royal SHIRT-WAISTS PERFECT IN EVERY DETAIL — New Lingerie Waists

The famous "Royal" make, made of fine Lawn, Batiste and Voile. The very newest models. High and low neck; some elegantly trimmed with lace and embroidery; others more dainty in fine tucks and corded effects $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.98

Tailor Waists of Pure Irish Linen; plain and pleated effects at $1.00 and $1.25.

THE MIRROR CANDIES NEW YORK — For Several Weeks we have been telling you about the

FAMOUS "MIRROR" CANDIES

For which we are the exclusive selling agents for Plainfield and vicinity. The talk has been chiefly about "Purety and Quality," now we want to say something about the candies themselves.

"MIRROR CHOCOLATES"

Are the product of the best selected cocoa beans and are made under the most skilled methods with the aid of the latest appliances obtainable.

"MIRROR HARD CANDIES"

are put up in round moisture-proof sealed boxes, thus overcoming the difficulty heretofore experienced in putting up these much desired candies in package form so that they would reach customers in good condition. The merit of

"THE MIRROR CANDIES"

IMPORTANT MILLINERY ANNOUNCEMENT.

"HATS TRIMMED FREE."

This week we will trim free of charge any hat you may select and the trimmings. This means much when you consider the fact that we have the largest and best selection of Untrimmed Hats and millinery trimmings in town, and at the same time our prices are most reasonable and you are assured of the most skilled workmanship. Be sure and take advantage of this excellent offer.

FOREIGN MOTORCYCLES MUST BE REGISTERED

(Special from Staff Correspondent.)

Trenton, May 1.—Motorcycles owned by residents of the State of New York do not come within the purview of the new automobile reciprocity law, and therefore must be registered in this State the same as before the new law was passed. This is the substance of an opinion just rendered to State Motor Vehicle Commissioner J. B. R. Smith, by Assistant Attorney General Gaskill. The decision sustains a ruling already made by Commissioner Smith.

The New York law does not provide for the registration of motorcycles and the issuing to their owners of a registration number for display and identification. The new reciprocity statute provides that motor vehicles to get the fifteen day free privileges in this State, must be duly registered in their State, and as motorcycles are not registered in New York, they cannot be given the free privilege in New Jersey.

THE WOMEN AT MARKET.

The fad for doing their own marketing which has started among some of the "swell" society ladies of New York is accompanied by entertaining incidents. The Tribune says stallkeepers in Washington Market have not yet gotten over the visit paid by a contingent of this sort. "They were nice, perfect ladies, all of them," one of the oldest marketmen in the building told a reporter, "but what some of them knew about marketing, or, rather, what they didn't know, was amazing. Why, one of the ladies, pretty as a picture, came to my stand and, pointing to a smoked ham, said: 'Please let me have two veal cutlets off this.' Another of them went to Jerry's stand over there and said: 'I want a sirloin steak from that lovely piece,' motioning to a neck of beef hanging on a hook. There was another here who wanted some spareribs from a hind quarter of lamb. Can you beat it?"

CHINESE INGENUITY.

"I hope our dear old Dr. Wu Ting Fang is on the right side in these Chinese troubles," said a diplomat at a dinner in Washington, according to the Star.

"Dr. Wu," he continued, "used to tell me many illuminating anecdotes about the Chinese character. I remember one about ingenuity.

"A Chinaman, the anecdote ran, found his wife lying dead on a field one morning. A tiger had killed her.

"The Chinaman went home, procured some arsenic and, returning to the field, sprinkled it over the corpse.

"The next day the tiger's dead body lay beside the woman's. The Chinaman sold the tiger's skin to a mandarin and its body to a physician to make fear-cure powders, and with the proceeds he was able to buy a younger wife."

THE HUMAN EQUATION.

"I don't see how it is," Jenkins began, eyeing the tramp and his performing dog with frank envy. "Here is this mongrel of yours doing all these tricks, and there is my dog with a pedigree a yard long that can't be taught a single thing! I've hammered at it until I'm tired, and he can't even be trusted to roll over when he's told to."

"Well, sir, 'tain't so much the dog," the tramp replied, confidentially. "You have to know more'n he does, or you can't learn him anything."—Youth's Companion.

Dickens' Humanness.

The best part of Charles Dickens, the great novelist, was the humanness of him, coming out in the tender pathos with which he streaked the funny side of life. Primarily a humorist, he was, like many another humorist, a humanist too. Dickens came out of that lower London life, one-third grotesque, one-third pitiful, one-third heroic, which he pictured in his writings. He had lived the struggles of Oliver Twist, of David Copperfield and of Philip in "Great Expectations." That was the reason why he was able to lay hold of people's hearts when he described those deathless persons.—New York Mail.

Tit For Tat.

Mrs. Jenkins was standing before the mirror arranging her thin hair when her baldheaded husband entered the room.

"Say, Emily," he began, "why don't you do your hair the way you used to?"

"Why don't you?" reported Mrs. Jenkins.—Lippincott's.

Unconsciousness.

"She's the most unconscious girl I ever saw."

"Well, why shouldn't she be? She's pretty and knows it. She's clever and knows it, and she's good and knows it. What has she to be conscious of?"—Exchange.

MODISH MATTERS.

Scalloped Collars For Coats and Frocks Are Smart.

Odd shaped collars with scalloped edges are much in favor. These are worn with the one piece dress or separate blouse.

A neat little morning hat with a helmet crown and curled brim made of sapphire blue straw has a couple of lime green feathers upon it and no other trimming at all—a curious combination of dyes, but quite pleasing.

Another model is of the beret shape, developed in a chip of a steel gray shade. On the drooping side of the crown is plastered a perfectly flat bunch of roses surrounded by leaves. The flowers look as if they had been pressed in a book.

Blazers or outing coats make very smart wraps for summer days. The blazer illustrated is exceedingly good style and is best when made of striped woolen material.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

CHOCOLATE PUDDINGS.

CHOCOLATE is nourishing. In the spring, when we need something special to repair the system, it should often be on the bill of fare. People who care for it no other way will take it in puddings.

Steamed Chocolate Pudding.—Take a third of a cup of butter, a cup and two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two eggs beaten until light. Mix these. Sift together a cup and a half of flour, half a teaspoonful of baking soda and a teaspoonful of cream tartar. Add these to the other mixture with three-quarters of a cup of milk, stirring the two alternately. Melt two ounces of chocolate and add to the pudding. Flavor with two teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Pour into a dish and steam for two hours. Serve with hard sauce.

Bread and Chocolate.

Chocolate Pudding with Crumbs.—Take a quarter of a pound of chocolate, half a pint of milk, an ounce of sugar, four eggs, six ounces of bread crumbs, half a teaspoonful of vanilla. Break up the chocolate and dissolve it in the milk over gentle heat. Melt the butter, add the breadcrumbs and moisten with the milk and chocolate. Stir until the batter does not stick to the sides of the pan. Then let it cool, and stir in first the yolks and then the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Pour into a buttered mold and steam for an hour and a half. Serve with chocolate sauce or cream.

An Attractive Dish.

Chocolate Mold.—Take a quart of fresh milk. Moisten with it four tablespoonfuls of cornstarch. Heat the remainder and stir the cornstarch into it; then return to the fire and boil for a quarter of an hour. Stir in three tablespoonfuls of sugar, two ounces of dissolved chocolate and a dash of vanilla essence. Take off the fire and add three well beaten eggs and a dash of caramel. Pour into a wetted mold and let it stand until cold. Pour custard round it when served.

Made With Gelatin.

Chocolate Dainty.—Beat the yolks of three eggs and two whole eggs in two ounces of powdered sugar. Add to them gradually one and a half pints of boiling milk and three ounces of chocolate which has been dissolved in a cup in the oven.

Put the mixture in a double saucepan over the fire and stir till the custard thickens; then add three-quarters of an ounce of gelatin which has previously been soaked in a little water and afterward dissolved.

Pass the custard through a strainer into a basin and let it cool and then add half a pint of whipped cream. Mix all together and pour at once into a mold. Put into a cool place and turn out carefully when wanted.

THE NEWEST STYLE.

Successor of the Famous Hobble Skirt.

DRESSY GOWN WITH PANNIER EFFECT.

All sorts of bewildering and astonishing comments have been made by the fashion makers about this style. Some of them say it reminds them of the pictures of the bodiced and panniered skirts worn in England in the days of Queen Elizabeth.

The pannier effect is conservatively treated in the smart gown illustrated, which is of smoke gray satin meteor. The back jabot that forms a shawl cape is very unique.

Summer Belongings of Net and Lace.

The simple summer frock of dimity or linen is made distinctive and out of the ordinary by handmade accessories of the type pictured here. The fichu with a net frill has a net bow at the front. This back view illustrates how the lace and frill are caught with a knot of the net at the back of the waist line. The collar and cuffs of all over val lace are finished with plaitings of point d'esprit.

COLLAR AND CUFF SET OF VAL LACE.

Styles in Shoes.

Judging from the shoes displayed at the spring openings, the Cuban or military heel is as popular as ever and will be worn on all occasions when it isn't discarded in favor of the Louis Quinze. The latter is little used for street wear, although it is considered the smartest model for every variety of evening slipper.

The short vamp and the medium round toe are out of fashion. The modish foot must be dressed in a manner to make it appear long, narrow and highly arched, and the woman whose feet are short and chubby must buy shoes a couple of sizes too long, stuff out the toes and wear some sort of arch supporter to increase the apparent height of the instep.

VOTES FOR WOMEN

WHY JERSEY WOMEN WANT THE VOTE.

Of course no one for a moment expected that the franchise test case brought before the courts recently by two Jersey women would be decided otherwise than it was. The test was merely a sign of the times; an effort on the part of two women willing to be factors in the problem that is working itself out the world over from Pekin to Plainfield.

The important point is not that the case wast lost but that it was brought. A beginning has been made in Jersey as elsewhere, and the local instance is only one of the many indications upon which Mrs. Blatch bases her prophecy that women will vote in all our states within the next fifteen years.

It is a short-sighted enthusiasm that expects the triumph of votes for women to bring the millenium in Jersey or anywhere else. But there are certain conditions that surely would be bettered.

Almost one-third of our State population consists of women and children who work in factories or business houses. There is no such thing as "equal pay for equal work" among the men and women employes or even among teachers, or in any of the other callings. For instance, a woman truant officer receives $600 a year, while a man in the same capacity is paid $900. This, regardless of the fact that as a rule, women are better at rounding up the delinquents and working real reform in the mental attitude of the lawless boys and girls.

There are nearly 70,000 working women in our State, and not one of them has the slightest right to any share in regulation of her working hours, the sanitary conditions under which she works or the dangers of injury and accident to which she may be exposed.

Wouldn't this be different if these Jersey working women could vote?

There are over 7,000 working children in Jersey. No educational test is required of a child in order to obtain his working certificate. The Compulsory Education Law states that a child must be above fifteen years of age and have completed a grammar school course—exceptions to be made in the cases of children of fourteen when it is proved that his employment is a necessity. But there is no compulsory appointment of truant officers or a yearly school census, hence the Compulsory Education Law, fine as it sounds, is a dead letter.

Boys and girls of sixteen are permitted to work all night in factories.

Boys and girls of fifteen can work all day in factories.

Boys and girls under sixteen can work fifty-eight hours a week in business houses, from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m.; one evening a week till 9, and during the ten days before Christmas till 10 o'clock.

There is no law at all regulating the employment of children in telegraph offices, restaurants, hotels, apartment houses; no law regulating the ages and hours for messenger and news boys.

It is the fathers of these working boys and girls who are responsible for the laws or lack of laws affecting their children's health and morals. Isn't it probable that if the mothers too had some voice in the matter these conditions would be improved?

Not long ago the writer attended a parish meeting where voting for church trustees was in order. Some of the young women who were eighteen years of age and church members came forward to deposit their ballots. But the president of the society, a lawyer, handed down the decision that in order for these young women to vote they must be of full legal age which in this case he interpreted to be twenty-one, and their votes were rejected.

A New Jersey girl cannot enter into honorable marriage (without the consent of parent or guardian) until she is eighteen.

She cannot legally make a will until she is twenty-one.

She cannot legally buy or sell property until she is twenty-one.

She cannot vote for a trustee of the church to which she belongs until she is twenty-one.

All these things require mature judgments. But she may legally consent to the bartering or throwing away of her most priceless possession at the early age of sixteen.

The New Jersey fathers have fixed these matters by law for their daughters. It would seem as if the much mooted "chivalry" of man—even the "chivalry" of father for daughter—were a negligible quantity just here.

Isn't it probable that if the mothers of these daughters helped make the laws there would be a different standard of values?

The New Jersey father having established these laws for his boys and girls, then goes a step further and makes himself sole guardian of his children. He has absolute power under law to separate the children from each other and from their mother if he chooses. Ten years ago such a state of things existed in Massachusetts, and one mother, frenzied by the father's repeated threats to take her children from her, killed them all—six in number, and then tried to take her own life. Then Massachusetts woke up to the fact that "a chain is no stronger than its weakest link" and a joint guardianship law was passed. But here in New Jersey the mother has no right over her children during the father's life-time.

Naturally enough if the mother had the opportunity she would secure for herself a share in the legal claim upon her own children.

Kate Douglass Wiggins tells of one overburdened farmer's wife who was interrupted in her endless round of drudgery to answer the question, "Do you want to vote?" "Land, no!" replied the woman. "I say if there's one little thing the men can do alone, let them do it."

But evidently the making of laws that shall conserve and protect their sons and daughters is not one of the things that the men in Jersey can do alone. And this is why the women in Jersey, the wisest and the busiest of them, are asking the privilege of helping to frame our State laws.

NEW ARMORY OPENED.

Elizabeth, May 1.—The new armory for the National Guard in this city was formally opened for public inspection yesterday afternoon. It was kept open until 10 o'clock at night. The State Armory Board also inspected the building yesterday. To-day there will be a reception for State military officials, followed by a luncheon at the clubhouse of the Elizabeth Lodge of Elks, given by General Dennis F. Collins, commander of the Second Brigade. In the evening a dress parade and review of the Second Regiment will take place in front of the armory. The celebration will conclude Thursday night with a banquet at the armory, where covers will be laid for 500 persons. The new building is located on Walnut street.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL

opinion on the subject of garbage disposal. There were 423 replies, 400 in favor and 23 against the proposition. He said that very favorable bids were received for doing this work and they are probably on file in the office of the Board of Health.

Mr. Thurlow said that garbage was an excellent means of breeding flies, and flies are recognized as a common carrier of diseases, especially typhoid fever and tuberculosis. He said that under the present system it was up to the people to bargain with garbage collectors and the arrangements were not always satisfactory. He said that in many cases the poor cannot afford to have garbage collected, some people bury it in their yards, while others throw it "over the fence." Collectors, as a rule do as they please, the city is their field and there is no rule to compel them to do certain things.

It was Mr. Thurlow's opinion that the average cost per house per year for collecting garbage is between $12 and $15, and if some approved system was adopted it would be much less. He quoted from former reports of the Board of Health. It was his belief that an equipment suitable for collecting garbage could be secured for about $7,000 and that it would cost about $12,000 a year to maintain the system. That, of course, would not include the cost of disposal.

Mr. Thurlow admitted that the question of disposal is a serious one, citing some of the best known methods, such as burying on land or sea, feeding to hogs, the reduction or crematory system. He did not believe that a reduction system could be operated here profitably. He said that there are today but few cities in the United States where the reduction system is operated successfully, one being at New Bedford, Mass., where sufficient grease is obtained from garbage to sell it to a soap manufacturer at a profit.

Owing to the size and geographical situation of Plainfield, Mr. Thurlow thought it would be hard to locate a disposal plant here. He said that when he was health officer a Newark concern offered to take the local garbage, provided it was deposited at a central point, but this was impossible at the time as no arrangements could be made to get it out of the city by trolley or otherwise. Now he understands there is a law which permits trolley companies to transport garbage in this way.

As for ashes, Mr. Thurlow thought they could be used to good advantage for filling in about the lowlands of the city, and at the same time be a means of helping to rid the city of mosquitoes.

Councilman W. W. Wilson said that about a year ago an outside man proposed building a disposal plant and made overtures toward getting the garbage from this city. Figures were quoted showing what it costs other towns to get rid of garbage.

Former Councilman George H. Frost agreed with Mr. Thurlow as to the fact that it would be impracticable to build a reduction plant here, adding that the cost of cartage was a great item to be reckoned with. He said that in England the towns and cities are more closely built up, making cartage inexpensive, while in Plainfield the houses are so far apart that it would take much longer to make collections. He gave it as his opinion that it would be a good idea to divide the city into districts, have strict rules for the collection of garbage and feed it to hogs. He thought that the city engineering department the proper one to handle the matter.

Charles H. Hand also favored the plan suggested by Mr. Frost, stating that he was opposed to building a disposal plant here at a great expense to the city. He especially favored dividing the city into districts, believing that this plan should also be followed in the matter of street work. Under the present system he said that the city employes spend half their time riding from one point in the city to another on trolley cars.

Health Officer O'Brien in answer to a question said that one-seventh of the complaints received by the health department last year were about the garbage collection system. He said that there are now thirty-two garbage disposal wagons operating in the city.

At this point the conference which had been rather tame, was enlivened by some terse remarks by Charles H. Hand, prompted by the remark of Councilman Clay that he would suggest that an expert be employed to work out some satisfactory system for the collection and disposal of garbage.

"We don't need any more experts," said Mr. Hand. "We have employed experts to solve the water problem, experts to solve the sewer question and now it is proposed to get an expert to tell us how to collect ashes. That is about the limit. I want to tell you that this town is hit pretty hard and we don't want to do anything that is going to drive people from here.

"I find that the men who own no property and pay practically nothing in taxes are anxious to saddle expense on the city, and I for one am getting tired of it all. If this practice of hiring experts don't stop the taxpayers will take steps to stop it. The trouble is this town is too narrow."

Directing his attention to Councilman F. E. Mygatt, Mr. Hand said that if that member of the Council was a candidate at the next election he would see that he had some opposition. "If I had known as much before the last election as I did afterward," said Mr. Hand, "you would have had more of fright than you did." Mr. Hand was speaking directly to Mr. Mygatt.

These remarks led S. H. Voorhees, of the Board of Health, to say that the councilmen give their services to the city for nothing and it is a thankless job. Instead of being condemned, the thought they should be supported.

Councilman Patrick J. Reville said that although he regretted to say so, it was a fact that councilmen do not always serve the best interest of the taxpayers and the city. In answer to a question by Councilman D. W. Taylor, Mr. Reville said he favored making a contract for the collection and disposal of garbage, and would oppose the hiring of any more experts.

Replying to Mr. Hand's statements, Councilman Clay said that his complaint was always that of the propertyowner. "Yes," said Mr. Hand, "but I notice that it is the man who don't own property that wants everything."

"Well, I pay some tax in this city," replied Mr. Clay, "and I am willing to pay more."

"You sold your property on Sixth street, didn't you?"

"Yes," said Mr. Clay. "I thought so," replied Mr. Hand. "You were wise and wanted to get from under."

Mr. Hand repeatedly during the evening called attention to the fact that there were approximately 400 empty houses in the city, adding that it is almost impossible to get people to come here to live.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

May the first, and a good start.

"In the midst of peace prepare for war," some corn-fed weather prophet comes along, after our "moist" spring and predicts a dry summer.

That prophet must be a fan who has been famishing for want of a game.

He has practically finished his advertising campaign of driving his auto a little too fast for the cops in various cities and finishing dramatically with a smash-up.

Kindly notice that the afore-mentioned smash-up had no physical ill effects.

Hank O'Day's opinions are sought by the different umpires, so certain managers say. Thus he has an advantage over others.

Gandil, of the Montreal Club, has been fined for smoking one cigarette. Managers are beginning to impress upon their players the value of strict playing.

The double headers have been piling up thick and fast during our moist weather. So far this week in the National League there have been but two games played, and in the American but five. There should have been twelve in each league.

Detroit and New York fighting it out for the cellar position almost makes one feel as though they were reading the team positions upside down.

Perdue, the new Boston planet, has started in four games so far this season and has won them all.

The golf season opens wide next Saturday on local links. That is if—

We have learned to put in that IF this spring.

Lawrence Beatty, Columbia University shot putter, who has been slated to win the intercollegiate, has pulled a tendon and has been compelled to stop training.

Beatty is an old Leal's School and Y. M. C. A. athlete and was a wonder with the leaden ball.

In the game at U. of P. last Saturday a number of runners proved themselves good waders. The track was mud and water during the greater part of the meet.

All three local scholastic teams have games scheduled for today.

The managers of the Boston Red Sox have issued a statement to the effect that so far this season the club has lost over $35,000.

They mean that they lost the thirty-five they had hoped to get.

Games for today—P. H. S. vs. Roselle H. S. on Parker Field, N. P. H. S. vs. Somerville H. S. on Hyde Field, and Leal's vs. Wilson M. A. at Finderne.

The United States League opens its season today. There are many who will not believe it until they see the scores.

The American League teams had a little better luck dodging the moistures during the past three days.

DOC WHITE EXPLAINS LEFT HANDERS' SUCCESS

Doc White, the left-hand pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, has a convincing answer for the everlasting question, "Why can't a left-hand batter successfully hit a southpaw twirler?"

White's answer to the query was: "It's the simplest thing in the world. The majority of pitchers in the big leagues are right handed, are they not? When you were a kid and played lots, the majority of pitchers then were right handed, were they not?

"Admitting that, isn't it reasonable to assume that a ball player from his earliest days to the time he gets into the big leagues hits against right-handed pitchers twice as often as he does against southpaws.

"Well, that's the answer and that's all there is to it.

"If the big leagues should decide to carry half a dozen left-handed pitchers and only one or two right handers, you would find in the course of a very short time all these fellows who cannot hit lefthanded pitchers would soon be able to solve the portside shoots.

"Take Ty Cobb, for instance," says White. "I used to like to pitch against him when he first broke into the American League. He was the easiest kind of a proposition for me. But now, well, I can't fool him any more, and no other left-hander can: I don't care who he is.

"It is claimed that Vean Gregg, the Cleveland southpaw, was the only man who could serve up something Ty couldn't hit last season. This may be true, but you can gamble that if Gregg stays in the American League very long Cobb will be able to get him."

UMPIRE SLID TO BASE ON ALL CLOSE PLAYS

This is the season of the festive baseball yarn. He who knows not at least one is banished forever from the society of his fellows. The tall reverted to umpires recently, and Jimmie Stephens recalled how Jack Mullen, the father of four children used to gallop back beside the catcher as that worthy pursued the elusive foul fly to the vicinity of the grandstand. Jack has since become a member of the International League staff, but his hotfoot was one of the very best things he did.

"Over in Pennsylvania when I first started playing baseball," ventured Bobby Wallace, "there was an umpire named McNeary. He had a specialty that I never have seen equaled.

"I remember the first day he worked a game in which I took part as well as if it were yesterday. They had only one arbitrator in those days. By good fortune I broke off a long hit to the outfield. As I set sail for first base I heard a noise behind. As I rounded first I got a glimpse of McNeary. He was right behind.

"Well, the play at second was close. The coacher yelled 'Slide!' and I did. When I got up there was the umpire brushing off his clothes. They told me afterward he hit the ground when I did, going in head first. Mac always did that on the close ones. I never saw it equaled. Of course, that was the minor league, but it was a rich one, just the same."

SOME MORE DOPE ON JACK MARTIN'S NEW JOB

Mark Roth, the well-known sporting writer, of the New York Globe, thinks that Jack Martin has in him the makings of a good ball player. Roth has sized up the former Plainfield boy ever since he joined the Yankee Club. In the Globe of Saturday Roth had this to say about Martin: "Wolverton is going to give Fisher a chance to work while Street is out of the game. Jack Martin, who was recently purchased from the Rochester club, is setting a pace right now that makes him a prominent member of the New York club. There seems to be a great deal of doubt as to whether he will be able to hit well enough to land him a job in the big league. But there is one thing certain, and that is he has the fielding end of the game down to perfection. He has the arm and all the nerve which is needed to carry a big league player through the big organization.

"Martin gave an illustration of his nerve yesterday. The crowd here knew that he was a new man and of course it delighted in trying to 'get his goat.' Martin booted McBride's grounder in the 7th inning and the fans in the bleachers got after him but he only laughed. Williams then came to the bat for Washington and rammed a line drive toward second base, which looked like a base hit. Martin skipped over that way and nailed the ball with one hand. He then threw to Chase and doubled McBride off first. Martin did a hop, skip and jump around short and walked toward the bleachers and made faces at the crowd. He has the nerve."

Y. M. C. A. WILL BEGIN RUN SEASON SATURDAY

Open to Members Only and Good List of Prizes is Offered.

The series of five matinee running races to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will start off with the first one Saturday afternoon. The others will follow at weekly intervals. These races will be open to Y. M. C. A. members only and will be run over the cinder path at Parker Field, providing permission can be obtained from the management of any baseball team that may have the use of the field. If this consent cannot be obtained the races will be run over the regular Y. M. C. A. course, the one over which the Elizabeth-Plainfield race was run some time ago.

There will be a first prize awarded to the winner of each race although no one person will be allowed to receive two first prizes. Should he be the winner twice the second man to finish will receive first prize for the second race. His winning this race, however, will count for him in his competition for the score prize. This prize will be awarded to the competitor who wins the greatest number of points, these to be governed by the position of the competitor in finishing. There will also be another special prize for the best time made by any entry.

These races are sure to attract a great deal of attention for the one race run earlier in the season drew a good crowd and caused much favorable comment. Remember the dates, starting next Saturday, May 4, a race will be run each week, May 11, 18, 25 and June 1, until five have been run.

EXECUTIVE REFUSES TO STOP SUNDAY BASEBALL

Perth Amboy, May 1.—Asked to issue orders to prevent Sunday baseball, Acting Mayor Fred Garretson Monday positively refused to do so unless it can be shown that in playing ball the teams infringe upon the rights of other people to observe Sunday as they wish. On several diamonds Sunday games were played this week between local nines of amateurs. In the protest made to the Mayor it was aleged that the law was being violated. It did not come from anyone personally annoyed or injured by the games.

Mayor Garretson accompanied his refusal with a suggestion that he also had violated the Sunday law by taking an automobile trip with his family to Newark. He said:

"I do not want to go out in my automobile on Sunday and condemn the boy who cannot enjoy the day in the same manner to stay at home all day with his thumb in his mouth."

The Mayor said that he will stop any game played where it clearly annoys residents of the city or is accompanied by any form of disorder.

EDDIE RYAN COACHING LEAVENWORTH'S PRISONERS

Eddie Ryan, former Detroit High School coach, who is spending a visit of a year and a day in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for misuse of the mails, is still able to ply his trade as an athletic coach, even though the government authorities restrict the limits of his work.

Baseball is the one sport of the prisoners. There are two teams, one made up of the whites and another of the colored prisoners. Ryan is coach of the whites, and is putting them through a regular course of training to win the prison championship.

S. S. LEAGUE MEETING.

The prepresentatives of the different teams that are to make up the Sunday-school League this summer held a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. parlors last night. The object of the meeting was to complete arrangements for the opening of the league, including the adoption of a schedule and appointment of umpires. A constitution was also adopted.

TEMPLE A. C. TO MEET.

The Temple A. C. will hold a meeting tomorrow night in the church parlors. Saturday afternoon the postponed game with the Netherwood A. C. will be played on the Netherwood grounds. Manager Simon will try out his new battery, Coombs and Bowe.

THOUGHT LAW A JOKE; LOSE SALOON LICENSES

Hoboken, May 1.—Because Saloon keepers regarded an ordinance prohibiting women from serving liquors and congregating in saloons as a joke the licenses of two sellers of liquor were revoked by the Exice Board Monday night.

The action of the board was the first of its kind in the history of the city. The saloonkeepers who lost their licenses were Herman Hoyer, of 325 Washington street, and Adolph Castin, of 41 Third street. They had been convicted under the ordinance by Recorder McGovern. A third man who had been convicted succeeded in saving his license.

A letter from Mayor Cook, asking the board to help the police clean up the city, preceded action on the licenses.

OLD GUTTENBERG TRACK SOLD TO A SYNDICATE

Guttenberg, May 1.—The old Guttenberg race track of about seventy-one acres has been sold by the Colonial Land Company to a syndicate composed of Samuel E. Renner, a Weehawken real estate promoter; Richard Stevens, Archibald A. Alexander and J. W. Rufus Besson, of Hobcken. The property will be cut up into building lots. It is reported that the price paid was $260,000.

The old track which was famous in its day, was owned by what was called the "Big Four," made up of Dennis McLaughlin, John Carr, Fred Walbaum and "Nick" Crusius. It was a money-making proposition until the anti-gambling law was passed by the Legislature. During recent years it had been used for motor cycle races.

PERTH AMBOY'S FOURTH PLANS.

Perth Amboy, May 1.—Organized Monday night to arrange for a "safe and sane" celebration of the Fourth of July, a committee, headed by Acting Mayor Fred Garretson, Monday night decided to ask Wu Ting Fang to deliver the oration of the day. An effort will be made to ascertain whether he will be in this country at the time. The proposition came from George S. Walker, a member of the executive committee. The committee will not attempt to hold a parade this year and the plan of providing lunch for all the children of the city at the expense of the committee will probably be abandoned after a trial of two years. It is proposed to have two band concerts in different parts of the city, prizes will be offered for yacht and motorboat races, and a baseball game for the local championship will be played. It is also planned to have two firework displays, one on the waters of Staten Island Sound, and the other in the western part of the city.

SUSSEX PRISONERS PLEAD.

Newton, May 1.—Linford Howell, of Hampton township, Monday entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Lewis J. Martin to an indictment charging petit larceny. He was held for trial the week of May 13. Howell was charged with stealing traps from Jackson Hendershott. George Martin entered a plea of non vult to a charge of wife desertion. The court suspended sentence. Abram Seager, of Vernon, who escaped from jail, changed his plea of not guilty to guilty. He was remanded for sentence. Charles J. Crawn, of Newton, pleaded non vult to an indictment for deserting his wife. He was remanded for sentence.

BIBLE SCHOOL DAY.

Bible School Day will be observed at the First Baptist church on Sunday. In the morning the school will occupy seats in the gallery, and will have a part in the service. The chorus choir of the church will render a special program of anthems, and Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, the pastor, will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. In the afternoon George E. Hall, of the Park Avenue Baptist Bible school, will make an address.

CAP MILL EXPLOSION COSTS LIVES OF TWO

Paterson, May 1.—Louis Benton, of Bloomingdale, the second victim of the explosion Monday at the Dupont Powder Works, Haskell, died Monday night at St. Joseph's Hospital here. From the beginning his condition was hopeless. The explosion was in the cap mill. The first victim, Victor Doty, was instantly killed. Doty was carrying detonating caps from one part of the mill to another when the tray of caps he had in his hands exploded.

Benton was working but a short distance away. His body was terribly mangled.

Four other men at the plant were bruised by the explosion, but they were not seriously injured. They are Claude Nutt, John Radcliffe, Albert Cunningham and Segle Anderson.

As the result of the explosion one building, 120 by 30 feet, was demolished, and part of a second building partially wrecked.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY GRADUATES TWENTY-SIX

A class of twenty-six participated in the graduating exercises of the New Jersey College of Pharmacy, at Wallace Hall, Newark, Monday night. The program included an address by former Congressman R. Wayne Parker, valedictory and historical addresses, a prayer by Rev. Andrew S. Zimmerman, selections by an orchestra, songs by Howard V. Pascal and the awarding of diplomas. The diplomas were awarded by William O Kuebler, president of the college.

Miss Jeanette Mintz, of Bayonne, was valedictorian, while the historian was John W. Hankinson, of Newton. Prizes were awarded as follows: Trustees' prize, Oscar Fraller; chemistry, A. V. Palumba; pharmacy, M. J. Weiss; materia medica, Mr. Fraller; pharmacognosy, Mr Fraller; analytical chemistry, Frank Millrgan; senior alumni, Mr. Weiss; junior alumni, Joseph Stummer.

HURT IN ROAD MISHAP.

Bernardsville, May 1.—Tossed to his horse's back when an automobile struck his rig late Monday night, John J. Foley, school district clerk, fell to the road, sustaining many bruises. His nose and forehead were cut. John A. Whitenack, another member of the Board of Education, who was with Mr. Foley, was thrown out, but was unhurt. The accident occurred near the Basking Ridge station following a meeting of the school board. Dr. Fred C. Jones, of Basking Ridge, with his chauffeur occupied the car. The buggy was demolished and the horse ran away. Dr. Jones, after dressing the bruises, took the men home. There was no light on the buggy.

The monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon, when the membership contest will be decided. The winning side will be entertained later at a reception to be given by the losing side.

BANKS BALK AT PUJO PLAN.

Contend That Statements Demanded Can Only Be "Requested."

Washington, May 1.—Representatives of Washington banks are called to meet next Friday to define their position with reference to answering the circular letter sent out by the house committee on banking and currency under the Pujo resolution for investigation of the so called "money trust."

The heads of the local banks seem to resent some of the questions as being too inquisitorial. It is their contention that the comptroller of the currency can only "request" this data from the banks.

BRINGING BODIES OF TITANIC DEAD HOME

Colonel Astor's and Other Remains Started From Halifax.

Halifax, May 1.—A number of bodies of the identified Titanic dead recovered by the cable ship Mackay-Bennett and brought to port here were started for the United States after friends had taken charge of them and undertakers had prepared them for burial.

The bodies of nine were taken from the Snow undertaking rooms and forwarded by rail to New York. They were those of M. C. Long of Worcester, Mass.; F. D. Millett of Washington, E. C. Ostby, Isidor Straus, Colonel John Jacob Astor, C. Rosenshine of New York, D. Douglas of Minneapolis, W. Vanderhoef of New York and E. C. Crosby. The body of E. C. Allison of Montreal was forwarded to that city. The body of Colonel Astor was taken on the Astor special cars, in charge of Vincent Astor, the colonel's son.

The mystery of G. D. Widener's body was cleared up. Captain Lardner of the Mackay-Bennett said they had found a body with the skull badly crushed and showing signs that it would not long resist decomposition. They were not able to identify it. They removed the clothing, numbered it, after which the body was consigned to the sea with a lot of others which it was decided could not be retained. Afterward they found his name on some of the clothing. A further examination of the clothing led Captain Lardner to doubt that it was Widener's body after all. Continued examination revealed the name E. K., which they concluded was E. Keating, valet for Mr. Widener. These facts were placed before the son, who has been in Halifax. He was shown the personal effects and at once said they were not those of his father, whose body therefore had never been found.

POWERS FRIENDLY AGAIN.

Asquith Says Understanding Has Been Reached by England With Germany.

London, May 1.—Replying to a question in the house of commons Premier Asquith said the relations between England and Germany were such as to enable him to discuss in the frankest and friendliest way matters of mutual interest. The prime minister added:

"If that is what is meant by an amicable understanding it has already been achieved, and I believe it will be continued."

QUICK ACQUITTAL IN BRIBERY CASE

Five Minutes Required to Reach Verdict.

SINGLE WITNESS CONFUSED

Defense Overwhelms Prosecution and Case Falls Flat—First Acquittal Since Election Bribery Prosecutions Were Started at Mays Landing.

Mays Landing, N. J., May 1.—It took the jury in the election case tried before Justice Samuel Kalisch on an indictment found by the ellsor drawn grand jury against City Clerk James E. Scull and Charles E. S. Steelman of Somers Point City for alleged bribery of a bay man, Walter Johnson, only five minutes to find a verdict of not guilty, the first verdict of acquittal that has been returned since the proceedings started. The bare story of Johnson, with its attendant discrepancies, was overwhelmed by the open denials of both defendants, the circumstances shown to exist at the time, a host of good character witnesses and the official election records, which showed that such a ballot as Johnson said he voted was never cast.

Whether or not any of the other numerous indictments against Steelman and Scull will be moved is not known, the state not having made any announcements. Justice Kalisch is expected to sit here today to decide what cases will be tried next, as there are a number yet on the court calendar.

It was one of the most interesting cases yet tried, and all the legal machinery of the state was directed against the defendants to secure a conviction.

Walter Johnson, the state's chief and only witness, whose alleged confession of bribe taking cannot be used against him under the laws of Jersey, went to the witness chair amid covert jeers and hisses on the part of many Somers Point residents, who attended the trial in large numbers, and responded to the oath with a loud "I will," looking defiantly around the courtroom. He said on election day Steelman approached him and said if he would come over and vote with "the boys" he would get $5. Later he met Scull, he said, who passed him a ticket with a five dollar note. He told them he would vote their way.

"Didn't you know it was wrong to take the money for your vote?"

"Yes," answered the bay man, "but I'm a poor man, judge, and at that time I was hard up, and the $5 looked good to me."

"Didn't it strike you strange that they should pay that much for votes when there was no contest?" he was asked.

"Well, they said they did it to keep the boys in line."

On cross examination Johnson became considerably confused and was forced to admit that he was "sore" on the organization because he "had been dumped" off the election board.

Snakes Are Great Fasters.

Snakes, though at times they gorge themselves, are great fasters. In the French museum an anaconda twenty feet long was a very small feeder, though he gained in weight. Taken there in 1885, he had only thirty-four meals during the next five years, consisting of a small goat or a few rabbits. The interval between these meals varied from 23 to 204 days. He would not touch food unless he was in real need of it, and it was only by watching and noticing when he seemed to be uneasy that his keepers could conclude that he was hungry. During the long fast, which was in 1886, many strenuous efforts were made to tempt or force him to eat without the least success.

Meridians Run Due North and South.

A man "following the absolute line of the tenth meridian east from the north to the south pole" would travel due south and never southeast or southwest so long as he remained on the meridian upon which he started. If on the tenth meridian east, for instance, his angular distance from the meridian of Greenwich does not change. He is always 10 degrees east of that meridian from one pole to the other. He could only travel southeast or southwest by departing from that meridian on one side or the other.—New York American.

Perturbation.

"Don't you want to leave any footprints in the sands of time?"

"I don't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "There's so much sleuthing going on that a man gets shy of a thumb print, a footprint and even of leave to print."—Washington Star.

Her Hope.

Josie—I was taken for twenty-five today, and I am only eighteen, Julia—What will you be taken for when you are twenty-five? Josie—For better or worse, I hope.

The Test.

He—If I should propose to you what would be the outcome? She—That would depend largely upon the income.—Judge.

HOUSE WILLED TO EMPLOYE.

New Brunswick, May 1.—Among the bequests of Charles Whitehead, the brick manufacturer, who died at South River April 18, is that of a house to James Robinson, Sr., described as "a faithful employe of mine for many years." The house is in Herman street, South River. The will was probated Monday. Samuel R. Whitehead, a son, is left property in Ferry street, and Mrs. Isabella Whitehead, daughter-in-law, property in Main street, South River. The remainder of the estate is to be divided equally among the three children—the son named, Edward Whitehead and Mrs. Lavinia Gordon. A caveat has been filed against the will of Jane Hagerty, of Roosevelt, who died April 5. Mrs. Sarah E. Archer has been made administratrix of the estate of her husband, James B. Archer, formerly Mayor of Highland Park, who died at Atlantic City March 8. The personal estate is valued at $10,000.

OLD GLORY

The Plainfield Daily Press has been able to secure a limited number of Old Glory. These will be given to subscribers of the paper for what they cost us, and as we have bought a limited number at a ridiculously low price you get the benefit.

They are not cheap print flags, whose colors will run when wet, but have been guaranteed absolutely fast colors, sewed stripes, cotton bunting, all made of the best materials. They cannot be duplicated when the supply is exhausted for double the price. They last a life time.

On Memorial Day, on the Fourth of July and on every day when there is a patriotic celebration, your neighbor will display Old Glory. But how about you?

Fill out the blank order below and send to the Plainfield Daily Press, or address a postal to us and we will have a representative call. The flag will be furnished to both old and new subscribers, as follows:

3 ft. by 5 ft.—10 weeks subscription and 60c.
4 ft. by 6 ft—10 weeks subscription and 75c.
5 ft. by 8 ft.—10 weeks subscription and 98c.

If desired, a pole, 8 feet long and seven-eights of an inch thick, with ball, ropes and fastener for the window will be furnished at 25 cents extra.

Remember that we only have a limited number of these flags, so order early.

If you are taking the paper through a newsdealer now, it makes no difference for it will continue to be delivered through him if you so desire. Fill in the coupon below.

ANOTHER SERIOUS FLOOD THREATENS

Heavy Rains In Mississippi Valley.

LEVEES BREAKING AGAIN.

Situation Critical at Memphis and Other Points Along the River—Refugees In Urgent Need of Supplies—Cairo Again Endangered.

Washington, May 1.—Following heavy rains in the valleys of the rivers tributary to the Mississippi and the consequent sudden rise of these streams the Mississippi country is again confronted with prospects of a severe flood of farreaching damage, as serious in aspect as the recent record breaking high water which was so disastrous.

Army officers who are stationed all along the Mississippi from East St. Louis to New Orleans and for some distance up some of the tributaries reported to the war department that renewed damage is already developing in some of the levees, and further destruction of property throughout the valleys is threatened. Approximately $300,000 has been expended up to date in feeding the refugees.

The heavy rains in the Ohio, Missouri, and upper Mississippi valleys during the last week has brought the water back to high stage at Hickman, Mo.; Memphis and Helena, Ark., and rises are reported all the way down to the gulf. The people are returning to New Madrid, Mo., and Tiptonville, Tenn., seeking shelter, and the levee at Charleston, Mo., has broken again.

The situation is reported from Memphis as critical, and there is urgent need of supplies in Memphis and adjacent territory.

The tug Nakomis is on the way to the vicinity of Baton Rouge with rations, forage, barges, small boats, etc., for the rescue of people and animals that are cut off.

Reports received at the war department from the engineer officers in the Memphis district stated that the stage at Cairo was 45.5 feet, with a rise in the Ohio, Cumberland, Kentucky and Tennessee rivers and the Mississippi above as well as below Cairo. This will make the entire situation perhaps as bad as it was at its height ten days to two weeks ago, when all previous high water records were broken at many points along the Mississippi river. New breaks in the levees north of Birdspoint were reported.

TITANIC INQUIRY IS PRACTICALLY ENDED

Ismay Excused; Committee Adjourns Till Friday.

Washington, May 1.—In deference to the wishes of his colleagues on the senate subcommittee investigating the circumstances of the Titanic disaster, William Alden Smith, chairman, announced the adjournment of the hearings until 10 o'clock Friday morning. The senator said that he would go to New York to investigate the statement made before the committee that the White Star line had authoritative news of the sinking of the Titanic by 8 o'clock Monday morning, nearly twelve hours before they announced the loss of the liner.

Edward J. Dunn, a wall paper importer of Beechhurst, N. Y., testified that he had information that such a message was handled by the Western Union Telegraph company early Monday morning. Dunn refused to divulge the name of his informant. Effort was made by Senator Smith to obtain the alleged message from the Western Union Telegraph company, but was met by the statement that the messages delivered to the White Star line that Monday morning had been lost.

It is generally accepted here that the investigation practically is at an end. The committee may proceed to New York in a few days to clear up a few minor questions.

Paint that Stays Painted
That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

ELIZABETH WILL VOTE ON NEW RULE MAY 14

Elizabeth, May 1.—The election in this city to decide whether the municipality will have a commission form of government will be held May 14. The petition bearing the required number of signatures was filed Monday with City Clerk Kenah.

The petition contains 2,500 names, or 300 more than is required by the Walsh act.

DIED ON PIER BIDDING GOOD-BY TO HER NIECE

Hoboken, May 1.—Mrs. Lena Kiel, of 327 West Eighth street, New York, dropped dead yesterday morning on one of the North German Lloyd piers, in this city, while she and her daughter, Mrs. Schieffer, were hurrying to bid her niece, who was sailing on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II., good by.

At first it was thought she had only fainted, and she was carried to the baggage-room. When Dr. Harman, of St. Mary's Hospital, reached her side, he said she had died instantly.

Mrs. Schieffer, when told of the death of her mother, had to have the services of the physician.

Heart trouble brought on by hurry and excitement, was given as the cause of her death.

TALK ON "DARKEST AFRICA."

Rev. Gabriel Reed Maguire has arranged to give his lecture, "Darkest Africa," in the Park Avenue Baptist church Friday night. It will be the first time it has been heard in Plainfield and will undoubtedly attract a large audience. A large number of excellent stereopticon views, many of them copyrighted by Mr. Maguire, will be shown.

The lecture will touch upon African places hitherto unmentioned in addresses of this kind. Mr. Maguire will tell of the Congo atrocities, the four classes of people who go to the "dark continent," the government officials, traders, hunters and missionaries, and also of the great chief, Mukimadudu. The views have been declared by Underwood & Underwood to be among the finest in the country.

MRS. D. J. YERKES HAS PASSED AWAY

Heart Trouble Proves Fatal to Much Beloved Widow of Clergyman.

IN EIGHTY-SIXTH YEAR

Had Resided Here for Fifty-nine Years and Was the Mother of Eleven Children, Six of Whom Survive.

Mrs. Sarah E. Yerkes, widow of Rev. Dr. David J. Yerkes, died at 10:30 o'clock this morning at her home on Grove street. Her death was due to heart trouble with which she had been afflicted for a number of years. Despite this fact it was only about three weeks ago that her condition became serious. Prior to that time she frequently attended the church of which her husband was the honored pastor for nearly a half century, and up to that time she showed an active interest in all departments of church work.

Mrs. Yerkes was a woman of rare character and exemplary Christian qualities, and during her long residence in Plainfield had endeared herself in the hearts of all who knew her. Especially in the church was she beloved and it was always her greatest desire to be a co-worker in the various departments. For many years she was the president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the church, and only relinquished that office with the infirmities of advancing years. Throughout the pastorate of Dr. Yerkes, Mrs. Yerkes was a great help in making his ministry a successful one.

Mrs. Yerkes was 85 years old last Thanksgiving Day. Her maiden name was Miss Sarah E. Taylor and she was born at Saratoga, N. Y. It was while a student at Columbia College, Washington, that Dr. Yerkes met his future wife and a year after he accepted his first pastorate at Hollidaysburg, Pa., the couple was married. Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes came to Plainfield in 1863 and lived here until their death. Dr. Yerkes died on March 11, 1905. Mrs. Yerkes was of Welsh descent. Eleven children in all were born to the couple, of which there are five daughters and one son surviving.

The daughters are Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Mrs. Walter M. McGee and Miss Ida Yerkes, of North Plainfield; Mrs. George E. Webb, of San Angelo, Texas, and Mrs. H. Worthington Paige, of Oneonta, N. The son is Joseph B. Yerkes, of this city. There is also one sister surviving, Mrs. Susan Wilson, of North Plainfield.

Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on March 15, 1900, at which time the members of the First Baptist church gave them a large reception at the church. While the exact time for the funeral service has not been fixed, it has been decided to hold it at the First Baptist church. Announcement of this will be made later.

WOMAN MISSIONARY TELLS OF HER WORK IN CHINA

Miss Stella Relyea, one of the foremost missionaries in the Baptist denomination on the foreign field, having spent fourteen years in China, addressed an audience of about 200 people at the First Baptist church last night. Her talk was very instructive, being chiefly reminiscent and a review of her work during the past fourteen years. Her station is at Kinhwa, and she will return there during the coming summer.

Miss Relyea is particularly interested in a Bible-school for Chinese women which has been established and her return home was chiefly for the purpose of enlisting support and interest in that school. After the meeting those present were given an opportunity to meet Miss Relyea and learn more of her work.

CHOIR ENTERTAINMENT.

Under the auspices of the choir of Grace M. E. church an entertainment will be given at the church tomorrow night. The program will comprise music, tableaux and illustrated songs. The scenes will be shown by the aid of calcium lights. The choir will be assisted by an orchestra. Ice cream and home-made cake will be served at a nominal price. The proceeds of the affair will go toward the current expenses of the choir, which has always been self-supporting.

UNDERWENT OPERATION.

Harold Marsh, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Marsh, of Maple avenue, underwent a severe operation for spinal trouble in a New York hospital, this morning. It was performed by Dr. Russell Hibbs, who at noon stated the boy was resting comfortably. Dr. Hibbs is one of the best known specialists in the metropolis.

PRICES OF MEAT HERE HIGHEST IN THIRTY YEARS

Beef, Lamb Chops, Legs of Mutton, Steaks and Ham are Luxuries--Explanations Given For Extraordinary Retail Prices.

The wholesale and retail prices of meat are higher in Plainfield at present than they have been for thirty years, according to one of the prominent butchers, and what is more discouraging they are going to be higher next week. This retailer in discussing the matter today, claimed that the reason for the prices is due entirely to the advance in the price of grain, adding that oats are now selling for $1.90 against $1.10 a year ago.

Another reason assigned by the butcher in question is that the people now want the best cuts of beef, not being satisfied with some of the cheaper cuts; also that the constantly increasing population makes a corresponding increase in demand for meat which cannot be met by the present supply.

The wholesale prices as charged the retail butchers by the beef companies are as follows:

Straight cattle, 13 cents, an increase of three cents; hinds and ribs, 16 cents, an increase of four cents; loins and ribs, 18 cents, an increase of four cents; short loins and ribs, 20 cents, an increase of four cents; whole lambs, 19 to 20 cents, an increase of six cents; saddle lamb, 23 cents, an increase of six cents; backs of lamb, 25 cents, an increase of eight cents.

The former and present retail prices are as follows:

First cut of beef, from 25 to 30 cents; other cuts, from 16 and 23 cents to 20 and 28 cents; lamb chops and loins, from 28 and 30 to 35 cents; leg of lamb, 22 and 25 cents to 28 cents; porterhouse steak, from 30 to 35 cents; sirloin steak, from 25 to 28 cents. Hams have gone up from 18 to 20 cents and bacon has jumped from 20 to 25 and 28 by the strip.

The New York World said editorially today:

"Packers and wholesale and retail dealers agree in attributing the higher cost of dressed meat to dearer corn and hay. Dearer corn may have something to do with the higher price of beef, though it will puzzle the consumer to discover why a sudden rise in the price of fodder should cause a proportional advance in the price of beef already ripening in cold storage. But surely the higher price of corn is not accountable for the phenomenally higher price of lamb and poultry.

"The present price of lamb, indeed, presents one of those perplexities of provision prices which are unfathomable to the lay mind. Though the price of lamb chops in the retail markets was advanced three cents a pound in as many days between March 31 and April 2, the price of leg of lamb remained unchanged at 20 cents for weeks thereafter, until it was suddenly advanced to 24 cents.

"Why the discrimination? If the sheep's dearer subsistence necessitated higher prices for chops, why did it not necessitate higher prices for other cuts? Or did it first affect the loin only and not the whole carcass? Only those familiar with it can explain the subtle process of passing on increases of price, with additions, from the farm to the butcher's counter."

THIEVES WERE PREPARED TO USE SOME DYNAMITE

Kenilworth, May 2.—The persons who entered the local postoffice on Monday night were evidently preparing to blow the safe, according to a statement made by Postmaster Kanane.

So far as can be learned the thieves secured nothing. They had opened the safe which was not locked, and after taking out a number of boxes containing stamps and other valuable papers, had placed them on the floor. They failed to find $7 which was in the cash drawer.

Four years ago the old postoffice in Twentieth street, opposite the Kenilworth Inn, was entered by means of cutting a hole through the side of the building. Three years previous to that time the postoffice was entered and the safe blown. The postoffice at Union was robbed seven years ago just a few days after the local break.

"WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE."

The Young Friends' Association will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the meeting-house on Watchung avenue. The subject for discussion will be "Woman's Suffrage."

The Plainfield Graded Union of Sunday school teachers will hold its annual meeting in the First Presbyterian church, Monday afternoon and evening. In the evening Mrs. Miller wil lgive a stereopticon lecture on "Missions Around the World." The public is invited.

MISS WHITNEY'S PUPILS GIVE A PIANO RECITAL

Misses Collins, George and Van Zandt Please With Their Performance.

The Misses Muriel Collins, Helen George and Marguerite Van Zandt, assisted by their teacher, Miss May Vincent Whitney, gave a delightful piano recital in Miss Whitney's studio, yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. About one hundred music-lovers were present. Hearty and spontaneous applause greeted the lighter selections and improvizations and silent appreciation marked the treatment of the heavier themes.

The gem of the program was Goldmark's "Sakuntala," for eight hands, being rendered by the Misses May Vincent Whitney, Muriel Collins, Helen George and Marguerite Van Zandt. This exquisite overture easily stands upon its own merits as beautiful music. But there is a program back of it and if it does not add to the beauty of the work, it at least stimulates the interest of the listener.

"Sakuntala," the daughter of a nymph is brought up in a convent grove by the chief of a sacred caste of priests as his adopted daughter. The great King Dushianta enters the sacred grove, while hunting. He sees Sakuntala, he immediately falls in love with her. A charming love follows which ends with the marriage of the couple. The king gives Sakuntala a ring. A priest to who Sakuntala has forgotten to show due courtesy in the intoxication of her love revenges himself by depriving the king of his memory and all recollections of her. Sakuntala loses the ring while bathing in the river. When presented to the king as his wife, he does not recognize her and finally repudiates Sakuntala.

Her companions refuse to receive her as the wife of another. She is left alone and homeless, the nymphy, her mother has pity upon her and takes her to herself. The ring is found and brought to the king by a fisherman. With the return of Sakuntala's recollections, remorse seizes him for his terrible deed and he is filled with profound grief and deepest yearning for his beloved queen. On a war-like campaign against demons he finds the woman and the couple are reunited. At the close the music is rich with joyous mood indicating the happiness of the couple.

The recital gives one the keenest anticipation of pleasure for the more formal recital by Miss Whitney's pupils on Tuesday evening, May 21, at the Plainfield High School auditorium. Yesterday's program follows:

Part I—Rondo, two pianos, six hands, Rummel, Marguerite Van Zandt, Helen George, Muriel Collins; Impromptu (A flat), Chopin; Concert Waltz, Moskowski, Muriel Collins; Fantasie (D minor), Mozart; Hark! Hark! the Lark, Schubert, Helen George; Duetta, Mendelssohn; Pony Race, Friml, Marguerite Van Zandt; "Sakuntala," two pianos, eight hands, Goldmark, Muriel Collins, Miss Whitney, Helen George, Marguerite Van Zandt.

JOHN C. CRAMER.

John C. Cramer, one of the oldest and best known residents of Hunterdon county, died yesterday afternoon, at his home in Annandale, following a short illness. He was in his eighty-sixth year and was the owner of one of the finest farms in this section, having resided on it for over half a century. His wife died two years ago and the only immediate surviving relative is one daughter, Mrs. Joseph A. Haynes, of Craig place.

MOTHERS' ASS'N MEETS.

A meeting of the Plainfield Mothers' Association will be held in the library of the Plainfield High School tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. L. M. Booth will lead in a discussion of the subject, "How to Make Backyards Attractive." All persons interested are cordially invited to attend.

CHEMICAL ENGINE TO BE MOTOR CAR

International Motor Co. Will Get Contract to Make the Improvement.

CONCERN'S BID $3,750

Councilmanic Fire Committee Receives Two Application for Call-men—There are Four Vacancies at Present.

The Councilmanic fire and building committee met last night and finally decided on the contract with the International Motor Company, of this city, for converting the chemical engine at fire headquarters into a motor-driven apparatus. The company's bid was $3,750, and was considered the best proposition of any submitted. The chemical engine will be equipped with a Saurer truck conceded to be about the best made.

At the May meeting of the Common Council Monday night the fire committee will recommend through a resolution that a contract be made with the International Motor Company. It is the belief that the change in the chemical engine can be made within a short time.

The committee also received two applications for positions as call-men in the department. There are now four vacancies and the committee is anxious to fill them as soon as possible. This will probably be done within the next few weeks.

SCUDDER IS CHOSEN TAX BOARD'S HEAD

Union County Body Names its Secretary but Engages Him Only by the Month.

Elizabeth, May 2.—Mulford M. Scudder, of Westfield, was elected president of the Union County Board for the Equalization of Tax Assessments, and John R. Connolly was named as secretary at the organization meeting yesterday. Both men are Democrats, the board having come under the control of that party by the appointment of former Assemblyman Calvin E. Brodhead, of Plainfield, to succeed Frank H. Andrews, of Plainfield.

Mr. Scudder succeeds Caleb C. Pollard, the Republican member, as president. Mr. Connolly succeeds Sydney W. Eldridge, Republican. Because of the belief that Mr. Eldridge will contest his position under the civil service act Mr. Connolly was engaged as secretary by the month at a salary of $100. The question as to whether the secretary shall devote his entire time to the office remains unsettled.

SUES FOR DOWER RIGHT IN CIRCUS FREAK'S ESTATE

The long deferred suit brought by Eliza Scott, of Camden, for a dower right in the estate of "Colonel" Goshen, for many years the giant freak in Barnum's circus, was put over for the term in Judge Vail's court at Somerville, Tuesday afternoon. A question arose as to the value of the "Colonel's" estate, which the plaintiff could not prove, and adjournment for an indefinite period was made. Goshen, whose right name is claimed to be George Washington Scott, lived at Middlebush, Somerset county, and died in 1889. He left a fifty-five acre farm and personal effects to Mrs. Henry Sylvester, an adopted daughter, and William Wyckoff, a neighbor.

KREBS ON "CIVIL WAR."

H. C. Krebs, superintendent of the North Plainfield Public Schools, addressed the Grammar grades of the Jefferson School, yesterday on "The Civil War." Mr. Krebs reviewed in an interesting manner the principal campaigns of the war, speaking especially of the work and characters of Generals Lee and Grant. At the close of the talk Mr. Krebs urged the pupils to stand for peace whenever possible, but to be ever ready with a strong right arm to defend honor.

STATE COMMISSION'S WATER SUPPLY DECISION

Opinion in Collingswood Case May Have Bearing Here Where City is Attempting to Obtain Control of Private Concern's Plant.

Mayor G. W. V. Moy this morning was shown a copy of a decision rendered yesterday by the State Water Supply Commission at Trenton, in which was set forth definitely the policy of that body regarding the conditions under which, in its judgment, sanction should be given to municipal acquisition of water plants. In view of the efforts of the city to acquire the plant of the Plainfield-Union Water Company, it was suggested to the Mayor that the decision, which denied an application of the Borough of Collingswood to secure additional water supply through condemnation might affect Plainfield. The commission's opinion, summarized, is that it would be an injustice for public authorities to injure or destroy a lawful business, conducted in a lawful manner, and in which large sums of money had been invested in good faith.

The mayor said that he did not care to express an opinion on the subject in view of the present litigation, but that in his opinion the Collingswood case was not exactly parallel to the local one. He stated that the Attorney General had intimated when action was sought through him that he did not think the local situation was desperate or requiring immediate action and therefore he did not care to interfere with a well conducted plant which made reasonable charges and which gave adequate service. Mayor Moy stated that Plainfield is trying to forestall such a situation.

In the decision reached yesterday the commission said that in the Collingswood case the testimony had disclosed little which would justify the grant because of public necessity. Although in times past there might have been some cause for complaint against the water company, the complaints were not of a serious character and the causes had been removed.

The commission also found that neither the rates charged by the company nor the service afforded by it indicated that there was any public necessity for a new supply in order to relieve the public from unfair or extortionate rates for service and enable it to obtain a more abundant and needed supply. On the contrary, all who favored the application admitted that there was no just cause for complaint against the charges of the company and that it had been accustomed to extend its lines rapidly enough to supply all reasonable public requirements.

The question, in the judgment of the commission, narrowed itself down to whether the water company should be put out of business in order that the municipality should be placed in a position to reap the profits heretofore accruing to the water company.

Frank Bergen, president of the Plainfield Water Company, said over the 'phone this afternoon, from his office in Newark, that while the local situation did not exactly parallel the Collingswood case, it might eventually have some effect, but just what that effect would be he was not prepared to say.

CRAGIN WANTS TO SEE HIS DAUGHTER OFTENER

Asks Court to Allow His Child to Visit His Home in New York City.

Trenton, May 2.—The question of the custody of little Marguerite Cragin, daughter of William B. Cragin, Jr., of Metuchen and New York and formerly of Plainfield, and Maysie Bruce Cragin, also formerly of Plainfield, has again been brought into the courts.

Cragin filed a petition in the Court of Chancery at Trenton asking that the former order of the court be modified. This order provided that the child could visit the father for the first week in every month at the home of Cragin's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Lansing Y. Lippincott, in Metuchen. This order has been affirmed by the Court of Errors and Appeals and was carried out.

In his new petition Cragin, through Edward A. Day, asked that the order be modified so that it would not restrict the visits of the child to Metuchen. The petition showed that it would not be convenient to have the child go to Metuchen in May, June and July, and the father asked permission to have the little one's visit transferred to New York City.

Vice Chancellor Emery has signed an order providing that for the first week of the month of May the child can visit her father in New York. Further modification of the order, however, was reserved.

Cragin was the champion indoor tennis player of the world a few years ago. Mrs. Cragin, who secured a divorce, is the niece of James Donald, a New York banker, and lives with Mr. Donald at his home near Trenton.

Malcolm G. Buchanan and Scott Scammell represented the mother in the latest proceedings.

HEATH AUTO HITS WAGON, BUT LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

An automobile owned and driven by William Heath crashed into a wagon being driven on Watchung avenue by Arthur V. Wiltsie, of Belmont avenue, late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wiltsie, with Clarence E. Carson, also of Belmont avenue, were in the wagon, being driven towards the mountains when the automobile, with Mr. Heath and two friends, Henry Nischwitz and Philip H. Currin, came up behind them suddenly near Codington avenue and tore its way into the rear of the buggy.

The occupants of the wagon were thrown some distance from the vehicle and the horse started to run, being stopped a short distance from the scene of the accident. The car was stopped immediately and all three occupants returned to render any assistance possible to Wiltsie and Carson. Both were able to get up unassisted, were taken to their homes and medical assistance called.

Mr. Wiltsie claims that the car was being driven at a rapid rate and that the horn was not sounded until it was too late to either turn out or to stop, although there was plenty of room to the right of the carriage to pass. An inventory showed that the wagon was badly damaged, the horse scratched considerably, and Mr. Wiltsie quite severely bruised and cut. His companion, aside from a severe shaking up and a few scratches, was not hurt.

The occupants of the car claim that it was going at a very moderate pace and that had the horse remained under control the accident would have been avoided. They deny that they were in any manner to blame for the accident and that there were no signs of injury to either the horse or occupants of the carriage immediately after the accident.

When Mr. Nischwitz was seen he said that the horse was being driven in the middle of the road and as the car approached the horn was blown. The wagon driver pulled back on the reins, backing the fractious horse into the car which was then only moving. No injury was done either to the occupants or the horse.

The horse this morning showed a number of scratches. Mr. Wiltsie claims that he shielded the horse as much as possible and that he would very much rather take the sprains and bruises than have the horse, who is such a pet of his sister's, injured.

F. C. LANGHORNE TAKES AN APPEAL

A SIX CENTS VERDICT

Local Photographer Demanded $25,000 Damages for Injuries Received When Tug Struck Him While He was in a Boat Fishing.

Judge Joseph Cross, of the District Court at Trenton, yesterday granted the application for a new trial made by Prosecutor George S. Silzer, of New Brunswick, in behalf of his client, F. C. Langhorne, of this city, who was awarded six cents damages in his suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad. He asked for $25,000 and the verdict rendered was decided upon by a jury in Judge Cross' tribunal Saturday. Mr. Silzer maintained in his appeal that his client was entitled either to substantial damages or nothing at all, a contention in which he was upheld by the court.

The date for the new trial will be fixed within a few days.

The damage suit was the aftermath of an accident that befell Mr. Langhorne in the summer of 1910. With former Councilman James H. Craig he had been fishing in Raritan Bay, off Perth Amboy, upon a Pennsylvania tug towing several coal barges, ran down their boat. Both men were thrown into the water, but Mr. Craig fell out of harm's way. Mr. Langhorne, however, was not so fortunate. The tug struck him a glancing blow and one of the barges passed completely over him. He was taken from the water unconscious and hurried to the Perth Amboy hospital, where he was detained for several days. Contributary negligence on the part of the tug captain was alleged on in the complaint. The railroad was represented by Alan H. Strong, of New Brunswick.

TAFT CLUBS FORMED IN UNION CO. TOWNS

Chairman Smith Says Movement is Thoroughly Organized—Over-Confidence.

Union county organization Republicans have thoroughly organized for an aggressive Presidential primary campaign according to County Chairman Frank H. Smith. In every city and town in the county a William H. Taft club has been formed and the various bodies are actively at work stirring up enthusiasm for their favorite for nomination. While Chairman Smith is sanguine that the county will go for Taft at the primaries on Tuesday, May 28, he declared today that he feels that the spirit of over-confidence on the part of many leaders will be detrimental to Taft's interests in this county.

"I hope and I believe that Union county will pile up a majority for Mr. Taft at the primaries," said Mr. Smith today. "But I dislike seeing this over-confidence displayed by many of our people. We've all got to work if we're going to get out the vote that we should. It's a mistake to say that there is no Roosevelt sentiment, for instance, in Plainfield. There is sentiment for him up here and don't you fool yourself that there isn't. I don't think for one minute that it is as strong as some of Roosevelt's friends profess to believe but just the same it exists and we've got to get out every vote here on primary day."

"Down in Elizabeth," continued the County Chairman, "there is also some strong Roosevelt sentiment. This is the case in the "Downtown" wards, where Roosevelt men are getting busy. Of course, I don't say that there is any danger of our losing Elizabeth but we've got to hustle there too. The time for boasting, if at all, if after the battle is fought at the polls; the time for good, hard work is before the battle.

"In every one of the larger communities in Union county, a Taft club has been organized. We have them in Elizabeth, in Rahway, in Summit, in Westfield, in Roselle, in Plainfield and all over. That's the only way to win the fight.

"Yes, I believe that Morris county is also certainly for Mr. Taft. I realize of course that there is Roosevelt sentiment, strong sentiment at that, in such places as Dover and Wharton, Morristown, Madison, Chatham and other towns are stronger still I believe for Taft. We'll carry the Fifth district, all right, but as I say, we've got to do some hard work between now and May 28."

FLAG IS TORN DOWN BY MARCHING SOCIALISTS

Riot Follows and Many Are Trampled on and Hurt.

New York, May 2.—Scores of persons were knocked down and trampled upon in a panic that ensued among a crowd of between 35,000 and 50,000 persons assembled in Union square when several Socialists and labor workers after a May day parade tore down an American flag from a speaker's platform that had been erected and substituted a red Socialist banner in place of the stars and stripes. Efforts to replace the American flag were ineffectual for many minutes, and when it was again hoisted on the platform it was once more tore down.

A number of persons were severely injured in the fierce melee that ensued.

TAFT IS DISAPPOINTED.

Refuses to Comment on Result of Massachusetts Primary.

Savannah, Ga., May 2.—President Taft, who is here as the guest of the Savannah Hibernian society, manifested some disappointment over the result in the Massachusetts primary. The president expected a larger majority over Colonel Roosevelt than he received and also a greater number of the delegates.

So disappointed was the president that he refused to make a statement regarding the vote. He would not comment one way or another upon the report that Colonel Roosevelt had instructed the eight delegates at large elected to vote for him in the Chicago convention to vote for Mr. Taft.

Mother Kills Baby, Wounds Self.

Lynn, Mass., May 2.—Mrs. Catherine Dunn killed her sixteen-months-old daughter, Catherine, with a razor and then inflicted a probably fatal wound upon herself.

PASSENGER FLIES TO SHIP.

Carried Down New York Bay by Coffyn in Hydroplane.

New York, May 2.—In his first flight with a passenger since he narrowly escaped death in an automobile accident in Central park Frank T. Coffyn in his hydroaeroplane, flying from the Battery, landed a passenger on the deck of the steamship Ancona of the Italia line going down the bay, using a small boat to transfer the man from the machine to the vessel. The hydroaeroplane after circling several times high above the vessel came down in the water a few yards away. Then a row boat took on board Coffyn's companion and carried him to the steamship.

The Ancona was just opposite the Statue of Liberty when Coffyn appeared in the air, signaling to the captain, who brought his vessel to a stop. Trouble with his oil pump prevented him from landing directly on the deck of the vessel.

TURKEY YIELDS, WILL OPEN DARDANELLES

Reserves Right to Close Again if Danger Threatens.

Constantinople, May 2.—The government has yielded to the pressure brought to bear upon it by various European powers and announces that the Dardanelles will be reopened. The removal of the mines has already been ordered.

The Turkish government makes a reservation that if it is found necessary—that is, if an attempt is made by Italian warships to force the passage—the Dardanelles will be closed again.

The Home Building & Loan Association

Offers Cheap Interest for a Home Builder or Buyer

It figures out about like this, as a series will run out in twelve years:

If $2,000.00 is borrowed (other amounts in same proportion),
He pays $10.00 a month dues for 144 months	$1,440 00
He pays $10.00 a month interest for 144 months at 6 per cent	1,440 00
Entrance fee, search, etc., about	25 00
Total amount paid	$2,905 00
He has the use of	2,000 00
At a cost for 12 years of	$ 905 00

Which is actual net interest of only 3¾ per cent. per annum.

This is on a basis of 6 per cent. When no money is on hand, the Association will provide money for the borrower at a very slight premium.

The regular meetings of the Association are held at its rooms, 109 Park Avenue, on the third Monday evening of each month. New series are opened at each regular meeting. Further information may be had at that time or by applying to the secretary, Arthur E. Crone, care of the City National Bank. tu-th

Rough Silken Fabrics

Bound to Predominate This Summer

Every fashion word from Paris indicates the more general use of Shantungs and Pongees than has ever been known. The trend is most decided. Every big dressmaker in the great French fashion centre has produced more dresses of Shantung and Pongee than of any other fabric, indicating clearly that the rough weaves will predominate.

Not only is it the view of Paris, but this movement toward the rougher fabrics is recognized by every silk authority in this country, and best of all, the men of America approve the fashion, for, after all, what can take the place of Shantung or Pongee for Summer wear?

We pat ourselves on the back to think that long ago, when these rough fabrics were only in moderate demand, and few had any hint of their coming great popularity, we bought generous quantities. Today we could not begin to duplicate at the prices paid for them.

This puts us in a position to offer you better values in Shantungs and Pongees than any store in Newark. We give indication of this fact in the quotations following on

FIVE REFUSE TO HEED ROOSEVELT

Turn Down His Orders to Vote For Taft.

POINT TO THEIR PLEDGES.

Massachusetts Delegates at Large, Elected as Roosevelt Men, Say They See No Way to Comply With Request. Others Not Decided.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Preferential Vote.

Taft	87,117
Roosevelt	83,144
Clark	33,491
Wilson	14,470

Delegates to Chicago.

For Roosevelt—Two each from the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth and Fourteenth districts and the eight at large	18
For Taft—Two each from the First, Second, Third, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth districts	18

Boston, May 2.—Five of the eight Republican delegates at large, elected as Roosevelt delegates to the Chicago convention, have refused to accept instructions from Colonel Roosevelt wired from Oyster Bay that they should support President Taft.

"We are delegates for Roosevelt, and that is why we received the votes," said James P. Magenis, one of the delegates. The others agreed with Mr. Magenis.

Those who made this statement were: Charles S. Baxter, James P. Magenis, George W. Coleman, Arthur L. Nason and Alvin G. Weeks. Octave La Riviere, another delegate, said he might do what the colonel requested, and Frederick Fosdick said that he was willing to vote for Taft, but would not make his decision at this time. Professor Albert B. Hart is in the west and could not be reached. Several of the delegates expressed their displeasure at the "buttin' in" on the part of the colonel.

The delegates held a conference and called Mr. Roosevelt by telephone just before the announcement was made. Mr. Roosevelt had renounced his claim to the votes of all eight of the delegates at large because the preferential primaries were carried by Mr. Taft. This gave Mr. Taft twenty-six of the Massachusetts delegates and Roosevelt ten, but if the eight delegates refuse to vote for Mr. Taft the state delegation will be split evenly, with eighteen for each candidate.

Taft Choice by 3,973.

Massachusetts has emerged from her first presidential preferential primary election to find that the Republican voters expressed a preference for the renomination of President Taft, but, notwithstanding, had given Theodore Roosevelt eighteen of the thirty-six delegates to the national convention.

The Democratic voters of the state expressed a preference for Champ Clark, although a majority of the delegates to Baltimore will go pledged to Governor Foss.

All Delegates Pledged.

Every one of the eighteen Taft delegates is "pledged to Taft," while all of the eighteen Roosevelt delegates are "for Roosevelt." The Roosevelt leaders declared that the Taft prference would have no effect upon the eighteen delegates chosen "for Roosevelt" and that the expression of the voters for Taft would be disregarded.

Owing to a close vote in several districts it is expected that some recounts will be held.

T. R. HAPPY OVER RESULT.

Off to Maryland Tonight to Continue Fight For Nomination.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 2.—Theodore Roosevelt renounced his claim to the eight delegates at large to the Republican national convention who were elected for him in Massachusetts. He telegraphed that he didn't want them under the circumstances since Taft won on the preferential vote. He sent a statement to each of the delegates by wire.

Colonel Roosevelt heard that his eight Massachusetts delegates at large were in open rebellion against his bull of excommunication and were all agreed that they'd stick.

"What are you going to do about it, colonel?"

"I have nothing to say," he replied, "except that I meant every word that I said and shall do everything possible to see that my request is heeded."

The Roosevelt men feel that the vote in Massachusetts clinches the nomination for the colonel. But he'll fight as hard as ever for the rest of the states where primaries are to be held. He goes to Maryland tonight.

Plainfield, N. J., May 2, 1912.

Suggested by President Taft, a proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution regarding the Chief Magistrate's term of office has been introduced in Congress. As a change to the first paragraph of Section 1, Article 2 it is aimed to substitute this:

"The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of six years and shall be ineligible to a second term."

There are many reasons why this amendment would be decidedly for the best interests of the country. In the first place general business is always upset by a Presidential election, which generally means a change in the administration. Another argument is that four years is too brief a period to give the President to carry out his policies.

Talk about the indeterminate sentence act being unconstitutional is set at rest by the opinion of Attorney-General Wilson who declares that the statute is not an encroachment on the powers of the Court of Pardons, itself a constitutional tribunal. At the suggestion of United States Supreme Court Justice Mahlon Pitney, then Chancellor of New Jersey, the pardons' court referred the question to the Attorney-General. Power to give paroles is vested in the various State prison inspectors but they have not the right to grant pardons or remissions of fines, neither can they restore any forfeited rights to a prisoner whom they might parole.

Women's suffrage had a field day at the Pennsylvania Republican convention yesterday. After an earnest plea was made by the president of the Equal Franchise Federation of Western Pennsylvania, the delegates stamped their endorsement on a resolution declaring that while the convention considered it "inexpedient" to commit the party to the cause, the "growing sentiment in its favor must be recognized, and requesting the next Legislature to "give this great question careful consideration to a view of submitting the proposition to a referendum vote when a reasonable public sentiment demands it."

Contributed Editorials are a feature of the Daily Press for Saturday issues and since the scheme for the popular expression of views by local men was originated by this paper our readers have been fortunate in obtaining the ideas on timely topics shared by representative men in professional and business life. For next Saturday's number we are assured of a most interesting editorial discussion on a local topic handled by one who has had unusual experience in the city government. By all means do not fail to peruse the editorial on that day.

A death blow to the Federal Commerce Court has been dealt by the House appropriations' committee. No appropriation has been made for that court and in that way the committee effectively seeks to abolish that body for whose existence there is not the slightest excuse.

Should they desire reappointment election officers who were appointed last year and who passed the civil service examination must make application to the Civil Service Commission.

See that Governor Wilson has appointed a commission to study the problem of the unemployed. There are a lot of politicians who might qualify as experts on the shell game.

How William Jennings Bryan must gasp when he reads of one Presidential nomination seeker turning over delegates to an opponent.

If the price of beef is too high, why not live on reed birds and lobster?

Why "beef" about the price, anyhow?

Well, what's New Jersey going to do?

CITY HIGH PUPILS IN 'OLIVER TWIST'

S. B. Howe's Dramatization of Dickens' Story to Be Presented Saturday Night.

TWENTY-TWO IN CAST

Clever Local Amateurs to Be Seen in Performance to Be Given at the Plainfield Theatre — Something About the Players.

The members of the Senior class of the Plainfield High School will present "Oliver Twist" as its annual production on Saturday night at the Plainfield theatre. There will be a matinee performance on Friday afternoon. This play is something novel for a senior production, as it is out of the style of plays that have been given in former years by the graduating classes and sets a new standard for following classes.

Samuel B. Howe.

The play as it will be given by the local school pupils has been dramatized by Samuel B. Howe, of the faculty, who is also coaching the cast. This presentation of "Oliver Twist" is particularly suitable this year which marks Dickins' anniversary. The play is a strong drama which requires unusual talent from amateurs but those who have attended the rehearsals are satisfied that the members of the cast are well able to undertake the performance, especially those whom are taking the heavier roles. Twenty-two characters are required and all the members who are undertaking prominent parts have had some experience in former plays as the present class has given three plays during its course. Another great advantage that the cast has had is the opportunity of seeing the production of "Oliver Twist" in New York by an all star cast.

Viola E. Garda.

Schuyler W. Line.

Roy E. Titsworth.

—The most touching, not to say pathetic, thing in this whole campaign is the solicitude of Democrats

Elmer E. Hunting.

The role of "Oliver Twist" will be taken by Miss Viola Garda, who acts the boy's part which is very difficult, with much ease and gives it a sympathetic interpretation.

Miss Mildred Brownlee makes an excellent young lead as Rose and Donald Webb as Harry Maylie makes a capital young lover.

Helen L. Woolley.

Schuyler Line as Mr. Grinsing, a gruff old man with an odd humor introduced by sudden exclamations, makes a quaint character and is a strong friend of Mr. Brownlow's, a character well interpreted by Burnett Doane as a kind old gentleman. Miss Madeline Strader as an elderly lady plays her part well.

The principal comedy parts are taken by Bruce Conlin as Mr. Bumble, a beadle, and Ruth Douglas as Mrs. Corney Bumble, and a whole scene has been introduced to bring out these parts. Bruce Conlin and Theodore Champlin as butler and footman respectively, are also funny and their efforts have already been appreciated along this line in last year's play.

Raymond Manley as Monks, the gentleman villian, is also a part which will be prominent and is sure to make an impression.

Dixon Phillips as the Artful Dodger; Egbert Fountain, Charles Baker; Winthrope Phelps as Tom Chittling, and Fred Jacobs as Barney, are all prominent as members of Fagin's band of pickpockets and form an attractive crowd. Miss Dorothy Smith as "Betsy," their queen, is especially good.

Others who take part are: Miss Katherine Webster as Mrs. Bedwin, a motherly old woman; Miss Jessie Stewart, a maid; Miss Jannette Neighbor, a cook, and Helen Ryder, a workhouse "gal."

The play will be carefully staged and the cast correctly costumed to comply with the period by New York costumers. The play is under the management of Schuyler Line, Burnett Doane, Theodore Champlin and Milton Fine.

NINETEEN DIPLOMAS FOR N. P. H. S. SENIORS

Nineteen girls and boys will be graduated from the North Plainfield High School on Friday night, June 14, when the commencement will be held at the Plainfield theatre. In 1908 this class started with a membership of forty-five, but all except the present number, nineteen, have dropped out for various reasons. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, will make the address.

Lawrence H. French is president of the class, Carroll C. Taylor the vice president and Edmund J. Kenney the secretary and treasurer. There will be graduated: Miss Rose E. Andrews, Miss Bessie M. Carson, Miss Florence E. B. Daly, Miss Margaret L. Darby, Miss Helen A. Hummel, Miss Ella V. Miller, Miss Emma Dougherty, Miss Elsie Schmidt, Miss Madeline Uhrahahn, Miss Grace E. Williams, Miss Edith E. Wheeler and Louis N. Bennett, Lawrence H. French, Edmund J. Kenney, Henry V. Kinney, Guy D. Peck, Jr., George Spencer, Carroll C. Taylor, William P. Taylor.

BUFFET LUNCHEON.

The Young Men's Club of Holy Cross church will meet tonight to plan for a buffet luncheon to be given at the parish house at an early date. Following the luncheon there will be short speeches.

"IMPORTANT TO MEN"

Whereby you Save at Least 25 per cent

How's that you say. Well, in the first place an Exclusive Furnishing Store has only the one line to sell and has to make all their profit on that one line, whereas we with our kindred lines don't have to depend upon any particular one and are satisfied with a small average profit. But, you say I have to pay a quarter for sox, a half dollar for an undershirt or a dollar for a shirt, just the same as if I had bought it anywhere else. True, but we offer you a better article for the price than you get elsewhere. A large shirt manufacturer is a member of our company, one of the largest neckwear makers is also interested in this concern, and it stands to reason that we are in a better position than the other fellow when the plum tree is shaken. Then again we are one of a chain of stores controlled by this company, and are very large buyers; we get the very best prices obtainable and the savings we make, you get the benefit of. But what's the use of talking. The proof of the "Puddin'" is the eating. The very next time you want Furnishings of any sort, "Get the habit" and come here. You'll become like everybody else, a steady customer. The Men's Department is just to the left as you step in the door.

The greatest figure reducing Corsets ever made.

In Model No. 319 the "Nemo Self-Reducing" front reduces and supports the abdomen, while the broad bands of "Lastikops Webbing" at the bottom of the long skirt produce the fashionable slender-hip effect and turn the corset edge inward, so that the ends of the bones and steels do not show through even the thinnest dress. Your gown fits closely and smoothly when you are standing, and when you sit down the semi-elastic hip-confining bands of "Lastikops Webbing" expand enough to give you complete ease, and the corset doesn't "side-up." Try a "Nemo" once and you won't buy any other kind. They sell at..$3.00

THE MIRROR CANDIES — NEW YORK — SUCCESS REPUTATION REPUTATION

For Several Weeks we have been telling you about the

FAMOUS "MIRROR" CANDIES

For which we are the exclusive selling agents for Plainfield and vicinity. The talk has been chiefly about "Purety and Quality;" now we want to say something about the candies themselves.

"MIRROR CHOCOLATES"

Are the product of the best selected cocoa beans and are made under the most skilled methods with the aid of the latest appliances obtainable.

"MIRROR HARD CANDIES"

are put up in round moisture-proof sealed boxes, thus overcoming the difficulty heretofore experienced in putting up these much desired candies in package form so that they would reach customers in good condition. The merit of

"THE MIRROR CANDIES"

IMPORTANT MILLINERY ANNOUNCEMENT.

"HATS TRIMMED FREE."

This week we will trim free of charge any hat you may select and the trimmings. This means much when you consider the fact that we have the largest and best selection of Untrimmed Hats and millinery trimmings in town, and at the same time our prices are most reasonable and you are assured of the most skilled workmanship. Be sure and take advantage of this excellent offer.

PRIMROSE IN A WRECK.

Atlanta, Ga., May 2.—George Primrose, the veteran minstrel who is in vaudeville, was in the wreck of the Dixie Flyer, on the Queen & Crescent Railroad, a few miles south of here Tuesday. Mr. Primrose escaped with a severe shaking up and a few bruises. He will rest here a few days and then go to Mount Clemens, Mich. He was en route North from Atlanta. He attributes his escape from serious injury to what he calls "Primrose luck."

BRUCE ISMAY ILL.

Strain Since Arrival of the Carpathia Causes Nervous Breakdown.

New York, May 2.—J. Bruce Ismay, head of the International Mercantile marine, has taken to his bed at the Ritz Carlton. The strain he had been under since the arrival of the Carpathia has caused a general breakdown, and his nervous condition is such that no one is admitted to see him. He is under the care of physicians.

DINNER FOR DIRECTORS.

The directors of the Spicer Manufacturing Company had a dinner at the Queen City Hotel today. Covers were laid for eight. Following the dinner there was a discussion of affairs pertaining to the business of the company.

The bi-monthly communion service with reception of members will be held at Grace M. E. church, Sunday morning, and Rev. C. C. Cain, the pastor, has postponed the sermon anounced for that day to the following Sunday morning.

RAGOUT OF MUTTON.

PLAIN mutton stew under its French name of ragout may be a trifle more ornamental on the bill of fare, but it tastes no better.

Mutton stew is one of the cheapest and most wholesome dishes we have. The neck or breast makes good and inexpensive stews. Cut the mutton into pieces before cooking.

With a Cereal.

Mutton with Rice.—After the mutton has been stewed stir in three or four tablespoonfuls of chopped onion and salt and pepper to taste. After cooking for several minutes add half a dozen carrots and herbs to flavor. The herbs may include parsley, thyme and bay. Cook the mutton and vegetables in a quart of water for an hour more. Then stir in half a pound of rice. Pour a little boiling water over the rice and let it cook about a half hour longer.

Highly Flavored.

Mutton with Herbs.—Take two pounds of neck of mutton, an ounce and half of flour, two ounces of drippings, a large onion, a pint and a half of stock, one carrot, one turnip, herbs in season, two sticks of celery, a tomato, two teaspoonfuls of red currant jelly and salt and pepper to taste.

Divide the mutton into cullets and remove all but a narrow rim of fat from each. Melt the dripping in a saucepan, lay in the pieces of meat and fry them quickly until each side is browned.

Lift the meat out on to a plate. Put the flour into the dripping and fry this carefully until it is a light brown. Stir it now and then lest it burn and give the gravy a bitter taste. Next add the stock and stir the gravy until it boils. Put back the meat and add the bunch of parsley, thyme and marjoram, the sliced celery, onion and quartered carrot, turnip and tomato.

Simmer all gently for about an hour, or until the meat feels tender.

When done lift the meat into a hot dish, add a seasoning of pepper and salt and the jelly. Take out the carrot and turnip and cut them into neat dice.

Strain the gravy, after well skimming it, to take off the fat over the meat, which should be arranged neatly in a hot dish. Garnish the dish with heaps of the cut vegetables.

Anna Thompson.

FORECAST OF FASHION.

Pierrot Frills Are Popular For Young Girls.

The Pierrot frills are popular with the younger set and are being worn both in stock and stockless style.

All manner of frilly neck and sleeve ideas are considered good style for the simple frock of foulard and taffeta.

For thin dresses a little fullness in the shape of gathers or fine tucks about the hips is desirable. Sleeves are short and the neck collarless.

The plain guimpe is useful for many occasions. The one illustrated may be treated in a variety of ways. Two

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

The Plainfield Mothers' Association will meet on Friday, May 3, at 3 o'clock in the library of the High School. The subject, "How to Make Our Backyards Attractive," will be continued under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Booth. A large attendance is expected as this subject is of interest to all mothers who must decide whether they wish to have beautiful lawns and gardens or happy children playing in the yards where there is not room enough for both.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the McKinley School, of Westfield, met in the assembly room of that building on the evening of Tuesday, April thirtieth.

H. C. Krebs, superintendent of the North Plainfield Schools, gave a most interesting address on "What the Schools Can Do For the Children and How the Parents Can Help Them."

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Irving-Jefferson Schools held its annual meeting at the Irving School on Tuesday, April thirtieth, at three o'clock. Mrs. J. Hervey Doane read a paper on "Hearthstone and Heart," which deepened the sympathies of everyone present with the outlook of the child.

These officers for the coming year were elected: President, Mrs. G. O. Stevens; vice president, Miss Petrie; secretary, Mrs. A. E. Force; treasurer, Mrs. Wallace R. Clark.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Bryant Parent-Teacher Association: President, Mrs. C. . Lawson; vice president, Miss Flora Griffin; second vice president, Mrs. A. E. Smith; secretary, Mrs. H. G. Henwood; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Smith. Mrs. Hervey Doane was made chairman of the prigram committee.

The Mothers' Club, of Jersey City Heights, is one of the oldest in the State, having been organized over fifteen years ago. It was also one of the first organizations for children's welfare to ally itself with the New Jersey Congress of Mothers, and thus get into line with the quiet purposeful, effective campaign, which is being waged for the betterment of childhood's conditions everywhere.

Mrs. H. S. Dixon, president of the Jersey City Club, for twelve years, until her death, also one of the Board of Managers of the State organization, was succeeded by Mrs. H. S. Frombach, under whose leadership this devoted band of women, now with grown sons and daughters about them, have carried on as before their broad but simple measures for the education of parenthood, the better up-bringing of their own children, the financial support of their city's philanthropic agencies for the relief of dependent and neglected little ones, and last but not least, for the practical expression of mother love in the making with their own busy fingers little garments for the immediate relief of any and every case of destitute childhood which they have found.

The Mothers' Club meets every two weeks for an afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. building, for business, sewing, lectures, etc., serving light refreshments. On last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Brice Collard, vice president of the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs, talked most interestingly on "Summer Dangers," dwelling specially on the peril to children of house flies.

For the evening of May sixth, the Board of Education has donated the use of Public School No. Twenty-eight to them, for the purpose of holding a Public Child Welfare meeting similar to the one held recently in Plainfield. The speakers are to be Dr. Maria Vinton, of New York, on "Children's Feeding," and H. L. McNutt, of Newark, on "Infant Mortality."

Through death and removals from the city, the Jersey City Mother's Club has lost many members, their dues are but five cents a month per member—and yet there is no diminution of power; their presses are full of little garments, their treasury has at times hundreds of dollars to command when the calls for aid from various sources come to them; their hearts are full of the Christ love for little children. A visitor is impressed with the sense of strong, confident, simple motherly influence that these women have wielded so unassumingly for many years in their community.

A most interesting problem has been theirs to grapple with for the past four years: the difficulty of inducing young people to support the simple, wholesome recreation, provided by these women, the proceeds shows, etc., have defeated their efforts until with an adaptability quite marvelous in so old an organization they are this year preparing to hold under the best supervision a Leap Year Dance for young people, trusting that by this means they will not only fill their treasury against the summer's needs of a great city but that the boys and girls will be happy in a cleaner atmosphere than many Gradually they are realizing the importance of the latter and the necessity of more play. Since the inception of the movement to bring the home and school closer together the Home and School League has endeavored to aid in all possible ways. As little has been done by the school authorities in equipping school yards with play apparatus, they have been able to accomplish much in this direction.

At the carnival the play element has been strongly emphasized: drills, choruses, dances and plays forming an important part; so strongly emphasized in past years that Philadelphia has been criticized as giving too much attention to play. It has not before been feasible to present the other side—the class room work in the fundamentals, but this year there will be demonstration lessons in reading, arithmetic, language, geography and writing—and the carnival exhibit will be more comprehensive than ever before.

The proceeds of each carnival are spent in assisting some of the social centres that are conducted in various parts of the city, which do so much for the uplift of the people in those neighborhoods.

The Home and School League, in all its workings, from this gigantic carnival down to its smallest enterprises, seeks always to stimulate in parent-teacher-child-citizen the sense of the oneness of home and school and city that harmony of purpose, that intelligent, sympathetic co-operation of all agencies concerning childhood that shall in the end make possible for coming generations the realization of our ideals for our country.

"What kind of matches do you use?" If they are the kind that readily "strike anywhere," you should know that they are made of white phosphorus. You should know, too, that their manufacture involves for the workers the most terrible of industrial diseases—a disease so revolting that the magazine publishing the facts of the industry would not print them. It is a needless horror. To our shame, we are the only important nation that allows is to go on. There are cheap, harmless substitutes for the white phosphorus match—substitutes that eliminate disease and fire dangers in large measure. But the effort to stop the making of the matches that do harm meets constant obstacles at the hands of interested persons. A full account of the usual amusements places provide.

Mrs. Frombach has recently been suceeded by Mrs. E. W. Wilson as president and one feels certain that for years to come their beautiful work will go on as steadily as it has in the past.

Many people are asking, "What is the Flower Carnival which is to be held in Philadelphia on Saturday, May eleventh? What is its scope and purpose? What are the results aimed at?" The answer is that scattred as they are over a great territory the people of Philadelphia, like other people in other places, are unacquainted with other sections than their own, and the carnival is a yearly attempt to bring together North, West, South and East into one great meeting, where they may assemble on common ground and see some of the phases of the work which is the foundation stone of the Republic—the Public School.

In the past we have known too little of the good work being done in the "school around the corner," and thought too little of how much of our success in life we owe to those faithful people who labored there in our behalf. Here is an attempt to rouse our interest in this school and to make us enthusiastic in promoting harmony between it and the home.

The schools have always done

A GAS RANGE AND A WATER HEATER

Just the combination you need in your kitchen for the Summer months.

With a gas range there is no unnecessary heat and no fuel is wasted.

A water heater gives you all the hot water you need without delay or without the necessity of building a fire.

We sell ranges and water heaters on easy payment terms. A card will bring our representative to you.

U. S. HAS 26,999,151 MEN WHO WILL VOTE

Washington, D. C., May 2.—A preliminary statement giving for continental United States, for each geographic division, and for each state and territory, the distribution of the male population 21 years old and over, according to color, nativity and percentage, and in the case of foreign-born citizenship, as shown by the returns of the thirteenth decennial census, taken as of April 15, 1910, has been issued by Director Durand, of the bureau of the census.

The potential voting strength of the nation and of each state and territory is expressed by the number of its males 21 years old and over, excluding the foreign born who have not become naturalized, but by this is not meant the actual number of voters in the several states and territories. It represents, rather, the number of males who, from the standpoint of age alone, are eligible to vote, aside from any qualifications based upon education, length of residence, or consideration of like nature, imposed by the national or state government. The foreign-born whites are distributed as naturalized, having taken out first papers, alien, or unknown.

In 1910 the number of males of voting age in continental United States was 26,999,151 or 29.4 per cent. of the total population, as compared with 21,134,399, or 27.8 per cent. of the total population, in 1900.

Totals	774,702	555,608
Natives whites—
Native parentage	281,269	224,644
Foreign or mixed parentage	153,926	111,508
Foreign-born white	309,648	196,598
Naturalized	128,438	109,469
First papers taken out	24,511	12,765
Alien	122,076	45,591
Unknown	34,634	28,782
Negro	28,601	21,474
All other	1,258	1,384

RUSSELL TELLS WHY HE'S A CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE

Elizabeth, May 2.—L. T. Russell, editor and proprietor of the Evening Times, today gave out this statement:

"In filing a petition as a Woodrow Wilson delegate from the Fifth Congressional District to the Baltimore convention, I beg to offer the following explanation:

"I have contended all along that owing to the peculiar fight that had been made against Governor Wilson's candidacy, the numerical strength of the New Jersey delegation would be incomparable with the moral influence of an enthusiastic, loyal delegation, with the largest possible acquaintance among delegates from the South and the West. With this in view I urged to the very last moment that Congressman Tuttle become a candidate. Mr. Potts, of Elizabeth, who has filed a Wilson petition, is an honorable gentleman and will vote in keeping with the declarations of his petition. He will, however, have not even a speaking acquaintance with a single delegate in the Baltimore convention except his personal friends and political associates, former Senator James Smith and former State Chairman James Nugent—in case they are elected. Furthermore, Mr. Potts has evidenced no purpose to make a careful canvas of the entire Fifth Congressional district. If there is not active and persistent campaign work done in every voting precinct in the district by those seeking to become Wilson delegates, the well-known apathy of Democrats on primary day will weaken the delegates at large and result in such a small vote as to be construed a lack of interest in Governor Wilson's candidacy.

"Having resided in and published newspapers in five southern and western states and territories, I would necessarily have a greater number of friends and acquaintances in the Baltimore convention from that section than most others in this part of the United States. I feel that this long acquaintance and close personal friendship with hundreds of southern and western delegates will enable me to do a great deal towards disabusing their minds with reference to the concerning his party loyalty and his recognition of party organizations. This should be especially effective in the final break-away from the "favorite son" and "first choice" candidates."

SCULL'S FATE IS AGAIN WITH JURY

Tried on Another Bribery Charge.

COMPLETE DENIAL IS MADE

Case Goes to Jury After Short Hearing, but Division of 8 to 4 For Acquittal Is Reported Among Jurors, With Some Prospect of an Agreement.

Mays Landing, N. J., May 2.—James E. Scull, city clerk of Somerspoint, tried with Charles Steelman for alleged bribery and acquitted, was again placed on trial before Justice Samuel Kalisch on the charge of bribing Carl Garrison, a bay man, at the election.

The case was moved by Attorney General Edmund Wilson. Garrison's allegation was to the effect that Scull gave him a ticket on election day, and a week later handed him $5. Garrison said on cross examination that he asked Scull for a ticket; that he voted it without any thought of pay; that there was no opposition at the election, and about a week later Scull saw him passing, called him to stop and handed him money. The defense contended that the tale of Garrison, the state's own witness, was not sufficient to hold Scull on any charge of bribery, but the court allowed the case to go to the jury at the insistence of the attorney general.

Scull flatly denied the charge of bribing Garrison and said he didn't even hand him a ticket. "I positively didn't see the man," said Scull, "and never paid him money for any purpose."

The case was given to the jury and no verdict has yet been reached. It is said the jury stands 3 to 4 for acquittal, with no likelihood of reaching an agreement. Justice Kalisch struck off a special panel of jurors to try two cases of conspiracy against Scull and Steelman, which will be moved next Tuesday.

TRIED TO FORCE HIM OUT.

So Says Senator Fitzherbert In Speaking of His Colleagues.

Dover, N. J., May 2.—Senator Richard Fitzherbert, who was unofficially exonerated Monday when Senators Gaunt, Leavitt and Johnson sifted the charge that Senator Fitzherbert had sought a retainer in connection with the Morris canal abandonment bill, has served notice that he would not rest until the senate committee had, under its own signatures and in a formal report to the senate, vindicated him.

Senator Fitzherbert said: "I expect to sit in the senate next year, but before that time I believe the senators will have shown themselves fair enough to award me the ordinary courtesies due a fellow member.

"I feel that the Republican majority in the senate has treated me throughout this session with scant consideration, and this fact is now being appreciated by the public.

"I think the least the senators might have done would have been to give me the chance to make an explanation before they ordered the investigation into those groundless Morris canal bill charges.

"The attitude of some of the Republicans toward me has produced the impression that they were actuated mainly by a desire to have me vacate my seat in the senate and thus give the Republicans a chance to capture a senatorship. Some people thought they could force me to quit, but they made a mistake.

"I have made just one mistake in this whole affair, and that was made when I went home and stayed home after those acetylene charges were preferred during the session of the legislature. I didn't want to do that, but some of my friends thought it was the proper course. I yielded to their advice, but it becomes more apparent to me every day that I ought to have stayed in Trenton and fought the thing out right there with the majority."

BARBER CATCHES BURGLAR.

With Revolver In Hand He Waits For Robber Outside Building.

Bridgeboro, N. J., May 2.—George Merrill, a barber, of this place has proved that he can make an effective burglar alarm.

Merrill lives over his shop, which was robbed several weeks ago. He determined to catch any other intruder who might visit the place, so he rigged up a burglar alarm. He was awakened, so Merrill crept, with a revolver in his hand. Then he stood, saw some one come out of the shop. He stopped the man and marched him to the home of Mr. Gaskill, a justice of the peace.

A hasty examination of the man's pockets, the barber says, brought out loot taken from his shop. The man said he is Frank James, a farm hand, who worked in this neighborhood. He was sent to the Mount Holly jail to await a further hearing.

—This overwhelming vote for Colonel Roosevelt is perhaps more essentially a repudiation of Taft and a warning to the Republican party

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Well, we did manage to slip in a little baseball sideways yesterday.

And, we have hopes of getting by with some more on Saturday.

But while you are at it, don't forget the Y. M. C. A. races.

Let us hope that the days of postponements are past—for a while, at least.

Watchung Gun Club shoot Saturday.

We've heard of a cowslip but this is the first time we ever heard of a flying field.

There will be a hydro-aeroplane meet on the Hudson, Saturday and Sunday.

That United States League did start after all.

Motorcyclists must pay if they cross into New York State. The belief that they would be considered as youthful automobiles has been disrupted by Assistant Attorney General Gaskill's decision.

Harry Lord has been presented with a three days' suspension by Ban Johnson for kicking.

As usual, it was the umpire that got kicked.

The Newark management will let the fans decide the starting time for all games.

Showing that the referendum is growing even in Jim Smith's town.

And the Yanks turned and rended the Athletics, Russell Ford outpitching Bender.

Bert Daniels, the old Yankee stand-by, has been awakened with the fear of going back to the minors and is hitting the ball and running bases in his old-time form.

The United States League started yesterday. New York played a tie game with Reading, 10 to 10.

And started like its bigger brothers—record attendance, Catholic Protectory band and the ball tossed out from under a high hat.

The three local school teams showed a tendency towards big scores in their games yesterday.

P. H. S. ADDS ANOTHER VICTORY TO THE LIST

The Plainfield High School baseball team added another victory to its record yesterday afternoon by defeating Roselle High on Parker Field by a score of 14 to 9. The final score gives no idea of the game's finer points, for the visitors were kept from scoring until the sixth inning, when Woodhull loosened up and they clouted the ball for six runs, bunching three more in the next.

P. H. S. started off fast in the initial inning, when with two men on base, Good knocked out a home run to left field, clearing the bases. Hits by Rosenson and Woodhull in the next, with the help of an error, meant another run in the next inning. During the third period the local boys captured eight runs by their heavy hitting. Good rose to the occasion again in this inning by getting a triple but was caught at the plate trying to stretch it into a home run.

After two bad innings, Laughlin was substituted for Woodhull and pitched good ball, allowing no passes and registering three strike outs. Wasilick held P. H. S. to no score for four innings, but he dropped two more runs in the eighth.

AT THE TRAPS.

The Watchung Gun Club will hold its weekly shoot Saturday afternoon.

The Hunterdon-Somerset County Championship shoot will be held on the Crescent Gun Club grounds at Whitehouse Saturday afternoon, May 11. Two silver cups are given as prizes, one for individual championship and the other for double championships. These cups to be competed for every 30 days at an open competition on the grounds of the previous winners. The individual winning the greatest number of legs on the cup up to January 1, 1913, becomes its owner.

ANOTHER SMALL END OF SCORE FOR LEAL'S

Falls Before Wilson M. A. After Putting up Good Game for Four Innings.

The supporters of the Leal's team received a jolt yesterday afternoon when Wilson Military Academy put the trimming on the Plainfield boys by a score of 17 to 4 at Finderne. Had it not been for a tendency to try for the altitude record at times, that has been the chief fault of the Front street aggregation this city, the boys with the uniforms would have been held to a much lower score.

Starting out with a rush and leading the Finderne team by a slight margin Leal's went to pieces in the fifth and stayed in that condition for the rest of the game. Lee, who pitched gilt edged ball against the Morristown School team last Saturday, was off color and proved no puzzle for the home team. Errors were plentiful and the Wilson boys profited by them in nearly every instance. It was a heart-breaking game from a Leal's standpoint and the result was unexpected as the team had shown such a high class article of ball in Morristown that good things were expected of them yesterday.

The Plainfield team plays its next game at the oval Friday afternoon, when they have the Summit Y. M. C. A. second team for their opponents. This team is composed largely of ex-high school players and are said to be a good bunch of players.

N. P. H. S. DEFEATED BY COUNTY SEAT TOSSERS

After Getting Off to Fine Start Go to Pieces at End.

After starting off in whirlwind fashion and putting the one, two, three stunt over on the Somerset county seaters, the Borough High School lost their grip on the situation in the fifth inning and again in the seventh, which spelled defeat for N. P. H. S. by 13 to 8. Spencer, who had the throwing job for the first part of the game, had clear sailing for the first three innings, but the Somerville lads hit the ball in the right place in the fourth and forced him from the mound. Townley took his place but the lads from up the line took kindly to his port-sided assortment and put the game away immediately.

Wachter, the Somerville twirler, had the Indian sign on the borough boys after the second inning although W. Taylor found him for three long drives, he sent nine back by the three-strike route. There was considerable juggling of the ball at the hands of the local team that accounted for many of the visitors' runs.

The game was cleanly played, free from discussion and aside from the innings already mentioned was an interesting one to watch.

MR. MOHAMMED WAS FOOLISH BUT NOT STUBBORN.

But when he found that the only way to see the mountain was by going to it, he went, and proved that he wasn't stubborn.

NOT BUYING OUR CLOTHES MIGHT BE FOOLISHNESS, BUT NOT SEEING THEM IS STUBBORNNESS.

I want you to see our new Spring Garments. I want you to see how they're made, how they're styled—and then, how they're priced $10, $12, $15, $18, $20.

I won't "sell" you a suit because it's a rule of my store never to "sell" a man anything. The man must sell the thing to himself—he must buy.

My clothing and fixings need no salesmanship; all they need is a "look."

I ask you not to be stubborn, but to do what Mohammed did when he went to the mountain.

MILITARY NIGHT AT COUNTY SEAT

Second Regiment National Guard Gives Highly Creditable Review.

CO. K PARTICIPATES

Brig. Gen. Collins Reviewing Officer at Demonstration at New Armory in Elizabeth—Service Medals Presented—Building Inspected.

"Military night" was observed in the new armory at Elizabeth last night with a review of the Second Regiment, N. G. N. J., tendered to Brigadier-General Dennis F. Collins by Colonel Horace M. Reading, commanding officer of the regiment.

Twelve companies were on the drill floor. They were F, C and I, of Elizabeth, and K, of this city, under command of Major William B. Martin, of Elizabeth; A, B, D and E, of Trenton, commanded by Major John H. McCullough; M, of Somerville; H, of New Brunswick; G, of Freehold, and L, of Princeton, commanded by Major Conrad Hall, of Elizabeth.

The review was witnessed by scores of military men from all parts of the State and hundreds of civilians, who were provided with seats along the end and side walls on the main floor and in the balcony. The new building was decorated with flags and hundreds of yards of red, white and blue bunting. It was illuminated by seventy-five gas lamps and four flaming arc electric lamps.

Yesterday afternoon General Collins and Colonel Reading made an official inspection of the building with State Architect Frank H. Bent and Fred C. Kilgus, of Newark, the builder. Members of the State Armory Commission were also in the party and after the inspection formally accepted the building on behalf of the State. After the acceptance Colonel Robert L. Patterson hoisted a United States flag, presented by the Elizabeth Lodge of Elks, over the building.

Following the review the members of the Essex Troop, of Newark, presented First Lieutenant Alexander B. Clark, of Company F, with a silver sabre in recognition of his work while he was a member of the troop. After the presentation the members of the troop tendered a reception to Lieutenant Clark.

Thirty members of the Second Regimena were presented with service medals. Among the officers who received them were Second Lieutenant William R. Grant and Quartermaster-Sergeant John H. R. Corbet, of Company C, twenty-five years' service, and Captain H. B. Kitchell, of Company F, ten years' service.

The official list of guests was as follows: Former Mayor Victor Mravlag, General Eddy, General Wilbur F. Sadler, Jr., Colonel James W. Oliphant, Colonel Nelson Y. Dunham, Lieutenant-Colonel H. B. Salter, Lieutenant-Colonel William Libbey, Lieutenant David M. Flynn, Major Charles H. Grant, Major Charles E. Burgess, Captain Elston H. Bergen, Captain Charles F. Sylvester, Captain William O. G. Quimby, First Lieutenant Campbell F. Hamilton and Lieutenant Charles A. Ransom.

The ceremonies incident to the opening of the new armory will close tonight with a banquet that will be attended by 500 persons.

IN THE BOROUGH COURT.

Theodore Schnagaras and Charles Hewitt, two youthful ball players in the borough, who persisted in playing in the streets yesterday afternoon, appeared before Recorder Gano this morning. After a severe reprimand they were both allowed to go. Charles Ferraro, a clerk, rode his wheel last night without a light. It cost him one dollar. W. S. O'Brien paid another dollar for riding on the sidewalk.

TO PAY $250 FINE.

Elizabeth, May 2.—Former License Inspector Jacob Hagin was yesterday sentenced to pay a fine of $250 as the result of his conviction on a charge of attempted bribery. Hagin was denied a new trial by Judge Atwater. His counsel has taken out a writ of error and the case may go to the Supreme Court.

CIRCUS STAR BOUNCES DOWN STAIRS ON HEAD

Did you ever see a man walk down stairs on his head? Hillary Long, who will appear in Plainfield on May 8, with the Frank A. Robbins All Feature Shows, goes down a flight of stairs on his head twice a day, with as much ease as the average person walks down on his feet. He is the only person in the country today performing this act, and he has been secured by Mr. Robbins at great expense as the greatest feature of the greatest show that this veteran showman, whose name has been known to the public for thirty-two years, has ever put on the road. The show this year has been entirely rebuilt, with many new star acts and will give two performances here on the date mentioned, the first at 2 p. m. and the second at eight in the evening. The doors will open an hour earlier in order to allow those who attend to have plenty of time to view the animals prior to each exhibition. The menagerie has been doubled in size over that of last year.

Miss Winifred Rapalje, of Carlton avenue, has returned from Havana, Cuba, where she spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Rapalje. Mr. Rapalje is connected with the American Agricultural Chemical Company.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

"Just Like John," which comes to the Plainfield theatre Monday night, had its first stage presentation at the Teck theatre, Buffalo, N. Y., last week, and in a long distance telephone call to Manager Harry Davis, William A. Brady said the new farce had met with a most flattering reception. Mr. Brady further said, Authors Broadhurst and Swan had fitted Walter Jones with the best part of his career, and that as the United States secret service officer he was a constant joy. Individual hits were also made by Rapley Holmes, Herbert Yost, Wallace Worsley, Florine Arnold, Diva Moralda and Elsa Lorimer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunny and children have returned to Plainfield for the summer.

ALL K. D. CIRCLES RENEW PLEDGES

ELECTION IS POSTPONED

Day Nursery Cared For 1,500 Children During the Year—Circles to Have Representation On the Executive Board.

Reports for the past year, together with a discussion of plans for the coming twelve months comprised the principal business at the annual meeting of the City Union of The King's Daughters held at the First Baptist church, yesterday afternoon. There was a good representation from all of the fourteen circles. Because of the fact that the constitution has been amended increasing the number of trustees as members of the executive board, it was decided to postpone the election of officers until Thursday, June 6. Mrs. F. W. Jones, president, was in the chair and Miss Elsie Suffern, secretary,, filled her position.

The meeting opened with devotional exercises in charge of Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church. He read appropriate Scripture selections, and made a brief address in which he lauded the work of The King's Daughters and emphasized the importance attached to the name which every member bears. He also paid a deserving tribute to woman, especially a Christian woman, and dwelt on her wide influence for good.

Then followed two-minute reports

CAMP ONE, P. O. A., HOLDS A SOCIABLE

I. N. Wyckoff Master of Ceremonies at a Delightful Lodge Affair.

Camp No. 1, P. O. of A., the auxiliary to Washington Camp, No. 30, P. O. S. of A., conducted a delightful and highly successful social in the organization's rooms on Park avenue, last night. The affair was arrangedprimaril y for the members of both camps but was attended by many friends. Tasteful decorations of the National colors and emblems of the order, artistically draped, lent a distinctly patriotic aspect to the scene.

I. N. Wyckoff acted as master of ceremonies and he was assisted by President Smith, of Camp 1, both of whom made addresses at the opening. Mrs. Theodore Van Pelt also gave an interesting speech. The program following included piano selections by Miss Grace Powell Karr, recitation by Mrs. I. N. Wyckoff, piano duets, the Misses Aleta and Grace McDowell; violin and piano numbers Mr. and Mrs. Naylor, and selections by the Queen City Quartet. The last named made a distinct hit. Refreshments were served in conclusion and during this portion of the program a surprise was sprung by Camp 1 on Camp 30. Mrs. Andrew McDowel' entered the room bearing a huge birthday cake on which was inscribed "Camp 30, 1894-1912." It was presented to the members in a neatly worded speech by Mrs. Van Pelt and graciously accepted by I. N. Wyckoff. The cake was afterward cut and shared by all.

The affair was arranged and conducted by Mrs. Van Pelt and Mrs. McDowell, assisted by the following: Mrs. William Claassen, Mrs. Herbert Freeman, Mrs. R. H. Smith, Mrs. M. A. Cable, Mrs. Charles Brantingham, Mrs. George Klinger, Mrs. George Passmore, Mrs. David Lord and Mrs. Force. The decorations were arranged by Mrs. Van Pelt, Mrs. McDowell, I. N. Wyckoff and Edward Ayers.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE.

The city police are today making an effort to learn the identity of the person or persons who turned in a false alarm of fire from box 19, at Johnson avenue and George street, shortly before 10 o'clock last night. Adolph Kahrman, a call man attached to No. 4 Hose Company, was on the scene within a minute after the box was pulled but found no one at the corner. Chief Doane had his men scour the neighborhood without getting any clue of the troublemakers.

BOROUGH COURT.

Clarence Sullivan, a motorman, was arrested for being drunk and disorderly in the borough last night by Marshal Keller. This morning when brought before Recorder Gano he was fined $3 but sentence was suspended.

—Among the special offerings at Neuman Bros.' tomorrow will be 500 bunches of fancy Jersey green asparagus at special prices by the bunch.

CLAIMS MONEY FOUND ON THE MARTINE FARM

Charles Halsema, Writing From Michigan Says He Buried $1,000 to Escape Expected Robbery One Night in 1898.

Mayor G. W. V. Moy has received a letter from a man who signs his name as Charles Halsema, and gives his residence as Devil's Lake, Michigan, who asserts that the roll of money said to have been found in a tin can on Cedar Brook Farm by William Meyers and Pasquale Delato, belongs to him. Halsemá says that one night between 7 and 8 o'clock in April, 1898, he was followed by two men and being afraid they would take the money, he buried it on the farm. He could not find it the next day.

Acting in his capacity as Mayor, Mr. Moy directed the police department to arrest both Meyers and Delato for the purpose of questioning them about the money. Meyers was examined today, but declared that he did not get any of the money and that he knows nothing about the matter. It is understood that Frank Burke, of the contracting firm of Mobus & Burke, by whom Meyers was employed, has said Meyers found the money. Delato has not been found by the police. There is a belief that he has most of the money.

Meyers informed the Mayor today that his wife had left him and gone to Petersburg, Va., but so far as is known this statement has no particular bearing on the matter unless it could be shown that her trip was made possible through money found by Meyers.

"Devel's Lake, Monday, 29, 1912.
"Mayor of Plainfield,

"Dear Sir—I see in the paper that two of you Laborers have found a tin can of 1000 in bills. Well in 1898 in the mount of April I was in your Towne it was late about between 7 and 8 oclok Was coming in the Towne whan i was on the Cedar Brook farm the was two man had folloo me for a mile or more I had the bills and I was frede that they Whout thike them from me sou I hade can that I pick up on the Rode and pout mine Bills in there and pout in in the Ground The nex day when I want to get it I couth not fin it and I ben there meny a day it was al the money I hade and poduner al I have now be cause min heald is pour I will not ask them to get me mour than have of it I have a letel plase and I sal have to pout a magoes on it till I get a long The paper said tha Willem Myers a negro and pasquale delato have found the money and have devedet it up thy will gef me have of mine hard earns wages thy halp a pour man.

GUARDSMEN BANQUET IN THE NEW ARMORY

General Dungan and Senator Pierce Among Speakers at Climax of Celebration.

Elizabeth, May 3.—The citizen soldiery of Elizabeth shone in a setting of civilians last night at the closing event of th celebration incident to the opening of the new First Battalion Armory—a banquet attended by more than 500 persons and witnessed by a large number of women who occupied the balcony of the new building.

Distinguished members of the National Guard of New Jersey were among the guests as were many city and county officials.

General Dennis F. Collins, chairman of the general armory committee, introduced the toastmaster, City Attorney James C. Connolly, who made a brief address and introduced former Governor Foster M. Voorhees.

Mr. Connolly congratulated the First Battalion, General Collins, the Union County Board of Freeholders and the Legislature for their part in procuring the new armory.

Letters of regret from Governor Wilson and Congressman Tuttle were read.

Former Governor Voorhees referred to his experiences as commander-in-chief of the National Guard.

Brigadier-General Wilbur F. Sadler, Jr., adjutant-general of the state, reviewed the history of the guard and lauded it for its accomplishments.

The other speakers were: Judge Nelson Y. Dungon, brevet brigadier-genral and late colonel of the Second Regiment; Mayor Alfred A. Stein, State Senator Carlton B. Pierce, the Rev. Otis A. Glazebrock, former chaplain of the regiment, and the Rev. J. Hamilton Hare, chaplain of the Fourth Regiment.

PULPIT ROTATION IN M. E. CHURCH

Bishops Expected to Recommend 5-Year Limit to General Conference.

FOR FREER CONSCIENCE

Radical Changes In the Amusement Restrictions Are Advocated—James R. Joy Appointed Secretary of Foreign Missions Committee.

Minneapolis, May 3.—Limitation to five years as the longest time any minister shall remain in a given church, it is expected, will be recommended to the Methodist Episcopal General Conference by the Bishops today, as a means of stimulating the growth of the church.

Much opposition is expected to arise over the proposal. At present the 19,000 Methodist Episcopal ministers scattered over the world are allowed to remain in any pulpit indefinitely. The new plan, supported by the 24 active Bishops at the conference, will mean a restoration of the time limit abolished in 1900.

It is said that many of the ministers have occupied the same pulpits for more than 12 years, and their objection to the Bishops' proposal when it comes before the conference, will be based on their reluctance to leave a community where they have lived so long.

The Bishops recommend radical changes in the amusement restrictions now imposed upon church members, these changes being in the nature of restoring John Wesley's method of allowing conscience of individuals to dictate what shall be prohibited, instead of having the church decide.

The address condemned the practice that was said to have grown up in certain churches of calling in evangelists to carry on revivals, as against the former custom which placed the local pastor in charge of that work.

In delivering the first section of the Bishops' report, signed by all the Bishops and received by the 850 delegates as the most important document to come before them, Biship Earl Cranston, of Washington, D. C., described as "critical" the fact that in the last year the church has gained "less than 2 per cent. in membership, notwithstanding the outlay of millions of dollars."

The conference ordered a commission appointed to investigate the episcopal supervision of the 325,000 negro members in Southern States. William W. Lucas, of Meridian, Miss., charged that although Bishop Thos. B. Neeley's residence was fixed as New Orleans, the Bishop had lived there not more than 30 days in the last four years. Mr. Lucas and other Southern delegates declared that unless the negro members secured the leadership they sought, they threatened to separate.

The conference last night heard reports from Rev. J. T. Wardle Stafford, of Scarborough, Eng., on the state of the Church in England, and from Rev. J. A. M. Aikens, of Winnipeg, on progress in Canada.

Most important in the standing committee arrangements announced so far is the retirement of Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the New ork Christian Advocate, who for many years has been chairman of the committee on the episcopacy.

Dr. Buckley is made chairman of the foreign missions committee, and James R. Joy, of North Plainfield, is the secretary.

A LIFE IN THE BALANCE.

The sum of $5 a week is urgently solicted by the Charity Organization Society to benefit a little boy of ten years who has contracted tuberculosis. There is a chance of his recovery if he can be removed to the country and his removal would free his four little brothers and sisters from the dangers of contagion which is now great. Telephone 103 for particulars.

Y. M. C. A. PICTURES.

The program for the motion picture entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow will include the following pictures: "Leather Stocking," "Battle of Bunker Hill," "Bruges, Belgium," "How Edam Cheese is Made," "A Tent City," and a comic film.

AFTERNOON PARTY.

Mrs. W. Truman Sharpe entertained at her home on Est Front street, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Raymond W. Tucker, of Westfield, poured tea.

TWO TO FIVE YEARS IN JAIL FOR LEWIS

Ex-Policeman Who Was Arrested at Mt. Bethel Sentenced in N. Y. Court.

Lewis M. Lewis, the former New York traffic squad policeman who was arrested at Mount Methel a month ago after jumping his bail in the metropolis, was arraigned before Judge Mulqueen in the Court of General Sessions, New York, yesterday. He pleaded guilty to several specific charges of forgery and was sent to Sing Sing for an indeterminate sentence of not less than two years and six months or more than five years. The prisoner was greatly affected by the sentence.

Following his dismissal from the New York Police Department some two years ago Lewis hit upon the scheme of visiting saloonkeepers in the city and foisting worthless checks upon them. He confined his efforts to collecting amounts not exceeding $35, but had no difficulty, he admitted to the court, in deriving an average of $5,000 a year from Jim the Penman tactics. The success of Lewis' work depended largely upon the fact that he always shoved the queer paper over the various bars while attired in full uniform. But how he escaped arrest until July 5 last is puzzling the authorities.

On that day he was taken into custody just after he had palmed off a bogus check for $35 on William Horstmann, a saloonkeeper at 110 Barclay street. The check had been drawn on the Nineteenth Ward Bank.

In being taken into custody, Lewis was released on bail but when his trial was called he could not be found. Detectives were put on his track but it was months later before he was located on the Codington place between Mount Bethel and Mount Harb, living as a gentleman farmer. He had fled from New York in the night in the company of a woman not his wife. He distributed $100 among van drivers and helpers to insure silence as to where his furniture had been taken. The New York warrant was endorsed by Justice Andrew Hay, of Mount Bethel, and Walter Swenson, of Stirling, acting as special deputy, assisted in the arrest.

When he surrendered himself and pleaded guilty to attempted forgery in the second degree, Judge Mulqueen imposed the maximum penalty.

COUNTY ENDEAVOR UNION ANNUAL HERE ON MAY 9

The annual meeting of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union will be held at the First Presbyterian church Thursday night, May 9, at 8 o'clock. The address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Samuel Lane Loomis, pastor of the Congregational church, of Westfield.

The society having the largest number of active members present at the rally, will capture the county banner, which at present is held by the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church of Elizabeth. The reports from the county officers for the past year will be read and officers will be elected for the coming year.

W. C. T. U. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN COMES TO END

The membership contest which has been held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. came to a close yesterday afternoon, when the monthly meeting was held. As a result the union has twenty-four new members. Mrs. George Staats was captain of the winning side, and Mrs. Ramsey Blair was captain of the losing side. It was arranged that the losing side give a reception to the winning side, but as Mrs. Blair leaves tomorrow for Belmar for the summer, the reception has been defrred until fall.

The union will hold a cake sale on Friday, May 17, at the home of Mrs. George Staats, on East Third street, and a cottage meeting will be held on Thursday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Henry Thomas on East Third street. The reports from the various departments were encouraging.

BOROUGH COUNCIL TONIGHT.

The regular monthly meeting of the Borough Council will be held tonight. The business budget includes several matters of importance.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Seevers have removed from Belvidere avenue to West Front street.

MOSQUITO BOARD GETS MONEY FOR CAMPAIGN

Freeholders Revise Budget and Set Aside $28,000 For War on Winged Pests --$1,200 to Company K.

The Union County Board of Freeholders at its meeting yesterday appointed a board of governors for Bennie Burn Sanitarium; revised the county budget so as to meet certain expenses such as carrying on the work of exterminating mosquitoes as well as that of the inspection of weights and measures. By the revision, Co. K, of this city, will receive an appropriation of $1,200, thereby enabling it to do better work and give up the practice of holding fairs to raise money. The appropriation was made to the company in view of the fact that other companies have been well provided for by the new armory at Elizabeth.

The following important changes were made in the budget:

Courts, $55,000, instead of $60,000; county ail, $8,000, instead of $9,000; lunatics, $39,000, instead of $41,000; elections, $50,000, instead of $70,000; burial of soldiers, etc., $8,000, instead of $10,000; salaries for county clerk, sheriff and surrogate, $16,000, instead of $17,000; improvements to public buildings, $23,000, instead of $20,000; repairs to county roads, $50,000, instead of $30,000; repair of roads under State Aid act, $12,000, instead of $22,000; weights and measures, $2,00; for extermination of mosquitoes, $28,000. The last item is made compulsory by law, making a total of $450,400, instead of $442,500.

The following were appointed as a board of governors for Bonnie Burn Sanitarium: Edward C. Holmes, Summit, five years; Dr. William H. Murray, Plainfield, four years; Dr. Norton L. Wilson, Elizabeth, three years; W. J. McCloud, Elizabeth, two years; William Howard, Rahway, one year.

STREET LAMPS' LIGHT CHEAPER

COST AT PRESENT $100

New Order Effects Rates in 161 Municipalities and Means Decrease of $100,000 Per Year in Corporation's Revenues.

Newark, N. J., May 3.—The electricity used in street lamps throughout New Jersey is to be cheaper. The Public Service Electric company of Newark filed a new schedule of rates with the state public utilities board in which it is estimated that the reduction will mean a decrease of between $97,000 and $100,000 a year in the revenues of the corporation. The new schedule will not interfere with the discounts allowed by the company for contracts extending from a year to five years.

Plainfield has three arc lights, one at Second street and Park avenue, one at Front street and Park avenue and the other at Watchung avenue and East Front street. The city pays $100 a year for each light. The new rate is $18 by the revised schedule which receives a reduction of $22.

Under the new arrangement the average price for arc lights in the city of Newark will be $69.59 as against $70 a lamp now paid, including the 2½ per cent. allowed on five year contracts. In small communities where the old rate was $90 and more per lamp for any number of lights under 200 the charge has been reduced to $78 per lamp. The larger will make gains according to the number of lights they are paying. The company serves 161 municipalities with either arc or incandescent lights.

MUSIC AND HUMOR FOR PROBASCO BIBLE CLASS

The members of the Probasco Bible Class of the First Baptist church following a business meeting at the Y. M. C. A., last night, enjoyed an evening of music, interspersed with humorous selections by F. S. Thomson, one of the teachers of the class. The musical program was furnished by Dr. S. M. Evans, formerly baritone soloist of Grace Episcopal church, New York. He was accompanied on the piano by S. Frederick Smith, organist of Grace church, this city.

Dr. Evans is a collegemate of Dr. N. H. Probasco, and upon the invitation of the latter he came to Plainfield to entertain the class. Dr Evans sang a number of popular and classical selections. Following the program, refreshments were served by the social committee. The class intends to make the membership contest of the First Baptist Bible School a class issue and a committee has been appointed to make and approve plans for helping the scheme along.

ORGANIZING AUXILIARY.

A preliminary meeting of the women interested in the formation of a Daughters of Scotia auxiliary to Clan Mackenzie, No. 204, O. S. C., was held in Exempt Firemen's Hall, yesterday. The charter roll was opened and twelve names were put down. Another meeting will be held intwo weeks, when plans for the organization will be perfected.

FUNERAL OF MRS. YERKES.

The funeral service of Mrs. David J. Yerkes, who died at her home on Grove street yesterday morning, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the church, will officiate.

GOVERNOR HAS COLD.

Trenton, May 3.—Governor Wilson was unable to come to the State House today, being confined to his home in Princeton with a severe cold. His condition is not regarded as serious, but he probably will be in the house several days.

TWO LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. Harry L. McGee, of Orchard avenue, gave a luncheon yesterday afternoon to a few of her friends and is giving another this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Winn, of Elmwood place, were made happy last week by the arrival of an eight-pound girl.

Y. M. C. OF MONROE CHURCH PRESENTS FARCE COMEDY

A play, entitled "The New Minister," was given in the Monroe Avenue church last night, under the auspices of the Young Men's Class. The cast had been trained under the direction of Charles Lewis and each one tock his or her part in an excellent manner and brought out frequent applause from a crowded house. The play was a farcical comedy upon the coming of the new minister to the small town.

Those taking part were: Lewis Berger, H. H. M. Gilmore, Harry Little, George Ball, Leslie Leland, Harry Lude, William Little, James Gilbert, the Misses Louise James, Louise McCormick, Annie Lee, Mrs. Charles Lee and Mrs. Gilbert, who took the character parts; Misses Daisy Brouard, Ethel Ball, Alice Lude, Minnie Gunzleman, Mary Cumberson, Stella Rink and Mrs. H. M. Gilmore, who composed the Ladies' Aid Society, and the Misses Clara Lee, Bessie Gunzleman, Louis Praed, Lydia Nelson, Adeline Pennington, Louise James, Martha Kant, Ada Thompson, Hazel Sawyer and Irene Sawyer, who composed the Old Maids' Club.

COMEDY TUESDAY NIGHT.

Notice is made of the change of date for Broadhurst's comedy, "Just Like John," from Monday, May 6, to Tuesday, May 7, necessitated by inability of the company to get here from Chicago in time to handle and erect the two carloads of scenic effects. A large number of managers and authors will be present as guests of Mr. Broadhurst to witness the performance and W. A. Brady has provided that this comedy will open his new Forty-eighth Street theatre, New York city, where Mr. Broadhurst's great success, "Bought and Paid For," is now running.

ROLLINSON-MARSH.

Miss Grace Sophronia Rollinson, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Henry D. Rollinson, of Rahway, and Robert Edwards Marsh, son of former State Senator Frederick C. Marsh, of Elizabeth, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents in Rahway. Rev. William T. Stuchell, of the Second Presbyterian church, Rahway, performed the ceremony.

SPRAGUE-MUCHMORE.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Winfield Sprague, daughter of Mrs. Georgiana Augusta Sprague, of Kensington avenue, and Frank Page Muchmore, of Brooklyn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George C. Houghton at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, Monday, April 29.

MRS. TRACY ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Evarts Tracy, of Hillside avenue, gave a luncheon on Wednesday, covers being laid for ten and she gave another similar affair yesterday, there being eleven guests. The dining-room was attractively decorated with spring flowers.

MEAT TOO HIGH; SHUTS HIS SHOP

Augustus Moore Says He Hasn't the Heart to Charge Customers More.

WAITING FOR A TURN

He Will Reopen When Wholesale Rates Go Down—No Profit For Him in the Present Retail Prices.

Unwilling to continue to pay the advanced prices for meat and sell the commodity at a small profit to himself, Augustus Moore, a West Front street butcher, closed his place of business today. He has placed a sign on his door notifying the public that he will reopen for business in the fall. The action of Mr. Moore occasioned considerable surprise among some of his customers.

"The prices of meat have increased to such an extent," said Mr. Moore today, "that it is almost impossible to make any profit in the business. In view of this I have decided that rather than lose all my money I will close up temporarily or until there is a change in the wholesale prices of meat.

"At the greatly increased prices I have not the heart to charge my customers more than they have been paying. I believe that would be an injustice. I could go right on with my business, but under present conditions I would stand to lose perhaps all the money I have invested and I do not propose to do that. I do not know when meat will be cheaper, but I will not reopen until there is a change."

PLAINFIELD BANKERS AT STATE CONVENTION

H. H. Pond Presides Over Sessions—Address by J. Herbert Case.

H. H. Pond, secretary and treasurer of the Plainfield Trust Company, is attending the ninth annual convention of the New Jersey Bankers Association, of which he is president, at Atlantic City. Sessions will be held today and tomorrow. Mr. Pond will preside at the sessions this afternoon and tomorrow morning, and will be the toastmaster at the banquet tonight, at which Governor Woodrow Wilson, Franklin MacVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury, and Dr. Francis Harvey Green, of the Westchester Normal School, will be the speakers.

At this afternoon's session, J. Herbert Case, vice president of the Plainfield Trust Company and of the Franklin Trust Company, of Brooklyn, addressed the convention on "Commercial Paper as a Bank Investment." There was also other addresses by bankers.

Mr. Pond had the distinction of being elected to the presidency of the association last year, after serving on its executive committee since its organization in 1903, and during his encumbency the association has not only materially increased its membership but has accomplished much in the interest of the banks of this state.

The other local banking institutions are represented as follows: State Trust Company, E. F. Feickert; the City National bank, William F. Arnold, and the First National bank, David M. Runyon.

PLAINFIELD'S NEIGHBORS

Westfield.

The spire of the old Methodist church is to be taken down. The spire has been struck several times by lightning and the structure has been weakened, and in order to avoid danger the trustees have decided to have it taken down.

There is talk of appointing John Burhans to the Board of Assessors to take the place of Lloyd Thompson, in case it is decided that Mr. Thompson has lost his residence in town by moving his family to Mountainside.

Manager Flynn, of the Roselle team, has leased the ball grounds of B. H. Woodruff, and after the field is put in condition regular games will be played there.

North Branch.

Repairs are to be made to the Reformed church. A meeting of the women of the congregation will be held in the chapel this afternoon to find ways and means for raising money to defray the cost of the work.

Miss Mary Cortelyou returned to her home in Somerville Wednesday, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. Bradford Opie, at Neshanic Station.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson, of Neshanic, are visiting Mrs. Williamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Groff, in Raritan.

RAHWAY TO OPEN WAR TO EXTERMINATE FLIES

Rahway, May 3.—The Board of Health Wednesday night decided to open a warfare to exterminate flies. Medical Inspector Dr. Frederick W. Sell, was instructed to draw up a section of the health code, which will compel butchers, grocers, fish dealers and confectioners and others to keep their goods protected from flies.

Dr. Sell advocated the distribution of literature showing "Flies a Cause of Disease." In this, he explained, he was backed by Superintendent of Schools William J. Bickett, who agreed to have the circulars distributed among the pupils. The board instructed Dr. Sell to see that the work was done.

President Joseph G. Smith said that numerous complaints had been made regarding the section in the health code, "that in plumbing a house four-inch pipes must be used to the street line." A number of persons wanted to put down six-inch pipes, which the medical inspector would not allow.

A committee consisting of Commissioners Edward J. Ghegan, Dr. Walter E. Cladek and Dr. John T. Brickell, with President Smith and Dr. Sell, was appointed to confer with the drainage committee, in the hope of making a compact on the matter.

The health officer reported one case of scarlet fever, three cases of diphtheria, one case of chickenpox, thirty-three cases of measles and three cases of typhoid fever.

GRANTS, AFTER FIGHTS, END STRIKE OF GIRLS

Perth Amboy, May 3.—Although the strike of the shirtwaist operators employed by the H. Kottler Company was officially declared off Wednesday night, after a period of disorder, a number of the girls refused to go to work yesterday morning.

Terms were reached at a meeting between the factory owners and the union leaders. The girls are returning under an agreement to work two weeks for an advance of fifty cents a week, and then there is to be a new adjustment, based on the degree of proficiency shown. The hours of work per week are reduced from fifty-six to fifty-three.

The meeting followed several hours of strife, during which girls were beaten and the factory building stormed by girls, who hurled mud and stones at the windows. Six policemen were required to restore order. Several strike-breakers were so intimidated that they failed to appear Wednesday.

A revolver was taken from one woman, who rushed to the rescue of her daughter. Samuel Young, a foreman, failed to appear in court Wednesday night against three girls, whose arrest he caused, and Recorder Kehoe dismissed the cases.

As the girls left the city hall they waited for the witnesses, and greeted them with jeers. Chief Burke and several policemen dispersed the crowd with difficulty.

It is believed that the girls who have not yet returned to work will do so during the day.

TWO NEW COINS.

So well received have been the reasons advanced for the coinage of a three-cent piece that it is expected Congress at its present session will pass a bill for that purpose. It is also probable that a measure providing for the coinage of half cents will also go through both the House and the Senate. Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh is back of both bills, despite the fact that in the past his department has strongly opposed the introduction of new coins. The objection was based on the theory that new pieces would cause confusion. To avoid this situation, the Director of the Mint at Washington suggests that the proposed three-cent piece be made with a scalloped edge similar to the one anna piece in use in India and that the half cent be perforated like the Chinese coins, or vice versa.

"Almost every civilized country in the world has one or more coins intermediate in values between one-cent pieces and five-cent pieces," the committee's report states, "and also one or more coins of a value approximately equivalent to one-half cent or less. Canada, Peru and Paraguay are the only governments which have no coin intermediate in value between one cent and five cents; and Calada, Argentine, Venezuela, Colombia, Uruguay and Paraguay are the only countries which have no coins of a value approximately equal to or less than one-half cent."

One who has given the matter much study presents this argument:

"A three-cent piece will provide a smaller medium with which to purchase hundreds of articles which are now arbitrarily sold for a nickel for want of a smaller coin, thus establishing a juster and more rational relation between value and price. It will enable the masses to purchase commodities in smaller quantities, as in European countries, thus encouraging economical buying."

HOMER DAVENPORT.

Death has claimed Homer C. Davenport, whose career from circus follower to the pinnacle of fame as a cartoonist, is pretty well known to the general public. He was a natural-born genius as a funny picture maker and when he applied at a San Francisco newspaper office for a job in drawing representations of current events he had never seen the inside of a nart school. The most pronounced feature of his work was its originality and although after he popularized his type of cartooning he had many imitators he stood alone in his class and it cannot be questioned that he was the greatest man in his field of effort of his time.

His cartoons of the Martyred-President William McKinley and his origination of the caricature of the late Mark Hanna in his $ mark suit of clothes made him famous and at the same time brought down on his head and the new York newspaper in which they were published a storm of protest. An attempt was even made to pass an anti-cartoon bill in the New York Legislature in order to suppress his work. His giant figure of the trusts and his picture representing Uncle Sam placing his hand on the shoulder of Theodore Roosevelt with the words "He's good enough for me" were among those that added lustre to his name. They say that no man's place is impossible to fill. That may be true, but it will be a long day before there is another Homer Davenport.

San Francisco is not going to accept a gift of $750,000 from Andrew Carnegie for a public library building if former Mayor Taylor, of the Municipal Library Board, can prevent it. When the offer was being considered a few days ago, Mr. Taylor said "Mr. Carnegie went to bed one night with $130,000,000. He went down to breakfast the next morning and found the sum increased to $250,000,000. Do you want any of that money? I don't. Nothing could be more humiliating than the spectacle of the city holding out the hat to Carnegie. The city can build its own libraries."

Do you imagine that had the offer of Mr. Carnegie to build a library here been referred to the people to decide that the gift would have been accepted?

"Troubles never come singly" to any man. Some people seem to think that William Howard Taft has not enough to worry over with a fight on his hands with the Colonel and so they're stirring up more annoyances for him. The cause of his new tribulations is found in the fact that the President has given out a private letter he wrote to Roosevelt stating that reciprocity with Canada would make that country "only an adjunct of the United States," and that the agreement would be the means of transferring "all their important business to Chicago and New York, with their bank credits and everything else—" But then, Mr. Taft has pretty broad shoulders.

The lawyers' market is overstocked. That's the finding of the dean of the Northwestern Law School, who advises a business career instead of the law for those who measure success by the amount of money to be made. Four-fifths of the Chicago legal lights he declares make only from $1,000 to $3,000 a year. Only one-twentieth he adds get a pile of $6,000 or more a year. Conditions prevailing in the Windy City exist as well in this section of the country. A local lawyer recently boasted that he had added $1,900 to his bank role in a single year.

Of course you will want to express your Presidential preference at the New Jersey primaries on Tuesday, May 28. If your name is not already on the registry list, you will not be permitted to cast a ballot unless between now and May 28 you make an affidavit at the city clerk's office which is open every day for that purpose between 9 and 5 o'clock. Only those who voted at the last general election and those who register as stated will be allowed to participate in these primaries. Get busy. Do it now.

Chairman Clay, of the Councilmanic Public Affairs committee, did a wise thing in holding an open meeting for the discussion of the municipal scheme for the collection and disposal of garbage. A few public spirited men were present to give their views but the meeting was a sad reflection on the hundreds who are clamoring so loudly for this sorely needed improvement. It was clearly the duty of these people to attend the session, but they did not seem to appreciate the fact.

Philadelphia's Department of Public Safety has prepared an order of reprisal on New Jersey autos having dealers' licenses. The trouble is due to alleged interference with Pennsylvania cars in this State, but it is understood that the strained relations will be remedied in a short time and there will be complete reciprocity between the sister States.

Don't neglect to read the contributed editorial tomorrow. It will be time well spent. As we have frequently said, the purpose of the contributed editorials is to make people think. Tomorrow's will accomplish that purpose.

PRINCETON TABLET TO CHRISTOPHER HOLDER

Princeton, May 3.—A tablet in memory of Christopher Holder, after whom Holder Hall was named, has been placed in the northern arch of that building. No ceremonies attended the fitting of the stone into its place. The following was inscribed on it: "Holder Hall, named in honor of Christopher Holder, a member of the Society of Friends in America in the seventeenth century—devout, loving, loyal to duty, patient in suffering. For this hall and tower Princeton University is indebted to his descendant, Margaret Aliver Sage, 1909."

Excavating for the foundation of the cloisters of Holder Hall is now nearly completed, and work on the masonry itself its soon to begin. The completion of these cloisters will form the fourth side of what is to be known as Holder Quadrangle. As soon as the funds are available the new university commons will be started. This will mean the tearing down of the present university commons, which are situated in a not too slightly building once used as a hotel. Work has also been progressing in the excavating for Cuyler Hall which will be a new dormitory situated between Patton and Brown halls.

WEEK-END NOTES FROM 7TH DAY BAPTIST CHURCH

The covenant meeting of the church is held this evening with the weekly prayer meeting.

The service of the Lord's supper will be celebrated tomorrow at the close of the preaching service.

Robert Spicer will lead the Junior prayer meeting in the afternoon tomorrow. Topic of the meeting, "The Story of Two Houses."

Mrs. George E. Davis will be the leader of the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting at four o'clock tomorrow. "Unselfishness," is the topic.

The "Parish House" committee will meet at the church at two o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, May 5.

Next week "Mothers' Day" will be observed by exercises in the Sabbath school and by a vesper service in the afternoon.

The pastor, Rev. Edwin Shaw, will preach a communion sermon tomorrow morning, using the Scripture text, "And I Have Appointed Unto You a Kingdom."

HOMER DAVENPORT DIES; NEWSPAPER CARTOONIST

New York, May 3.—Homer Davenport, the cartoonist, died of pneumonia. He had been ill since April 18.

On that day the Carpathia arrived with the survivors of the Titanic disaster and Mr. Davenport was exhausted with his work, which had entailed great strain on a nervous system highly excitable. He had drawn three cartoons during the evening dealing with the wreck and he collapsed.

During the last three days of his illness he was unconscious.

Davenport's original ideas for emblems and the like were a strong part of his work as a cartoonist. His was the notion of portraying Mark Hanna in a suit of clothes bearing the $ mark. The portrayal of "The Trusts" as a gang of rude and savage giants was another of his creations.

Davenport was a native of Oregon.

Thomas Hale, president of the Hale-Halsell Company, of McAlliester, Oklahoma, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kalmann Rothberg, of West Third street, yesterday. Harry Rothberg is a salesman with the Muskogee branch of this company.

Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., following its regular meeting last night, enjoyed a euchre party. On Friday night, May 7, the lodge will give a public euchre party.

TRAVELING REPAIR MAN STEALS WATCH JEWELS

Perth Amboy, May 3.—A man claiming to be an itinerant watchmaker Wednesday visited William Pfirrman's saloon, on Smith street, pretended to repair two watches for Pfirrman, and left with the jewels and other valuable parts of their works.

Pfirrman notified the police, but the man got away. Pfirrman said he was busy when a well-dressed stranger entered, bought a drink and asked for work cleaning or repairing watches. Two were given him, and for an hour he worked over them, and then was paid for his work.

The Square Pot Furnace gives best service

Ever noticed the ordinary furnace? After 2 or 3 years it becomes rusted—it commences to decay and fall apart—the grate bars are warped and burnt and its actions are erratic.

The patented Square Fire Pot Furnace is a reliable furnace. Heat just where and when you want it and just the desired amount.

It cannot clog with ashes. It is economical. It is clean and always looks so. In short, the Square Pot is ideal. Ask your dealer—he'll show you why.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS GIVE DINNER TO SUPT.

The Sunday-school teachers of the Temple Baptist church, in recognition of his re-election as superintendent, gave a dinner to J. W. Randolph at the church last night. Rev. Evarts C. Conover, the pastor, was toastmaster and after the dinner, there were several short addresses.

Mr. Conover on behalf of the teachers, renewed the pledges of support of all to the superintendent for another year, at the same time recalling the fact that the past year had been the best in the history of the school. Other addresses were made as follows: Frank Stewart, associate superintendent; U. B. Crane, representing the adult Bible class; Mrs. Edward Baker, Jr., representing the intermediate and junior departments; Mrs. Evarts C. Conover, representing the primary department, and Clarence LaRue, representing the adult junior department. Mr. Randolph made a happy response. A social hour followed.

Services at the First Baptist church on Sunday, May 4, at 3 p. m. Interment in Hillside cemetery.

TIME FOR SOLDIERING.

Adjutant-General Sadler has sent a communication to the various unit commanders of the guard which has caused much elation among the officers, and which, it is expected, will be followed by a law covering the subject. General Sadler said that he is in receipt of a letter from the department of militia affairs, setting forth that the Secretary of the Treasury and the postal authorities have issued orders that employes of these departments be given leave of absence to attend to military duties whenever possible. The communication sets forth that as the National Guard is now an important factor in the military strength of the country, and that a man belonging to it is showing his obligation to his native land, that all provision possible should be made to allow him to attend to these duties. The heads of the two departments rule that employes be given leave of absence with pay for as long as the law allows and as much additional time without pay as is needed for the performance of military duty.

—Neuman Bros. will have for tomorrow's trade a large and choice assortment of fresh vegetables.

K. D. CIRCLES RENEW PLEDGES

from the various circles with the renewal of pledges. Each circle reported having contributed in other ways to the support of the Day Nursery, giving linen, clothing, provisions, etc. The reports follow:

Mrs. Joseph Brown, for the Benevolent Band, reported 37 active and 10 associates. The band renewed its pledge of $150. Mrs. Orton G. Dale reported 49 active, 15 associates and two honorary members in Charity Circle, and renewed its pledge of $200. Miss E. L. Merrill, for the Cheerful Workers, reported 31 active, and 4 associates members. Mrs. C. E. Faber, for the Daughters of the Cross, reported 40 active and 11 associate members and renewed its pledge of $200. Whatsoever Circle had no report but renewed its pledge of $25, and Mrs. C. Frank French, for Brightside Circle, renewed its pledge of $30.

Mrs. I. P. Runyon, reporting for the Golden Rule Circle, renewed the pledge of $25. It has an active membership of 21. The Cup Bearer's Circle renewed its pledge of $75. Mrs. Alexander Milne, reported 31 active, 16 associate and 4 honorary members in the Silver Cross Circle, and renewed its pledge of $100. Mrs. William Evans, for the Loyal Daughters, reported 31 active and 9 honorary members, and renewed its pledge of $200. Unity Circle renewed its pledge of $75. Emmanuel Circle renewed its pledge of $10; In His Name Circle with 18 members renewed its pledge of $50, and Mizpah Circle renewed its pledge of $5.

Mrs. A. M. Most, treasurer, presented an excellent report of financial activities during the year. The balance on hand at last report was $5,040.41. The receipts for the year were $6,234.71 and disbursements $4,760.92, leaving a balance of $1,473.79. Deducting the balance of $1,192 in the Edgerton fund, there is a balance in the general fund of $381.79. In addition to the above Mrs. Most also presented a special report in connection with the work at the new Day Nursery. This showed the following expenditures: A. L. C. Marsh, architect, $225; Albert Pangborn, mason, $1,566; Wyman & Haberle, carpenters, $4,080; A. M. Griffin, plumbing, $651.55; Woolston & Buckle., painting, $765; Edward Craig, electric work, $207; Charles Dutcher, heating, $697; J. W. Gavett, fixtures, $122. The old Day Nursery property on West Third street was sold for $3,250 and the new property cost $7,000. The total amount expended was $16,352.75. The property is absolutely free of debt.

It was reported that instead of the King's Daughters paying $40 a year toward the support of the Nursing Bureau, it will pay $20, and still have the services of nurses when required.

Mrs. Most further reported that 1,500 children had been cared for at the Day Nursery since the last report, the names of sixty additional children being placed on the roll. Fifteen children were under one year, twelve under three years. The average age of the children is from 1 to 7 years. Mrs. Most stated that according to the arrangements a metal plate will be placed on each crib at the Day Nursery with the name of the circle giving the crib.

It was voted to amend the constitution by allowing a representation of two trustees on the executive board from each circle having twenty or more members, and providing that eight instead of four members constitute a quorum at executive board meetings. The order of the committees will be as follows: Day nursery, camp and nurse. Between now and June 1 the various circles will elect their trustees to attend the meeting for the election of officers.

The King's Daughters gave a vote of thanks to Mrs. Most for her untiring efforts as treasurer and in the interest of the Day Nursery.

SILVER BAY CONFERENCE TO BE OPENED JULY 12

Among the innovations that will characterize the Missionary Education Movement Conference at Silver Bay on Lake George, July 12-21, this year, will be a special program for laymen opened by J. Campbell White, general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. William D. Murray, of this city, is president of the Silver Bay Association and is one of its most active members.

There will be another series of conferences or institutes for pastors led by Dr. Cornelius H. Patton, secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions—recently returned from an extended journey through Turkey, Africa and India.

Other special conferences and institutes have been arranged for Sunday-school superintendents and teachers, missionary committeemen, and for practically every type of worker in the local church activities.

Ralph E. Diffendorfer, formerly of Scotch Plains, Sunday-school secretary of the Missionary Education Movement, will have charge of the daily conferences in graded missionary instruction for the Sunday-school.

Robert E. Speer will be among speakers at the platform meetings and other well known devotional and missionary speakers, including board secretaries and missionaries, will address the conference at the evening vesper and other services.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Manager Wolverton, of the Yanks, is gradually getting his line-up so that it looks as it did when they played ball. Cree and Wolter have returned to the game.

It's about time the Yanks were playing in a little luck, for Chase, Cree, Wolter and Dolan have all been out of the game.

New York now has four ball teams, now that the U. S. League has opened.

St. Louis does not seem to be going so strong this year as last. At this time a year ago they looked to be dangerous contenders for the flag.

A number of players in the teams of the United States League have chased the paths at the oval.

Work on the fine new home of the Brooklyn Superbas is progressing finely. It is hoped to have it ready by September 1.

The City High School seems to have a team the equal of any in this section of the State. They have the winning habit and that helps a great deal.

A good thing for any team to remember is to "talk it up" whether you are winning or losing. A game is never won until the last man is out.

Ty Cobb is up to his old tricks again. He made a clean steal of home in the game against the White Sox, Wednesday.

Meeting of the Plainfield Motorcycle Club tonight in the club rooms.

Also a shoot at the Watchung Gun Club.

A year ago now the Phillies were feared by every National League team. This year the Giants are using them as a stepping stone.

The Yanks showed a great deal of improvement against the Athletics Wednesday. So did Russell Ford.

Matty used to have everything on the ball when he met the Reds. He will have the chance to show the fans when the Reds' new park is opened on May 18.

The Quaker City police have lifted the ban on Jersey autoists.

B. A. A. WINS ANOTHER.

The B. A. A. won another victory yesterday when they defeated the Netherwood Boy Scouts by the score of 11 to 7, on the Parker Field. Both teams played fine ball, but the Athletics led from the third inning, after making six runs. The batteries were: Athletics, Mills and Case; Scouts, Rubenstein, Horan and Hylan.

SEASON AT COUNTRY CLUB WILL START TOMORROW

The active season will be formally inaugurated tomorrow at the Plainfield Country Club, the announced schedule for the day being an "opening day handicap" 18 holes, medal play, for Classes A and B. The prizes will be presented by "A Golfer." The course, including the greens, are in fine condition, notwithstanding the excessive wet weather, and it shows the benefit of the great amount of work performed under the direction of the green committee.

The clubhouse is now open and is in charge of George W. Eke, formerly of the City Club, of Auburn, N. Y., who has been engaged as superintendent for the year, and the full restaurant service is now available. The women members of the club are planning to take a more active interest than ever and a number of competitions will be arranged for them. Mrs. H. R. Stockton is chairman of the woman's golf committee.

DUNELLEN WILL OPEN WITH CRANFORD TEAM

Great preparations are being made to have the opening of the baseball season in Dunellen an auspicious one. The fast borough team is scheduled to make the Cranford team travel rapidly if they contemplate having any look in at all. Mayor Richards is going to be on hand and throw out the sphere to start the fracas. The game will be called at 3:15 with the admission at the popular rates.

Manager Bogardus has announced his line up as follows: either Mullen or Powers, 3b.; Dixon, c.; Martin, 2b.; McLoughlin, p.; Barnes, 1b.; Elliott, rf; Schott, lf., and Dodwell, cf.

N. P. H. S. BASKETBALL GIRLS GIVEN MEDALS

The members of the girls' basketball team of North Plainfield High School were presented with gold medals at the chapel exercises this morning, as a mark of appreciation on the part of the Athletic Association for their good record made during the past season. This is the first time that such recognition has been made of the girls' team. The presentation was made by Principal Phelps.

The members of the team to receive these medals were Mildred McAuliffe and Bessie Carson, who took care of the centre position; Elsie Debele and Clara Smith, guards, and Helen Hummel and Marion Mair, forwards. This team went through the season with only two defeats.

UNITED STATES LEAGUE PLAYERS KNOWN LOCALLY

A number of players not strangers to the Plainfield fans are in the newly formed United States League. This League has been hanging fire for some time and by the baseball expert has been treated as something of a joke. Nothing daunted the men at its head have gamely gone ahead with the final arrangements and officially opened on Wednesday. New York is one city boasting a team and in the opening game with Reading played at Bronx Park the players whose faces are familiar in this city were seen.

They are Bruggy, who caught for Bound Brook in the Central League last year, catcher for the New York team; Sam Hope, the Staten Island wizzard, who twirled for Westfield at the end of the season, appearing on the mound part of the game for the New York team, and Peterson, who relieved him after the fifth inning, pitched several games for Bound Brook.

On the Reading team appeared Malley, who will be remembered as playing with Scotch Plains in the old City League that was such a success a number of years ago. Also Jack Cronin, who while never appearing on any of the diamonds in this vicinity will be remembered by many as an old Giant pitcher.

Friends of these players will watch the success of the newly formed outlaw league, and will feel a keen interest in the standing of the New York team.

WHAT THE HALF-HOLIDAY OFFERS PLEASURE-SEEKERS

Often when you step off of the "Saturday Special," and find yourself with a long afternoon in front of you, you wonder how you can spend the afternoon. Tomorrow, should it prove to be a pleasant day, will find plenty for you to do.

Perhaps you play golf. Both the Country and the Park Clubs will be ready for driver and the putter tomorrow. If you like baseball the first offering will be the opening of the Plainfield Club's season. Plainfield will meet the Chatham team, members of the old Lackawanna League, on Crescent Oval at 3:30. That is sure to be worthy of the fans' attention. Then, too, the High School teams from the city and borough will line up against each other for the first time this season at Parker Field. Leal's team does not play, having met the Summit Y. M. C. A. second team this afternoon. In Netherwood the A. C. will try to lift the Temple A. C. scalp, and for the Dunellen fans Manager Bogardus has slated the Cranford team, which should make things interesting in the railroad town.

There will be something offered for those who like foot races, too. The Y. M. C. A. starts its first of a series of five matinee running races. The track at Parker Field will be used, ten men have entered, and the start will be made promptly at 2 o'clock.

Over in the borough the Watchung Gun Club will hold a shoot. So take advantage of real spring weather—if we should happen to have some—and take your choice of this list of sports.

CLINTON AVENUE TOO MUCH FOR FRESHMEN

The Clinton Avenue team took the P. H. S. boys into camp yesterday on the Clinton avenue grounds by a score of 14 to 6. It was the West End boys' game after the fourth inning, when they put across three runs.

The teams lined up:

P. H. S. Freshmen—LaRue, ss; Randolph, 1b; LaRue, p; Linke, 2b; Canter, c; Pollock, cf; Burdick, lf; DeHart, 3b; Sachar, rf.

Clinton Avenue—Crozier, 1b; Van Norden, 3b; Martin, ss; Hendry, p; Pennoyer, 2b; Apgar, c; Wilson, lf, Peacock, rf; Van Norden, cf.

Score by innings:

P. H. S. F.	2	0	1	0	0	0	2	1	0	— 6
Clinton Ave.	3	0	2	3	4	1	0	1	x	—14

Two base hits—Cozier, Van Norden. Bases on balls—Hendry, 10; LaRue, 4. Strike outs—Hendry, 3; LaRue, 5. Umpire—Fredericks.

POST-SEASON BOWLING ON PARK CLUB ALLEYS

An interesting series of post-season games are being rolled on the Park Club alleys by teams made up of those who participated in the tournament just closed. On Wednesday night teams composed of members living upon Myrtle and Washington avenues met in the first game of this series and the Washington team, captained by J. B. Betts, won two out of the three games rolled, taking the first and last.

Next Thursday night the winning team will play a team traveling under the sobriquet of "The World," composed of men not members of the Myrtle avenue team, captained by C. A. Campbell. The winner of this match will, one week later, be matched against a team composed of the pick of the other two teams.

The games are creating a great deal of enthusiasm among the members and it is expected that excellent scores will feature all of the games. No prizes are offered to the winners.

Savings in Spring Suits for Men and Young Men

Every Brill Suit is the Best that can be made at the price—it must be—we have our pick of the world's best makers—we have no obligations but those to our customers—we must be given the best clothes for the money or we do not buy—and we get it. Take for example:

The New Brill Ten $10
Spring Suits Special at

We searched among hundreds of clothing manufacturers for suits that we could sell at $10 to the thousands of men and young men who want good, smart looking, serviceable suits, but cannot pay more than $10, or who do pay more, but would like to pay less. We didn't want the kind of suits usually sold at $10. Oh, No! We could get them anywhere. We wanted better suits than had ever been shown at $10 — and we got them.

The Brill Special $15
Spring Suits for Men at

We started out the same way some three years ago to get the best suits that could be sold for $15. We got them. They were so good we called them the Brill Special $15 Suits. Each year since then we made it our business to get them better. This year, of course, we wanted the best ever, and we certainly got them.

TOMORROW'S OPENER WITH CHATHAM WILL BE FAST

The line-ups of the Plainfield and the Chatham teams as they will meet each other tomorrow afternoon on Crescent Oval are as follows: Chatham—Kelly, c; Spencer, p; J. Spencer, 1b; Stewart, 2b; Shaw, 3b; Blott, ss; with Madegan, Neuschwander, O'Grady, Lum and Cokefair, outfielders.

Plainfield—Nelson, c; Driscoll, 1b; Bill Stallings, 2b; Bill Dalton, 3b; Emery, ss; Eddie Stallings, lf; Joe Harter, cf, and Cosgrove, rf.

Manager Dorflinger has done everything in his power to make this opening game a banner attraction. He has fixed up the grandstand and bleachers, and put the playing field in first class playing condition. The Chatham team needs no introduction here. The game will start promptly at 3:30 and Rutherford B. H. Daly will umpire.

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE TEAMS NOW COMPLETE

The six teams that are to make up the Manufacturers' League that will fight for the Daily Press cup have been announced. The latest member is a team composed of men employed at the plant of the Ransome Concrete Company. The other teams represent the following institutions: Spicer Manufacturing Company, International Motor Co., Garwood Electric Co., Commercial and the Public Service Corporation.

At the meeting of the directors to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building this evening the revised schedule will be announced and the application of one more team who desires entrance will be considered.

JACK SHINES AGAIN.

Jack Martin had another look-in yesterday when the Yanks won from the Athletics by the score of 11 to 4. He was at bat three times. Got three hits, two runs, one put out, five assists, and one error. To top things off his single in the seventh inning with two out, the bases full, and with three balls and two strikes on him started the down hill slide for the Mack men.

CARNEGIE AN OFFICIAL AT INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

Philadelphia, May 3—Andrew Carnegie has accepted an invitation from the Carnegie Technical College at Pittsburgh, which he founded, to act as honorary referee at a three-cornered track meet at Franklin Field on May 11, with Tech., the Carlisle Indians and Pennsylvania will compete.

The steel magnate and library dispenser's presence at the athletic field will add considerable interest to the meet, as it will be the first time he has been seen in the new role.

NEW POLE VAULT MARK SET IN TIGER GAMES

Princeton, May 3.—Breaking the Princeton record for the pole vault and promising results in nearly every event marked the forty-first annual Caledonian games held here yesterday afternoon. The two upper classes proved the hottest contestants, with a tie score of 36 points each, while the freshmen took third place, with 29 points, leaving the sophomores only 16. First, second and third places counted five, three and one points, respectively, and gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded to the winners.

T. Fiske, '14, one of the 'varsity vaulters, won the pole vault at 11 feet, but later cleared 12 feet 2 inches, beating the old Princeton record held by Vezin, '09, by one inch. An attempt to clear 12 feet 6 inches failed by a narrow margin. The closest race was the one-mile run, which I. D. McKenzie, '15, won in the last few feet from P. Curtis, '13. The time was 4 minutes 27 1-5 seconds.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

HOW TO USE BARLEY.

BARLEY is a cereal that may be used in various ways. It is put most generally in soups.

Crusty bread, crackers or buttered croutons are always served with barley soup.

Barley water is often added to babies' milk. This barley water is made by washing about a teaspoonful of pearl barley and then boiling in one pint of water.

As a Breakfast Cereal.

Breakfast Barley.—Steam for four hours in a double boiler one cupful of pearl barley and a quart of water. Add a half teaspoonful of salt to the barley. This part of the process may be accomplished the day before. When ready to serve add a cupful of boiling water, stir well and serve with milk and sugar.

Barley Soup.—Take two tablespoonfuls of pearl barley, wash and soak in cold water for a half hour, then boil until soft. Take a quart and a half of soup stock and boil it with the barley for an hour. Beat the yolk of an egg with a half cup of cream, a tablespoonful of butter and a little of the hot stock, so that the butter is dissolved. Then stir this into the soup, having first drawn the soup pot to the back of the stove so that it may not boil again.

Barley Cakes.

Barley Scones.—If you can get barley flour you may make some very nutritious hot breads with it. Hot milk is mixed with barley meal to which a little salt has been added. Enough of the liquid should be used to form a thick paste. Roll thin and cut out. Bake in a quick oven. When served the scones should be eaten hot and with plenty of butter.

Barley Pudding.—Soak two ounces of pearl barley in cold water for several hours. Then generously butter a baking dish and put the barley in it. Pour a pint of sweet milk over it. Add a well beaten egg, sugar to taste, a little ground nutmeg and a few drops of vanilla or any other flavor liked. Place in the oven and bake for a half hour.

As a Side Dish.

Barley cooked as follows may be served as a vegetable: Wash the barley through several waters. Then place in a stewpan, cover with cold water and boil for five minutes. Drain, cover with fresh boiling water, to which a little salt has been added, and boil for four hours longer. Serve with butter and pepper and salt.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

The Messrs. Shubert and Wm. A. Brady announce that their production of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," the Scottish comedy which is having such a remarkable New York run at William Collier's Comedy theatre, is to continue its engagement without interruption through the summer season. The 250th performance occurred about a week ago and there is yet no sign of diminishing patronage.

The cast for the Shubert-Brady star revival of Gilbert & Sullivan's "Patience," which is to open at the Lyric theatre, New York, on Monday evening, May 6, will include DeWolf Hopper, Marie Doro, Cyril Scott, Eva Davenport, Eugene Cowles, Christine Nielson, George J. Mac Farlane, Viola Gillette, Arthur Aldridge and Alice Brady. The first New York production of this piece at the old Standard theatre, was given by the following players: J. H. Ryley, J. Barton Key, William T. Carleton, Arthur Wilkinson, L. Cadwallader, William White, Carrie Burton, Jeanette Edmondson, Marie Hunter, Jennie Stone and Augusta Roche. This will be the first time that Marie Doro has appeared under the management of the Messrs. Shubert, and there is great interest in her return to musical work, even though it may be only temporary. Mr. Scott, it should also be noted, has not appeared in a musical production since "Florodora."

"At the outset the plot furnishes such a fine starting point that anything is possible even to the least experienced author. The hand that designed the incidents of 'Two Little Brides' was not amateur, so there is ample fun in the complications that result from the forced marriage. The score is melodious and abounds in piquant rhythms, all characteristic of the Kerker muse. Pictorially the piece was quite as tasteful and elaborate as such performances are expected to be nowadays, so it can only be accounted entirely successful."—N. Y. Sun.

"Mr. Powers as usual has a capital part and most of his lines are the kind that the audience expects from him. The piece is up to, if not above the standard of present day musical productions."—N. Y. Tribune.

"The role of Polycrap Ivanovitch, when 'Jimmy' Powers undertook its performance, was no longer merely Russian. It was comic in the broadest sense of the term—a real 'Jimmy' Powers part. The score of 'Two Little Brides,' by Gustave Kerker, is decidedly ambitious from a musical standpoint."—N. Y. Evening Telegram.

A veritable vaudeville sensation is to be found in the classy novelty presented by Nora Bayes and Jack Norworth at the Fifth Avenue theatre next week, when those internationally famous stars of musical comedy make their triumphant reappearance in their own creation, called "A Musical Surprise Party," which is really the one neatest and best thing in stageland. Their material is absolutely original and their support is of the very highest merit. Their costars include Miss Rida Walker and Messrs. Cyril Chadwick, David Stamper and Albert Anderson, all of them known to fame in the variety world. For nearly an hour the fun is fast and furious with no end of surprises and some of the best songs ever heard on any stage. The bill is otherwise rich in interest from many standpoints. Miss Maud Hall Macy and a carefully selected company will offer the season's greatest success, called "The Timely Awakening." Then comes a new bidder for popularity, Miss Belle Adair, who will enliven the bill with some original vocal entertainment, varying her work with amusing stories.

HELD FOR BRITISH CONSUL.

Bayonne, May 3.—After hearing the charges against five sailors of Calcutta, India, who were arrested Wednesday for mutiny on board the ship Kilkeran on its trip from India to this country, Recorder Hugh Mara held the men for action by the British Consul. The sailors alleged they were ill treated by the officers of the boat; that they were not given all the money due them and were poorly fed. J. P. Cowan, chief engineer of the boat, stated that he was threatened with knives by the mutineers. R. F. Mount, a Montclair lawyer, represented the officers of the ship.

—Major Butt was a brave and good soldier who died like an officer and a gentleman, but isn't that talk of a $500,000 monument for him, partly paid for with $200,000 of the public funds, a rather disproportionate and ostentatious evidence of our admiration?—Indianapolis News.

GIVES UP FIGHT TO SAVE LEVEES

Louisiana People Flee For Their Lives.

BIG PLANTATIONS FLOODED

Scores of Prosperous Towns and Rich Lands Are Being Swept by Waters, and Much Greater Danger Is Imminent—Water Full of Debris.

New Orleans, La., May 3.—Submerging scores of prosperous towns and rich plantations, the combined waters of the Mississippi and the Red rivers, at the highest flood stage in their history, are sweeping southward from the great Torras crevasse and are leaving ruin and desolation in their wake. Government engineers announced that an attempt to close the break is worse than useless, and the forces of workmen were withdrawn. The federal engineers say crawfish holes in the great dyke caused it to fall.

In the course of the next few days a quarter of a million persons in southern Louisiana will be homeless and crops valued at $10,000,000 will have been wiped out. The floods are coursing through the low lying sugar plantations

At any time an even more serious break is expected to increase enormously the volume of water. The great Morgan levee has been pronounced inefficient. The levee is the highest in America and, with the exception of two Holland dykes, is the highest earth dam in the world. Throughout the "sugar bowl of America," the section now being inundated, people are fleeing for their lives. Many attempted to save live stock, but hundreds of horses and cattle already have been drowned, and their carcasses, together with the bodies of hundreds of deer, are mingled with the debris of ruined homes and farms. Far to the south, even along the gulf coast, where the waters will not arrive for some days yet, the people are preparing to abandon their possessions and flee.

So far no reports of loss of life have been received.

TITANIC INQUIRY IN ENGLAND IS STARTED

Three Hundred Witnesses Are Summoned to Appear.

London, May 3.—The British wreck commission, under the presidency of Lord Mersey, formerly judge of the admiralty division of the high court of justice, which is investigating the foundering of the steamship Titanic, began its sessions. The proceedings are expected to last a month, as 300 witnesses have been summoned.

The business was confined to regular routine procedure. There was a marked lack of public interest in the inquiry, which is probably due to the fact that the principal witnesses are either in the United States or sailed for England today on the Adriatic.

On the right of Lord Mersey and his assessors a gigantic model of the Titanic was displayed, with a large route chart of the north Atlantic beside it. On the left was a sectional diagram of the Titanic laying bare its internal arrangements for the purpose of illustrating the evidence which is to come.

Attorney General Isaacs briefly outlined the course which he proposed the inquiry should take. He assured Lord Mersey, the chairman of the commission, that the resources of the government were unreservedly at his disposal.

ROOSEVELT IN MARYLAND.

Colonel Campaigning Ahead of Primaries to Be Held Monday.

Baltimore, May 3.—Colonel Roosevelt is spending today in his newest stamping ground, Maryland, which will be the scene of the next phase of the Taft-Roosevelt duel. The primaries in the state are to be held on Monday, and it is expected the president will be campaigning in the state part of the time the colonel is here.

The colonel will speak at Baltimore tonight and at Cumberland on Saturday night. He will cover the state practically in his stumping and will return to New York on Sunday morning.

NAVAL OFFICER KILLED.

Lieutenant McDonald Slips While Boarding Street Car In Brooklyn.

New York, May 3.—Lieutenant Ray S. McDonald, U. S. N., when boarding a street car in Brooklyn slipped and was thrown against one of the pillars of the elevated, sustaining fractures and contusions of the skull which caused his death later at the Brooklyn hospital. He was on his way to Washington to get his orders, having been unattached since his return from command of the gunboat Villalobos on Feb. 17.

Three Women and Baby Killed.

DEFUNCT BANK'S HEAD REASSERTS INNOCENCE

Washington, May 3.—Declaring that he would prove his inocence of wrong-doing, Robert M. Petty, president of the defunct Washington National Bank, says that in a certain sense he considered as a joke the indictment that led to his recent arrest, charged with embezzling $30,295 of the bank's funds.

He will plead to the indictment Monday in the Federal Court, Trenton, and his attorneys, Sylvester C. Smith and Charles M. Brady, of Phillipsburg, will at that time tell what they expect to prove at the trial.

While not anxious at this time to disclose any part of his defense, Mr. Petty stated that the amounts named in the different counts of the indictment could be easily explained to the satisfaction of the court and jury. He claims that the first-named amounts are in part what the Northampton, Easton and Washington Traction Company was indebted to him personally, and the latter-named sum represented mostly the proceeds of the sale of bonds which the bank now holds.

It was explained that these various sums, for the most part, represent the proceeds of the sale of bonds. As the trolley company owed him, Mr. Petty charged the company when a bond was sold and credited his personal account with the same, owing to the fact that the trolley company was indebted to him. He had a credit account, of which, he said, the bonds now in bank were a debt. In conclusion Mr. Petty stated: "I have no doubt of my ability to prove my innocence of any wrong-doing, and under the circumstances would do the same thing over again, as I consider the bonds good for what they represent, and, as the company owed me, I had a perfect right to settle the account in this manner."

FORMER OFFICIAL FINED $250 ON BRIBE CHARGE

Elizabeth, May 3.—Found guilty of attempted bribery in connection with a license application, former Excise Inspector Jacob Hagin was yesterday sentenced by Judge Atwater to pay a fine of $250. His counsel immediately took out a writ of error, carrying the case to the Supreme Court. The convicted man was released under $1,000 bail furnished by his father.

Chester Arthur Spittlehouse, a salesman, aged twenty-nine, who lives at 119.7 East Broad street, was arraigned on two charges, one of breaking into the saloon of George L. Hirtzel, at East Grand and Broad streets, and robbing the cash register of $27.45, and the other of stealing $1 from his brother, George E. Spittlehouse. The prisoner pleaded guilty to both complaints and was remanded one week for sentence.

NEW BRUNSWICK GETS ITS REAL BIG BOOST

New Brunswick, May 3.—In connection with the "Boost New Brunswick" week plans which are being carried out here by the Board of Trade, teams of seven or eight men each started out yesterday on the campaign for 400 new members of the board. At the banquet held Monday night, the men on the teams agreed to devote two hours every day this week in the interests of the board. Yesterday they got 125 members. Today the work is going on and will be continued tomorrow.

President Charles A. McCormick, of the board, is at the head of the campaign which is being conducted on an organized plan with workers from Chicago.

Rev. Paul Hayne is captain of one of the teams. The others are: S. M. Christie, F. R. Stout, John H. Conger, W. H. Mansfield, Ramon Montaive, Isaiah Rolfe, Jesse Strauss, Louis Wolfson, C. W. Wood.

JAMES N. PIDCOCK HOST AT BIG HOUSEWARMING

Whitehouse, May 3.—About 1,000 people, representing all sections of the state, were in attendance at a house-warming at the new residence of James N. Pidcock, Democratic leader in Hunterdon county, at Whitehouse Station Wednesday night. Luncheon, provided from Mr. Pidcock's various farms, was served to all the guests under large tents in the rear of the house.

Many men active in politics were in the gathering, but it was declared the occasion was entirely a social affair. Music was furnished by the Frenchtown Cornet Band, and there was singing by a quartet from Lambertville. Everybody present made a tour of inspection of Mr. Pidcock's new house, which is rapidly nearing completion.

—"Papa. Arthur—er—Mr. Jinx, is in the parlor and asked me to ask you if you would mind stepping down there for a few minutes—he has something important to ask you." "Sure. Tell him I'll have my boots on in just a minute."—Houston Post.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

"Just Like John," a new three-act farce from the prolific pen of George Broadhurst and his collaborator, Mark Swan, will be presented at the Plainfield theatre, Tuesday night. "Just Like John" received its first presentation at the Teck theatre, Buffalo, last week, and met with a flattering reception. The principal character in "Just Like John" is a United States secret service man, under orders from his chief to break up a group of anarchists who have been causing great trouble for the government. He succeeds into worming himself into the inner circle of the anarchists, one of the chief members of which is a blood thirsty but susceptible woman, who immediately falls in love with him. A flashlight taken by the police when the anarchists are making a "get away" shows the luckless secret service officer wrapped in the embrace of the female revolutionist, and this photograph falls into the hands of his wife, with results that are highly amusing to the audience. The cast is headed by Walter Jones. Others of the company are Rapley Holmes, Herbert Yost, Florence Arnold, Diva Moralda, Elsa Lorimer, Theodoria DeCapa, Walter Craven, Richard Lashwood, Montgomery Peters, Alfred Whitins and Frederick Roberts.

AUTO DRIVER, AFTER KILLING BOY, KEPT ON

New Brunswick, May 3.—An effort is being made by Coroner W. F. Harding and Prosecutor George S. Silzer to get track of the owner or driver of an automobile bearing a Pennsylvania State license, which ran down Isidor Fedol, the four-year-old son of Harry Fedol, near his home at Red Lion Tavern, on George's road, Wednesday afternoon. The boy was playing in the road and ran in front of the car so far as can be learned. When his mother reached him he was dead. The car did not stop.

A van was passing at the time bound for Elizabeth. The police here were notified and they had the Elizabeth police watch for this vehicle. The driver was taken to police headquarters, but proved he had nothing to do with the accident. He said he saw the auto, which was several wagon lengths ahead of him.

Coroner Harding went to the scene of the accident yesterday morning to see if he could get some trace of the driver of the car so that a charge of manslaughter can be made against him.

WESTFIELD GOLF CLUB EXPECTS BANNER YEAR

Many Improvements on Links Promised and Season Furnishes Fine Schedule.

Many changes are under way at the links of the Westfield Golf Club, and members of the organization are anticipating a banner season. Following the purchase of additional ground, a contract has been awarded for alterations and improvements to the clubhouse. The extensions and additions will accommodate 250 new steel lockers. The ballroom will be enlarged and the kitchen increased to double its present size. A billiard-room will be added from a portion of the grillroom, and the interior of the clubhouse is to be redecorated. The second floor will be exclusively for women members and their guests. In all, between $6,000 and $8,000 will be expended on improvements. The schedule of events on the links for the season is as follows:

May 30 (A. M.)—Fourball foursome handicap, cups for lowest and net scores. (P. M.)—Mixed foursome handicap for cups.

June 1—Qualifying round for club championship cup for lowest score.

June 8—First round club championship.

June 15—Second round club championship.

June 17—Qualifying round woman's handicap.

June 18—First round woman's handicap.

June 19—Second round woman's handicap.

June 20—Semi-finals woman's handicap.

June 22—Semi-finals club championship.

July 4—(A. M.)—Medal play handicaps for best net and gross scores. (P. M.)—Woman's putting contest; cups for first and second prizes. Men's driving contest; cup to winner.

July 6—Qualifying round, handicap committee cups; thirteen first-round committee cups, twenty second-round committee cups, twenty seven semi-finals committee cups.

August 1—Inauguration monthly cup competition.

August 3—Finals committee cup handicap; cup to winner.

September 4. (A. M.)—Four-ball foursome; cup for lowest net and gross scores. (P. M.)—Woman's putting contest; cups to first and second; men's approaching and putting match; cup to winner.

September 7—Qualifying round for Governors' Cup.

September 14—First round for Governors' Cup.

September 21—Second round for Governors' Cup.

September 28—Semi-finals for Governor's Cup.

October 5—Final for Governors' Cup; cups to winner and runner-up; qualifying round for the Dr. Sinclair Cup; handicap event open to active members only.

October 12—Medal play handicap cups for best net and gross scores, first round for Sinclair Cup.

October 19—Second round for Sinclair Cup.

October 26—Semi-finals for Sinclair Cup.

November 2—Finals for Sinclair Cup.

November 5 (A. M.)—Medal handicap against bogey; cup to winner.

MILES CHARLOCK HEADS THE TENNIS COMMITTEE

New York, May 3.—To comprise the ranking committee for the coming season, the United States National Lawn Tennis Association has announced the appointment of Miles S. Charlock, of the West Side Tennis Club and Crescent Athletic Club chairman; George T. Adee, of the Country Club, Westchester, secretary and Charles M. Bull, Jr., of the Crescent Athletic Club. These appointments were passed by Robert D. Wrenn, president of the association and of the executive committee.

Another appointment of importance announced is of a committee to make a complete revision of the constitution and by-laws of the National Association. This committee includes Henry W. Slocum, of the Rockaway Hunt Club; Ward C. Burton, of the Minnetonka Yacht Club, Minneapolis; Raymond D. Little, of the West Side Tennis Club; Lyle E. Mahan, of the West Side Tennis Club, and Palmer E. Presbrey, of the Longwood Cricket Club, Boston. The work upon this matter is to be carried forward at once and the majority of the members are practising lawyers.

SENATORS AS READ'S GUESTS.

Woodbury, May 3.—The members of the New Jersey Senate were the guests of Senator William T. Read, of Camden, at a dinner at Fall's Hotel, Westville, yesterday afternoon. The Senators arrived early and gave expressions of pleasure at being able to get together when there was no work to be done. Senator Robert E. Hand, of Cape May, is to have the Senators as his guests at Atlantic City on May 25.

We Want You to Share These Dresses

They Are So Beautiful---So Very Cheap

When we bought this lot of dresses we wanted as many of our women friends to share in them as possible—first, because they are beautifully made of fine materials; next, because they are so very cheap.

We knew that every dress that went from here would be a standing advertisement for us, and would probably be the means of selling many other dresses; at least, every one who secured one or more of the dresses would be delighted.

Those who have already selected dresses from this lot would advise you to see them and secure one or more for yourself. They realize what bargains they are.

Come in tomorrow—take the time to come from out-of-town if you live in the suburbs. Don't fail to see these dresses before they are all sold, which will be in a very little while.

There are dresses of changeable Taffeta, exquisite Chiffon, Messaline, Eoline, Marquisette, dainty Voiles, novelty Foulards, lustrous Crepes, in beautiful plain colors and striped effects.

The Trimmings are braid, fringe, satin, gilt embroideries, shadow or macrame laces, embroidered effects, combinations and buttons.

It would be futile to attempt a detailed description of any of the styles and there are hardly any duplicates, for here there is more than one dress of a style there are different colors.

The sizes run all the way from 16 to 44, so that everyone may be nicely fitted.

Dresses worth up to $20, go at $9.95.
Dresses worth up to $26, go at $14.95.
Dresses worth up to $32, go at $17.85.
Dresses worth up to $39, go at $22.95.
Dresses worth up to $49, go at $25.75.

Smartest Coats Are Here

Styles Never So Good and We Don't Ask Extravagant Prices

There would be justification in selling these coats at much higher prices. The styles are not surpassed, in fact, we are told often that there is no collection of coats in Newark comparable with ours, and we know that a number of our styles are exclusive—made for us or confined to us by the makers. Yet we do not take advantage of the situation to boost prices. Instead, we believe we are naming lower prices for good coats than any concern in Newark or vicinity.

Here are some very attractive propositions—

Women's and Misses' Coats—A new lot, just opened up—beauties, the smartest styles we have seen in moderate priced coats; made of diagonals and fancy mixtures; trimmed with black and white striped collars and revers or fancy colored bengalines; cuffs with black and white stripe, trimmed with fancy buttons; coats that would be easily worth $12.50; to be sold at only.....$7.50

Blue and Tan Serge Coats with smart collar and cuffs of white or tan serge; elaborately embroidered with silk; value $12.50; special..$7.50

Coats of Blue, Tan and Black Serge and Whipcord, with trimmings of moire, bengaline or laces—various stunning styles; very special at $15 and $12.50.

Women's and Misses' Black, Blue and Tan Serge Coats, trimmed with bengaline, moire and colored serge; several excellent models; very special at $10 and $12.50.

"SAM" WHITE GARNERS HONORS AT PRINCETON

Princeton, May 3.—The choicest honors of the preferential vote of the senior class were garnered by Sanford B. White. "Sam," the gridiron hero, last year's baseball captain, and president of the class, received four honors in the statistical election, the results of which have just been announced. White was picked as Best All-Around Man, Done Most for the Class, Most Popular Man, and Best All-Around Athlete.

Burnham N. Dell, of Morristown, N. J., president of the Philadelphian Society, was elected Most Respected Man, and Cyrus McCormick, of Chicago, got Most Developed Intellectually. John H. Carroll, Jr., of St. Louis, was voted Most Likely to Succeed.

Some of the other elections were: Most Developed Physically, E. J. Hart, Exeter, N. H.; Most Developed Socially, R. K. Waterbury, New York; Handsomest Man, L. D. Blair, Pittsburgh; Prettiest, E. D. Kalgfleisch, Brooklyn; Best Debater, E. R. Whittingham, Millburn; Best Orator, T. Kelknap, New York; Busiest Man, J. N. Ewing, Bryn Mawr; Hungriest Man, E. J. Hart; Biggest Drag With Faculty, Randolph West, Princeton; Brightest Man, F. D. Halsey, Elizabeth; Cleverest, G. W. Bunn, Springfield, Ill.; Wittiest, E. M. Barnhart, New York.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

Hackensack, May 3.—The grand encampment of the Odd Fellows of New Jersey will convene in Odd Fellows' Hall here next Tuesday morning. Visitors will be present from neighboring jurisdictions and from New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Delaware. The annual election and installation of officers will take place in the afternoon. Morris Lunger, of Jefferson Encampment, Newark, is expected to be made grand patriarch in place of Stephen H. Schleif, of Plainfield, whose term expires. Reports for the past year will show an increase in membership and a good financial standing.

WARREN TAX BOARD ORGANIZES

Phillipsburg, May 3.—The Warren County Board of Tax Equalization met Wednesday at its office here and organized by electing former Sheriff William J. Barker, a Democrat, of Hackettstown, as president in place of Jacob S. Stewart, Republican, resigned. Michael Connlain, of Phillipsburg, who was recently appointed to fill the expired term of Marvin O. Pierson, of Washington, was sworn in. The salary of Secretary Ulysses S. Pursell, of Belvidere, was fixed the same as last year, at $1,000 per year.

HER DRESS AFIRE, AGED WOMAN BADLY BURNED

Miss Jacob Cose, Octogenarian, In Peril of Death as Result of Her Efforts to Destroy Waste Paper.

Badly burned from head to foot and suffering severely from nervous shock, Mrs. Jacob W. Cose, an octogenerian, is confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Penny, of Fourth street and Watchung avenue, as the result of an accident which befell her at 11 o'clock this morning. Her escape from death was little short of miraculous and is due only to the prompt assistance that came in response to her screams for help. Prompt physicians' treatment also alleviated the after effects as Dr. A. G. Sheppard was within calling distance. Unless complications develop she will ultimately recover.

Mrs. Cose was assisting her daughter in housecleaning at their apartment in the new Hersh building and took a basket of waste paper to the backyard, sitting it on fire. She was watching it in close proximity when a gust of wind fanned the flames against her skirt. In an instant her clothing was ablaze, enveloping her in a merciless ring of fire.

A back entrance leads to the upper apartment and Mrs. Cose ran to it. Her cries brought other tenants with rugs and coats, in which she was wrapped. The flames were thus smothered out but not before her limbs, body and face were a mass of burns and her hair and eyebrows seared off. Several rescuers were blistered about the hands.

Dr. Sheppard was in the Pratt drug store in the building and with William Pratt, the pharmacist, responded to the emergency call. The sufferer was swathed in bandages, saturated in cooling fluids within a few minutes after the remnants of clothing had been removed. She was resting comfortably at 2 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. EXHIBITION ATTRACTS MANY PEOPLE

There is an exhibit of the work of the different departments of the Y. W. C. A. being held today in the windows of the Shirley & Johnson store, that is attracting a great deal of attention. The dressmaking, millinery, embroidery, cooking and gymnastic departments of the work are the ones represented and are a credit to the pupils and the instructors.

The works on exhibition is of a high order, showing in their completeness and finish that the departmental instruction has been of a great deal of value. The millinery exhibit is of especial interest to the married men who gaze into the window and resolve to send their wives next year. This exhibition will be open all day and this evening and it will pay you to see for yourself the results of the past year's training in the different departments of the Y. W. C. A.

MRS. M'GEE ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF N. Y. FRIENDS

Mrs. Harry L. McGee, of Orchard avenue, the borough, gave the second of two receptions at her home, yesterday afternoon, being assisted by her mother, Mrs. Josephus H. Howell. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Percival J. McIntosh, of New York. Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Howell were assisted in receiving by Mrs. George D. Hallock, Mrs. John M. Conklin, Mrs. James C. Peck, Mrs. George T. Rogers, Mrs. F. L. Sill, Mrs. Charles Powell and Mrs. Charles E. Horne.

Those who poured were Mrs. Donald A. McGee, Mrs. Clifford W. McGee, Mrs. Hugh Jarvis, Mrs. Alexander Milne, Mrs. A. B. Laing, Mrs. Leslie Hallock, Mrs. A. M. Abbott, of this city, and Mrs. George Bates, of Cranford. The reception on Thursday was given in honor of Miss Salisbury, of Buffalo.

SERVICE OF SONG AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Convention Choir Will Hold it Tomorrow Afternoon—Short Snappy Talks.

The "Convention Choir," which was such a noteworthy factor in the Sunday-school convention held here last November, has kept up its organization with occasional rehearsals since that time. As a fitting close to the season's work, the choir will give a service of sacred song at the Plainfield theatre tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Arthur M. Harris, who was chairman of the local committee for the convention, will preside, and two or three others will make short, snappy evangelistic addresses.

The main feature of the service will be the singing of the songs which so stirred the convention last fall. A cordial welcome will be extended to all who attend, especially to those who have no regular church connections.

TO TELL OF MISSION AS INDUSTRIAL INVESTIGATOR

Dr. Richard Moldenke will lecture on his "Recollections of a European Mission in 1909," next September. The lecture will be profusely illustrated by lantern slides showing the points of interest visited during the trip, which extended from Christiania to Naples.

Dr. Moldenke, while attending a congress in Copenhagen, where he met the redoubtable Dr. Cook on his return from the Pole, was commissioned by the Government to collect data and make observations regarding the social and industrial conditions of Central and Western Europe. He will describe his peculiar experiences.

The lecture will be given Wednesday night, September 15, at Watchung, under the auspices of the Improvement Society of North Plainfield township, and repeated Thursday evening, September 16, for the benefit of St. Peter's German Lutheran church, Grove and Mercer streets, Plainfield.

EVENING OF TABLEAUX AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH

A program of music and tableaux was given last night in the Grace M. E. church by the choir under the direction of Miss Alice Carroll, the organist. The attendance was large and the numbers were of a most interesting nature. The proceeds are to be used to buy music for the choir.

"Tenting Tonight," with Newell Powelson, Arthur Saunders, Harold Magee, Charles Nichols and Peter Manger to take the differet parts, and "Auld Lang Syne," with Peter Manger, Charles Nichols, David Smalley, Newell Powelson and E. D. Young acting were especially good. The rest of the program consisted of selections by the orchestra, and the following tableaux: "Ceres and the Four Seasons," by Miss Mary Hoagland and the Misses Florence Conroy, Edith Magee, Minnie Nelson and Belle DeMott; "Marguerite at the Spinning Wheel, and Her Old Nurse," Mrs. Charles Nichols and Miss Marion Magee; "In the Sweet By and By," Miss Florence Conroy, Miss Edith Magee and Mrs. Charles Nichols; "Blind Man's Buff," Miss Bessie Conroy and Harold Magee; "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Young, Edmund and Herbert Young; "Zekle and Huldy Three Seasons," read by Mrs. Raymond Miller, with David Smalley and Miss Jennie De Mott; "Mother Goose Favorites," Ruth Nichols, Mary Nichols, Bessie Monck, Mildred Bamberger, Edna Jones, Davies Elliott, Helen Nelson, Madeline Walker and Albert Monck; "A Search for a Wife," Peter Mauger and Mrs. E. D. Young; "Under the Rose," Miss Florence Nichols and Arthur Saunders. The program ended with a grand tableaux entitled "May Day."

BOROUGH COUNCILMEN BUSY OVER ROUTINE

Little Aside From Departmental Matters Arises at the Monthly Session.

The North Plainfield Council met in regular monthly session, last night, but outside of routine matters transacted no business of special importance. A number of propositions under consideration were held in abeyance and will be taken up at an adjourned meeting to be held on May 15.

An ordinance to macadamize Park place, from Grove street to Mercer avenue, was passed on first and second readings, and a petition was received from the residents of Steiner place, asking that their street be improved in the same way. The latter was referred to the proper committee. A resolution was passed authorizing the laying of crosswalks at Verdon street and Grandview avenue and Verdon street and Summit avenue.

A communication was received from A. I. Smalley, and others, living in the vicinity of Somerset and Dupont streets, protesting against permitting the Plainfield Ice and Supply Company to erect an addition to its barn at that corner. The protest was referred.

An appropriation of $561.76 was made to install a 20-inch vitrified drain pipe on Rockview avenue, to carry off surface water. It will be equipped with four outlets. Bills aggregating $2,500 were ordered paid.

The following building applications were granted: C. B. Wheeler, new house, Mountain and Watchung avenues; E. F. Sheppard, new house, Mountain avenue, near Watchung; Adolph Bohren, addition to house, Greenbrook road; M. Abrams, barn, rear of residence on Grove street; J. W. Coddington, new house, Pearl street and Watchung avenue; G. L. Marforce, garage, Willow avenue; G. J. Dolliver, addition to house, Grandview avenue.

SOCIAL NOVELTIES ENJOYED BY 1ST M. E. YOUNG FOLKS

Novel features marking the program of the "Hard Time Social" held at the First M. E. church last night under the auspices of the Epworth League were much enjoyed. Martin B. Stutsman as assessor and Fred A. Martin as tax collector, succeeded in collecting $2 in taxes levied chiefly upon those wearing any kind of jewelry. Those who had no jewelry were taxed for the color of their eyes.

Another feature was silhouettes, in the form of shadow pictures, arranged by Harry Little, and a cobweb party also furnished much amusement.

The "quick lunch counter" probably afforded the greatest fun. Everything served was under a "fake" name and while orders were given from a menu card the purchaser, who was required to pay a penny for every dish did not have the slighiest idea what he was going to get. Some of the dishes included "fragments of the forest," toothpicks; "Boston delight," baked beans; "That which crosses the bar," water; "Long green artificially mellowed," bananas; "Princeton salad," half an orange served on black paper.

Afterward refreshments were served by the young people under the direction of Mrs. Oscar Rose and Miss Helen Whitney, who arranged the social.

COAL PILES NOT EXHAUSTED; L. V. RUMOR PUNCTURED

A report, which was current this morning that the supply of coal at the storage yards of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at South Plainfield was exhausted and that sixty-six employes had been laid off, was denied today by the station agent at South Plainfield. He said that there was a large supply of coal—large even from the railroad's viewpoint—on hand at the storage yards, and while a few men may have been laid off, the rest of the force was kept busy as usual.

According to the agent no caol is now being received at South Plainfield, due to a suspension of operations at the mines, but prior to the suspension coal was rushed in large quantities to the village for storage purposes. South Plainfield is a central point for distribution to points in the east.

ENGAGEMENT RECEPTION.

Judge and Mrs. William Newcorn, of West Front street, will give a reception at the Hotel Astor, New York, tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock, in honor of their daughter, Miss Nettie Newcorn, whose engagement to Dr. Raphael Yood, was announced recently. No cards have been issued for the affair, and friends of the couple are invited.

BAR DEFECTIVES FROM MARRIAGE

City Board of Health Urges Passage of Law to Protect Posterity.

The Plainfield Board of Health at its monthly meeting, last night, adopted resolutions which have been forwarded to the State Board of Health, recommending the passage of a law requiring all applicants for a marriage license to first secure a certificate from an authorized physician, stating that such a person is not an imbecile, epileptic or of unsound mind, and furthermore that he or she is not suffering from any disease or infirmity which would make the marriage unwise from the standpoint of public health.

The resolutions cited that the laws of 1910 prohibit the issuance of a marriage license to an imbecile, epileptic or a person of unsound mind, but inasmuch as the registrar of vital statistics has no other means of determining the mental or physical condition of a person beyond their word, it is urged that a law requiring the certificate of a physician be passed. So far as known this is the first action of the kind that has been taken in this state.

The committee on communicable disease authorized at the last meeting to consider the question of quarantining measles, in accordance with a request, made a report and the same will be made public within a few days. A total of 551 inspections were reported; also 11 marriages, 45 births, 3 still-births, 16 deaths.

COMMUTER OUT $200 ON "FRIEND'S" LEASE

Dr. Knight Among Those Who Want to Get Trace of Smothergill.

Dr. Boyce W. Knight, of 1229 East Second street, a practicing physician in New York, is out about $200, it is said, because of a friendly act in endorsing a lease for a supposed friend, Joseph Smothergill, of New York. Dr. Knight by chance happened to meet Smothergill at the Hotel Latham, New York, where the latter was a cashier, and when he expressed a desire to live in Plainfield, the doctor arranged, it is alleged, through the owner of the property he occupies, to lease him the other half of the house.

Elston M. French owns the property and when the lease was made out, Mr. French asked Dr. Knight to stand sponsor for Smothergill. This he was willing to do. Smothergill, it is asserted, never made but the one trip to this city, and failed to take the house as he promised. In consequence Dr. Knight is out about $200, the amount due on the lease. Smothergill has disappeared from New York and detectives are on his trail.

It is alleged that he is sought by sevral people in New York to whom he is said to owe various amounts.

When questioned about the case last night, Dr. Knight said that Smothergill had left his wife practically destitute. He said that he had consulted his lawyer in New York, and had been advised that there was little or no chance of recovering the amount he is out by reason of Smothergill's alleged actions.

According to Dr. Knight, Smothergill was not only cashier at the Hotel Latham, but also conducted an employment agency and a newstand at the hotel. He says that he became acquainted with the man through occassionally dropping into the hotel to buy a cigar.

MISS HARRIS A BRIDESMAID.

Miss Lillian Harris, of this city, was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Mary Naylor and George Mehrkam, of Palmerton, Pa., which took place at the home of the bride's father, Joseph Naylor, of West Dunellen, Thursday night. Rev. G. H. Gardner, of Atlantic Highlands, officiated. Mrs. Charles S. Day, of New Market, violinist, and Miss Irene Day, of this city, pianist, played the wedding march.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD SAVES SISTER'S LIFE

Dashes Into Stony Brook and Pulls Unconscious Tot From the Water.

A drowning accident was prevented yesterday by quick wit and action of twelve-year-old Alfred Eckner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beinhard Eckner, of Grove street, who dashed into Stony brook and saved the life of his little sister, Ida, two years old. The little girl had been playing in the backyard that slopes down to the brook, along the bank of which ran a fence that was to prevent her getting near the water. The recent rains, however, had washed under the bank and left a gap between the bottom of the fence and the bank with the water filling the little pool formed by the washout.

As she approached the edge the ground gave way and carried her into the brook which at that spot happened to be of some depth. Her brother, Alfred, hearing her cries, rushed to her aid, plunged into the water up to his waist and reached her just as she was going down for the last time.

He succeeded in carrying the little child to shore where he placed her while he called for help. The neighbors rushed to his assistance and found Ida in an unconscious condition. They administered first aid and soon had her out of danger. This morning it is reported that the child is litle the worse for her unpleasant experience.

SAYS BANKS ARE HELPLESS AGAINST DISHONEST MEN

J. Herbert Case, vice president of the Plainfield Trust Company and the Franklin Trust Company, of Brooklyn, who spoke upon "The Desirability of Commercial Paper as an Investment," at the New Jersey Bankers' Convention at Trenton, yesterday, surprised many bankers by admitting in response to a query: "We have no protection whatever against dishonest men." In this Mr. Case referred to the impossibility of the banker to detect a fraud from the face of the paper presented.

H. H. Pond, of the Plainfield Trust Company, president of the state association, presided at the business sessions and was also toastmaster at the banquet last night. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel, opened the first session with prayer.

EMPLOYER HAS VACUUM CLEANER AGENT ARRESTED

Acting on a complaint sworn out by Robert Hutchinson, of the Hutchinson Manufacturing Co., Wilkensburg, Pa., Detective Sergeant John Flynn arrested W. J. Barr last night at the Queen City Hotel, where he has been living since he came here five months ago as agent of the Hutchinson Company, which makes a hand-power vacuum cleaner.

Barr has been selling the cleaners in this city and a thirty-mile territory about it. Hutchinson alleges that for the past five or six weeks Barr has been signing for cleaners shipped on his order in a way not authorizing the rules of the agency, and that his cash returns had not been properly made.

City Judge Wiliam G. De Meza held Barr in $500 bail for the Grand Jury today. Barr admits technical wrong-doing, but denies any intention of defrauding the company, according to the police.

IN THE BOROUGH COURT.

Pasqualle Lucariella, an Italian fish dealer, was arrested in the borough yesterday by Chief Weiss for peddling without a license and using unsanitary methods in selling fish. He was fined $3 by Recorder Gano. Andrew Billings and Charles Garfinkel rode their bicycles without lights last night and paid a dollar each this morning. Pasquale Controne committed the same offense but failed to put in an appearance this morning. His wheel is being held.

DISCUSSED SUFFRAGE.

"Woman Suffrage," was the topic for discussion at the monthly meeting of the Young Friends' Association at the meeting-house on Watchung avenue, last night. Mrs. Verona R. Henry, Harry Vail, Richard Williams, Harry Vail and Mrs. William Lippincott were among those who entered into the discussion and opinion was about equally divided for and against suffrage for women. A social hour followed.

RACE ENTRIES.

The entries for the eighth annual race meeting of the Watchung Hunt Club Saturday, May 11, will close on Monday. There are seven races on the card, including flat and steeplechase. Rufus C. Finch, M. F. H., who is chairman of the race committee, has been assured that many of the best horses in the metropolitan district will be here.

MUNICIPAL COLLECTION OF CARBAGE IN SIGHT

Chairman of Public Affairs Committee Announces That He Will Recommend Establishment of System at Next Council Meeting.

Convinced that there is a general popular demand for a municipal system for garbage collection and disposal the Councilmanic public affairs committee will recommend to the Common Council that a practical scheme for that purpose be adopted.

As chairman of the committee, George S. Clay will make the recommendation that bids be advertised for and that a contract be made for the collection and the disposition of the refuse. This he will do at the regular monthly meeting on Monday night.

The requests made in the annual reports of the Board of Health for the last ten years and persistently agitated by the Daily Press will now undoubtedly result in the fulfillment of the desire for collection and disposal of garbage by private contract under municipal supervision.

When seen by a representative of the Daily Press regarding a request made through the paper by former Councilman E. T. Barrows that another public hearing be held by the public affairs committee, Mr. Clay said that another hearing would be needless, because he and his colleagues had arrived at the conclusion that the demand for the improvement is a general one and that the best interests of the community call for it. He aded that the committeemen had received many favorable personal messages from interested citizens since this paper suggested to the taxpayers that they inform the committee as to their views.

If the meeting on Monday night is an unusually busy one, Mr. Clay stated that he would then request the Common Council to set an early date for receiving the report from the public affairs committee.

"Since the first of January," said Mr. Barrows, this morning, "I've noticed that we have a local paper showing a spirit of independence and that it is not afraid to speak out on matters effecting our town. It shows that there is no clique back of it and that it has the interests of the people at heart. Its editorial policy proves that. The criticism made last night of the public for not turning out in force at the public meeting for the discussion of the garbage question, I don't think hardly fair. There was not enough publicity given the meeting in advance and anyhow it was held on too short a notice. If Mr. Clay will call nother meeting, giving a fortnight's notice to the taxpayers, I will assure him of a crowded Council chamber made up of taxpayers who ask for this improvement."

Mr. Barrows was assured that unusual publicity had been given the meeting in advance by the Daily Press but that he was correct in asserting that the notice given the taxpayers was so short that but few could cancel other engagements to attend. He was informed that the paper would gladly request Mr. Clay to call another meeting. When the latter was seen, as already stated, the information was given that the public affairs committee had decided to make the recommendation noted.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS IN "OLIVER TWIST"

Cast Scores Noteworhy Success in Matinee. Performance at Plainfield Theatre.

The matinee performance at the Plainfield theatre of "Oliver Twist" yesterday by the senior class of the Plainfield High School was a great success. It was witnessed by the largest audience that ever attended an afternoon performance of a High School play. It was the first time that a class had ever given a regular matinee, as the afternoon performance is usually a dress rehearsal.

The attention of the audience was held closely during the entire performance. In the first act all were amused by the quaint humor of the "Bumbles." The humorous and pretty scenes were contrasted sharply by Bill Sikes and scenes in Fagin's den. The burgular scene and Fagin's band of pickpockets made a strong impression, as did the action of Miss Helen Woolley as "Nancy" and Roy E. Titsworth as "Bill Sikes."

Others who made a favorable impression were: Elmer Hunting as "Fagin," Bruce Conlin as "Mr. Bumble," Theodore Champlain as the footman, Mildred Braunler as "Ross Fleming," Raymond Manley as "Monks," Viola Garda as "Oliver Twist," Ruth Douglas as "Mrs. Bumble," Burnett Doane as "Mr. Brownlow," and Schuyler Line as "Mr. Grimwig."

The performance will be repeated at the theatre tonight.

CHOIR CHANGES ARE SLATED IN SEVERAL LOCAL CHURCHES

Several changes will take place tomorrow in local church choirs, especially at the First Baptist church, the Crescent Avenue church and First M. E. church. At the first named church, two new voices will be heard, Miss Hazel M. Kaiser, soprano, and Mrs. A. M. Dickey, contralto, succeeding Miss Ruth Harris and Miss Katherine Bushnell, who retired a week ago. The other members of the quartet will be as usual, William Holmes, baritone, and George Smith, tenor. No other changes are announced for the chorus. Howard M. Case is the organist and musical director.

The quartet at the First M. E. church for the coming year will be Miss Lois Samuel, soprano; Mrs. J. L. Downer, contralto; Aleck MacGowan, tenor, and Edgar A. Cole, baritone. Clifford A. Braider will continue as organist and musical director.

At the Crescent Avenue church, E. Metler Davis will succeed Mr. Russell as organist and musical director, and the quartet will be as follows: Miss Lillian Vernon Watt, soprano; Miss Mary Hubbell, contralto, as substitute for Miss Grace J. Carroll, during leave of absence; James H. Richards, tenor, and A. E. Betteridge, baritone.

MOTHERS DISCUSS MEANS OF IMPROVING BACKYARDS

The Plainfield Mothers' Association at its meeting at the Plainfield High School, yesterday afternoon, elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. C. Pierson; first vice president, Mrs. Harold D. Corbusier; second vice president, Mrs. Frank L. Holt; third vice president, Mrs. Henry C. Krebs; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. P. E. Groszmann; recording secretary, Mrs. H. G. Phillips; treasurer, Mrs. George B. Wean.

The program for the day was followed, the subject being, "How to Make Our Backyards Attractive." This was introduced by Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, and the various members discussed the subject. It was announced that the money in the mite box would be turned over to Miss Phillips of the Charity Organization Society to provide trolley rides for poor children during the coming summer.

MRS. SHREVE IN OFFICE FOR TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS

Paterson, May 4.—All the officers of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the State were re-elected at the annual convention of the organization in the Park Avenue church, this place. They are: President, Mrs. E. O. Silver, of East Orange; first vice-president, Mrs. Edgar A. Knapp, Elizabeth; second vice-president, C. R. Bacon, Haddonfield; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Plainfield; recording secretary, Mrs. Caton L. Decker, East Orange. Mrs. Shreve has held her office since the society was organized twenty-eight years ago.

At the morning session Miss Edith P. Thompson, of Bloomfield; Mrs. W. H. Farmer, of Montclair, and Mrs. Decker reported upon the recent annual convention of the Baptist Missionary Society at Washington. Mrs. Gabriel R. Maguire, of Plainfield, and the president offered suggestions as to means of raising money for the society's work. The morning closing service was conducted by Mrs. J. Riley Vose, of Newark.

At the afternoon session, besides the election of officers, there was a demonstration by Dr. Emelie Brettahauer, of Hanyang, China, and Mrs. T. D. Holmes, of Kinwha, China, of work done at medical missions in foreign countries. Mrs. Caroline B. Chapman, of Montclair closed the afternoon session with prayer.

The feature of the evening session was an illustrated lecture on "How the World Goes to Church," by Rev. Sumner R. Vinton, of Burma, India.

MARRIED ON A DARE, NOW GIVEN A DIVORCE

Trenton, May 4.—On the ground that the husband was but seventeen years of age and the wife fifteen years old when they were married, Chancellor Walker has signed a decree nisi to annul the marriage of Raymond Matlack to Alfreda Naar, both of this city. The wedding was the result of a dare.

The bill for the annulment was filed by the young husband, and in his petition he told a remarkable story. The first time he met his wife was in October, 1908, the meeting taking place in a moving picture theatre in this city. They met several times at this same theatre and about a week after the first meeting together with another couple, they went driving. The other couple were Winfield Allen and Melissa Blizzard, each about seventeen years of age. They drove about the country until about midnight when some one suggested that the two couples ought to get married.

At first the matter was a joke. It developed into a dare, and then the party drove to the residence of Justice of the Peace David L. Kelsey. Allen and Miss Blizzard were married first and then Matlack and his friend were united by the magistrate.

The young husband in his testimony before Special Master Charles E. Gummere, testified that the party had not been drinking. After the wedding Allen and Matlack returned home together and the two young brides went to their respective homes.

In his testimony Matlack said that he saw his bride the following day, but the marriage was not even discussed. Since then he had not either seen nor lived with her. The matter was mentioned to the boy's mother several months after the ceremony had taken place. She brought it to the attention of a lawyer and a bill for the annulment was filed.

NOT TO HOLD COMMENCEMENT.

Trenton, May 4.—The Board of Education decided not to hold commencement exercises this year in the High and Grammar Schools, and permission was extended to the High School class to visit Washington, D. C., June 23 and 24.

G. O. P. CHIEFS BAND TO KILL COMMISSION RULE

Atlantic City, May 4.—As the result of a truce between Mayor Harry Bacharach, Senator Walter Edge, "Commodore" Louis Kuehnle and Bob Delaney, the Republican "machine" in this city, it is reported, is to throw its strength against the commission form of government at the special election on May 14. This agrement darkens the hopes of the men fostering the commission plan that the row which followed the Mayor's refusal to "take care" of "machine" men who had worked for his election would keep the Kuehnle and Edge men divided.

Under the commission plan, Bacharach would lose his pob. The Kuehnle faction had been after Bacharach's scalp until the commission movement was inaugurated. The Third Ward "machine," headed by Councilman Harry Dougherty, who is looking for a commissionership, actually indorsed the plan with a view to ousting the Mayor. The leaders, however, have seen a light, it is said, and have ordered every ward organization to line up against the change.

Immediately after the truce was made, Edge, Bacharach and Delaney left the city. Before going the Mayor signed the ordinance increasing the salary of City Comptroller David R. Garrett, one of Kuehnle's stanchest friends, from $1,800 to $3,000, after holding up the measure for several days.

WALTER WHITESIDE LETS WOMAN INTO STATE SECRET

New York, May 4.—The tremendous mystery about the work which Tokeramo, played by Walker Whiteside in "The Typhoon" at the Hudson theatre, New York, is doing on behalf of the Japanese government has been solved at last. Ever since the powerful play was revealed four weeks ago nothing about it has caused as much discussion as the unexplained mission of Tokeramo in Berlin. He is under a vow to complete the work, but the audience is not "put wise" to the nature of his oath-bound endeavors. Last night a young woman of the literary type was admitted to an interview with Mr. Whiteside because she posed as representing a New York daily. She was frank enough to admit the subterfuge after she was welcomed by the actor, and before he could express even a courteous protest against her trickery she asked impetuously:

"Please tell me, oh, please do, what is the work that Tokeramo is doing for Japan."

"Well," said Whiteside, "I'll tell you confidentially. He's making a report on what the German Emperor really said to Goethals about the Panama Canal."

NAMED ARCHDEACON.

Madison, May 4.—Rev. Dr. Joseph N. Blanchard has been appointed archdeacon of Morristown by Bishop Edwin S. Lines. This action was taken at the recent meeting of the archdeacons of Morristown and Newark held in Madison. Dr. Blanchard succeeds Archdeacon McCleary, who becomes general missionary for the diocese, and will make his home at 165 North Twelfth street, Newark.

COLLEGE TITLE LIES BETWEEN THREE TEAMS

Princeton, Yale and West Point look to be among the best of the college teams in this section of the country, with the Naval Academy setting the pace for the South. From present indications it appears that the leader of the 'varsity baseball race for 1912 would come from one or another of this quartet. The Tigers can attribute the successful opening of the season to the possession of a number of heavy hitters and a well-rounded team of fielders. The efficiency of the other three is largely due to the possession of first-class battery artists. Scott, of Yale; Merillat, of the Army, and Siebett, of the Navy, are twirlers who compare not unfavorably with some of the first class men in the professional ranks.

Sam White, who won the intercollegiate football championship for the Tigers, has already succeeded in accounting for a couple of the season's baseball games. Coungelman, the able Brown University boxman, had him guessing both games played at Providence, when he put up a gilt-edged exhibition of fielding, and the large area of ground he covered was a big factor in holding the hitting percentage of the Providence college down in bringing the 2 to 1 victory to Princeton.

John McGraw is sponsor for the statement that the blue team is the best which has taken the field in years. He highly commended the work of Scott in the game which the youngster pitched against the Giants, and remarked that the hitting and fielding abilities of the college players were the best he had seen on the part of a university nine in years. This is high praise to the new system of coaching up at New Haven, although to give full justice to Billy Lush, erstwhile coach at Yale and now a manager in the International League, it must be admitted that six of the men now playing for Yale were developed during his regime. Still Frank Quimby, the graduate who is now in charge, has taken hold of things in a way which is cause for congratulation.

TROLLEY PICKPOCKET.

Perth Amboy, May 4.—Samuel W. Parker, an instructor at the State Reformatory at Rahway, reported to the Perth Amboy police that his pocket had been picked in a trolley car coming to this city. He lost his month's pay, nearly $92. Parker lives at Crosswicks. Parker thinks that the pickpocket was one of four men who jostled him.

PLAINFIED, NEW JERSEY, MAY 4, 1912.

The editorial columns of this paper are conducted on Saturdays by representative citizens who are free to express their own views. William Starr Bullock, a former member of the Common Council and former chairman of its fire committee and editor, a student of political economics and an expert on copper, gold and silver mining, is the contributing editor for today.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT'S NEED.

Plainfield's fire department is undermanned and insufficiently equipped with modern apparatus. It is working at all times under external handicaps of a serious nature to which the public gives little heed. Chief of these—because of its possible effect upon the entire community is lack of proper water pressure. There should be, in the center of the city at least, an indicated hydrant pressure of 120 pounds. There is actually less than 75 pounds under favorable conditions in any part of the city. In some sections this is reduced 50 per cent. or more.

Stretch in a long line of hose at Front and Somerset streets—say 400 to 500 feet—and friction will reduce the pressure at the nozzle to hardly more than 35 pounds. This means that under favorable conditions a solid stream can be thrown over the ridgepole of a two-story and a half cottage, but it will not have the force it should have, even at this heighth. The water company's agreement with the city was—and is—that there should be maintained a pressure sufficient to throw six streams 80 feet vertically. There has not been an hour in the last five years when this test could be met.

The water mains are old, with but few exceptions. They are not large enough in most instances to supply the normal present-day needs of the city and at the same time efficiently handle the overload of fire requirements. The auxiliary standpipe on the mountain near the Groszmann School in North Plainfield is practically a failure in relieving the situation.

Reference has been made to a hydrant pressure of about 75 pounds, but this obtains only west of Richmond street. Working east this is gradually diminished, until at Netherwood Heights—a district embracing many hundred thousand dollars worth of taxable values—the indicated pressure at the hydrant is but 32 pounds. Through 150 feet of hose this pressure is less than 20 pounds at the nozzle. This will throw a stream vertically but little more than 16 feet.

Plainfield owns one steamer, purchased in 1886, still doing valiant service, housed at fire headquarters, and capable of reaching the Netherwood Hotel and getting into action in about 15 minutes. The city also boasts a hook and ladder truck of nearly the same vintage, which can make practically the same time to the same point. The extention ladder can be raised in another six minutes.

But here, as in other sections of the city, the lack of proper pressure is the vital fact. The remedy lies in the erection of a standpipe at the height of land on Rahway road, of the same size and capacity as that at the Netherwood pumping station equipped with service pipes direct to the hydrants of the eastern section of town. Not only would this give Netherwood adequate water pressure, but it would materially relieve the overload occasioned at times of fire in other districts.

Still another menace to the fire department and the general public is the high voltage, overhead feed wire which comes into the city from the Metuchen power station of the Public Service. This wire is said to carry 30,000 or 40,000 volts. If a fireman, in fighting a blaze, happened to turn his hose stream against this wire he would be electrocuted before he could wink—unless he chanced to be standing in a perfectly dry place, wholly protected by heavy rubber gloves and rubber boots. It has been stated by Public Service officials that if this feed wire should break the electric current would "instantly and automatically" cut off at the Metuchen power house. To date no official of the company has volunteered to stand under the wire and let it break to test the accuracy of the statement. There is no city record of authority to run this dangerous wire through the streets. It should be ordered underground at once.

In Plainfield's paid fire department there are but ninetee men, including the chiefs. Two of these men are always off duty—they are given one day off in eight—and this, with sickness, vacations and accidents, depletes the available men actually at the fire houses during the lunch and dinner hour each day to a point where there are often not men enough to properly handle the apparatus if an alarm comes over the wires. True, there are thirty "call men" attached to the department, but they are never at their company houses during the day and they seldom arrive at a fire as soon as the apparatus. Some of these men are always away. Naturally their several regular occupations scatter them over a wide area.

Chief Engineer T. O. Doane is a thoroughly experienced fire-fighting veteran. His life is bound up in his work. He does the best he can with the men and apparatus furnished him by a thoughtless and niggardly city. This is not an arraignment of men, but of methods. It is not intended to be sensational or to alarm. Its purpose is to awaken the public conscience. "Councilmanic supervision" of fire departments in cities of our class throughout the country is, quite generally, a good deal of a joke. The statement is in no way facetious. It is made with all respect for earnest and conscientious men, past and present, who have thoughtfully studied the situation in an endeavor to be of real service to the department and to the city. In a majority of instances these committeemen have "passed on"—at the behest of a political boss—before they have really mastered the situation. The resultant efforts, through the years, to put the fire department on a strictly business basis and to make its development keep pace with the city's growth, resemble nothing so closely as grandmother's patchwork quilt.

This brings naturally to mind the question of government by commission—another and a larger topic. The fire department of Plainfield should be under the general supervision of a competent Plainfield business man, and he should be paid for his work, exactly as the manager of any important business is paid—on a basis of knowledge, experience and fitness for his position.

MANY ENJOY LECTURE ON THE HEART OF AFRICA

Rev. Gabriel Reed Maguire told of his personal experience in the heart of the jungles and the wilds of darkest Africa, before a capacity audience in the Park Avenue Baptist church, last night. Before the lecture began it was necessary to close the doors and turn away many. The lecture was especially interesting to the audience because of vivid word pictures which were supplemented so ably by the clear views thrown upon the screen by the stereopticon.

Mr. Maguire took his listeners on a journey with the African missionary as he works his way up the wide rivers, transfers to the back of an elephant, camel or mule, and in turn is compelled to complete his journey upon foot.

The life of the commercial man in Africa in his buying of the native products and in the help that he renders the missions was shown by stereopticon and moving pictures as were the fertile fields opened to the hunter. The views shown of the animal life in the heart of this darkest country were especially vivid.

During the evening native songs were sung by a chorus of little girls, composed of Freda Mowen, Erma Mowen, Givlan Mowen, Harry Hunt, Violet Hunt, Grace Mosher, Zelie Mosher, Joseph Bush, Harry Bush, Grace McDowell, Katherine Fuller, Emily Van Winkle, Wilbur Cumming and Gladys Hadly; a double quartet composed of Karl Wilson, Irene Brown, Ora Bush, Martha Kashner, Charles Hellyer, Luther Banks, Ruth Maguire, Joseph O'Lear and Fred Mills; and by Mr. Maguire himself. A large sum of money was realized for the cause of missions in Africa.

HENRY KELM.

Henry Kelm, aged 74 years, died this morning at his home in Watchung. He had been in failing health for sometime. Mrs. Kelm died about two weeks ago and during her long illness, Mr. Kelm's condition was such that it was feared that he might pass away before his wife did. Mr. Kelm was a native of Germany and had been a resident of this vicinity for many years. He is survived by several children. The funeral will be held at the late residence Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT.

Edward Norman, the sixteen-year-old son of William Norman, of South Plainfield, was shot in the right wrist by some unknown persons, last night. He was walking along the pond road in the village, near the burned mill site, when a pistol crack rang out and a stinging sensation in his wrist followed. He was unable to locate anyone in the vicinity and is at a loss to explain why he was made a target. The injury was dressed by a physician.

TAFT IN JERSEY CITY RALLY MAY 22, 'TIS SAID

Jersey City, May 4.—President Taft, it is said here, is expected to come here on the night of May 22 and address a mass meeting in Grandview Hall, in the Heights section. The announcement came as a surprise to many Republicans, as it was believed that the leaders in the Taft faction of the party intended to keep secret the date of the meeting until a week before the time for holding it. They hoped therby to thwart any scheme the Roosevelt men might have to get the colonel in town on the same evening.

Albert Hasselmann, of Hoboken, one of the close political allies of Colonel Samuel D. Dickinson, who is handling the Taft campaign in Hudson county, said this morning that Grandview Hall had not been secured and that while it was hoped to get the President to come to Jersey City on some evening before the primaries, nothing definite has been done.

From another and also seemingly authoritative source, however, came the information that the big auditorium had been engaged, that Taft's managers had assured the Republicans of Hudson that he would come, and that the biggest kind of a big mass meeting was being planned.

SOPHOMORES WON.

The Plainfield High School Sophomores defeated the Stillman School nine in a well-played game at Parker Field, yesterday, by the score of 7 to 6. Randolf, VanZandt and Schinkel were the stars at the bat for the Sophomores, while Norwood and Waller did the best for Stillman. The line-ups: P. H. S. LITTLE FIRE.

An oil stove at the residence of W. W. Fairchild, Sixth street and Franklin place, caught fire at 8:15 this morning and threatened to make trouble. An alarm was turned in from box 23 but the offending article had been heaved into the yard before the firemen reached the scene. The house was not damaged. In answering the alarm, the steamer and hook and ladder truck narrowly escaped colliding at Park avenue and Second street. The apparatus approached from opposite directions and turned at almost the same time. Presence of mind on the part of the drivers was all that prevented the smash.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Today is the day that we try once more to get a start.

At the last moment the Summit Y. M. C. A. second team cancelled its game with Leals yesterday. So the Borough High was hooked up with for the afternoon fracus.

To fight it out for the cellar championship of the scholastic teams here in the city.

With the boys from over the brook coming out on top.

Another week and the factory teams will be on the job.

First of the Y. M. C. A. matinee running races on the city play gound track this afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp.

One to follow each week until the five have been run off.

Washington is to follow the referendum policy and allow the fans to decide when the games shall begin.

Those Reds are going some under Hank O'Day's management. None of the western teams seem to be able to head them off, but the Giants have hopes of accomplishing it when they meet in Cincinnati May 18.

Marquard already has four of those thirty victories that he said he would get before the season was over.

That also looks as though it might happen.

It's queer how the Yankees always prove a stumbling block to them strong teams and allow themselves to be eaten alive by the weak ones.

Both Yanks and Athletics tried for high score record yesterday.

Games in the city today are: Chatham vs. Dorflingers Pets at the Oval; P. H. S. vs. the Borough High on the city playground; Temple A. C. vs. Netherwood A. C. at Netherwood; and Garwood-Rushmore Electric vs. Commercial on Hyde Field.

Lou Hartman, who covered short for the Plainfield team of the Central League, is making good with Montreal of the International League. He is a heavy man with the stick and holds his own in the field.

An anonymous fan writes a letter to "Bunts" suggesting that the Plainfield fans show their appreciation of Jack Martin's good work as a member of the Yankees by sending a delegation to Highland Park upon some future date and present the Plainfield youngster with some sort of a remembrance.

No one more heartily concurs with the idea than "Bunts," but he would suggest that out friend, the author of the letter, wait until the season is a little further advanced.

Baseball is a very uncertain game and often unforseen circumstances prevent a coming player from sticking with the big boys. We hope Jack will.

But we're with him whether he does or not.

Certainly the Yanks have a reconstructed team and are liable to prove a tough proposition to their opponents in the future. Already hope has been revived among the Yankee's followers.

The Garwood-Rushmore Electric is the new team born last night at the league meeting, composed of players from both factories.

BOROUGH HIGH TEAM ENDS LOSING STREAK

Breaks Into Winning Class at the Expense of Leal's School.

The first game to be played by two of the local schoolastic teams occurred yesterday afternoon upon Crescent Oval, when the teams from the Borough High and Leal's School teams met to quarrel for the cellar championship. The Leal's team has been playing erratic ball throughout the season alternating between a lose jointed variety of ball and some gilt edged playing. Up until yesterday afternoon neither team had won a game and both were anxious to break a hole in their record, which the team from across the brook was able to do by a score of 11 to 7.

The game was rather losely played in spots, but the borough team managed to keep in the lead from the first. A new pitcher was used by them and he worked in good style for the most of the game allowing but 4 hits and getting 9 by the strike out method. Lee pitched good ball for Leal's but they got at him in bunches that meant runs, he had 6 strike outs tacked to his belt. Both pitchers wer very free with their passes. Dunning was the hitsmith of the afternoon being up to his season's record with 3 crashing singles that helped along materially.

The borough lads started their scoring in the first and scored in every inning except the fifth when Leal's showed a spurt of what they could do. The Front street boys got to Stahle in the second and fifth which when helped along by a generous sprinkling of errors accounted for the greatest part of their runs.

HINTS TO AUTOISTS ON KEEPING CAR BODIES BRIGHT

George Fitsimons, sales-manager of the E. R. Thomas Motor Car Company, gives good advice to Thomas owners which can be taken advantage of by everyone owning a car. The beautiful piano finish used on the Thomas car merits more than ordinary attention so the Thomas Experimental Laboratories have been working out a formula to suit the Sales Department. The following is the mixture Mr. Fitzsimons recommends:

One pine turpentine, one pint wood alcohol, one quart distilled water (or rain water), one quart parafine oil.

Mix the alcohol and turpentine together, then mix the water and parafine oil together. In order to mix the two latter ingredients it is necessary to put them together in a gallon bottle and shake briskly until they mix, then add the alcohol and turpentine, which have previously been mixed and shake until the whole is thoroughly mixed.

This mixture is apt to separate after standing, but brisk shaking will bring the ingredients together again. Apply with the soft side of a canton flannel cloth and polish with a dry one.

SANTA MONICA OPENS AUTO RACING SEASON

Automobile road racing for the season of 1912 begins today at Santa Monica, Cal., when twenty-four cars will compete in the great Western Classic. The Circuit is 8,417 miles and has proved very fast in practice trials. Five events were originally scheduled, but two of these failed to fill. The feature will be the free-for-all race in which many of the fastest cars in the country are entered, while two events are on the program for small cars. The events follow:

Free for All — Bruce-Brown, (Benz;) Caleb Bragg, (Fiat;) Bert Dingley, (Simplex;) Louis Disbrow, (Case;) Barney Oldfield, (Fiat;) Teddy Tetzlaff, (Fiat;) Ralph De Palma, (Mercer;) Earl Cooper, (Stotz;) Dave Lewis, (Stotz.)

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE IS READY FOR BUSINESS

The directors and others interested in the Manufacturers' League met last night in the Y. M. C. A. and completed the arrangements for the opening of the season next Saturday. A schedule was adopted that will provide games for the fans every Saturday afternoon until August 17. These games will be distributed about the city, played upon the various grounds provided and will afford a chance for a keen, healthy rivalry to exist between the supporters of the various teams. Mr. Ostlin, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., has worked hard for the success of this league and to him is largely due the credit for its auspicious outlook.

The teams represented at the meeting were Spicer's, International Motor Co., Commercial, Public Service, Rushmore-Garwood Electric, and the Plainfield banks. Teams from each one of these institutions were entered in the league and the entry list closed. Other teams had signified their intention to enter the organization, but as they had no representatives at last night's meeting their names were dropped.

The opening games scheduled to be played next Saturday afternoon are Spicer vs. International Motor, on the Clinton avenue grounds; R. G. E. (Rushmore-Garwood Electric) v.s Plainfield banks on Hyde Field, and Commercial vs. Public Service on the Myrtle avenue grounds. The rest of the schedule will be announced at an early date.

The league holds its regular monthly business meeting Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. at which it is hoped that all representatives will make it a point to be present.

POSTPONED GAMES.

June 28 (two), Boston at New York; game of April 29. (Two) Brooklyn at Philadelphia, game of April 29.

June 29 (two), Brooklyn at Philadelphia; game of April 30.

July 1 (two), Brooklyn at Philadelphia; game of April 27.

August 28 (open), St. Louis at Chicago; game of April 29.

Sept. 4 (open), Boston at Brooklyn; game of April 22 (previously bulletined by mistake as doubleheader for Sept. 7.)

Sept. 25 (open), Boston at New York; game of April 27.

Sept. 26 (two), Boston at New York; game of April 30.

MARYLAND THEIR BATTLEFIELD NOW

T. R. and Taft Invade State at Same Time.

PRIMARIES NEXT MONDAY.

Colonel Beats Rival a Day In Reaching the State—Gets a Hearty Reception From 5,000 In Baltimore—President Starts This Afternoon.

Baltimore, May 4.—Maryland, like Massachusetts last week, is in a state of political turmoil and excitement, with both Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft campaigning in the state today. The colonel, whose chances are considered at least to be good in the primaries next Monday, has the advantage of beating his rival into the state by one day.

Not until this afternoon will Taft make his first speech at Aberdeen. On the way to Baltimore, where he will speak tonight, he will have something to say at Belair and at Havre-de-Grace. President Taft Will make only one speech in Baltimore, at the Lyric theater.

Cheered by 5,000 People.

"We are going to see senators elected by popular vote," declared Colonel Roosevelt, speaking of the program of the progressives in his speech here. "And when we elect them this way the United States senate will cease being treated as a house of reform for senators of the Lorimer type."

Nearly 5,000 people cheered him. Twice this number crowded about the doors an hour before the hall was opened, but had to be turned away. In the galleries among the audience were a number of women.

The colonel in his speech did not mention Massachusetts and made small reference to the president.

Charles Bonaparte, former attorney general, was seated in the center of the stage.

In his speech introducing Roosevelt Mr. Bonaparte said:

"The American people have had enough of Mr. Taft. Four years ago the people called for Roosevelt as they call for him now. But Roosevelt could not come then and sent Taft.

"Don't Want Him at Any Price."

"The plain truth is," said Mr. Bonaparte, "that the people did not want Taft in 1908, and now they don't want him at any price. If they don't get Roosevelt, mark my word, they will take a Democrat.

"The question is whether the people shall have what they want, or whether the senators (referring to Penrose, Crane and Lorimer) and the croesuses and their hangers on shall have what they want."

The colonel spoke later to a crowd of negroes in a church.

MACVEAGH APPROVES MONEY TRUST PROBE

Secretary Says Money Power Should Be Investigated.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 4.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh, speaking here before the New Jersey Bankers' association, gave his opinion for the first time on the inquiry about to be taken by house Democrats into the so called money trust. Instead of denying that there is a money trust, Secretary MacVeagh surprised his audience by declaring that the present concentration of money power ought to be investigated, but in a calm, intelligent way and without regard to political exigency.

LONDON TAILORS ON STRIKE.

Thirty Thousand Spring Suits Held Up by Labor Troubles; 15,000 Out.

London, May 4.—Fifteen thousand tailors struck in the west end of London for a betterment of wages and workshop accommodations. It is likely to spread to the east end tailors at once. This will mean 40,000 additional strikers.

The trade will practically be at a standstill, and it is computed that 30,000 persons who are waiting for spring suits will be held up.

Mrs. Sage Not Ill.

New York, May 4.—Reports that Mrs. Russell Sage is seriously ill were denied at her home. It was said by members of the household that Mrs. Sage is in the best of health and spirits. She has a house full of company and went for a drive during the day.

Trolley Overturns In Seville.

Seville, Spain, May 4.—As the result of derailing and overturning of a street car here twenty-one persons were injured, several dangerously.

Vedrines Will Recover.

Paris, May 4.—Vedrines, the aviator, who was injured by a fall during his recent daredevil flight to Madrid, has been declared out of danger.

RICHES IN PRIEST'S HOME.

Finding of Jewels Dispels Suicide Theory For Mysterious Death.

Berlin, May 4.—Jewels worth $375,000 have been found at the residence here of Rev. Dr. Liebe, a retired Roman Catholic clergyman, whose mysterious death a few days ago is puzzling the police.

Dr. Liebe, who was formerly an army chaplain, became violently sick after drinking from a bottle labeled "anisette" and soon died. The police, who knew that he was interested in various commercial affairs, expressed the opinion that he had committed suicide by poison on account of financial difficulties, though they were unable to explain why the clergyman's housekeeper and her husband, who had also drunk some of the stuff in the bottle, had become sick and recovered. The suicide theory has been abandoned in view of the present discovery.

REBELS REPORT VICTORY.

But Dispatch Fails to Tell Time or Place of Battle.

El Paso, Tex., May 4.—That there was fighting between the rebels and federals somewhere north of Torreon and south of Jiminez is established, but Mexican official dispatches are enigmas.

The rebel officials in Juarez received the following message from General E. P. Campa, dated Rellano, state of Chihuahua:

"Complete triumph on the part of our valiant companions in persecution of the federal forces. We have enjoyed a victory over the federals."

The mesasge does not say where the fight occurred or how many men were engaged, but the rebels in Juarez are celebrating.

A GREAT RECORD.

Hard to Duplicate It in Plainfield.

Scores of representative citizens of Plainfield are testifying for Doan's Kidney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

Mrs. O. C. Moore, 57 Manning avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "You may continue to publish my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills which I gave in August, 1905. I endured much misery from backache which was caused by my kidneys. Many nights I was unable to rest at all and when I arose in the morning, my limbs were so stiff and sore that I could hardly get out of bed. Whenever I caught the least cold, it settled on my kidneys and any strain on my backk always made my aches and pains worse. I was treated by physicians but their medicine did not help me and it was not until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's Drug Store, that I had any hope of getting rid of my trouble. This preparation made me feel like a different person and I have never had any serious trouble since. I use Doan's Kidney Pills once in a while, however, and they keep my kidneys in good working order."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE.

Califon, May 4.—The Spring Institute of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Hunterdon county was held in the local Methodist church. Mrs. Eva E. Gebhardt, of Clinton, presided. At the morning session Mrs. E. B. Wellever led the devotions, and Rev. Harry P. King, pastor of the local Methodist church, and Rev. James B. Dare, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, made addresses. Mrs. Julia A. Powell spoke on "Reasons Why Some Women Do Not Belong to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union." Mrs. Cora E. Seberry, a national union worker, of Brooklyn, spoke in the afternoon on "Present Day Needs of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union," and Mrs. Emma Bourne gave a talk. A reception was given the school teachers and scholars at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Seberry spoke at the evening session. The Califon Orchestra furnished the music.

—"Why do they call it high school?" "I guess you never paid the expenses of a kid who went there."—Houston Post.

—"Mr. Timmid has asked if he might call tonight. I think he wants to tell me that he loves me," said Miss Perner. "Oh," replied her sister, "that goes without saying." "Yes, and I'm afraid that he will, too."—Catholic Standard and Times.

AUCTION SALE

The Plainfield Cement Stone Co., who sold out their business to Cement Products Mfg. Co. some time ago, still have on hand a lot of goods, consisting of curbing, flagging, steps, chimney caps, pier caps, sills, balusters, tie posts, gutters, step stones, columns, coping, balls, pier blocks, lot markers, sewer pipes, bulk head caps, etc., which they will offer at Public Sale, without reserve, Saturday, May 11, at 2:30, on premises, corner Berckman street and North avenue; also a good 2-horse truck and some second-hand wagons will be sold; masons and householders will do well to attend this sale; the goods are high class, none better, but the room must be cleared and the goods will be sold if you bid; it is therefore the buyer's price that will take the goods. The Cement Product Mfg. Co. are in daily operation and can make up any additional amount you may wish; more then what may be on sale, therefore, you run no risk of getting unmatched stock. Terms cash or approved security.

Immediately after this sale the handsome 4-family house, corner of Johnston and St. Mary's avenues, will also be sold at auction. This house is a great bargain for anyone that can put down a little cash to bind the bargain. House has been cleared of tenants to give opportunity to paper and paint it but will readily rent at $10 for each apartment; 14 rooms, 4 of which are kitchens, with city water in each, closets in the cellar, nice front lawn, also garden in rear; the present owner can fill this house with tenants in ten days if desired. On corner is room for a store, which would be a very desirable location. In any way this property is sure to be a bargain. Terms 10 per cent. cash, balance on easy terms.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

CREAMED VEGETABLES.

A DELICIOUS way of serving vegetables is to cream them. New potatoes, asparagus, celery or onions may all be creamed. A general way of creaming vegetables is to cut them up, cover with milk and let them simmer until nearly all the milk is absorbed and then dress with white sauce.

A good white sauce for the vegetables may be made by rubbing two tablespoonfuls of flour and two tablespoonfuls of butter together in a small saucepan. Then add a cupful of milk and stir over a moderate fire until the sauce boils. Add salt and white pepper. Using cream or part cream instead of all milk will make a richer sauce.

New Potatoes.

Creamed New Potatoes.—Wash and scrape the potatoes, then drop into boiling water and cook until tender. Have ready cream and butter hot, but not boiling. Drain the potatoes, sprinkle with salt and turn into a hot vegetable dish. Pour over them the hot cream, sprinkle with a little minced parsley and serve.

Canned or Fresh Asparagus.

Creamed Asparagus.—Take the tips of the asparagus, using the fresh vegetables, if available, or canned asparagus if more convenient. Strain the tips from the can and let them stand half an hour in the air.

Put them into a buttered baking dish, turn over them a cupful of white sauce and cover the top with eggs.

The eggs should be dropped from the shells without breaking whites and yolks. Bake until the eggs are set.

Parsnips or Turnips.

Creamed Parsnips.—Boil, scrape and slice parsnips. Put them in a deep dish well covered with butter. Pour white sauce over them. Cover the dish, set in the oven for five minutes and serve.

Creamed Turnips.—Boil white turnips until tender. Cut into dice, put into a hot baking dish, pour a white sauce over them, cover the dish, set in the oven five minutes and serve.

Good Nerve Foods.

Creamed Celery.—Wash and cut outside celery stalks into half inch pieces. Boil for half an hour or more if the celery is not soft enough. Drain and add a cream sauce. Put the celery in the baking dish, where it may cook for two minutes.

Creamed Onions.—Peel your onions, choosing medium sized white ones, then boil until nearly soft and add a teaspoonful of salt. Drain in a colander. Put in a baking dish, cover with white sauce and place in the oven for a few minutes.

TENEMENTS AND TUBERCULOSIS.

BY

Mrs. Champlain L. Riley.

The ordinary tenements are hotbeds of tuberculosis.

Their dark halls and bedrooms and inter-communicating apartments favor the growth and distribution of the tuberculosis germ.

The death rate in city tenements is notoriously great.

There is, therefore, no more important field in which to fight tuberculosis than the tenement. And the first move in the fight is to transform the hot-bed of disease into a healthful dwelling.

This is exactly what Mrs. Vanderbilt has done in her Open Stair Tenements on East Seventh-eighth street, in New York.

A tenement according to legal definition is a house that contains three or more families. Mrs. Vanderbilt's tenments contain several hundred families but there is not a single dark room in them; and there are no dark halls either, for the stairs go up on the outside of the building and thus do away with halls altogether, eliminating at the same time the dangers of inter-communication.

The New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor are making a novel experiment in these Vanderbilt tenements. They have leased twenty-four apartments for three years and will make of them "Home Hospitals" for consumptives. In writing of the undertaking (in the Survey of March 23rd) Mr. Kingsbury says, "This experiment is not to demonstrate something to take the place of hospital segregation or sanitorium treatment, but to learn whether, even in a crowded city, given proper housing, sufficient food, and sanitary supervision, it is not possible to check the speed of tuberculosis. The experiment is planned as a supplement to, not as a substitute for, the hospital and sanitorium."

It is in fact planned to meet the need of those who would get "home treatment" or no treatment, as hospital and sanitorium facilities are very inadequate to the needs of tubercular patients.

Many of the members of the Home Hospital are self supporting or partially so. But financial aid is given where necessary in addition to "doctoring" and nursing and general advice. The patients are discharged when well and able to work full time.

This is an intelligent attack on tuberculosis and its attendant evils, but the immense cost of a philanthropy of this nature makes its general adoption impossible. An attempt has therefore been made to design a commercial tenment that would embody all the structural advantages of the Vanderbilt tenments and rent at the price current in the neighborhood. Simply supplying a housing demand with the best houses scientific planning can produce.

The Open Stair Tenement Co. has constructed a group of such buildings on East Seventy-seventh street, in New York, where 281 families will find accommodation. Now Helen Hartley Jenkins has under construction a building of this type, housing about 100 families, on West Forty-seventh street near the Hartley house settlement. Hartley house is much interested in this building which will introduce Open Stair Tenements to the west side.

New Jersey also is coming to the front and we will soon have an Open Stair Tenement in our own State. Mrs. Alexander has had plans drawn for one which will be built in Hoboken. And so the anti-tuberculosis fight is going on in the important field of housing.

Plainfield has not yet much of a tenement problem although, even now, houses built for one family are being occupied by sevral families. This is the first step toward tenement population, and conditions in such houses are often worse than in city tenements. They are places where disease is contracted and dispersed. Rapidly growing suburban communities cannot too carefully watch the character of the multiple dwellings that are first introduced. If we must have tenements let them be good tenements.

DRIVER SENT TO JAIL IN AN S. P. C. A. CASE

Perth Amboy, May 4.—While on his way home, after driving one horse from Yonkers, N. Y., to Metuchen with a load of furniture, George Secola was arrested at Iselin and fined $25 on a charge of cruelty to animals. He refused to pay and was committed to jail. Louis C. Teed, of Newark, state agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, arrested the man and made the charge before Justice of the Peace H. E. Pickersgill, of this city. Secola admitted that the horse was not in good condition. He claimed that he had been imposed upon by the man for whom he moved the furniture. Secola said he was told that Metuchen was two miles from Newark on the road to Jersey City, and he reached Newark before he found out the truth. He passed through Newark on the morning of the second day after leaving Yonkers.

Secola was prevented from using the horse while going through Iselin. His story so aroused the sympathy of the people that he was told to allow the animal to rest all night and then resume his journey unhindered. The next day one woman gave him money for a night's lodging and it has since developed that he had several dollars at the time.

During the night Secola returned to the house, broke into the stable where his horse was being cared for, and attempted to get away. He was caught and Teed was sent for by the people who had become intersted in the case.

TEDDY WILL CAMPAIGN THROUGH NEW JERSEY

Former President, in Quest for Votes, Will Spend Two Days in State.

Theodore Roosevelt will make a tour of New Jersey May 23 and 24, his principal stops to be Newark, Paterson, Jersey City, Trenton, Camden and Atlantic City. The meetings offering the best opportunity to Plainfielders of hearing the Colonel will, of course, be those in Newark and Jersey City. Just as many Taft supporters went to Newark to hear the President, so many Roosevelites will undoubtedly go to Newark or Jersey City to hear their leader.

The Colonel will speak in Newark on the evening of Thursday, May 23. The Newark committee plans to hire the biggest hall available. The doors will be thrown open early and no tickets of admission will be required.

The Roosevelt leaders in Newark are already beginning to make estimates of how much larger the reception to the Colonel will be than that accorded to President Taft at the First Regiment Armory last Friday night.

Borden D. Whiting, chairman of the Roosevelt organization, will escort the former President through the State. Mr. Whiting has appointed Harold J. Howland, of Verona, who is associated with Mr. Roosevelt on the editorial staff of The Outlook, as chairman of the committee of arrangements. Others who will accompany the Colonel will be the four candidates for delegate-at-large—Everett Colby, former Governor Fort, Edgar B. Bacon and Frank B. Jess.

Roosevelt's first speech will be made at Paterson at noon, May 23. The arrangements for that meeting will be in charge of the committees directing the Roosevelt campaign in the counties of Passaic, Bergen, Sussex and Warren. That night the Colonel will speak first at Newark, which meeting will be in charge of the State Roosevelt League. Mr. Whiting will preside. The committee of arrangements for the Newark meeting will be announced later by Mr. Howland.

Having finished his speech in Newark, Colonel Roosevelt will go to Jersey City by automobile, and will there address another meeting. The plans in Hudson will be in charge of a committee headed by George L. Record and James W. McCarthy.

The next day Colonel Roosevelt will be whisked through Central and South Jersey in a special car. The first stop will be made at Trenton, where a noonday meeting will be held. It is hoped to secure the baseball park for the occasion. At Trenton the Roosevelt party will be received by committees headed by former Governor Edward C. Stokes, Frederick Clymer, James E. Bathgate, Jr., and John N. Fretz, representing the counties of Mercer, Somerset and Hunterdon.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Roosevelt will speak at Young's Pier in Atlantic City. Those who will head the committee of arrangements are Messrs. Cuskaden, McAllister, Garner and Bright, representing the counties of Atlantic, Cumberland, Burlington and Cape May.

The tour will close with a large meeting at night at Camden. The Colonel is loading up with "hot shot" for the especial benefit of "Davy" Baird, who has promised to deliver Camden county to Taft.

Former Senator William J. Bradley, who was eliminated from the Senate by Baird because, it is believed, he showed too strong reform tendencies, will head a committee from the First Congressional district that will go to Atlantic City to escort Mr. Roosevelt to Camden. Others who will accompany him are J. Boyd Avis, of Gloucester, and Benjamin B. Westcott, of Salem.

An effort is to be made to squeeze in a meeting in the Third Congressional district so that Roosevelt can be heard by the residents of Middlesex, Ocean and Monmouth. The Roosevelt managers believe, however, that distances in New Jersey are so short that it will not be hard for any one really anxious to hear Roosevelt to do so with the schedule as at present arranged.

FINES MOTORIST WHO DIDN'T STOP

Watchung Justice Announces Strict Enforcement of Law In Accident Cases.

AUTOIST WILL APPEAL

District Judge Runyon Dissatisfied With Verdict Against Client Who Is Found Guilty of Going on After Car Struck Pedestrian.

Automobilists who use the roads of the North Plainfield township will have to live up to the letter of the law regarding stoppage in all cases of accidents, if Justice of the Peace George T. Hughes has his way. He has served warning that autoists who, however unintentionally, cause accidents will be held strictly responsible.

Justice Hugher gave a hearing at the Town Hall, Watchung, Saturday night in the case of E. M. Jones, of Dunnellen, who was charged with running down John W. Goldsack, of Brooklyn, on Sunday, April 14, near the trolley terminal on upper Somerset street. Goldsack was only a step from the sidewalk on the left hand side of the road when he was struck. Jones, according to Goldsack's testimony, did not bring his car to a stop but merely turned his head enough to see that Goldsack was able to get up and then put on full power and sped away. Goldsack caught the number of the car. He charged that he called out to Jones to return, but that no attention was paid to the call.

David Mundy, in front of whose residence the accident occurred, corroborated Goldsack. The car did not stop, Mundy testified, but merely slackened speed a few moments and then went on. Raymond Wakefield and Miss Mary Cleaves, who assisted Goldsack after the accident, also testified.

Jones told the court that the car did not run down Goldsack, but that Goldsack, who, it was shown, was hard of hearing, walked into the fender of the rear wheel. Jones asserted that he blew his horn repeatedly. He was on the left hand side of the road he explained in an endeavor to avoid running down the Brooklyn man. He declared that he did bring his car to a stop and called out to Goldsack inquiring whether he was hurt. Receiving no reply and seeing Goldsack get up from the road, he considered that no harm had been done and went on. O. C. Whitney and Mrs. Lucile Dean who were in the car with Jones, told the same story.

"The law distinctly requires," said the Justice, "that every driver of a motor vehicle, who knowingly causes any kind of an accident, shall not only bring his car to a full stop but return to the scene of the accident and give to any proper person demanding the same, his name, the number of his driver's license and the registration number of his motor vehicle and the names and residences of each and every male occupant of said motor vehicle.

"This provision of the law," continued the Justice," is a very proper one and as far as our township is concerned will be strictly enforced. Any automobilist causing an accident on our highway must avoid even the appearance of trying to evade responsibility. How or why this accident happened is not the question before the court. The only issue is whether or not the defendant lived up to the provision of the law which directs that he shall return to the scene and give his name, address and number to the proper authorities."

Recorder C. M. Dolliver appeared for Goldsack and District Judge Isaac P. Runyon represented Jones. Judge Runyon announced that he would appeal the case.

CARROL TAYLOR BREAKS LEG IN BASEBALL GAME

In the game played between the City and Borough High School teams Saturday afternoon on Parker Field, Carroll Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Taylor, Fairview avenue, second baseman of the North Plainfield team, broke his leg in sliding into second base. Taylor had reached first, in the fifth inning on a hit and started to steal second. This he had accomplished but fell upon his leg in such a manner as to snap the bone above the ankle.

It will be a couple of weeks before he is able to be up and he will be prevented from playing ball for the rest of the year.

GIFT OF GOLD COIN FOR DRAMATIC COACH

P. H. S. Seniors Recognize Mr. Howe's Part in Annual Play's Great Success.

The members of the High School senior class, who appeared in "Oliver Twist" at the Plainfield theatre Saturday night, repeated the success of the matinee performance of the day before, with added emphasis. The curtain was lifted repeatedly after scenes that were especially well acted.

The tital role was ably portrayed by Miss Viola E. Garda, supported by Miss Ruth Douglas as Mrs. Corny, the matron of the workhouse; Miss Helen Ryder, a workhouse girl; Miss Katharyn F. Webster, a housekeeper; Brownlow, Burnett Doane; Bumble, A. Bruce Conklin; Maylie, Donald Webb, and Grimwig, Schuyler W. Line. The opening love scene in the workhouse was presented in a very humorous and clever manner by Miss Douglas and Bruce Conlin, the latter also taking the part of Giles, the important butler. Schuyler Line's interpretation of Grimwig, the gruff but kind-hearted friend of Brownlow's, deserves special mention.

The members of Fagin's band were ably portrayed by Miss Helen L. Woolley, as Nancy Sikes; Dorothy Smith, as Betsy; Elmer H. Hunting, as Fagin; Roy E. Titsworth, as Bill Sikes; Dixon Philips, as Artful Dodger; Egbert D. Fountain, as Charley Bates; Winthrop M. Phelps, as Tom Chittling and Fred Jacobs as Barney. As Nancy, Miss Woolley showed that she had given the difficult role a great deal of study and that she felt her part, an excellent portrayal of a girl who had been in the clutches of Fagin and his gang of thieves since childhood. Miss Woolley is an amateur of no mean ability. As Fagin, Elmer Hunting interpreted the part in admirable style, and Roy Titsworth in the role of Bill Sikes looked and acted every bit the part of the cruel and unscrupulous outlaw.

The rest of the cast included: Miss Jessie Stewart, Miss E. Madeline Strader, Theodore Champlin, Miss Mildred Brownless, Raymond Manley, Miss Jeannette Neighbor and Bob the dog. All of them handled their parts exceedingly well.

Between the third and fourth acts Frank Cullen presented Samuel B. Howe, of the High School faculty, who coached the play, with $25 in gold as a mark of appreciation on the part of the class for his unfailing efforts and long hours of work spent in drilling the cast. To Mr. Howe is due the credit for the success of the play, for after finding that the dramatizations of the play being used on the stage by professional companies were unsuited for production by amateurs, he dramatized the book himself.

This year's play was a gratifying financial success. A much larger sum was taken in at the box office than for any previous play given by a senior class.

"JUST LIKE JOHN" HERE FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

The first presentation in Plainfield of "Just Like John," will take place in the Plainfield theatre tomorrow night. It is the joint effort of George Broadhurst and Mark Swan. It had its initial production in the Teck theatre, Buffalo, and all reports from there would indicate that it had scored heavily.

"Just Like John" is said to be an uproarious comedy, with anarchism as its background, and wifely jealousy as its moving farce. Walter Jones plays the part of John, the United States secret service man, assigned to break up a group of anarchists, and in pursuance of this laudable purpose, he ingratiates himself with the fierce leading spirits of political chaos. Among these is a woman who thinks it her heaven-born duty to make way with all representatives of law and order but in other respects she is as tender-hearted and sentimental as a school-girl. This latter state is discovered by John to dis dismay as well as to the disruption of his domestic happiness and from the complications thus indicated, the ludicrous incidents of the story arise.

The organization includes Walter Jones, Rapley Holmes, Herbert Yost, Wallace Worsley and Florine Arnold. Others of the cast are Diva Moralda, Elsa Lorimer, Theodoria DeCapa, Walter Craven, Richard Laslewood, Montgomery Peters, Alfred Whiting and Frederick Roberts.

AUTO IS UNDAMAGED

Owned by Mrs. W. G. Cooke, to Whom Spicer Manufacturing Company Employe Was Returning it—Company Will Pay.

An electric automobile owned by Mrs. W. G. Cooke, of Berkeley avenue, and driven by Charles E. Thompson, a night foreman at the Spicer Manufacturing Company plant, skidded on the brick pavement opposite the postoffice about 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and jumping upon the sidewalk, plunged headon into a small restaurant conducted by Max and Samuel Smelson.

Before Mr. Thompson could stop the machine, the door to the restaurant was smashed and the panel beneath the front window was stove in.

The accident occurred before the proprietors had opened the restaurant for the day, and Mr. Thompson notified them. The automobile was not damaged.

C. W. Spicer, of the Spicer Manufacturing Company, informer Smelson Brothers that he would settle for all damage to their place of business.

THEATRE THRONGED AT CHOIR SONG SERVICE

Hymns of the Sunday School Convention Sung Again—Short Addresses.

The "Convention Choir," which was organized at the time the State Sunday-school convention was held in this city, closed its active season yesterday with a song service at the Plainfield theatre. The program was in charge of David E. Titsworth, musical director of the choir, while Arthur M. Harris, superintendent of the First Baptist Bible School, presided at the meeting. Miss Jessie Utter was at the piano. There were short addresses by Mr. Harris and W. D. Murray, while Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce, of this city, gave a crayon talk. The theatre was thronged with members of the various churches of the city and borough.

The service was largely taken up with the singing of convention hymns, and the choir showed the result of careful training by Mr. Titsworth. Mr. Harris gave a brief history of the choir, praising it for excellent work performed. William D. Murray then gave an impressive talk, drawing lessons from the disaster which befell the Titanic recently. He especially emphasized the importance and value of life, how one clings to it despite everything else. He said that John Jacob Astor with a large sum of money in his pocket was no better off than the humblest employe of the steamship company, both going down together. Mr. Murray said that the life that has God in it is more precious and that life can be of far more service in this world.

The crayon talk by Rev. Dr. Pierce proved intersting and held the close attention of the large audience. He pictured graphically the heart that is torn asunder by sin, and how it can be healed by the grace of God. He told of the warnings that come to people to stop leading lives of sin and unless these warnings are heeded destruction will surely follow. In conclusion he drew a picture of a field of daisies, telling the message of the flowers from which he drew many helpful suggestions. After the talk, the choir sang several hymns, a majority of the audience remaining to hear the singers. Between the hymns Mr. Harris related incidents about them, which added to the interest of the service.

BIBLE SCHOOL DAY.

"Bible School Day" was observed at the First Baptist church yesterday. In the morning the school occupied seats in the gallery, there being nearly three hundred members. There was special music by the chorus choir, including a pleasing solo by the new soprano, Miss Hazel M. Kaiser. In addition there was a choral prelude by the choir, and a hymn by the Bible School. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, the pastor, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, directing his remarks more especially to the older members of the school. In the afternoon the school was addressed by George E. Hall, superintendent of the Park Avenue Baptist church. At the service last night the choir sang an anthem by Noble, in memoriam of Mrs. David J. Yerkes.

COMMON COUNCIL TO HAVE A BUSY SESSION

Several Important Subjects Will Come up at the May Meeting Tonight.

The May meeting of the Common Council will be held tonight when it is expected that considerable business of an important nature will be taken up. The fire committee will recommend favorable action in the matter of changing the chemical engine at headquarters to a motor-driven apparatus, while Councilman George S. Clay, chairman of the committee on public affairs, will have a recommendation relative to the introduction of a municipal system of collection and disposal of garbage.

A meeting of the police board has been called for 7:30 o'clock, when it is understood that some action will be taken regarding the new horse being used for the police patrol wagon. A. C. Blair furnished the animal, but it has not yet been accepted by the police board. It is claimed that the horse being about 14 hands is too small for the work required and it is possible that efforts will be made to secure a larger one.

Another matter that will come before the Council will be several propositions from certified public accountants, some of whom reside in this city, offering to audit the city's books and accounts for a great deal less than $1,500, the price asked by Patterson, Teale & Dennis, of New York. It is argued that if Union county can have its accounts audited for a period of three years for $500, it should not cost the city $1,500 to have similar work done for one year. Mayor G. W. V. Moy vetoed the resolution giving Patterson, Teale & Dennis the work, and the Council did not pass it over the Mayor's veto. It is the opinion of many that the audit should not cost more than $500 and that it should not require three weeks to do the work, considering the modern and upto-date methods of bookeeping employed by the city officials, including City Treasurer W. F. Arnold and Tax Collector William R. Townsend.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION MARKS ENGAGEMENT

Many Friends Attend Affair in Honor of Miss Netta Newcorn's Betrothal.

The reception given by Judge and Mrs. William Newcorn at the Hotel Astor, New York, yesterday afternoon, in honor of their daughter Miss Netta Newcorn, whose engagement to Dr. Raphael Yood, of this city, was recently announced, was a brilliant affair. The hours were from 3 to 6, during which more than 150 relatives and friends were present to offer congratulations to the couple and enjoy the hospitality of the host and hostess. The room where the reception was held was elaborately decorated with palms and white geraniums.

The receiving party comprised Judge and Mrs. Newcorn, Miss Netta Newcorn, Dr. Raphael Yood and Mrs Samuel Newcorn, of Philadelphia, sister-in-law of Judge Newcorn. Included among the guests were about twenty-five from this city, intimate friends of the couple. Miss Newcorn wore an American Beauty gown, with silver trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of orchids and sweet peas. She also wore a diamond jewel, a gift of her parents. Miss Newcorn was the recipient of more than one hundred handsome and costly gifts. During the reception a sumptuous repast wast served.

Miss Newcorn and Dr. Yood will be married on September 24. The latter is a practicing physician in this city, having been a resident here for the past two years.

AUTOMOBILE BUS LOSES WHEEL ON BRIDAL TRIP

Charles Smith hired a large auto bus in which to take a party of friends and his prospective bride, Miss Julia Dahl, to Perth Amboy, where preparations had been made for the wedding, last night. Starting out in gay spirits the bridal party made the long journey scene a short one. The wedding went as gayly as a wedding should.

Upon nearing the location of the couple's new home on Wilson avenue, on the return trip, the bus cast a rear wheel on Greenbrook road, near Duer street. Nothing daunted, the couple proceeded afoot to their new home.

ST. STEPHEN'S TO GET NEW ORGAN

LAIRD IS HIS FRIEND

Details of Carnegie Proposition not Announced, But it is Understood That Parish Will Have no Trouble Meeting Conditions.

Rev. Warner E. L. Ward, rector of St. Stephen's church, announced at the morning service yesterday that the church is to have a fine new organ in the near future. The new instrument has been made possible through a benefaction of Andrew Carnegie, who is a personal friend of the rector. It was through Mr Ward that Mr. Carnegie learned that St. Stephen's church is in need of a new organ, and promptly agreed to assist the parishioners.

Mr. Ward did not make known the details of the proposition, but this much is known, that Mr. Carnegie agrees to give a stated sum for the purchase of the organ with the understanding that the parishioners raise the balance. The offer Mr. Ward said, was a generous one, and he feels sure that the parishioners will have no thouble in securing the rest of the money.

DEVELOPING BOROUGH RESIDENTIAL TRACT

New Street From Brook to Manning Avenue One of Improvements Planned

Andrew Wilson, Allen Coddington and W. H. Titus, who recently purchased the large residential property at Brook and Westervelt avenues, occupied for thirty years by Paul Loizeaux, have commenced the work of developing the tract for building purposes. A gang of laborers has been busy for several days, clearing away some of the big trees to permit the removal of the house on the grounds to a new location on Chatham street, adjoining the North Plainfield cemetery. When this is done, a new street will be cut through the tract from Brook to Manning avenue, in reality a direct continuation of Elm street.

The new thoroughfare will be thirty-five feet wide and will be flanked on either side by a strip of ground about 100 feet deep. The proper plotting will provide a large number of fine building lots, all of which will be restricted in order to have the new residences conform with the exclusive homes now in that section.

The purchase of the property by the trio mentioned was made from the estate of Peter Struve and Charles Schwed, of Somerville, and was one of the most important deals in borough real estate in a long time. Mr. Loizeaux had occupied the place for thirty-one years, removing to DeLacy avenue about a month ago.

COMPLETES NURSING COURSE.

BICYCLIST HIT HACK.

James Pondusero, who lives at the end of Union street, rode his bicycle into a hack driven by Peter Seader at Front street and Park avenue, Saturday night, and was pitched into the roadway. His head was cut. Dr. Pittis dressed the injury.

Rev. and Mrs. Horace P. Craig, of the borough, will leave tomorrow for Pleasant Pond, Maine, where they will occupy their bungalow for the summer.

MAYOR ORDERS TROLLEY CO. TO REMEDY CONDITIONS HERE

Acting on Report of Street Commissioner Gavett He Gives P. S. R. 30 Days to Fix up Roadbeds, Tracks and Equipment.

Delegated by Mayor Moy, by provisions of an ordinance recently enacted, to investigate the trolley equipment and tracks particularly, Street Commissioner Gavett has completed his work. His report has been filed with the mayor and it forms the basis of an order issued to the Public Service Railway Company issued today. The mayor personally served the notice on a local agent of the P. S. R. and also sent one direct to the corporation's headquarters in Newark, notifying the trolley people that the defects must be remdied within thirty days and also informing them of the penalty for noncompliance. The order, in letter form, follows:

"Mayor's Office,

"Plainfield, N. J.

"May 6, 1912.

"Public Service Railway Co., Newark, N. J.

"Gentlemen—I beg to direct your attention to the following statement of defects in your road bed and tracks as reported to me on the third day of May, by Andrew J. Gavett, Street Commissioner, of the City of Plainfield, to wit:

"On Randolph Road the track is uneven with low joints.

"On Arlington avenue, the switch near Randolph road needs surfacing and tightening of joints.

"On Arlington ave., between Rose and Fourth st., there are a number of crooked rails and low loose joints.

"On Woodland ave., there are also a number of crooked rails and low loose joints.

"On the curve at Putnam and Woodland aves., the flange of one of the rails has been cut off by the wheels.

"At the switch on Putnam ave., near Richmond st., there is a bad joint, one rail being higher than the other.

"There are also some low loose joints on Putnam ave.

"On East Fifth st. there are some low joints.

"At the curve at Second and Richmond sts. there are two loose joints.

"I also direct your attention to the over head equipment on East Fourth st., near Park ave.

"The feed wire is almost out of hanger.

"There are a number of electric light or telephone wires crossing the trolley wires in which case guard wires should be supplied to prevent damage in case of these wires coming in contact.

"You are hereby notified to forthwith repair the defects herein noted, and in event of your failure to do so within thirty days, you will become liable to a fine of twenty dollars for each and every day such defects shall continue after the expiration of said period. I am,

"Yours respectfully,

"G. W. V. MOY,

"Mayor."

MISS BENDER BRIDE OF MORRIS ESTRIN

Sebring Auditorium Scene of Nuptial Festivities Enjoyed By Many Guests.

Miss Ida Bender, of West Third street, and Morris Estrin, of this city, were married in Sebring's auditorium yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Silliman, of Newark, and was witnessed by 150 guests, many of them from New York, Newark, Elizabeth and other places, were in attendance. The wedding was followed by a reception and dance that continued until 2 o'clock this morning.

Miss Bender wore a becoming white satin gown and carried a bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by three bridesmaids, the Misses Dora Brody, Rose Bender and Josephin Warschover. All carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by Abram Schishinsky, Max Estrin and Ferdinand Weinberger. Music was furnished by Warschover's orchestra.

Both young people have many friends in the city and borough. The groom is engaged in the tailoring business with his brother, Benjamin Estrin, of Somerset street. Mr. and Mrs. Estrin will reside on Somerset street.

NORWOOB WOULDN'T EAT IN THE KITCHEN

So He Turned Back After Getting as Far South as Washington.

Roused to a high pitch of indignation because of treatment accorded him at the nation's capital, not only by a white man but by a member of his own race as well, Richard Norwood, of Arlington avenue, a leader in local colored political circles, abandoned his plan to attend the funeral of a relative at Wilmington, N. C., Saturday, and returned to Plainfield. His mental agitation was augmented by the pangs of hunger, two men absolutely refusing to serve him in their restaurants unless he ate in the kitchen with a background of all dirty dishes and scurrying help. The double distress was more than he could stand and he retraced his 200 mile run after wiring that he would not be one of the mourners at the requiem service.

Norwood's visit to Washington was brought about by a change of cars in the ride to Wilmington. He had had nothing to eat since early in the morning and decided to fill in the intervening time by lingering over a good meal. He selected a modest restaurant on a side street as a proper place to secure what he wanted but the white proprietor promptly ordered him out of the seat he had dropped into.

"Can't serve you here," he said in a freezing tone, "undess you wish to take chances in the kitchen."

The Plainfielder declined the offer with ironical thanks and started out to try again. The second time he held off until he located a place kept by a colored caterer to the public's needs, firm in the belief that he would escape further humiliation. It was a vain hope, however. The Afro-American restauranter also held out the kitchen alternation, softening it down with the remark that the place had so much southern white trade that he could not afford to serve colored people. The place was so small and inconsequential that table cloths wre foreign and a napkin was an unheard of luxury. A turn down in this kind of chophouse was the last straw on the camel's back and Norwood immediately abandonen the forward trip.

"If this is the way a black man is treated in Washington, the home of the constitution and dotted with symbols of equality and justice," he remarked, "what must it be in the Tar Heel state where it is a known fact that the negro is held in contempt?"

The Plainfield politician took the first train home that he could get, still hungry and humiliated after the reverse ride of nearly five hours' duration. The relative whose funeral he had planned to attend was his sister, Mrs. J. F. Stewart, who died Thursday after a brief illness.

BOYS ENTERTAINED.

The members ofthe Boys' Athletic Association were entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Howard Beebe, of Stelle avenue. The afternoon was spent in playing games, including a ball game after sides had been chosen. A number of new members were initiated into the club after which refreshments were served.

TENSION HIGH AS MARYLAND VOTES

Negro Ballots Likely to Decide Republican Contest.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY

Sixteen Delegates to Chicago Convention to Be Chosen, and the Winner of the State Will Get All, as the Unit Rule Is in Force.

WEEK'S POLITICAL CALENDAR.

Today.
Republican and Democratic primaries in Maryland.
Republican state convention in Nevada.

Tuesday.
Democratic state convention in Pennsylvania.
Republican state convention in Arkansas.

Wednesday.
Republican state convention in Kansas.

Thursday.
Democratic state convention in Iowa.
Republican state convention in Maryland.

Saturday.
Republican and Democratic primaries in California.

Baltimore, May 6.—With the outcome being watched for with the keenest interest and both the Taft and Roosevelt forces claiming victory the Maryland state primaries are on all over the state today.

The managers of both sides admit that the negro vote is likely to be the determining factor in the fight, but the interest is at high pitch, and a greater white vote than has been seen in many years is being recorded.

Sixteen delegates to the Chicago convention will be elected, and as the unit rule will be in force they will all go pledged to one or the other of the candidates.

The great interest in the Republican fight, which was contested personally late last week by both the president and Colonel Roosevelt, has overshadowed the Democratic contest, which is drawn between Governor Woodrow Wilson and Speaker Champ Clark for the presidential indorsement.

As in Massachusetts, the result of the primary owing to the heavy vote will probably be late in being known.

OHIO NEXT SCENE OF TAFT-T. R. ENCOUNTER

President Invades Home State, With Colonel to Follow.

Columbus, O., May 6. — President Taft is in Ohio today, where he will spend the next few days in a vigorous campaign for the forty-eight delegates to the Chicago convention to be elected in the state primaries to be held on May 21 next. Mr. Taft will spend three days on the present trip to Ohio, most of which will be devoted to campaigning in the southern part of the state. He will return to Ohio again next week, when he will probably stump through the northern part of Ohio, where there is considerable insurgent sentiment.

Colonel Roosevelt intends to campaign against President Taft in Ohio within the next two weeks. The president's political advisers regard it as absolutely necessary for Mr. Taft to carry his own state. The president will make five speeches today at Nelsonville, Athens, Hamden, Chillicothe and Greenfield. He will arrive at Cincinnati late tonight nad will stop at his brother's home. Mr. Taft will spend Tuesday quietly and in the evening will attend the May musical festival. Early Wednesday morning the president will leave Cincinnati for a whirlwind trip, during which he will make fourteen speeches.

ROOSEVELT SWEEPS TEXAS.

Early Returns Favorable to President Are Reversed—Wilson Wins.

Austin, Tex., May 6.—It is now definitely known that Roosevelt practically swept the state in the precinct primary conventions, although the early reports indicated that Taft was in the lead.

Colonel Cecil Lyon, the Roosevelt manager, claims a solid Roosevelt delegation of forty voters will be sent to the national convention. Quite a number of primary conventions did not instruct, but their delegations are said to be favorable to Roosevelt. Taft carried the Tenth congressional district.

In the Democratic precinct primary conventions Wilson led Harmon, Clark and Underwood by receiving more instructed votes than all three of his opponents combined.

Chilian Cabinet Resigns.

Washington, May 6.—The state department was informed by dispatches from Valparaiso that the Chilean cabinet has resigned. No explanation as to the meaning of the resignations was given.

ROBBINS SHOW PLEASED BIG CAMDEN AUDIENCE

The Frank A. Robbins All-Feature Circus, which visits Plainfield this year on May 8, has been traveling through the Eastern States for the last thirty-two years. A show of this kind in order to cover the same territory year after year finds it necessary to give a bigger and better performance with each season, if it expects to be successful. The show has left behind it a string of press notices couched in the highest terms, wherever it showed. A typical example of these press notices occurred in the Camden, N. J., Courier, a newspaper printed in a city in which all of the biggest tent shows give performances. The Courier said on May 9, last:

"After all the one ring circus is the place where one can have the greatest fun! You don't have to break your neck or strain your eyes to see everything that is going on with the result you don't go away with the feeling that you have missed anything.

"The thousands that attended the performance of the Frank A. Robbins feature circus, which performed here for the edification of Camdenians yesterday, left the big tent with the feeling that they had seen all the management had to offer and expressions of pleasure for the excellent show were heard on every side.

"The Robbins show while not as large as other shows that pay annual visits to this city is a representative show and is all that word Circus implies.

"One finds everything in a smaller degree; the clowns that delighted the grandfathers are at the old stand doing new business, the horses show greater cleverness than ever before, and the acrobats perform feats that send chills of dread up and down the spine.

"Hillary Long, the greatest head artist in the world bounced up and down a flight of stairs like a rubber ball, doing all kinds of difficult feats with the strength of his neck and the hardness of his head.

"The flying Glendales performed some of the greatest feats of skill and nerve ever seen before in a circus ring, leaping from one trapeze to another and from end to end of the tent.

"It would be hard to pick any particular feature. The Company has called the show an all-feature circus and this is literally true. It is a feature circus and all acts are well worth seeing at any time. The Robbins Show will always be welcome in Camden."

The show will appear on the vacant lot on West Front street, near Grant avenue. In addition to the two performances there will be a street parade about 10 o'clock in the morning. The show will also appear at Somerville on Thursday and in Westfield on Friday.

STANHOPE AND NETCONG SCHOOL PLAN BEATEN

Stanhope, May 6.—The proposition for the establishment of a union high school for this place and Netcong was defeated despite the recommendation of Assistant Commissioner of Education Meredith and County Superintendents Decker and Hulsart, of Sussex and Morris counties, respectively.

Netcong voted for the proposition, the ballot being 53 to 2. Stanhope, on the other hand, beat the project, the vote being 53 against to 35 for. The disapproval of one district defeats the project.

For several years both boroughs have been maintaining two three-year high schools. The State school authorities recently withdrew its approval from these schools, and it was suggested that the only feasible plan was the building of a high school, with a four-year course, for both municipalities.

JOHN C. CRAMER BURIED.

Lebanon, May 6.—The funeral of John Cregar Cramer, eighty-five years old, was held Saturday from his late home near here. Rev. Sylvanus D. Decker, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. Interment was in the cemetery there. Mr. Cramer was a son of the late John S. Cramer and was born on the farm near Brays Hill, now occupied by Elisha and Oliver Palter. He took possession of his farm near there shortly after his marriage to Miss Sarah Rockafeller over sixty years ago, and had lived there since. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Haynes, of Plainfield. His wife died two years ago. He was a Democrat and held the office of freeholder from Clinton township for several terms.

CURFEW FOR RAHWAY.

Rahway, May 6.—The curfew law, which has been dormant in this city for the past six years, will be enforced from now on, according to Chief of Police David H. Ramsey. He has issued orders to all the patrolmen that all children found on the streets after 9 o'clock must be sent to their homes, and proceedings will be brought against their parents. The activity on the part of the police has been caused by numerous complaints. The ordinance prohibits any one under the age of sixteen from being on the streets minus a guardian.

RECEIVED FATAL BURNS PREPARING HER SUPPER

Whitehouse, May 6.—Suffering from burns received while preparing supper, Mrs. Bloomfield Welch, sixty-three years old, died at her home near New Germantown Saturday. Mrs. Welch was using her apron to lift the tea kettle from over a blazing wood fire when the sparks set the garment on fire. In a minute the woman was enveloped in flames. She screamed and neighbors ran to her assistance, tearing the burning garments from her, but not until after she was horribly burned. Her condition was considered critical Friday, but there were hopes for her recovery until night, when she became worse.

—Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow in anger and of great kindness.—Nehemiah ix 17.

STUBBERT ARRAIGNED.

New Brunswick, May 6.—James F Stubbert pleaded not guilty to four indictments, two charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses, and two with practising medicine in Middlesex county without having filed his license with the county clerk. Stubbert gave bail at Perth Amboy some time ago, went to New York and fought extradition. He then returned here voluntarily and surrendered. The trial was set down for May 13 and bail was given by a surety company. Stubbert practised at Perth Amboy, it is said.

MRS. MARY J. REED.

Whitehouse, May 6.—Mrs. Mary J. Reed, seventy-one years old, wife of Abram E. Reed, died at her home at Dreahook, near Whitehouse Station, from Bright's disease. She leaves besides her husband three sons, Irving J. Reed, of Whitehouse Station, and Aaron and Augustus Reed, also of this vicinity. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the house. Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, will officiate. Interment will be made in Rural Hill cemetery here.

Plainfield, N. J., May 6, 1912.

It will not do for any councilman to argue that the city cannot spare the money at this time for letting a contract for the collection and disposal of garbage. That point has been lost by the persistency with which funds are used for recent investigations of various sorts and particularly in the lavish hand in rolling up expense in the long-drawn out and costly municipal water plant scheme. It is a serious question whether the taxpayers are in sympathy with the course in the water proposition, but as to the garbage matter will anyone deny that the public generally is in accord with the plan of Chairman Clay's committee for removal of refuse by private contract?

The next eight years of life, Thomas A. Edison proposes to devote to the work of perfecting moving picture films for educational purposes. The film at present falls far short of what he aims to make it but by the time he has spent some three millions of dollars he has laid aside for the purpose and has given his thought, study and ingenuity to the subject for some years to come, the famous inventor expects to produce a device to amply meet the requirements in the school room. That it will mark one of the greatest advances made in the cause of education anyone at all familiar with what the Wizard has achieved in other lines of invention rests assured.

In many, many churches throughout the length and breadth of the land Mothers' Day will be observed next Sunday. Very appropriately the white carnation is the emblem for that occasion. It will be worn on the corsage belt or coat lapel. Why it is chosen Margaret E. Sangster thus relates: "Pure as the driven snow, spicy and fragrant and possessing a lasting quality beyond that of lily or rose, the white carnation stands for all that mother is to the family and the race."

Very shortly the voters of Elizabeth will decide at the polls whether they prefer a commission form of government to that of a mayor and board of aldermen. The movement is spreading rapidly, the East following the West in adopting this sensible and practical form of ministration of public affairs. Ere long, Plainfield will undoubtedly be governed in the same way for there is a growing dissatisfaction with the form existing here.

Tuberculosis carried off 3,344 residents of New Jersey during April. While this shows a decrease from the corresponding month last year, the large number of deaths demonstrates what laudable work is being done here and in almost every municipality in the State in the crusade against the Great White plague's ravages.

When the Pennsylvania Democrats turn to former Judge James Gay Gordon as their leader it's a hopeful sign of a regenerated minority party in the Keystone State. Gordon is by far the ablest, cleanest and shrewdest fighter that the party of Samuel J. Randall has in that Commonwealth in the present day.

Trenton's mayor is attempting to solve the "high cost of living" problem by arranging to lease vacant lots in and near that city to families that will farm the land. The rental is to be nominal and the seed supplied free of cost as it will come from the Federal government.

We have occasionally drawn attention to that eyesore of the business section, the lunch wagon, on Park avenue, near North avenue, deploring its presence. It is with some degree of satisfaction that we learn that the proprietor intends to cart his wagon to Trenton at the end of the present week. What is Plainfield's loss is Trenton's gain.

When the Equal Suffrage advocates can make such a showing as they did in New York on Saturday it's time for the low-browed politician to quit scoffing at the movement.

Women's hats are to cost more according to advices from Paris. Well, the American woman must follow the fashion of the "high cost of living," be the expense what it may.

Census bureau announces that there are more Indians now than there were two years ago. After reading the political news, we are convinced of that fact.

Hope New Brunswick fares better than Plainfield did with its "old home week" celebration and that's not wishing much.

Three weeks to a day before the Presidential preference primaries in New Jersey. Are you registered?

Oh, by the way, have you forgotten that the Turks and Italians are still in mortal combat arrayed?

Pray, who will sing on the morrow, "Maryland, My Maryland?"

RECTORS TO ATTEND DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Episcopal Churches Will Be Represented by Clerics and Laymen.

The one hundred and fortieth convention of the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey will be held in St. Andrew's church, Mt. Holly, tomorrow and Wednesday, and the Episcopal churches of the city and borough will be represented by Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson and Rev. J. G. Currier, of Grace church; Rev. William S. McCoy, H. E. Langford, J. B. Betts and J. A. VanMater, of Holy Cross church; Rev. C. H. Mallery, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and Rev. Mr. Ward, of St. Stephen's church. It is possible that others from the above churches may attend.

The convention will open at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Bishop John Scarborough presiding. There will be celebration of the holy communion with sermon, and organization for business immediately following this service. Following the noon recess the business session will be held at 2:30, continuing until 5:30. At 3 o'clock the Episcopal address will be delivered. In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a missionary service.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock there will be holy communion, followed at 9 o'clock by morning prayer and business session and at 12 o'clock intercession for missions. There will be another business session in the afternoon at 2:30. Attention is called to the fact that the convegntion is for the transaction of new business only; with the one exception of the proposed revision of the form of parochial report blank. No constitutional or canonical revision remains over from the last convention and nothing awaits final action.

RASORES CLUB ANNUAL.

The Rasores Club will hold its meeting tomorrow morning promptly at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George A. Strong on Central avenue. The program will include the annual election and a musicale.

FIREMEN'S NINE.

The North Plainfield firemen will play the Gun Club team on Hyde Field next Saturday afternoon. Schuck and Hann will be the battery for the fire-fighters.

JERSEY WOMEN IN SUFFRAGE PARADE

Plainfield League Represented In New York's Big Demonstration.

Three years ago nine women from New Jersey marched in the Suffrage parade in New ork City. Last Saturday nearly three hundred were in line. Twenty members of the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield marched with their sisters from the Oranges, Montclair, Summit, Elizabeth, Bayonne, Arlington, Newark and Jersey City. Last year the total number of paraders was three thousand women and three hundred men; this year there were sixteen thousand women and fourteen hundred men. Mrs. Champlain L. Riley, of this city, marched with the officers at the head of the New Jersey column. She is a vice president of the New Jersey League. Mrs. E. F. Feickert, head of the woman's suffrage party in New Jersey, was marshal for the Plainfield marchers. New Jersey marched in the division made up of representatives from non-suffrage states, which came just after the women from the six states where women have full suffrage, Washington, California, Colorado, Idaho, Utah and Wyoming, and from three countries where women are fully enfranchised, Norway, Sweden and Finland. At the head of the non-suffrage states column marched Doctor Anna Howard Shaw, President of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association. Dr. Shaw carried a banner which raised a laugh all along the line. It read, "Catching up with China," and at the mass meeting in Carnegie Hall which followed the parade she expressed the real meaning of the whole great demonstration when she said, "This day has shown that women have overcome their greatest foe, the foe within themselves. They have overcome the cowardice and fear of what others may think and say. They have let fall like a garment the conservatism which has for so many years prevented their best service to the world."

Evidently there were many Plainfielders in the tremendous crowd which was there to watch the marchers, a crowd of ten unbroken rows of people on each side of the street for the whole three miles of the parade for the Plainfild marchers were greeted with hand-clapping, waving handkerchiefs and flags and applause from both men and women all along the line of march. But perhaps the greatest ovation was given to the men's division of the parade, in which Plainfield was represented by Champlain L. Riley and Charles A. Selden. They were in good company—such company as that of Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent; Prof. John Dewey, of Columbia University; Oswald Villard, owner of the New York Evening Post; Rabbi Stephen H. Wise, William M. Ivins, Jas. L. Laidlaw, Frederick Nathan, Vladimir G. Simkovitch, Charles H. Strong, president of the City Club; Robert H. Elder, Richard LaGallienne and hundreds of others, almost every one of them men of prominence in their several professions. In the Fourteenth street district the men were greeted with more or less good-natured "joshing," but none of them seemed to care, and when they reached the upper part of the line of march, where the crowd was more largely composed of women and of a better class of men, they received more applause than jeers, and their greatest reward was after they had turned into Fifty-seventh street, where had gathered many of the women marchers who had completed their march. They lined both sides af the street and cheered and applauded the men as they marched along. The men carried a banner reading: "A Million Women Vote Now. This is More Than the Usual Presidential Plurality. If These women Vote Solidly They May Decide the Presidency." After the parade was over Richard Le Gallienne left at the office of the "Sun" the following verses which he had written on the spur of the occasion:

THOUGHT ON PARADE.

I had my "marching" orders—that's why I marched today,
For all the women that I loved were marching the same way.
Ah! if only I could say
'Twas for the lovely faces that didn't line the way,
It was comfort as we marched to see the policemen smile,
And it was one big good natured laugh the whole three mile,
They called us "henpecks," "easy marks" and words of like renown—
But the faces got far prettier as we walked uptown,
Lemons were handed for our thirst as we marched on parade,
But what cared we for were we not gentlemen unafraid?

—He—"My father weighed only four pounds at his birth." She—"Good gracious! Did he live?"—Baltimore Sun.

"Bloch" PULLMAN SLEEPERS 1912 Models

More than 20 years' experience is behind "Bloch" Baby Carriages; not only are they obviously the best in material and construction, but they are scientific in design. The importance of this would be better appreciated if more women knew how often infantile troubles are traceable to baby carriages of average construction. The "Bloch" Cradle gear gives that adequate support to the spring that means comfort and health combined.

"Bloch" Pullman Sleepers are finished in natural color, oak and white enamel; are made of the best quality reed, have sanitary removable cushions and seats; steel tubing pushers and heavy rubber tire wheels; you pay no more for "Bloch" Carriages than you do for any ordinary make.

The prices range from $16.50 to $45.00.

The prize list for the ninth annual Plainfield horse show under the auspices of the Plainfield Riding and Driving Club was issued today. The show will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 6, 7 and 8, and the entries close on Saturday, May 25. There are sixty-five classes in all, including those for roadsters, horses in harness, novice harness classes, tandems, four-in-hands.

The special classes include that for "The Nala" challenge cup, offered by J. W. Harriman, and valued at $250, to be won twice by the same owner. This takes the place of the cup won last year by Mr. Harriman. Then there is the Plainfield Riding and Driving challenge cup, valued at $250, the champion harness classes, the classes for hunters and jumpers, the Watchung Hunt Club cup, and another feature will be the classes for militia mounts, militia teams and officers' charges, ribbons and cups being offered as prizes. Frederic Bull offering a cup, while the usual attention wil be given to the breeding classes which proved so attractive last year.

The following men have been invited to act as judges of the several classes:

Roadsters, E. R. Bowne, of Garwood; harness horses and ponies in harness, Charles A. Baudouine, of New York; hackney and breeding classes, James G. Marshall, of Morristown, and Charles A. Baudouine, of New York; saddle horses and ponies under saddle, Joseph Larocque, of Bernardsville, and James G. Marshall, of Morristown; officers' charges and militia mounts, Major Charles I. DeBevoise, of Brooklyn; hunters and jumpers, Clarence F. Levin, of Avon, N. Y. Dr. E. R. Voorhees, of Somerville, will be the veterinary judge.

The officers and committee of the club follow:

President, Orville T. Waring; vice president, Robert A. Fairbairn; secretary-treasurer, H. H. Pond; assistant secretary, Charles W. Smith; directors, Walter P. Bliss, Fredric Bull, William J. Buttfield, S. A. Cruikshank, Robert A. Fairbairn, Edward R. Finch, Henry L. Finch, Charles J. Fisk, J. W. Harriman, Percy H. Stewart, Charles W. McCutchen, George P. Mellick, William H. Moore, J. W. Ogden, Daniel Runkle, Tonzo Sauvage, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Lewis E. Waring, Orville T. Waring.

The

Square Pot Furnace

Offers Greatest Efficiency

THE patented square fire pot shown below eliminates all detraction from the duty of the coal. The square bottom prevents ashes from congesting the fire box. The cutting bar smashes all clinkers.

The heat is always intense and even. The cost of operating is far below that of any other, as the effective radiating surface of the firepot is 10% to 15% more than in any other furnace of the same size. Withal, the Square Pot offers more efficiency than any other make. Investigate Square Pot Furnaces, Boilers, Newport Ranges, etc., at your dealer's.

SLAYS GIRL AND ENDS OWN LIFE

Little Ferry, N. J., Scene of Double Tragedy.

MAN HAD BEEN DISCHARGED

After Six Months He Returned to Ask His Former Employer For a Reference, Then Shoots Grocer's Daughter and Puts Bullet Into His Own Head.

Little Ferry, N. J., May 6.—Anthony Parchall, a discharged clerk, shot and killed seventeen-year-old Mary Rucker, the daughter of Grocer Charles Rucker, his employer, and then ended his own life here.

Parchall was discharged by Rucker six months ago after having worked for the grocer several years. The grocer saw nothing of the man until he came to the store in the morning to ask for a reference. Mr. Rucker told him to come back in the afternoon. He did so, entering the house by a rear door. As he entered the parlor, where the girl was, the man yelled that he was going to kill her and the rest of the family. The grocer and his wife were upstairs asleep at the time. Mary screamed as she saw the man come at her. He pulled a revolver from his pocket and began firing at her. The first bullet struck her in the side, but she managed to stagger out to the store in front. As she fell Parchall sent another bullet at her, which went over her head through the store window, just grazing two young men, George Stabel and William Reick, who had come in. Parchall, standing over the girl's body, fired a bullet into his head. He died instantly. The girl was taken to the Hackensack hospital, where she died within a short time.

PAYS $50 TO LAY STONE.

Connors Bid Highest For the Honor of Starting Synagogue.

Pine Brook, N. J., May 6.—The Jewish colony here, which was started on a fund left by Baron Hirsch, laid the cornerstone for a synagogue. Although the colony was founded twenty-two years ago, it has never had a place of worship. The right to lay the first stone was auctioned off, and Joseph Connors paid $50 for the privilege. Others paid from $5 to $25 to be allowed to place other stones in position. Professor Israel Kasovich, editor of the Jewish Farmer, made the principal address in Yiddish.

The colony does not bar Christians, but it favors Jews. Baron Hirsch's idea was that the Jews ought not to stay in cities, and he started the colony as an inducement to get some of them into the country. There are now sixty-two families working farms near Pine Brook. All of these were started through the Hirsch fund.

If a man wants to farm the fund advances him $1,000 to start. If he is successful he is left there, but if he doesn't make good the farm is taken away from him.

PORK FOR IRISHMAN.

Freight Wreck on West Shore Left a Barrel of It in Yard.

Hackensack, N. J., May 6.—Eight freight cars of a West Shore through train bound from Buffalo to New York were derailed between Bogota and Teaneck, and the tracks were torn up for a distance of 500 feet. Traffic was blocked for several hours. A Chicago limited train followed the fast freight, and it was a sight that amused many spectators when passengers who had been rudely aroused in their berths had to march along the tracks past the wreck to an accommodation train sent out from Weehawken. Many of the men were only partly dressed.

The forty-two cars on the freight train were loaded with merchandise. The contents of the derailed cars were strewn all over the tracks. A barrel of choice pork rolled into the back yard of an Irishman all ready for use. Sauerkraut and pigs' feet were found in abundance.

DIVINITY SCHOOL CENTENNIAL.

Princeton Celebration Begins—Wilson and Bryan to Attend.

Princeton, N. J., May 6.—The centennial celebration of the Princeton Theological seminary, the oldest Presbyterian institution of its kind in the country, was opened in the First Presbyterian church with a sermon by Francis Lindley Patton, president of the seminary.

More than 500 alumni have come back, and more than 200 from other institutions are here. The Rev. Daniel Freeman, D. D., of New York, of the class of '47, the oldest living graduate, was present today. Among the delegates who will attend are Governor Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan.

Gibbons For Titanic Arch.

Washington, May 6.—Cardinal Gibbons announced his aproval of the project of women to erect a memorial arch in Washington to the heroism of the men who gave up their lives on the Titanic, and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie accepted a place on the committee of a hundred which will have charge of the enterprise.

PUBLIC SERVICE VOLUNTARILY FIXES LOWER CONTRACT RATES FOR ELECTRIC STREET LIGHTING

Files New Schedule with State Board of Public Utilities Commissioners Which Means a Saving of $100,000 Yearly to Taxpayers.

Affects All Contracts Made After May 1, '12

Uniform Sliding Scale of Charges Adopted, Based on Number of Lamps Used, and Discounts Allowed According to Length of Contract Period.

Applies to Both Arcs and Incandescents.

Here are the new Rates:

Regular Commercial Standard Two Thousand Candle Power (Trade Rating) Arc Lamps.

		2000 Candle Power	1200 Candle Power
First	250 Lamps	$80.00
Next	500 Lamps	75.00	Same as 2000 c. p. less a discount of five per cent.
Next	500 Lamps	70.00
Next	500 Lamps	65.00
All over	1750 Lamps	60.00

With discounts depending upon the term of contract as follows:

For a one-year contract	½ Per Cent
For a two-year contract	1 Per Cent
For a three-year contract	1½ Per Cent
For a four-year contract	2 Per Cent
For a contract of five years or over	2½ Per Cent

Municipal Street Incandescent Lighting Rates

	First 50 Lamps	Next 50 Lamps	Next 100 Lamps	All over 200 Lamps
25 Candle Power	$18.00	$16.65	$15.30	$13.95
32 Candle Power	20.00	18.50	17.00	15.50
40 Candle Power	22.50	20.81	19.12	17.44
60 Candle Power	26.50	24.51	22.52	20.54
80 Candle Power	30.00	27.75	25.50	23.25
100 Candle Power	32.75	30.29	27.83	25.37
200 Candle Power	55.00	50.88	46.75	42.63
350 Candle Power	85.00	78.63	72.25	65.88

With discounts depending upon the term of contract as follows:

For a one-year contract	½ Per Cent
For a two-year contract	1 Per Cent
For a three-year contract	1½ Per Cent
For a four-year contract	2 Per Cent
For a contract of five years or over	2½ Per Cent

These rates will be offered at once to all municipalities whose contracts have expired, and to other municipalities at the expiration of present contracts, and will be effective upon execution of new contracts for periods of not less than one year, existing rates remaining in effect until such new contracts are entered into.

The foregoing schedule was fixed upon by Public Service Electric Company, after a careful consideration of all the conditions governing the generation and distribution of electric current, and the care and maintenance of street lamps had proved that the figures given were the lowest it was possible to quote consistent with satisfactory service.

In reducing its rates the company is acting voluntarily. It is following its announced policy of giving the best possible service at the lowest possible rates. Its municipal patrons are being accorded the benefits of improved methods of production and economies of management. Without these factors it would not be feasible for Public Service to say to the taxpayers, "WE WILL SAVE YOU $100,000 A YEAR."

As in the past, so in the future, every effort will be made to keep the public lighting service up to the highest standard that brains, hard work and the best mechanical equipment can produce.

SMITH CRITICIZES MOTOR RECIPROCITY

State Commissioner Says Law Has Shown Itself More Retaliatory than Conciliatory

Trenton, May 6.—In an address delivered before the automobile school of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A., J. B. R. Smith, New Jersey commissioner of motor vehicles, declared that automobile reciprocity, so far, had shown itself to be more retaliatory than conciliatory.

Two details he suggested as most desirable in any interstate agreement. They are better identifications and universal jurisdiction. As to the latter point, he does not believe that the present reciprocity act is what it should be, and he utters a prophecy, as follows:

"I again freely predict that one season in New Jersey of non-resident cars driven without jurisdiction other than that which can be obtained through the local police authorities as exercised through the power of arrest without warrant and the establishment of speed traps, will be entirely sufficient to convince the motoring public, as well as the public generally, of the necessity of jurisdiction."

That the state commissioner of motor vehicles is not entirely satisfied with the present reciprocity act is still further shown in his own words:

"Registration was one of the main features which gave our New Jersey law, as I have before pointed out, its efficiency and which has now been removed, so far as non-residents are concerned, by the recent so-called reciprocity act, for the reason, as given, that the state registration feature was an inconvenience to non-residents which they should not be asked to bear. I insist that for their own protection, for their own comfort in the state of New Jersey, they should, if it were necessary, be only too glad to bear this inconvenience, and without undertaking to argue this phase of the question, I shall be perfectly content to let the experience of the coming summer demonstrate the correctness of my position."

Continuing, the commissioner suggests his plan for universal urisdiction:

"Three years ago I devised a plan of interstate registration, a plan whereby when a resident motorist desired to register his car, he might at the same time, through an interstate arrangement, whereby each state is made the agent of every other state for registration purposes, obtain registration and therein submit himself to the jurisdiction of any or all the other states through which he might desire to travel during he year. And if perchance, at any time during the year he might desire to use his car in states other than those mentioned in the original registration, he might at his convenience, before taking the trip, obtain in his own state a supplemental registration entitling him to use his car and subjecting him to the jurisdiction of the state in which he desired to travel.

"Such a plan would be similar to the method now in vogue in selling transportation or billing freight and issuing coupon tickets by railroads over connecting lines.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF MRS. DAVID J. YERKES

The funeral service of Mrs. David J. Yerkes was held at the First Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was largely attended by relatives and friends, including many of the older residents who had known Mrs. Yerkes for many years. There was a beautiful display of floral tributes, comprising wreaths, crosses and cut flowers. The casket was completely hidden from view by flowers.

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the church, conducted the service, reading appraprate Scripture selections and offering prayer. At the request of the family there was no eluogy. During the service, a quartet, comprising Miss Ruth Harris, soprano; Miss Katherine Bushnell, contralto; George Smith, tenor and Charles C. Western, bass, sang several selections, under the direction of Howard M. Case, musical director of thec hurch.

The burial was in Hillside cemetery and the pall-bearers were: Dr. Norman H. Probasco, E. L. Bonney, Alexander Gilbert, C. W. McCutchen, L. V. F. Randolph and Oliver B. Leodard.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The Plainfield team has started at last.

And from the exhibition that was given the fans on Saturday one would hardly think that it was any other than the old team of the Central League playing a game in mid-season.

In fact it was about the same old aggregation that won the flag a year ago.

The contest drew the largest crowd that ever attended an opening game in Plainfield, seven hundred hungry fans appeasing their baseball appetites.

Frederickson allowed the visitors but three hits, and one of those a scratch that he himself should have handled.

A few wise fans had the proper dope; they stood on the running track of the city playground, where they could get a good view of both the Pets and the High School games.

Which was getting their money's worth, when the fact that admission to the playground is free, is taken into consideration.

The City-Borough High School game was a one-sided quarrel, the Somerset lads being very weak in their fielding and base running.

A great many of the fans could not understand how the circuit drive in the eighth with the bases full retired the side, but the umpire ruled that the runner failed to touch the third sack in his merry chase and called the side out.

It was a good clean drive and it seemed a shame to deprive him of the credit, and the City High of the runs.

But they didn't need them after all.

In the five-mile race before the game, the first of the Y. M. C. A. matinee races, the sprinters started out as though they were running a two-twenty but learned their mistake before the first lap had been covered.

Twenty times around a quarter-mile track looks like a hundred to the runner when he sees five more circuits staring him in the face.

There will be more entries in next Saturday's race.

Two of the Factory League teams met in a practise game Saturday afternoon on Hyde Field. The R. G. E. team faced the Commercials, with the latter team having the best of the argument.

It looks as though the Factory League was going to bring a lot of the old favorites back into the game. Jimmy Montross twirled for the Electrics.

It was a bad day for the peanut man. Twice foul balls careened through space and smote his wagon in the lights. Two of them were broken, and in neither case would he allow the balls to be returned to the game until he had been paid for the windows.

An observer remarked that he charged a good profit for his windows as well as for his peanuts.

HOBERT F. C. WINS.

The White Sox baseball team were again defeated by the Hobart Field Club Saturday afternoon by a score of 15 to 12. The game was played on Hope Common and was an interesting contest throughout. Huelson and Bowers were the batteries for the winning team, while Brandt and Clarkson represented the White Sox.

RUTGERS WINS FROM LEHIGH ON THE TRACK

New Brunswick, May 6.—The Rutgers College track team overwhelmed Lehigh University at Neilson field Saturday afternoon by the score of 69 to 35. The New Brunswick runners were superior in almost all departments, being especially strong in the track events.

For Rutgers Havens and Silvers were the stars, the former taking first place in the hundred and in the two twenty-yard dashes and also in the high hurdle race, while the latter won both the quarter and half-mile runs.

One college record was broken and one tied during the afternoon. Charles Hambrock, of Newark, hurled the hammer 128 feet, breaking the Rutgers' record by 12 feet. Captain Valentine Havens, of Highland Park, ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 16 seconds flat, equalling his own record for the distance.

Rutgers also won the baseball game from Ursinus played in the morning by a score of 11 to 7. Dennis pitched masterful ball.

DUNELLEN WINS FROM CRANFORD IN THIRTEENTH

Twelve innings without a score, with the home team pushing across the only run in the thirteenth, gave the Dunellen fans a taste of real baseball Saturday afternoon when Manager Bogardus' team met the strong aggregation from Cranford. It was one of the best games ever played in the railroad town and promises well for the quality of baseball that will be seen in the borough this year.

McLaughin, who pitchen for the home team, allowed the visitors only seven hits and turned nine back to the bench by the one-two-three process. Farrell also pitched masterful bal for the Cranford team fanning sixteen. The fielding of both teams was excellent, the few errors that were made being of the inexpensive variety.

Manager Bogardus has the Raritan team scheduled for the attraction next Saturday, the game to be played on the West End grounds in Somerville.

FRITTS FINISHES FIRST IN Y. M. C. A. FOOT RACE

Fritts won the first of the Y. M. C. A. matinee races run on the track at the city playground Saturday afternoon in the fast time of 30 minutes 40 seconds. There were five to start in the race but Wilson dropped out after going six laps.

Fritts started off in the lead from the first and ran a pretty race, lapping Post, the last man to finish, in the fourth mile. The order in which the others finished and their time is: Second, Day, time 32:56 3-5; third, Gleason, 34.25, with Post bringing up in the rear.

The officials for the race were Judge of finish, E. C. Ostlin; timers, Raymond Manley, Fred Dickerson and William Peacock, and Craig Blair, Ralph Runyon, Walter Cuberley and George Adams, clerks.

These races will be run each week under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. over the same course, and it is expected that the entry list for next Saturday afternoon will be much larger.

COMMERCIALS WON.

The Commercial team defeated the R. G. E. (Rushmore-Garwood-Electrics) in a practice game played Saturday afternoon on Hyde Field by a score of 10 to 3. Conover's heavy hitting was the feature. The batteries for the Commercials was Conover, Freeman and VanZandt and for the R. G. E. team, Montross and Compton. This game was played cimply to get a line on the players who will play in the Manufacturers' League, which opens next Saturday.

N. P. H. S. NO MATCH FOR CITY HIGH TEAM

Boys From Over the Brook Go Down Before Strong P. H. S. Team.

The North Plainfield High School team proved no match for the speedy bunch of ball tossers from the Plainfield High School, Saturday afternoon, when they met for the first time this season on Parker Field. It was plain from the start that the city boys had it on their rivals from across the stream and after the early excitement was over the fans in the stand settled back and waited to see how high the score would go. The end of the ninth found that P. H. S. had 15 runs on their side of the score board and the borough lads only 3.

A great deal of rivalry always exists between these two schools and the city lads were doubly anxious to wipe out the sting of defeat that had been troubling them since last season, when the Somerset boys had the Indion sign hung on all of the teams in this section. They succeeded in taking revenge and spared no pains to make the score so that it would look very fat on their side and lean on the other.

The team from over the brook was very weak in their gelding, allowing many what should have been easy outs to go for runs, and mussing up many of the infield jabs that should have been easy to handle. Then, too, their twirlers were not what they were a year ago. At times they hit the ball sharply and bunched enough of their bingles to have won, had they been a little more careful on the paths and in their fielding. But it happened that they were not, and the home team out-played them at every angle. Taylor worked hard behind the bat for the visitors and to him is due much of the credit for keeping the score as low as it was.

The aggregation on this side is one of the best that the High School has put on the field in many years. They play together well and fielded sharply, hitting the ball on the nose when it meant runs. Good pushed the ball over the fence while he paid a fleeting visit to all three bags and crossed the plate yards ahead of the ball on its return journey.

P. H. S. started things moving in the first inning, piling up four runs on good solid hitting and good base running. Spencer then tightened up for a couple of innings but weakened as the game progressed, F. Townley taking his place. He was no puzzle for the city lads, following 8 hits in his short turn on the mound. After that P. H. S. scored almost at will.

In the seventh inning, with the bases full, Grisley tapped the ball on the nose which Smalley allowed to slip through his legs, Grisley completing the circuit. He failed to touch the third base and was called out along with two who had crossed the plate ahead of him. It was not quite clean why this decision was made.

TEMPLE A. C. CLAIMS A GAME BY FORFEIT

The Temple A. C. management claims that the Netherwood A. C. forfeited a game to them Saturday afternoon, because they refused to play after the fifth inning, having another game scheduled for the same afternoon. The Netherwood team led at the end of that period by a score of 6-0. Clark and Terry had the church boys at their mercy, allowing only two hits in the five periods Coombs, who started for the Templ lads, was very wild, giving seven bases on balls.

COUNTRY CLUB BEGINS ITS ACTIVE SEASON

Many Golfers Out on the Well-Groomed Course—Medal Handicap.

The Plainfield Country Club had an auspicious opening Saturday, when the regular competitions for the season were begun. The weather was ideal and the course was in fine condition, there being evidence everywhere of the grat amount of work performd under the direction of the Greens Committee. Throughout the afternoon many members and guests visited the clubhouse and enjoyed the excellent service provided by the new superintendent, George W. Eke.

There was a large field engaged in the competition for the day, an 18 holes, medal play, handicap, for Classes A and B, and considering the fact that the season has only begun, the scores were remarkably low. Among Class A players, R. G. Morse was low man with a net score of 69, while W. Lester Glenney, Frank O. Reinhart and A. M. Collens were tie for second place with a score of 75. In Class B, E. J. Patterson with a 76 net was low man, with S. T. Perring and J. A. Lane second and third respectively. These scores were returned:

Class A—R. G. Morse, 81, 12-69; Frank O. Reinhart, 81, 6-75; W. Lester Glenney, 79, 4-75; A. M. Collens, 85, 10-75; J. E. Brickson, 89, 10-79; L. G. Carman, 92, 12-80; Dudley H. Barrows, 84, 4-80; Will T. Glenney, 85, 4-81; E. T. Willson, 91, 10-81; H. R. Stockton, 90, 9-81; D. H. Rowland, 100, 15-85.

Class B—E. J. Patterson, 89, 19-70; S. T. Perrin, 93, 21-72; J. A. Lane, 95, 17-78; L. H. Gates, 101, 22-79; C. M. Church, 105, 20-85.

PLAINFIELD WINS OPENING GAME

Outplays Chatham Nine at Crescent Oval Before Seven Hundred Fans.

VISITORS ARE BLANKED

Frederickson Holds Former Lackawanna Team to Three Hits—Centrefielders Make Circus Catches—Three-bagger by Bill Stallings.

Fans to the number of seven hundred turned out Saturday afternoon to see the Plainfield team open its season with much eclat. Among the pleasing things dished up by Dorflinger's toilers was a coat of whitewash applied with workmanlike completeness to the Chatham team of the old Lakawanna League. The score was 5 to 0.

The Chathams were outclassed from the very first. They contributed five misplays to the five hits that the Plainfield team gathered from the offerings of Joe Spencer, while Frederickson allowed only three unhealthy drives, and contributed the only misplay made by the Plainfield team when he booted an easy one in the first inning. The whole of the Plainfield team worked together like a well oiled machine.

It was one-two-three for the visitors from the first to the last and only twice did a visitor get beyond the first station, and neither time did the runner reach third. Their three hits were so well scattered that Plainfield toyed with the visitors all through the game. Joe Spencer injured himself in the sixth inning and was forced to give way to Madigan who kept the home team hitless for the next two innings.

Plainfield's first two runs came in the third inning and were the result of a base on balls, an error and a long drive to left by Bill Stallings which was good for three sacks. This was the longest hit of the game and lacked but little of being a circuit clab. In the next session Nelson came in, after reaching first on a fielder's choice, on a hit by Cosgrove and an error by Colefair. The scoring ended in the fifth after Dalton and Bill Stallings had both crossed the rubber. Dalton registered a two base hit to start the fun, Blott allowed him to advance a station and Stallings to reach first on an error. Dalton scored on a fly to deep center by Driscoll and Bill jogged across on a clean hit by Emery.

Ciphers were chalked up in every inning but these three and the fielding was perfect. Spencer was pretty generous in handing out his passes and Madigan hit Dalton, the second man to face him, on the bean and allowed his only man to reach first. Both centrefielders made sensational one-handed catches, Lum's coming in the fourth on a hard drive by Ed Stallings that looked like a good two-bagger and Hather pulling his down in the sixth.

Manager Dorflinger is trying to get the Lincoln Giants for the attraction on the Oval next Saturday afternoon.

GREATEST SILK SALE IN OUR HISTORY

At Savings fully one-third to one-half and More.

Just about a year ago we held a sale of silks that at its close went on record as the biggest and most successful silk sale ever held in Newark. For many weeks past that event has been one of our chief discussions as to how we could equal or surpass it. The planning we have done in arranging this sale has been no ordinary piece of work. Indeed, we have had to exert unusual efforts, because manufacturers are making silks only to the merchants' orders. This means that there are no underpriced surplus lots to be had, which in turn means that a trade sale such as we held last year would be impossible. And so in order to offset last year's sale we were obliged to adopt other methods in securing the proper merchandise. We did; with the result that we are in a position to announce this as the greatest silk sale in our history. How can we sell so cheaply? Because we have disregarded profit in pricing these beautiful silks, in order that a new record for silk selling will be established.

Collectively these various lots involve upwards of 30,000 yards. We have examined each piece carefully and are enthusiastic in announcing that in all our experience of buying and selling high grade silks we have never seen such amazing values. We want to emphasize that the assortment embraces nothing but what is strictly in vogue with the most stylish dressers.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

EMILIO VASQUEZ GOMEZ.

Named by Orozco as Provisional President of Mexico.

SAYS REBELS ARE UNITED.

Messenger From Orozco Tells of Result of Appointment of Gomez.

El Paso, Tex., May 6.—Another day of Vasquez Gomez's incumbency of the provisional presidency of Mexico was spent by him in resting and conferring with several of his immediate advisers in Juarez, but no further cabinet appointments were announced. During the day Moreno Canton, who has been named minister of foreign affairs in the provisional cabinet, and Francisco Pradillo, who carried the letter to Vasquez Gomez from Orozco calling upon Gomez to come and take the provisional presidency, gave out statements declaring that all factions of rebels are united by this last movement in the fight against Madero.

The news from the front was that the rebel army continued its advance south removing dynamite mines and repairing the railroad to enable supplies to follow and that they should reach the vicinity of Torreon in the next few hours if the federals continue to fall back. If the federals make a stand outside Torreon a battle is imminent.

Jesus Morales, acting as consul for the Liberals in El Paso, was arrested by United States officials charged with violating the neutrality laws. He was released on bond.

John B. Baker, Company B, Eighteenth infantry, U. S. A., while on patrol duty on the Rio Grande, was shot twice in the leg and arm by bullets fired from Mexico.

700 REBELS KILLED BY CRAFTY FEDERALS

Surprised In Town Celebrating Supposed Easy Victory.

Eagle Pass, Tex., May 6.—Seven hundred rebels under Generals Salazar and Alaniz were killed in battle at Cuatro Cienejas, forty miles southwest of Monclova, Coahuaila, according to advices received by United States army officers on duty here. The rebels ran into a trap set by General Jesus Carranza, commander of the 3,000 federal troops in the state of Coahuila.

Carranza, upon the approach of the rebels under Salazar, evacuated Cuatro Cienejas and retreated in the direction of Monclova. The rebels believed they had an easy time ahead marching upon Piedras Negras, across the river from Eagle Pass, and became careless. The federals suspected this and returned and surrounded the town while the rebels were celebrating and utterly routed them.

FEUDIST SURVIVES WOUNDS.

Ed Callahan Lives With Ten Bullet Holes In Body.

Lexington, Ky., May 6.—Ed Callahan, formerly sheriff of Breathitt county and a notorious feudist, who was shot Saturday from ambush while standing at the door of his store at Crockettsville, now is in the hospital at Buckhorn, but will live, according to physicians, despite the ten bullet wounds in his body. It was believed he could not survive.

Bloodhounds are on the trail of the would be assassins, but no trace of them has been found. Friends of Callahan are strangely quiet and no outcome of the shooting is expected.

Oklahoma Now Has a Tornado Drill.

Wakita, Okla., May 6.—A tornado drill patterned after the fire drills in the city has been established by Miss Hattie Moon, principal of the Enterprise school, near here, as a result of the recent storms in Oklahoma. The scholars are lined up on signal and they run to the nearest tornado cave, which is a quarter of a mile away.

Weather Forecast.

Showers and, slightly warmer today; tomorrow fair and warmer; moderate southeast and south winds.

GEORGE W. DRAKE.

Califon, May 6.—Funeral services of George W. Drake, eighty-four years old, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Farley, near Mountainsville, was held yesterday afternoon at the Farley home and in the Glen Gardner Methodist church, of which he was a member. Rev. Harry J. Jobst, pastor of the Cokesbury Methodist church, officiated. Mr. Drake was born in Sussex county and was a Civil War veteran. He was a private under Captain Charles R. Davis, of the Fourteenth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers. For many years Mr. Drake was a molder at the Taylor Iron and Steel Company's plant at High Bridge. In 1952 he married Miss Sophia Sutton, who died six years ago. Ten children resulted from the union. Four sons and one daughter survive.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

COOKING BEEF HEARTS.

BEEF heart is inexpensive. When well cooked it is a nourishing and appetizing meat. Baked beef heart tastes very much like plain roast beef, and when you consider that one large enough to do an ordinary family may be purchased for about a quarter the economy is obvious.

Baked With Gravy.

Baked Beef Heart.—Wash the heart carefully to remove all the blood; then wipe it dry and stuff with a plain bread or a sausage stuffing.

Place it in a pan with slices of pork skewered on the outside (if the plain dressing is used) and add a little water to keep the pan from burning.

Bake about one hour in a hot oven, basting every ten minutes with the drippings in the pan. A thickening gravy should be served with it.

The dressing may be made of breadcrumbs seasoned with onion juice, parsley and minced pepper. A large heart should be parboiled before stuffing and baking.

Mock Rabbit.

Sliced Beef Heart.—This tastes something like rabbit. The heart should be soaked and washed and parboiled very carefully. Stuff it with forcemeat. Sew it up and roast it. When done set it in a deep dish and pour some thick gravy made in the dripping pan over it.

When cold slice the heart with the stuffing and heat in good thick brown gravy in which some red currant jelly is dissolved.

Stewed In Stock.

Stewed Heart.—Clean the heart, cut in pieces and, after washing well, soak for several hours in milk. Then place in a stewpan, add a pint of stock, two slices of lemon, a bay leaf and stew slowly. When tender season with a bit of red pepper pod, a half teaspoonful of salt and a half saltspoonful of pepper. Thicken the gravy with a tablespoonful of browned flour. Then cook ten minutes more and serve.

Highly Spiced.

Spiced Beef Heart.—This is said to be one of the most satisfactory ways of cooking a heart. Clean a moderate sized heart, taking all the muscles from the inside, and wash free of all traces of blood. Then mix a teaspoonful of allspice, a half teaspoonful of cinnamon, a half teaspoonful of cloves, a quarter of a teaspoonful of nutmeg, a little pepper and four tablespoonfuls of vinegar. The spices should be ground ones. Rub some of this over the heart. Pour what is left inside and let it stay there for six or eight hours or overnight. Then bake the heart.

Anna Thompson.

For the Children

The Sad Story of a Saucy Young Crow.

This is the mournful tale of a crow who came to a sad end. He was taken from his parents' nest when just about able to fly and soon became very tame. He was much interested in the chickens that lived on his master's place, but they did not take a fancy to him. He continually annoyed them, and sometimes they paid him back in kind. On one occasion he was sitting on the edge of a bucket, getting a drink, when a hen slipped up behind him and, with a prod of her beak, sent him head over heels into the water. Even this did not cool his ardor for plaguing the hens. At length he went too far and tried to pick up a game chicken. The mother hen tackled him with great fury, and when she had finished with him the poor crow was dead.

Notable Numbers.

The game of "notable numbers" is interesting. Try it when your friends come. It is played thus: Each of the party is to write on a slip of paper some number. Then the papers are all folded up and collected in a box. When collected they must be shaken so as to be thoroughly mixed, and, the box being passed around again, each player is to take one of the papers and, reading the number upon it, is to tell why the number is famous—for instance:

"Number seven; there are seven days in a week."

"Number three; three feet make a yard."

"Number four; four weeks make a month."

"Number ten; the council of ten."

If your friends are well posted they will find something to fit almost any number, while those who cannot think of a ready answer must pay a forfeit.

A Dainty Flower.

The Grecians had many legends, most of them very pretty. You all know the flower called narcissus. They tell a pretty story about it. There was once a lovely youth called Narcissus, who was loved by all, but whose heart was so cold that he did not return any of the affection bestowed on him. The little nymph Echo fell in love with him, but the youth spurned her love, and she pined away and died of a broken heart. Punishment, however, followed Narcissus in the form of Nemesis, the spirit of retribution. One day the youth was bending over a stream, admiring his lovely image reflected in the glassy waters, when, bending low to kiss the face he saw, he lost his balance and fell in. To perpetuate his beauty the gods, so the legend goes, turned him into the flower which now bears his name.

For Bridge Enthusiasts.

We have grown used to having a pad for the telephone to which a pencil is fastened by a flexible chain. Now appears an invention that will appeal to the distracted hostess—a bridge score with pencil leashed to it.

This consists of a leather pad with corners like those used on a blotter, under which the bridge tablet is easily slipped for frequent removal. At the top of the pad is a brass or nickel standard, with chain attachment for the pencil. It is so flexible that the pencil can be used at any angle, yet springs into place when not needed.

Any one who knows the trick pencils have of getting lost at critical moments will appreciate this convenience.

Another useful novelty for a hostess who entertains much at cards is a small silver pencil sharpener. This, having a ring at one end, can be attached to the pencil standard on the pad to save scurrying for a knife or new pencil when points break or get blunted.

ANXIETY GROWS IN FLOOD REGION

Rains Soften Dikes Already Overburdened.

LIVES IN CONSTANT DANGER

Old French Quarter of New Orleans New Threatened, as Well as Many Other Cities and Towns—Desperate Fight Against Flood Being Waged.

New Orleans, May 6.—With heavy rains falling in the district where overburdened levees are already weakened and with the government engineers stationed along the Mississippi coldly asserting that as matters stand a break at any one of a dozen points, which is likely to occur at any time, will undoubtedly be attended by heavy loss of life, the anxiety of the people of the lower Mississippi valley, already high, was greatly increased.

The critical condition not only embraces such sections as the parts of the sugar district yet unflooded, Baton Rouge, Melville, etc., but extends to New Orleans proper. All day work was pushed on the Flood street levee, protecting the old French section, the most densely populated part of the city. Several of the city's other levees were admitted to be in precarious condition, but it was around Flood street that the big fight centered. Flood street is fifty-five blocks below Canal street, and the vicinity is the lowest part of New Orleans.

Bayou des Glaizes, Baton Rouge, Melville, Morganza and the lower city levees of New Orleans were the most seriously threatened points. Through the great Torras break the deluge now sweeps unimpeded, and there is no effort to stem it. Four negroes were drowned at Lettsworth and two at Batcheler, near there. This one crevasse alone has caused a dozen other recorded deaths, and it is not known how many persons have been trapped in the interior of the country.

Intense excitement was caused here by a bulletin announcing that the big railroad transfer boat Edenborn of the Louisiana Railway and Navigation company had been caught in the swirling current near Torras and been sunk with heavy loss. The boat went down, but it seems there were no casualties.

FINES FOR SLANG USERS.

Effort to Be Made to Stop Common Language at Wellesley.

Wellesley, Mass., May 6.—Slang has made such inroads into the English of the college girl that drastic measures to prevent its employment are about to be inaugurated at Wellesley college.

The undergraduates, while deeply deploring its usage, are still its chief offenders. In order to put a stop to the custom in so far as this is concerned a fine of a nominal sum is to be levied on all Wellesley girls who are caught using such objectionable ejaculations, the sum thus obtained to go to the student government building fund.

MOB MAKES THREATS AS CASHIER IS ARRESTED

Defaulting Banker Taken at Midnight and Spirited Away.

Norwich, N. Y., May 6.—Frank T. Arnold, the defaulting cashier of the First National bank of New Berlin, was arrested by United States Marshal Black at his home there at midnight and arraigned before Commissioner James F. Flanigan, who had gone there for that purpose. An angry crowd of about 500 citizens gathered around the house, and threats of violence were freely made, but Arnold was spirited away in an automobile and brought to the county jail at Norwich.

Arnold, who has been reported at death's door since his exposure several weeks ago, was able to walk from the car to the jail, where he now occupies a cell in the hospital ward. He will have a hearing before the commissioner today.

Von Bieberstein to London.

Berlin, May 6.—The announcement is made unofficially that Baron Marschell von Bieberstein, the German ambassador at Constantinople, will shortly replace Count Wolff-Metternich as the representative of the German empire at London.

NO ONE IS BLAMED FOR FATAL CHURCH MISHAP

Hackensack, May 6.—The coroner's jury, which inquired into the fatal accident at the Church of Our Lady of Victory, at Harrington Park, when that edifice was dedicated Sunday, April 14, held no one responsible. The jury heard further testimony, and brought in a verdict that "Mrs. Claudine Ottignon came to her death by the collopse of the floor."

Two persons were killed by the collapse, the other being Mrs. Fritz Elkart, of Hillsdale.

Rev. Father Bogan, rector of St. Mary's church, was slightly injured in the Harrington Park accident. He was speaking to the assembled crowd when the flooring collapsed.

JOSEPH VANCE ON SALE.

Readers of high-class fiction who hertofore have been obliged to pay high prices for the best books, now have an exceptional opportunity of securing famous novels at popular prices. The DeMorgan books are among those now offered at Estil's store, and among the most popular is the story of "Joseph Vance," the first novel from the pen of William DeMorgan. At Estel's is to be found a large assortment of novels at the popular prices. "Joseph Vance" is a novel of English life that captures the heart and banishes melancholy thoughts.

BURNS FATAL.

MOON "40" Touring Car—$1,800

We know this is the best car in America at anywhere near the price. The motor is genuine T-head construction, the kind found usually in only the most expensive cars, because it is the most dependable, although the most expensive motor to build. The cylinders are long stroke, 4½-inch bore and 5-inch stroke, and the crankshaft bearings are 1¾ inches in diameter.

This Moon "40" Touring Car is the hit of the year. The motor develops 45 horse-power under actual brake test. The construction all the way through is of the highest possible character. It is a pleasure to present such a car to our friends.

Here are the specifications: 120-inch wheel base—36 x 4 detachable tires with demountable rims—T-head motor, 4½ x 5 inches, full 45 horse-power—multiple disc clutch—Moon self-starting device—Prest-o-lite tank—extra size nickle and black Solar lamps—extra heavy wheels with big 1⅝ second growth hickory spokes of special design—extra demountable rim—genuine honeycomb radiator—full kit of tools including pump and jack. Look around as much as you please—you can't match this car for within $1,000 of the price we ask. It's simply the best buy in the market today.

CITY COUNCIL IN A BUSY SESSION

Many Minor Matters Come up For Action at the May Meeting.

D. S. Alpaugh, of East Sixth street, complained to the Common Council at its meeting last night, about the P. S. E. stringing electric wires in front of his property, adding that he was not in favor of letting the company do as it pleases and if that was the treatment he was to receive he would sell his property. Mr. Alpaugh claimed that trees on his property had been damaged by the wires. The matter was referred.

Residents of Wallace place petitioned for sanitary sewers; also that that thoroughfare be macadamized. This was referred to the street and sewer committee. George E. Sovereign again brought up the matter of extending Kensington avenue, requesting the Council to appoint a committee to confer with F. A. Dunham with a view to ascertaining how the work could be done with the least possible damage to the affected prpoerty. This was referred to the street committee.

The bond of Constable J. K. VanNess was presented and referred to the corporation counsel for approval. R. Newton Crane and other residents of East Second street asked to have that thoroughfare, between Leland avenue and Terrill road, put in first-class condition, and J. J. Heideloff and others petitioned to have Somerset street, between Front street and the brook, widened to sixty feet; also requesting that commissioners be appointed to assess benefits and damages. Both petitions were referred to the street committee.

PLAN FOR EXTENSION OF SIXTH ST. KILLED

Property Owners Object to Cut From Grant Avenue to Essex Street.

There was such a strong sentiment against the proposition to open up and extend West Sixth street from Grant avenue to Essex street, that the Common Council at its May meeting last night, decided to drop the proposed improvement. There were about twenty interested property-owners present, led by Judge William N. Runyon, who represented the Rafferty estate, and all entered a strong protest against the proposed opening of the new street. D. J. Galbraith also protested in a letter.

Judge Runyon, speaking in the interest of his clients, said that if the street should be extended it would run through one of the houses owned by the Rafferty estate, and beside it could not be shown, in his opinion, that it would be of any real benefit. If the street was to be extended from Monroe avenue to Plainfield avenue, it would be different, but the Plainfield cemetery would prevent this. The proposed change, the lawyer said, would mean added assessment and there is no crying need for the improvement.

Richard D. Williams and Robert L. Lee also spoke against the improvement, and at the conclusion of the public hearing, Mr. Gloak said that inasmuch as the sentiment was all against extending the street nothing further would be done in the matter.

The public hearing in the matter of extending Bradford place resulted in only one person speaking for the improvemnt. That was Harry Boget. He urged that the street be opened from its present terminus to Clinton avenue. This matter will be taken up at a later date.

AUTOMOBILE ENGINE.

In accordance with a resolution by Councilman Duncan W. Taylor, chairman of the fire committee, the proposed contract with the International Motor Company for the motorization of the chemical engine at fire headquarters was authorized by the Common Council, last night. The contract price is $3,750.

TAFT CLUB MEETS.

A talk on the provisions of the corrupt practice act and on the amendments to the election laws was given by Roger F. Murray at the William H. Taft Club meeting at the Republican City Committee headquarters last night, some candidates were elected to membership.

COMMUNICABLE CASES.

Cases of communicable disease were reported to the Board of Health in April to the number of 132 as against 158 for the month of March. They were divided as follows: Scarlet fever, 5; diphtheria, 1; tuberculosis, 4; measles, 120; chicken pox, 2.

ANOTHER SEWER NEED DISCLOSED

Commissioner Gavett Calls Council's Attention to Necessity for New Main.

The growing need of a new and larger sanitary sewer main to cover the northeasterly section of the city and extending west as far as Grant avenue, was brought to the attention of the Common Council at its meeting last night by Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett. He cited the fact that the eastern end of the city is building up rapidly and that it is only a question of time when there must be more adequate facilities for caring for that part of the city, and Scotch Plains and Fanwood as well, for the protection of Plainfield.

Mr. Gavett suggested that the matter be taken up with a consulting engineer with a view to determining the best plan and an estimate of cost. It is proposed to lay the main through Sixth street to Plainfield avenue and then possibly through West Third street to Grant avenue, where it would connect with the sewer main.

The subject has been under consideration by the Sewer Committee for some time. In Mr. Gavett's opinion the city must do something in the near future. The matter was referred to the Sewer Committee for further consideration and report.

HUBBARD'S PLAN FOR A TIDEWATER SEWER

Former County Engineer Tells Council of a System to Cost $469,000.

Frank J. Hubbard, former county engineer, presented a lengthy report, together with maps and profiles, to the Common Council last night for the purpose of showing how the city could build a tidewater sewer emptying into the Raritan river. The plan is one that suggested itself to Mr. Hubbard and he was prompted to present it to the Council.

According to the plans, the sewer could be extended from the present disposal works on Rock avenue, across country, through Piscataway township through Bonhamtown to a point near Mill brook, from which point the effluent could be run through a main into the Raritan river. Mr. Hubbard says that this system would only require one pumping station, as there is sufficient gravity to carry he sewage most of the distance. He estimates the cost of the work to be $469,000 and that of maintenance $7,000 a year. Mr. Hubbard said that it would be possible for North Plainfield, Fanwood, Scotch Plains and Dunellen to join in this scheme.

Mr. Hubbard's reason for submitting the above plans is that he believed it offered the most feasible solution to the problem and would take the sewage out of the beautiful Greenbrook Valley. Copies of his communication will be made and distributed among the members of the Council.

NEW CHOIR SINGERS.

The reorganized quartet sang for the first time at the First M. E. church Sunday. Mrs. J. L. Downer, contralto, and Edgar A. Cole, baritone, are the two new members of the quartet. Their singing pleased the large congregation. The work of the quartet choir at the Crescent Avenue church Sunday met with the approval of large congregations. E. Mattler Davis, the new organist, was in charge of the music and his work as well as that of the quartet was pleasing. James H. Richards, tenor, is the new member of the quartet. Miss Hazel M. Kaiser, soprano, and Mrs. A. M. Dickey, contralto, sang for the first time at the First Baptist church Sunday. Their singing assisted in maintaining the high standard established by the chorus choir.

BOB MAKES HIT.

One of the hits made at the presentation of "Oliver Twist" by the senior class of the High School at the Plainfield theatre was made by "Bill Sikes'" dog. "Bob" is owned by Miss Hannah Higgins, of West Fourth street, who lent him for the play.

CONFIRMS CLASS OF 136.

Rahway, May 7.—Rt. Rev. John J. O'Connor, bishop of the Newark Diocese, at St. Mary's church, this city, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of 136, the largest in the history of the church. At the same time Bishop O'Connor made his canonical visitation.

"LADIES' NIGHT."

The Columbus Club will hold a "ladies' night" at the clubhouse tonight. The committee has spared no pains in preparing for it.

SCHOOL R. R. TAX MONEY DELAYED

Education Board Hears it May Not Get $11,000 Due For Some Time.

The Plainfield Board of Education at its May meeting, last night, adopted a resolution prohibiting persons from roller-skating on the conerete walks about the school buildings throughout the city, especially at the High School. This action was taken following the advice of an expert who was requested to inform the board on the subject. The expert declared that with constant roller-skating the walks would show much wear in five years and within ten years would probably have to be replaced with new walks.

Maxwell E. Perkins, of North Plainfield, and Mrs. Catherine H. Brown and Mrs. S. B. Herrick, of this city, were appointed a committee on prizes for English composition. The report of the nursing bureau showed that Miss Boice, the school nurse, had made 7,816 inspections during the past month.

A communication was received from the county superintendent of schools in which he stated that there was a question as to whether the $11,000 due the schools from the railroad tax would be available before schools closed, but called attention to the fact that the board has the authority to borrow up to 80 per cent. of the amount. The matter is now in the courts and the county superintendent said that it was problematic as to the amount to be received next year by the schools.

Superintendent H. M. Maxson was authorized to purchase a multigraph for the use of the High School at an expense not to exceed $150. The committee on text books and supplies were authorized to purchase books and supplies for next year.

Bills amounting to $3,184.55 were ordered paid. The custodian of school funds reported the balance on April 1 to be $24,526.79 and the collector reported April collections to be $779.82.

YOUNGSTERS WANT BLUE SKIES TOMORROW

The Frank A. Robbins All Feature Show, one of the best known circuses on the road today, having been under the same management for thirty-two years, will give two performances here tomorrow. Following his usual custom Mr. Robbins has scoured the country for the best available acts, and will have a number of stars of the circus world with him when he comes here. Hillary Long, who walks down stairs on his head, and does other equally difficult stunts while upside down, swinging in a trapeze; the Carreas, two of the gracefulest and best bareback riders of the country; Oscar Benschlin and his troupe of aerilists; the Morey family; The Cevene troupe, a group of wire walkers, who have just returned from a triumphant tour of South America; The Leons, Herbert Brothers, a trio of acrobats with few equals, make a list of stars which briefly tells of the real attractions of the show. There will be a score or more of fun provoking clowns, a number of fine animal acts, a splendid menagerie, greatly enlarged this year, and other attractions to entertain the spectators. The show gives two performances daily, one at two o'clock, and the other at eight. Doors open one hour earlier, and a band concert preceeds each regular show.

"It would be hard to pick any particular feature. The Company has called the show an all-feature circus and this is literally true. It is a feature circus and all acts are well worth seeing at any time. The Robbins Show will always be welcome in Camden."

NO FAVORS FOR TROLLEY CO. NOW

Gloak Balked in Attempt to Rush Measure Through Common Council.

The attempt of Councilman W. L. Gloak, chairman of the street committee, to secure the adoption of several ordinances granting permission to the Public Service Railway to install two extra switches and three "Ys" in this city, at the May meeting of the Common Council, met with defeat after an animated discussion between Councilmen Gloak and Holt, in which Councilmen Mygatt and Clay also took part.

Mr. Gloak succeeded in getting one of the proposed measures passed on first reading and the first section read for a second time when Mr. Holt arose to inquire why such haste was necessary. He wanted to know what it all meant and desired further information as to the purpose of the proposed improvements, at the same time declaring that he would not vote for them until he thoroughly understood the matter.

Mr. Gloak, apparently exasperated, told Mr. Holt that he could vote against the ordinance. "I intend to do that," replied Mr. Holt, "and I believe that a public hearing should be granted before action is taken."

Mr. Gloak said that these improvements had been before the Council for the past three years and he was anxious to have them go through. He said he believed that it would give better trolley service and besides the company offered to lay permanent pavement at the point of installing "Y's" and switches.

Mr. Mygatt took exception to Mr. Gloak's remark that all of the members of the street committee knew of the matter, adding that he was not at the meeting when action was taken. He added that he was of the opinion that the city should draw the ordinances and not the trolley company, declaring that the city was not asking any favors of the company.

On the motion of Mr. Gloak to pass the ordinances, Councilmen Tolles, Dunn, Randolph, Endress, Wilson and Gloak voted in the affirmative, while Councilmen Clay, Holt, Mygatt, Reville and Taylor voted in the negative. This led Mr. Holt to say that inasmuch as a majority of the members favored the passage of the ordinances, he would like to suggest that the reasons be explained.

Mr. Gloak declared that the action of the opposition was simply a plan to hold up the improvements and he declared he would not stand for it. Still Mr. Holt not being satisfied with Mr. Gloak's explanation, refused to vote for the ordinances and he thought there would be no harm in allowing the matter to go over a week or two. Mr. Gloak chagrined at the turn of affairs said that he would give Mr. Holt a special invitation to the next meeting of the street committee. Mr. Holt finally succeeded in having all the ordinances placed on first reading, for information only, which means that there will probably be a public hearing before final action is taken.

The company desires to locate "Ys" at Fourth street and Watchung avenue, West Front street and Grant avenue and East Fifth and Richmond streets; also a turnout on East Second street, near McKinley place and on West Front street, near Compton avenue.

MOTHER AND SON CHARGED WITH BURGLING A HUT

Charged with breaking and entering the home of Salvadore Calluzi, at the head of Jefferson avenue, Martha Snedeker and her son, John, are being detained at the borough police headquarters awaiting a further hearing tomorrow morning. John's wife, a colored woman, was allowed to go home owing to illness, but is to appear with the others at the hearing.

The Snedekers, who live on Maple avenue, are charged with breaking into the hut occupied by Calluzi, last Saturday morning, during his absence and stealing bedding, food and beer.

All three prisoners denied guilt before Justice Snape today. After the hearing Chief Weiss put the prisoners through a grilling and Martha is said to have stated that John's wife entered the house and took the stolen articles, but that neither she nor John had any part in the theft.

NOT HYDROPHOBIA.

A commotion was caused by a bulldog in a flat on Watchung avenue and the tenants believed that the animal was mad, summoned the police. Instead of shooting the dog the police sent for Dr. A. Machan, a veterinary, who decided it was a case of mistaken diagnosis, and that the bulldog was suffering from paralysis and convulsions. In five minutes after giving a hypodermic ejection the dog was as well as ever.

CONTRACTOR MAY PAY FOR GARBAGE

Councilman Hints That City Has Chance to Arrange Profitable Collection.

Councilman George S. Clay, chairman of the Councilmanic committee on public affairs, gave notice at the May meeting of the Common Council, last night, that at a meeting to be held Wednesday, May 22, he would offer a resolution authorizing the advertising for bids for the collection and disposal of garbage and ashes, and he hoped that all persons interested would attend the meeting.

President Tolles raised the question as to where the committee proposed to get money to introduce the system, explaining that the tax budget had been passed upon and an appropriation through that source would not be possible.

Mr. Clay said that they had not taken up the question of an appropriation, and it was suggested by Mr. Taylor that possibly no appropriation would be needed, hinting that possibly under the provisions of a contract the city might be paid for the privilege of allowing someone to collect garbage. Sometime ago the city received an offer of $500 from a man who was willing to pay that sum for the privilege.

MONDAY CLUB PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

W. L. Saunders One of the Lecturers—Scotch to Be Studied.

Officers were elected, amendments to the constitution passed and next year's program was outlined at the annual meeting of the Monday Afternoon Club, yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Hugh F. Fox, being elected for two years, no change was made in that office, but three vice presidents and a treasurer were chosen. The vice presidents elected were Mrs. William Griscom, Mrs. H. M. Maxson and Mrs. Allan Cowperthwaite. Mrs. Henry E. Haws was chosen treasurer.

One of the amendments to the constitution increased the membership from 125 to 150. Next year's program will include two lectures on art by Arthur C. Dow, head of the art departments of the Teachers' College, Barnard College and Columbia University; two lectures by Fred S. Lamb, of New York, on "Municipal Art" and "Stained Glass." William L. Saunders, of the borough, will also give an illustrated lecture on "The Panama Canal."

There will be two medical lectures, one by Dr. Catherine Bement Davis, head of the Reformatory for Women in New York State, on "Medical Science in Relation to Race Improvement," and one by Dr. Max Schlapp, of New York, who is consulting physician to the Children's Court, on "Race Regeneration."

The last half of the year will be devoted to a consideration of the topic, "The Scotch in Their Literature," illustrated with music. The Scots as pictured by Sir Walter Scott, Robert Burns and Robert Louis Stevenson will be considered, and Prof. Winchester, of Wesleyan University, will give a lecture on "The Blackwood Group."

WILL FILL VACANCIES ON BOARD OF ELECTION

All members of election boards in the city who have moved from the district or ward in which they resided last year are requested to notify the Union County Board of Elections immediately, so that their places on the board may be filled by the Judge of the Circuit Court from the eligible list furnished by the Civil Service Commission prior to May 13.

Notice to this same effect has been sent to all members of election boards throughout the county and must be returned prior to May 21 for the Presidential primary election.

COURT NAMES COMMISSIONERS TO CONDEMN WATER SYSTEM

Justice Bergen Grants City's Application--Proceedings Certioraried--Gilbert, Collins and Faulks Represent Defense.

Supreme Court Justice J. J. Bergen, sitting at Elizabeth this morning, granted the application of the City of Plainfield for the appointment of three commissioners to assess damages in the condemnation of the water supply as contained in the City of Plainfield. Former Chancellor William J. Magee, of Elizabeth; former County Clerk William H. Howard, of Rahway, and County Attorney William R. Codington, of Plainfield, were appointed by him as commissioners. The defendant corporations, the Plainfield-Union Water Company and the Elizabethtown Water Company, certioraried the proceedings to the Supreme Court.

The defendants were represented by the president of the Plainfield-Union Water Company, Frank Bergen; former Supreme Supreme Court Justice Gilbert Collins, of Jersey City, and Frederick J. Faulks, of Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, of Newark. Albert Wall, of Jersey City, and Corporation Counsel William M. Stillman, of Plainfield, appeared for the petitioners.

Mr. Collins asked that the application be dismissed on the ground that sufficient parties were not joined in the proceedings. He declared that in 1892 the Union Water Company had executed a mortgage to Hamilton F. Kean and he asserted that the papers were defective inasmuch as Mr. Kean had not been made a party. At considerable length he made a strong argument against granting the application and for dismissing the case. He was followed by his two associates.

For the city, Mr. Wall contended that the Act of 1900, by virtue of which the proceedings were brought the mandatory for the word "shall" is used. Judge Bergen evidently accepted his view for he announced that he would at once appoint the commissioners. Subsequently an affidavit was served on Mr. Wall by counsel for the defendants setting forth the facts as to the mortgage held by Hamilton F. Kean.

In granting the application, Judge Bergen said that he would do so because the act in question, in his opinion, is mandatory but that he did not believe that it would stand when considered before the full court. He added that he would immediately grant a certiorari and restrain the commissioners from any action until decided by the full court.

It is expected that the proceedings on the certiorari will come before the full court at the next term, which will be held next month.

NURSES WILL ENDOW BED AT MUHLENBERG

Training School Alumnae Also Arrange for a Dance to 1912 Graduates.

A meeting of the newly organized Alumnae Association of the Muhlenberg Hospital Training School was held yesterday afternoon in the Nurses' Home. It was decided to endow a bed in Muhlenberg that shall be for the special use of any member of the training school or Alumnae Association who may find treatment necessary. A committee consisting of Miss Charlotte Griffen, Miss Olive L. Schreibweis and Miss Katherine Knox was appointed to confer with the board of governors of the hospital in regard to the matter.

It was also decided to give a reception and dance to the graduating class of 1912 in the Nurses' Home on Friday evening, May 17. It will be an invitation affair. The dance committee is composed of the Misses Olive Schreibweis, chairman; Josephine Culbertson, Sophie Scherpeltz, Katherine Knox and E. E. Humphries.

SANITARY SEWER FOR NETHERWOOD AVENUE

Bids were received at the May meeting of the Common Council last night for building a sanitary sewer in Netherwood avenue, from East Front street to Green brook. Of the three bids that of Alphonso Colucci was the lowest. His figure was $607.95 and the contract was awarded to him. The other bids were as follows: Charles Peterson, $807.25; Michael Mango, $694.66. The work will be started within a short time.

A public hearing was granted on the ordinance to macadamize certain streets, comprising Lenox avenue, Cameron avenue, Laramie road, West Third street, Arlington avenue, George street, Netherwood avenue; also to establish the grade on George street and portions of Denmark road and Netherwood avenue. There was a further hearing on the ordinance to open up and macadamize Manson place, McDowell, Bergen and Halsey streets. No one appeared to speak for or against these improvements and the ordinance took the usual course upon motion of Mr. Gloak, chairman of the street committee, authorizing the work.

COUNCIL GETS LOWER BIDS FOR CITY AUDITING

Mayor G. W. V. Moy in a communication to the Common Council last night submitted several offers of certified public accountants to audit the city's accounts for a lower figure than that named by Patterson, Teale & Dennis, of New York, which was $1,500. One accountant offered to do the work for $750, and another firm offered to do it for $40 a day, it being estimated that it could be done for a total of about $500. Both offers came from Plainfielders. The Mayor's communication and the letters from the accountants were referred to the Finance Committee.

Th agreement between Muhlenberg Hospital and the city, whereby the hospital is to care for the city's indgient poor for a stated sum, was presented and ordered filed. Under the provisions of this agreement the city pays about $2 a day for the care of its poor who go to the hispital.

BROWNING ANNIVERSARY.

The members of the Congregational church will observe the 100th anniversary of the birth of Robert Browning by holding a "Browning Meeting" tomorrow night. These subjects will be touched on: "Browning in the Springtime," "Browning's Optimism," "Browning on Faith," "Browning on the Incarnation," "Browning on Immortality," and "Browning Fronting Death."

LOUIS MARVIN STOVER DIES AFTER YEAR'S ILLNESS

Louis Marvin Stover, for many years a prominent resident of this city, died at his home at 72 East Seventh street, Brooklyn, yesterday, after a year's illness. He was fifty-four years of age. Surviving him is the wife.

Mr. Stover removed from Plainfield seven years ago. Years ago he was foreman of the Old Albert Hose Company and took an active interest in politics as a Democrat. He was considered an expert on coffee and for years was with the house of Brandenstein & Company at 96 Wall street. Mr. Stover was a son of the late Rowland M. Stover. His brother, Herbert W. Stover, resides on East Ninth street, this city.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and the interment will bet private.

FUNERAL OF HENRY KELM.

The funeral of Henry Kelm was held at the late home in Watchung yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, there being a large attendance of friends and neighbors. Rev. Conrad Blunk, pastor of St. Peter's German Lutheran church, the borough, officiated. The burial was in Hillside cemetery, the pall bearers being Theodore Leurssen, Edward Marfins, George Mobus, Edward Canning, George A. Schmidt and Alva Ferret, Sr.

BOROUGH HEALTH GOOD.

The sanitary condition of the borough at the present time is exceptionally good, according to the report of Inspector J. L. McOllif at the regular meeting of the Board of Health, last night. Only one case of scarlet fever and six of measles were announced during the past month.

REMODELING SOMERSET HOTEL.

Work on the remodeling and decorating of the Somerset Hotel is being rapidly completed by Terry Brothers. The work when finished will make a great change in the borough's popular hostelry which will be made up to date in every way.

PLAINFIELD'S NEIGHBORS

'Plains & Fanwood.

Notice to Press Readers.

Rumors have been circulated that the Press would not be circulated any longer in Scotch Plains and Fanwood. They are absolutely without foundation, and instead of discontinuing delivery in that section of Union county, the service has been greatly strengthened, and the papers are being taken direct from the Press office each night by our own boy; and are not delivered through any dealers. The circulation of the Press has grown so rapidly in this section that we have been at a loss to determine how to give the best service, and finally decided to put our own carrier on the route, as there have been frequent complaints about the irregular way in which the papers were delivered. Any failure to recive a paper should be reported at once direct to the office, either by postal or 'phone. Such report will be appreciated, and back numbers of the paper sent the first day after report is received.

News items from Scotch Plains and Fanwood will also be appreciated at any time.

Fanwood Bucket and Engine Co. held a regular meeting last night in the company's rooms. Besides considerable routine business the yearly report was rendered and election of officers held. The report showed the company to be in a flourishing condition, with its full quto of fifty members on the roll, with several on the waiting list. The finances are in fine condition and it was decided to pay off part of the mortgage on the new engine. The officers elected were: Foreman, LeRoy Day; first assistant, George Keuhn; second assistant, William Meyer; secretary, William Guest; treasurer, Henry Meyer. After the meeting cigars were enjoyed.

The employes of Seeley's paper mill began their weekly half holidays Saturday. The short day will continue until October 1.

Hunter avenue is being cleaned up by the Township Committee. The gutters will be cleaned out and the roadway repaired.

FOUND TWO MEN IN RIG ON UNPLANKED TRESTLE

Perth Amboy, May 7.—John Bicher and Andrew Satech were arrested near the draw of the county bridge over the Raritan River and charged with driving recklessly. They were on an unplanked trestle built and used by the Central Jersey Traction Company. Both admitted in court yesterday morning that they had been drinking. Satech, who owns the horse they were driving, said he mistook the trestle for the driveway of the bridge when blinded by the lights of an approaching automobile. Each was fined $25 by Recorder Kehoe.

To get the horse from the trestle it was necessary to lift it to planks placed across the ties. It then walked back to the bridge proper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staats, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur VanCleef and children, and Mrs. VanCleef's mother, Mrs. Welsh, of Grant avenue, have returned from East Millstone, where they spent several days.

RECOGNIZED HIS BROTHER BY MISSING FINGERS

Califon, May 7.—Returning from Dean, Ia., for a visit to the home place he had left thirty-two years before, David Whitfield Potter presented himself at the hotel of his brother, Jefferson Potter, Mountainville. Neither his face nor his voice proclaimed his identity. But when he showed his left hand, with two fingers missing, Jefferson Potter recognized him at once.

David, who went West in 1880, did not notify his relatives of his proposed trip, and when he arrived at Mountainville he went to his brother's hotel, and there inquired for a room.

"Who is running this place now?" asked David.

"I am; what can I do for you?" replied the hotel man.

"Well, who are you?" asked the Iowan.

David asked for a room for the night, and was told that there was none available. While insisting that he be kept over night, he laid his left hand on the desk, and it was not until then that Jefferson recognized his brother. He then exclaimed:

"You are my brother from the West and can have the best the shanty affords. I know you now, for two of your fingers are missing."

Handshakes followed, and until long into the night the two men talked over their lives since they had parted.

David, who is engaged in farming, has four children. Before returning home he will visit his boyhood acquaintances in this section, and then will go to Orange to see his sister, Mrs. Newton Hendershot. He will also visit his brother Daniel at Peapack. David was twenty years old when he left this part of the country.

MAYOR CAPTURES FUGITIVE.

Roselle Park, May 7.—Hearing cries, Mayor George H. Horning, early Sunday afternoon, ran out of his drug store in time to catch Amado Coppola, aged twenty-two, of Kenilworth, a barber. Coppola a minute before had stabbed Michael Florio. The stabbing occurred in a Third street trolley car, in Westfield avenue, a block from Mayor Horning's store. Coppola was fleeing from a crowd when he ran into the arms of the Mayor. Florio was stabbed in a score of places on the face, and body. His injuries were attended to by Dr. H. M. Pierson and it was not found necessary to send him to a hospital. Copola was arraigned before Judge John Gazey and held in default of $200 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

CHILD GIVEN WHISKY.

Paterson, May 7.—Given whisky by some one at a wedding celebration, Johnny McGrath, eleven years old, returned to his home, 165 Oliver street, in a pitiable condition. The child was sent to the hospital and his father, beside himself with indignation, sought the aid of the police. At first it was supposed he had been given the liquor by some saloonkeeper, but the police soon learned the facts. A complaint will probably be made against the person responsible. The boy will recover.

Mrs. Samuel Newcorn, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting her brother-in-law, Judge William Newcorn, of West Front street, has returned home.

THE TROLLEYS.

In issuing a peremptory order on the Public Service Railway Company to remedy the disgraceful conditions of its roadbeds, tracks and equipment in this city, Mayor Moy has seized upon a plan to teach that hungry corporation that the people are entitled to some consideration in return for the rights and privileges granted a public utilities corporation. He has chosen the most effective means to compel the company to remedy the trouble without any more procrastination.

Quite likely the P. S. R. will attempt to gain more time by setting up a plea that it cannot obtain a sufficiently large gang of laborers to have the work completed within the time limit of thirty days, but this excuse should not be given any attention. That they can get all the laborers they need in New York if they only pay a wage of $1.75 a day is the assertion of contractors who know whereof they speak. For several years past the corporation has done little to properly repair the roadbeds and tracks. Here and there along their lines some patchwork has been done—much poorly done.

When Councilman Gloak attempted to shove through the Common Council last night ordinances permitting the P. S. R. to lay switches and Y's at various points along its lines, Councilman Holt arose to the occasion and succeeded in having the measures laid on the table. Thanks to Mr. Holt. No further favors should be shown this corporation until it complies with the Mayor's orders. Under present conditions the corporation is entitled to no consideration. The excuse of wanting better its service is a lame one. Let it better its service by rectifying the conditions pointed out in the report submitted by Commissioner Gavett. Then it will be time enough to discuss these other proposed improvements.

SOMERSET ST. WIDENING.

There should be no objection to the petition presented to the Common Council last night asking that Somerset street, between Front street and the dividing line of Plainfield and North Plainfield, be widened. The point where this improvement is sought is the chief thoroughfare between the city and borough and constitutes the main artery of traffic between the two municipalities. At present the street is fifty feet wide and the petitioners desire that the width be increased but ten feet. This would make it conform to the width of Somerset street from the "bridge," the dividing line of city and borough, to Jackson avenue. That long stretch of the thoroughfare in question was thus improved some years ago, much to the credit of former Mayor Newton B. Smalley.

We are told that the petitioners compromise all of the property-owners within the affected bounds save of the corner properties, twenty-six feet in the rear of the westerly corner and ninety-five feet on the westerly side of the street from Green brook. The signers, as a matter of fact, own the large majority of the property fronting on Somerset street, on both sides of the road, between the points named. If for no other reason, it is due to North Plainfield that the petition be granted and that commissioners be appointed to assess benefits and damages.

Through the efforts of Chairman Clay and his colleagues on the public affairs committee, an adjourned meeting of the Common Council will be held on Tuesday night, May 21, to take action on the committee's recommendation to make a contract with a private concern or an individual for the collection and disposal of garbage. It is expected that the city fathers will award the contract, but some of them would like to be shown how general is the demand for that improvement. It therefore behooves the taxpayers to attend this session and an invitation for that purpose is extended by the committee head. As collection and disposal by city contract means a considerable saving to each and every householder, all of whom are now compelled to pay from $6 to $12 a year to get rid of the refuse, it is to the material interest of all to be present at this important meeting.

UNION CO. COURTS MAY TERM OPENED

Coriell Foreman of Grand Jury Which Hears Charge on 3 Manslaughter Cases.

The Union County Courts were opened this morning with Judge Bergen on the bench. Former Sheriff B. F. Coriell was named as foreman of the grand jury. Another local grand juror is A. E. Force. Judge Bergen charged the grand jury particularly on three manslaughter cases, declaring that they should weigh the facts presented to them carefully and if there were grounds sufficient indictments for voluntary or involuntary manslaughter should be found.

One of the manslaughter cases is that where a boy was killed while coasting in Elizabeth, George Roberts, a Vanderbilt cup racer, being held. Another is in which a driver of a wagon lost his life on the Jersey Central tracks at Roselle, the flagman being accused of responsibility. The third is that in which a man was run down and killed at Westfield by an auto in which were the Darby brothers.

Among the Supreme Court causes ready for trial at the present term is that of Lucy H. D. Schenck vs. New Jersey Central, in tort, Mayor G. W. V. Moy represents the plaintiff and George Holmes, the defendant. Other causes of local interest follow:

Florence Lindsay vs. Melissa A. Reeves, in tort, W. S. Angleman for the plaintiff and William Newcorn for the defendant; William Lindsay, Jr., vs. Melissa A. Reeves, in tort, W. S. Angelman for the plaintiff and William Newcorn for the defendant; Frances D. Pike vs. Etta Beilby, in tort, W. S. Angleman for the plaintiff and Francis V. Dobbins for the defendant; Mary Isabel Hill, trustee under the will of Anthony B. Dyett, vs. Eliot Cutter, on contract, Raymond T. Parrot for the plaintiff and Codington & Swackhamer for the defendant; Horace G. Adams vs. Julius Deedmeyer, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and Peter Vredenburgh for the defendant.

The following Circuit Court causes are listed:

Elston M. French vs. Charles H. Lyman, on contract, Martin B. Stutsman for the plaintiff and William A. Coddington for the defendant; Florence F. R. Groendyke, executrix of Mary C. K. Randolph, deceased, vs. George W. Frederick and Anna S. Frederick, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and William J. McFadden for the defendants; Theodore Miller vs. Winfield S. Angelman, on contract, Charles H. Burtis for the plaintiff and W. S. Angleman for the defendant; Garret Dreier and Harry Dreier, executors of Samuel Dreier, deceased, vs. Bertha Senger and Charles P. Senger, in ejectment, Harry C. Runyon for the plaintiff and Herbert Bogert for the defendant; Michelin Tire Company vs. F. L. C. Martin Automobile Company, on contract, William F. Groves for the plaintiff and William Newcorn for the defendant; David Steinman vs. Alice A. Pfister, on contract, on mechanic's lien, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and Harry C. Runyon for the defendant.

CHILDREN STRAY AWAY.

Mrs. Seblya, of DeKalb avenue, reported to the police at noon today tha two of her children, one a boy of three and the other a boy two years, had wandered away from their home and could not be found. The older child was located at 1 o'clock at the residence of F. A. Moore, 911 West Seventh street, but the other was still missing at 2:30.

IN THE BOROUGH COURT.

Fred Miller, a clerk, was fined $1 in the borough court this morning, for riding his wheel last night without a light. Recorder Gano also fined Toney Deneo, a young Italian, the same amount for riding on the sidewalk.

COUNCIL HAS BUSY SESSION

plained about the condition allowed to exist about the old car-barns on West Fourth street, near Lee place, adding that garbage is dumped there and the place is otherwise a nuisance. This was referred to the public affairs committee.

Robert Murray's petition to have the license for his employment agency transferred from 226 East Front street to 326 West Front street, was granted. The petition of Michael Angelos for permission to remove a building from 236 East Third street to 333 Cottage place, was granted under the usual conditions, it being understood that a bond be furnished to protect the city from any possible damage.

Mayor G. W. V. Moy appointed Mrs. E. L. VonHoesen a special police officer; also Ray McDonough, Harry Wierenga, Frank Schroefer and M. S. Wilson as call-men, and the same were confirmed. A petition from the East End Taxpayers' Association asking for the improvement of streets in the East End was referred to the street committee.

Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett reported the granting of 34 sewer permits during the month, and Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported granting 38 permits during the same period.

Horace G. Adams, clerk of the District Court, reported receipts of $134.04 for the past month and disbursements of $38.14, leaving a balance of $95.90. City Judge W. G. DeMeza reported that he had disposed of 229 cases during April and collected $327 in fines. He also reported disbursements of $64 and this raised the question as to what authority Judge DeMeza had to make any expenditures. The report was referred to the finance committee and will be taken up with the Judge.

On motion of Mr. Mygatt, chairman of the finance committee, Tax collector W. R. Townsend was instructed to refund $35 to A. V. Heel: on account of a reduction made in his assessment by the Union County Board of Taxation. Corporation Counsel Stillman previous reported that the Council had no right to do this, but it is understood a new law has found permitting such action.

Resolutions offered by Mr. Mygatt and adopted, authorized the borrowing of $10,000 on account of sanitary sewer work; also the transfer of $1,000 from the general fund to the poor fund and $1,000 from the general fund to the fire fund. Resolution offered by Councilman C. Randolph, of the police committee authorized the purchase of a horse for the police department at a cost not to exceed $300. It is the intention of the committee to purchase the horse now used at headquarters for the patrol wagon, following a favorable report from a veterinary. The old horse was sold for $100, but that amount will go in the police pension fund.

The usual appropriation of $100 was made to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., to assist in the observance of Memorial Day, following an investigation that the Council had the right to make such an appropriation.

Councilman John E. Dunn, chairman of the light committee, recommended the following lights and favorable action was taken: Two lights on West Fifth street, between Monroe and Clinton avenues; one at Park avenue and Laramie road; two on Netherwood avenue, between East Front street and the borough line; one on Myrtle avenue, west of Clinton avenue; two on Lake street and one on Everitt place. On motion of Mr. Mygatt the tax ordinance was passed on third reading.

TUBERCULOSIS LECTURE.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League of Plainfield has obtained the services of Ernest Eaton for a talk to be given under its auspices at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Tuesday night, May 21.

He is the secretary of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Newark and is an accomplished speaker. His talk, which will be on "The Open Air Schools," will be illustrated by stereopticon pictures.

This will be the best opportunity that the people of Plainfield have had to know of the work being done and the good accomplished by these open air schools throughout the country. At the same time there will also be shown several moving picture films explaining the danger of infection from tuberculosis germs and showing how simple are the methods of prevention and cure when faithfully and intelligently pursued.

The lecture is different from most picture talks in that it is free to the public. The local society feels that there should be a large audience to take advantage of an occasion which will be at once entertaining and instructive.

RASORES ANNUAL.

At the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Rasores this morning, at the home of Mrs. George Strong, of Central avenue, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. I. C. Pierson; first vice president, Mrs. Ruth Leonard; second vice president, Mrs. H. E. Bowen; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Henry R. Hollowell. After the election the members enjoyed a musical program arranged by Mrs. Strong, assisted by Miss Sybil Anderson, Mrs. Bertha Willis and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

"Bloch" PULLMAN SLEEPERS 1912 Models

More than 20 years' experience is behind "Bloch" Baby Carriages; not only are they obviously the best in material and construction, but they are scientific in design. The importance of this would be better appreciated if more women knew how often infantile troubles are traceable to baby carriages of average construction. The "Bloch" Cradle gear gives that adequate support to the spring that means comfort and health combined.

"Bloch" Pullman Sleepers are finished in natural color, oak and white enamel; are made of the best quality reed, have sanitary removable cushions and seats; steel tubing pushers and heavy rubber tire wheels; you pay no more for "Bloch" Carriages than you do for any ordinary make.

The prices range from $16.50 to $45.00.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION HOLDS ANNUAL SESSION

The annual institute of the Plainfield Graded Union of Sunday-school Teachers was held at the First Presbyterian church, yesterday afternoon and evening, both sessions being well attended. Mrs. J. Powlison, president, was in the chair. The program was opened by Miss Elmira Runyon, of the Park Avenue Baptist Bible school, who gave a talk on the teaching of songs in the school.

Miss Ricker told a Bible story. Mrs. Wheaton S. Lowry presented an interesting paper on Miss May Serell's observations in the Sunday-schools in New York. The afternoon session closed with a round table. Supper was served in the chapel under the direction of a committee of which Mrs. George A. Ballantyne was chairman.

In the evening Mrs. F. W. Miller, of Somerville, gave an illustrated lecture on "Missions and Missionaries Around the World."

WESTFIELD COLUMBUS CIRCLE HOLDS ELECTION

The Columbia Circle, of Westfield, held its annual meeting last night, in their handsome club rooms in the McVoy building on Elm street, Westfield. The reports showed a highly satisfactory condition of all the circle's affairs.

At the election of officers the members present expressed great satisfaction over the administration just closed and insisted upon re-election in every case possible. The election resulted in George H. Riley being re-elected president; Frank Tully, secretary, and William Carroll, treasurer. The new officers elected were John E. Neland, first vice president; Thomas J. Fallon, second vice president, and W. F. Watts, financial secretary. The board of governors elected included J. H. Traynor, E. H. Gargan, E. C. McMahon, J. H. O'Connell and J. J. Daley.

CALLED TO PARIS.

Rev. Dr. Herbert Shipman, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York, who has on several occasions preached at Grace church, this city, has received a call to the American Church of the Holy Trinity, in the Avenue de l'Alma, Paris, to succeed the late Rev. Dr. John B. Morgan, as rector. For nine years Dr. Shipman was chaplain at the United States Military Academy, West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Smith have been stopping at the Hotel Chalfonte, Atlantic City.

In honor of his return from a long trip, Arthur McVoy had a few of his friends come in last night to play 500. W. J. Loomis received the gentleman's prize and Mrs. W. J. Loomis the woman's. Several of the friends furnished music during the evening and refreshments were served.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

POTPIES.

If you do not know how to make potpies before trying wait until you can see one prepared by a competent cook, for a spoiled potpie is about as tragic a failure as it is possible to make in cooking.

One secret of success is to boil the dough in as little liquid as possible. The meat with which it is done should be cooked until almost ready to serve. After it is in, the dough should boil for about a half hour.

Some Timely Hints.

Chicken, veal and beef make the best potpies.

Before laying the dough for the potpie in the cooking vessel remove all but a pint of the broth from the meat. Then over the meat, which should be left in the bottom of the kettle, lay the dough very loosely.

Cover the vessel and let it boil, then move farther back on the fire and let it boil very slowly for a half hour.

The broth taken out should be slightly thickened with flour and used to pour over the potpie when it is served.

Chicken Potpie.—The chicken should first be cooked as for a fricassee. Thicken the gravy and then drop into it, a spoonful at a time, a dough made as follows:

Sift together a pint of flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder, a little salt and mix with enough milk to make a stiff dough. Boil for twenty minutes after the dough is in the pot.

Do not lift the cover while the pot is boiling or the crust may be heavy.

A Fine Veal Pie.

Veal Potpie.—Cut into small pieces two pounds of veal and boil in two quarts of water for an hour and a half. When the meat begins to get tender season by putting in a teaspoonful of salt and a bit of red pepper pod.

Just before taking off the fire a half cupful of cream should be added, together with a tablespoonful of butter.

If you like onions or potatoes with the pie they should be cut up and dropped in when the meat is half done.

Make a biscuit dough, roll and bake in the oven. Split the biscuit when baked and put them on a platter. After thickening the gravy pour it and the meat over the biscuit.

SNAPSHOTS OF FASHION.

Gowns and Parasols Must Match This Season.

Since taffeta gowns and hats are favored this season parasols covered with taffeta to match the gown or hat are in good taste.

Such a tunic skirt as this one is graceful and becoming and can be

In connection with the meet the club will give a dinner to the farmers and their families. Arrangements have been made by the club to have the 12 o'clock express from New York, with dining-car attached, stop at Plainfield on Saturday. After the meet the club will provide an entertainment and spread for its guests at the clubhouse.

A DENIAL.

Denial comes from the management of the South Plainfield Juniors that they lost their game Saturday to the North Plainfield Juniors by the score of 12 to 11. The pondville boys claim the victory for themselves 11 to 8.

The Home Building & Loan Association
Offers Cheap Interest for a Home Builder or Buyer

It figures out about like this, as a series will run out in twelve years if $2,000.00 is borrowed (other amounts in same proportion),

He pays $10.00 a month dues for 144 months	$1,440 00
He pays $10.00 a month interest for 144 months at 6 per cent	1,440 00
Entrance fee, search, etc., about	25 00
Total amount paid	$2,905 00
He has the use of	2,000 00
At a cost for 12 years of	$ 905 00

Which is actual net interest of only 3¾ per cent. per annum.

This is on a basis of 6 per cent. When no money is on hand, the Association will provide money for the borrower at a very slight premium

The regular meetings of the Association are held at its rooms, 101 Park Avenue, on the third Monday evening of each month. New series are opened at each regular meeting. Further information may be had at that time or by applying to the secretary, Arthur E. Crone, care of the City National Bank. tu-th

That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Now that the Plainfield club's season has started the fans are looking on Monday morning to see what the attraction will be on the following Saturday.

For this week Manager Dorflinger is trying hard to get the Lincoln Giants as the Oval attraction. They ought to furnish a pretty stiff argument and lots of amusement.

The saddest feature of the inter-High School game on Saturday was the breaking of Carroll Taylor's leg. It was unavoidable but unfortunate nevertheless.

The Borough School team was very weak to begin with and this unfortunate accident has crippled it much more.

This seems to have been a year of injuries, very few teams having gone even these few weeks into the season without feeling its disastrous effects.

The Yankees return to the Hilltop today and start their first series with the Western teams.

And at the same time the Giants have started on their first invasion of the territory across the mountains. The fans will then get their first line on their real strength.

St. Louis is the first station at which they will sojourn.

The sheriff and other State officials again stopped the attempt to play Sunday ball at New Britain, Conn., and again they succeeded in showing the management that they would not stand for it.

But they did allow these same two teams to play an "exhibition" game upon the same grounds. The scores were so large upon both sides that the officials did not consider it a game, however.

The baseball heads in Philadelphia are out gunning for the bettors that have been operating at both the American and National League parks, and intend to put a stop to the practice.

One month ago no one picked either Cincinnati or the White Sox to set the pace, but that very same uncertainty and upsetting of "expert" predictions is what makes the game just what it is.

Hank O'Day's team will have to go some yet if they are not headed by the Giants on their present trip, and the Sox will have to keep awake to lead the Athletics at the end of the season.

Lou Slocum has jumped to the New York team of the United States League, and Hand, who expected to catch for Scotch Plains, has gone with him.

Ty Cobb keeps the spot-light shining in his direction most of the time. Some editors leave the "Brilliant Playing By Cobb" head set up all of the time.

Matty's latest book, "Pitching In a Pinch," is just out, and is proving to be very popular among the young fans.

The City High School team is scheduled to meet Cranford High School tomorrow afternoon at Cranford.

Much interest will attend this game because of the resulting tie score when the two teams met two weeks ago in this city.

Leal's vs. Newman at Morristown.

So that Plainfield will be a lonesome place with all the home teams playing out of town.

MOTORCYCLE NOTES

The Plainfield Motorcycle Club, ten in number, was compelled to give up their run Sunday morning after going as far as Bound Brook because of unsuitable weather. Those starting on the trip were Percy Haberle, J. J. Moore, Julius Dunkhudt, W. R. McKimmon, Ben Howell, Ed. Honeyman, Nicholas Thul, Alex Hurlich, W. J Flemming and Jack Horner. In the afternoon three members took a run to Morristown but were caught in the rain and had rather a disagreeable trip.

Clifford Bissell, of Westfield, on a Harley Davidson Twin and R. V. Schoonmaker, of Park avenue, on his four-cylinder Pierce cycle, held a hill climbing contest last Saturday afternoon in the Watchung Mountains. Mr. Schoonmaker and his Pierce proved their supremacy, which was due largely to the two speed gear with which the winning cycle was equipped.

Tommy Smith, well-known to all followers of local cycling, won the half-mile handicap race for amateurs on the Vailsburg track Sunday afternoon.

GOLF.

The active season will begin at the Park Golf Club on Saturday, when the regular competitions will be inaugurated. The clubhouse and grounds have been open for two weeks for those who wished to engage in general play.

FACTORY LEAGUE READY TO START

Meeting of Directors Held Last Night Largely Attended by Representatives.

ALL DETAILS ARRANGED

Next Saturday Afternoon Will Find All Six Teams Line Up in Battle For Daily Press Cup and Championship.

The directors of the Manufacturers' League held their regular meeting last night in the N. M. C. A. with James E. Kimball, president of the league, presiding. There were twenty-one representatives at the meeting and the enthusiasm becomes much greater as the date for the opening game approaches. There were many lively discussions at last night's meeting when the questions of the kind kind of ball to be used, and players' eligibility clause were discussed, but the greatest degree of sportsmanship was shown in the handling of all questions. It is plain that the teams that are to be members of the league mean business and that they intend to give the fans a gilt edged article of ball as well as work hard for the Daily Press Cup.

After the meeting was opened the manager of each team deposited with C. E. Ostlin, the secretary, their entry and forfeit fees which was necessary for them to do in order to play their first game. Each manager then submitted their list of players from which they are to pick their teams. These lists, after having been posted, cannot be changed and the different managers cannot use any further names during the season.

This will prevent the ringing in of players after the games have started and will also assure perfectly fair treatment for the players of all teams. Any question that may come up during the season will be decided by the board of directors that will meet for the hearing of all questions, and the transaction of the league business at stated periods.

The directors decided that the games should be called at 3:30 each Saturday afternoon. The admission fee to be ten cents at each game, tags to be sold by he managers. It is desired to simply collect funds enough to cover league expenses, which at the start of the season will be quite heavy. It has been necessary to procure three new grounds and the fixing of these will be a matter of a great deal of expense.

The grounds procured so far are the Clinton avenue grounds, situated at Clinton avenue and Second street, the Myrtle avenue grounds, Myrtle avenue, near Grand, and Hyde field, Jackson and Delacy avenues. These grounds will be used for the first games to be played.

The opening games scheduled for Saturday afternoon are: Spicer Co. vs. the International Motor Co., on the Clinton avenue grounds, Public Service vs. Commercials, on the Myrtle avenue grounds, and R. G. C. (Rushmore-Garwood Electric) vs. the Banks, on Hyde field.

This means three good games played by local players and played with a definite purpose in view, the winning of the league championship and The Daily Press cup. Remember the games, the ground upon which they are played, the price and the time and attend one of them next Saturday afternoon.

ENTRY LISTS NOW OPEN FOR BALTUSROL MEET

May will be a merry month from the viewpoint of the metropolitan golfer. Among the many tournaments to be decided in this district at least two, the men's and women's M. G. A. championships, will confer titles on the winners.

Announcement of the program and conditions governing the former of these, which will be held at Baltusrol from May 23 to 25, is made by W. D. Vanderpool. The championship will, as usual, begin with thirty-six holes of qualifying play, the first thirty-two to continue for the Chauncey trophy and title, and the defeated sixteen for the President's cup. The third and fourth sixteens will also have prizes to play for.

Additional attractions will consist of a club pairs four ball match on Friday afternoon, May 24, the third day of the tournament, and a metropolitan handicap at eighteen holes on Saturday. Those who mean to enter for the handicap are reminded that any player not rated on the printed M. G. A. handicap list will have to conform to the conditions imposed by the association, that a letter from said player's club secretary or club handicapper stating how many strokes he receives from some player at his club who is rated on the printed M. G. A. handicap list must be presented before starting. If no such letter is presented or if the information required is not sent in the Tournament Committee reserves the right to give any such unrated player a low handicap or even to place him at scratch.

Particular attention is called to the fact that all entries this year must be made not to the secretary, but to S. Clifton Mabon, the treasurer, whose address is No. 45 Wall street.

SUMMER HIKING CLUB ORGANIZED AT Y. M. C. A.

A "Hiking Club" has been organized at the Y. M. C. A. by E. C. Ostlin, physical director. About twenty boys have already signed the notice posted on the bulletin board. The club will take walking trips during the summer months at specified times to different places of interest in the vicinity of Plainfield and one or two will be extended trips.

The organization will embody a good share of the junior members who were members of the College League during the winter season, and is only one of the activities to be introduced during the summer. Some of these same boys will undoubtedly go to the Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake Wawawanda again this year and this club will tend to get them in condition to better enjoy their stay at the camp.

SCOTCH PLAINS PREPARE FOR OPENING OF SEASON

Manager Albert, of the Scotch Plains team, has announced the Orange A. C. will be the opponents of the Plains team in their first game next Sunday afternoon. This team is reputed as being a very fast semi-professional aggregation and to match them Manager Alberts will bring together the best men possible. He has been disappointed in one of his players that he had counted upon, Frederickson deciding to remain with Plainfield and the United States League are trying hard for the service of Hand, who already is reported as a member of the New York team, having joined with Slocum, but he has filled their places with good men.

The list of players given out to make up the team for the first game is as follows: Frentz, 1b; Heller, who played last year on the All New York team, 2b; Hoblitzel, ss.; Gray, 3b; H. Alberts, rf.; Nolan, cf.; Joe Alberts, lf.; Lee, p., and sub. fielder; Hand, c., and Boltz, 2b. and fielder. This combination is sure to start something with any team that they may meet.

Should Manager Alberts be unable to hold Hand, his place will be filled by some good catcher, to be announced later.

PLAINFIELDERS TO PLAY IN INTER-FRAT SERIES

New Brunswick, May 7.—Interfraternity baseball has been started at Rutgers College, and, although no league will be formed this year, all indications point toward a most successful organization next season. Teams from the various chapters are scheduled to play one another nearly every afternoon for the coming two weeks, and the enthusiasm among the fraternity men at the Old Dutch College over the new form of competition is growing daily.

There will be eight teams from the Greek letter clans and two nines from the two clubs, no varsity players being allowed to participate in any of the games. The object of the interfraternity matches is not only to provide a source of interesting amusement and a chance to settle friendly disputes, but it is expected that a large number of good players will be developed for the varsity by the practise in these games.

Among the Plainfielders who will be members of these teams are: Delta Upsilon Chapter team, Stanley Robbins and Cornelius Schenck; Delta Kappa Epsilon, Harry Jackson and H. B. Smith, and Chi Psi Lodge, Arthur B. Titsworth.

6 E DEFEATS 6 B.

Grade 6 E beat 6 B team of the Whittier School Saturday afternoon at Parker Field by the score of 11 to 6. The battery for the winners was Letson and Case and for the 6 B's Sikes, Adriance and Leek. Sikes pitched well but received very poor support. The feature of the game was a home-run drive by Western of the 6 E team.

AYERS SEEKING A JOB AS COURT CONSTABLE

Former Overseer-of-the-Poor Applies for Badge Here as Preliminary Move.

Alexander D. Ayers, former overseer of the poor, applied to the Common Council last night for appointment as a constable for the Fourth ward. The application was endorsed by Judge William Newcorn, Andrew McCardell and a number of other residents of the ward. The matter was referred to the police committee and later sent to Corporation Counsel W. M. Stillman for an opinion as o whether the Council has the right to make such an appointment.

Ayers' real object, it is said, is appointment as a county court constable. The court can appoint him, if it so wishes, without regard to his present status as a civilian, but as a regularly constituted constable he would be in a position to serve papers and earn constable fees in other ways not directly connected with the court. As an appointee of the court not already a constable, his powers would be limited strictly to the business of the court to which he was attached.

E. L. RANSOME CO-AUTHOR OF WORK ON CONCRETE

Ernest L. Ransome, of the Ransome Concrete Company, this city, is the author, in collaboration with Alexis Saubrey, of a new work for engineers on reinforced concrete, entitled "Ransome and Saubrey's Reinforced Concrete Buildings." It is rated as a distinctive contribution to the literature of reinforced concrete, containing the essence of Mr. Ransome's investigations and researches for over forty years.

Mr. Ransome, a consulting and supervising engineer of high standing, was the great pioneer in the introduction of reinforced concrete in the United States. The book is divided into three chapters, and the treatment of the subject is very practical. The book is published by the McGraw-Hill Book Company.

JACOT'S WIDOW RECEIVES $3,000

FIRST CASE IN THE CITY

Payments at the Rate of $10 a Week as Provided Under the Employers' Liability Law—Firm Insured.

Through its local representative, Edward C. Hardingham, the Commercial Casualty Insurance Company, of Newark, made a settlement yesterday with Mrs. Arthur F. Jacot, whose husband died as the result of a fall at the home of Mrs. Francis deLacy Hyde on Mountain avenue, about two months ago. Jacot, a painter, was employed by MacDonald & Vardon, and that firm which carries insurance for its employes, made a settlement through the Newark company under the provisions of the New Jersey Workman's Compensation and Employers' Liability Acts. So far as known this is the first case of the kind in which a fatality figured in this city and has aroused unusual interest.

Under the provisions of the law, Mrs. Jacot was entitled to $3,000, she having three children. The $3,000 will be paid her at the rate of $10 weekly. The company would willingly pay Mrs. Jacot the whole sum at once, but the law provides that the money shall be paid in sums of $10 a week for 300 weeks. Charles T. Rowley, of the Newark company, came to Plainfield yesterday and paid Mrs. Jacot a lump sum, covering the period from the time of the accident to May 11. Hereafter she will receive the weekly sum.

MAKING READY TO PRESENT FANTASTIC MUSICAL SHOW

"A Trip to the Moon," a musical fantasia, is to be given in the Plainfield theatre by the Young Women's Amusement Club with a cast of 450, on the evenings of May 22, 24 and 25. The proceeds to be devoted to charity.

The production is described as a fantastic dramatic spectacle with the plot well defined, a quaint and interesting story, beautiful music, and wonderful electric effects. The costumes which will be procured from New York are gorgeous and pains will be taken by the management to stage the production as elaborately as in the larger cities.

The cast is working hard to perfect this play and those who have seen it claim that it will be one of the greatest hits ever made in Plainfield.

BOROUGH SCHOOL BOARD.

GIRLS WIN P. H. S. GRADUATION HONORS

Miss Helen Woolley the Valedictorian and Miss Effie Beekman Salutatorian.

Principal Lindsay Best, of the Plainfield High School, announced today that Miss Helen Woolley had been selected as the valedictorian of the graduating class, and Miss Effie Beekman the salutatorian. These honors are based on the highest standard of scholarship of a pupil throughout the four years' course in the High School. The selections are popular with the other members of the graduating class.

The commencement exercises will be held at the First Baptist church Thursday night, June 20, one week later than that of the North Plainfield High School.

The commencement speaker has not been chosen, but it is expected that Dr. H. M. Maxson, superintendent, will make the announcement of the selection within a short time.

HIS BIRTHDAY BRINGS A SURPRISE TO MR. FANTON

In honor of his birthday fifty friends gave J. Fanton, of 930 West Fourth street, a surprise party last night. Violin selections were played by Mr. Byland and Mr. Cooke, accompanied by Mrs. VanArsdale, Miss Irene Hauley and Mrs. H. Cooke on the piano. There was singing by Mr. Howes, Mr. Donaldson, H. James, H. Fanton and Mr. and Mrs. Fanton. A bounteous supper was served.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Brody, Miss Brody, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, Miss Cooke, Master Cooke, C. Howes, Miss Carrie Heiney, Miss Lavine Heiney, Mr. and Mrs. Fielding, Mrs. K. Hanley, Miss Irene Hanley, E. Hanley, W. Hanley, H. Cunningham, Miss Jennie Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Boulellieax, Mr. and Mrs. U. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, H. James, Mr. Rayland, W. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Van Arsdale, H. Fanton and Miss Lillie Morley; out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilber, Burton Wilber, Miss Blanche Wilber, E. Wilber, Mrs. Pearl Heiney and J. Heiney.

CONCERT AT Y. W. C. A. AND GYMNASIUM PARTY

The glee club and orchestra of the Young Women's Christian Association will give a concert tomorrow night in the assembly room. Admission will be invitation only.

The gymnasium party arranged by the physical director will take place Friday evening. The members will meet at the Y. W. C. A. rooms at 6:30 for their walk to Chimney Point on Johnston's Drive, where a picnic supper will be served and a social time enjoyed. The return trip will be made later in the evening.

LIBRARY ACQUIRES SABBATARIAN BOOKS

Department Will Appeal to Churchmen of Plainfield and New Market.

The Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library, at its meeting, last night, received a handsome crayon por trait of the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, the gift of Mrs. Annie E. Murphy in memory of her late husband, Rev. T. Logan Murphy. Dr. A. E. M. Purdy, of New York, added further to his valuable medical sets previously presented to the library, by an installment of 38 volumes.

The directors have inaugurated another valuable department through the interest and efforts of William M. Stillman, a director, in presenting a collection of literature by Seventh-Day Baptists. As Plainfield and vicinity, especially New Market, are strongholds of the Seventh-Day Baptists, it is particularly fitting that the library should have such a collection as a permanent department. The collection will be added to from time to time by not only Mr. Stillman, but others of the same denomination. Reports from the building committee show steady progress in the erection of the new building.

CORKING GOOD SHOW WITH A PUNK NAME

Broadhurst's "Just Like John" Hits Plainfield in its Funny Belt.

George Broadhurst's latest big laugh hit, "Just Like John," even better than the other irresistably funny comedies that have made his name famous as a playwright, was the big noise at the Plainfield theatre last night. It's a punk name for a rattling good show, but "what's in a name" so long as you can pack a house on a stormy night and then send the audience home praying that Manager Sanderson will get a return date.

Walter Jones stars in the production, but there are others who are some shine too, for who could have been more immense in her part than Diva Marolda. Her antics were enough to make a gravestone chuckle. Jones takes the part of an U. S. secret service man ordered by his chief to round up a gang of anarchists. A flashlight taken by the police when anarchists are making a "get-away" shows the luckless secret service man, parading as an anarchist and under another name, in the embrace of a woman member of the band. The picture reproduced in a newspaper falls into his wife's hands, and she not knowing his mission, gets into quick action throwing the secret service man into a high tension of nervousness and the audience into convulsion of laughter. Of course everything is straightened out in the end but not until the audience has spent a superabundance of merriment. The program says that the action occurs "at a seaside resort on the Atlantic Coast between New York and Philadelphia," but does not explain the Quaker City's exact position on the ocean coast.

With a better sounding, more appropriate and a more catchy title, the show should increase the William A. Brady bank roll to a greater proportion than have such successes as "Bought and Paid For," "Bunty Pulls the Strings" and "Overnight."

THREATENED NEIGHBOR; JAILED FOR SIXTY DAYS

Pasquale Penegren returned to his half of a double house on North avenue, last night, drunk and quarrelsome. Alphonse Colucci, who lives in the other half of the house, went over to the Penegren rooms to protest against the disorder. He alleges that Penegren drew a knife and threatened him.

Colucci called in a policeman after the alleged appearance of the knife. In the City Court today Penegren was given his choice between a $20 fine or 60 days in jail. He went to jail.

FATHER AND SON ARRESTED.

TOWNSHIP PRESSING DISPUTE OVER LINE

Warren Trying to Get Slice of Territory From North Plainfield.

The Warren Township Committee will meet tomorrow to make further provision for raising money to meet the expense of having a survey made in the matter of the dispute between hat township and North Plainfield township regarding the dividing line between the two townships. A survey is now being made by C. C. Vermeule, state engineer, for Warren township, the North Plainfield Township Committee having previously had a survey made.

The township line has been a matter of dispute for several years. It is claimed by the Warren authorities that the township is entitled to more land than it is given credit for by early surveys. The North Plainfield Township Committee disputes the claim, asserting that the present line is correct.

POSTMASTER GIVES VACATIONISTS ADVICE

How to Make Sure That Mail Will Go Right Without Delay.

In order to get one's mail in vacation time, the following advice, compiled by Postmaster Elias H. Bird, will be a sure guide if it is carefully heeded:

Two days in advance of leaving for any vacation trip send notice to the postoffice of your intended change in address and of the time that you expect to leave your present place of residence, and where you are going. Also, send directions as to what you want done with the various classes of mail matter you may receive. Previous to your return, send notice to the postoffice of the time when you expect to leave for home and no mail will be sent to your vacation address that will reach its destination after you are on your way home.

For persons who expect to move from place to place during their vacations, it is advisable to keep the local postoffice informed of each and every change in their address two days in advance of the time they expect to make the change.

In writing to Plainfield from some outside place it is always better to address a letter with the husband's first name whe writing to a married woman. Always give the street number when addressing a letter, or at least the street, because the dihectory does not include the names of many women and minors.

For use during vacations postage stamps should be purchased in books with slips of paraffin paper between the layers of stamps. The hot wether often causes loose stamps to stick together.

ENDEAVORERS TO RALLY AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The annual rally of the Christian Endeavor Society of Union county will be held in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The county secretary, as well as the district secretary, will report on the splendid results for the past year. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Dr. Samuel Lane Loomis, pastor of the Congregation Church of Christ, of Plainfield. His subject will be "Efficiency." There will be singing of high order, and the annual awarding of the banner for the society having the highest percentage of active members present will be an interesting event as many societies are trying with all their might to have a full membership.

At the close of the meeting the annual election will take place.

MRS. SNEDEKER FINED.

Pleading guilty to breaking and entering Salvatore Bacola's home in the borough, Mrs. Martha Snedeker and her daughter-in-law, Mary Snedeker were fined $10 this morning and ordered to leave the borough by Justice Snape. MRS. MARY WHITE DEAD AT EIGHTY-FIVE

Mrs. Mary A. White, aged 81 years, widow of William C. White, died this morning at her home, 34 Grove street, from heart trouble and other complications with which she had been afflicted for some time. She had failed rapidly of late. A carriage ride with her son on Saturday was the last time she was able to leave the house.

Mrs. White was born in New York and when a child removed with her parents to Jersey City, where she lived for a number of years. Her maiden name was Hegel. In 1865 she removed to North Plainfield, where she lived from then on to the time of her death. Upon coming to Plainfield she united with the First Baptist church by letter and from that time she was one of the most active members. She was interested in every department of church work and for many years was a faithful teacher in the Sunday-school. Her aid and counsel proved of great value to the missionary societies.

Mrs. White's husband, who died nineteen years ago, was a deacon of the First Baptist church for many years and one of the most generous contributors to its support. He also served in other capacities of an official nature. Surviving is one son, George F. White, and two daughters, Miss Mary White and Miss Nellie H. White, of the brough; also three grandchildren, Mrs. William G. DeMeza, of this city, and three children of George F. White. The funeral will be held at the late home on Grove street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, will officiate.

SUFFRAGETTES TRIED IN 1ST M. E. CHURCH

Mixed Jury Gets in Wrangle and Hopelessly Disagrees on Verdict.

Following a supper given at the First M. E. church, last night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, the men of the church provided an entertainment in Vincent chapel. It was a mock trial in which Miss Helen Edgar and Miss Gertrude Prior, suffragettes, were charged with wilfully breaking and entering Mayor Moy's house through a window, for the purpose of persuading him to join the suffragette movement.

The scene was laid in a country justice's court. Martin B. Stutsman represented the prosecution, S. S. Swackhamer the defendants, while J. Henry Crane was the judge. The witnesses for the prosecution were Arthur H. Osmun, an Englishman; L. D. Albin, a Hebrew; Miss Elizabeth Cornwell, an Italian, and Miss Ethel Prior, "Carrie Nation." The defense was represented by the defendants themselves, Dr. F. W. French, a farmer, and Miss Helen Whitney, an Irish woman.

The jury, comprising six women and six men, engaged in a wrangle and could not agree. It was discovered that two of the women jurors were suffragettes. The trial was marked by witticism which caused much laughter.

The arrangements for the supper, which preceded the entertainment, were in charge of Mrs. Judge Stuart, Mrs. S. H. Tugwell and Miss Minnie B. Sharp. There were about 160 suppers served. During the evening Miss Anna Warnock gave two pleasing piano solos.

POLICE BILL HELD UP.

Among the bills presented at the meeting of the Common Council, Monday night, and which were not approved, was one from the police department for $45. There was a total of seventeen charges for carriage hire, the charges ranging from $1 to $3. The police board would not approve the bill until it had been investigated and it was finally decided to refer it to Mayor G. W. V. Moy, who is by virtue of his office chairman of the police board. Mr. Moy received the bill yesterday and he will make an investigation.

TROUBLE IN SEWER GANG IS ADJUSTED

Contractor Peterson Settles Strike Which Resulted Partly From Racial Clash.

The sanitary sewer work on Cameron avenue, for which Charles Peterson has the contract, has been held up for several days owing to trouble among the men employed on the contract. Part of the small gang is composed of Italians and the others are Polacks. Tho two nationalities could not get along well together, and some of the men wanted more money. As a result there was a strike among the dissatisfied ones.

Mr. Peterson finally adjusted the differences and the men reported for work yesterday. Everything was thought to be all right, when a delegation waited on the contractor and insisted hat one of the gang be discharged, otherwise they would quit again. Since then the trouble has been settled and as soon as the weather clears, work will be resumed.

CHRYSANTHEMUM CLUB HOLDS ENJOYABLE DANCE

Fifty couple enjoyed the dance given last night by the Chrysanthemum Club at Debele's Auditorium. Suhr's Imperial orchestra furnished the music and refreshments were served at a late hour. The moondance made the hit of the evening.

The committee in charge of the arrangements consisted of W. H. Cubberly, C. A. Doeringer and R. J. Metler. The club will hold its last dance of the season on June 4 and will be a shirt waist affair.

MRS. OHL HURT WHEN HER CARRIAGE OVERTURNS

As Mrs. Percy Ohl sat in her pony cart at Grove and Front streets today watching the circus parade, another carriage going in the opposite direction struck her vehicle and over turned it, injuring her severely. The pony team ran away but were caught before they had gone far. Bystanders went to Mrs. Ohl's assistance and carried her into Nagle's drug store, and Dr. Lufburrow called.

The doctor could not decide whether or ot Mrs. Ohl had received any broken bones or internal injuries. He will make another examination later in the afternoon.

THIRD ENTERTAINMENT AT INDUSTRIAL HOME

The third entertainment arranged by William F. Richards and his dramatic company was presented at the Industrial Home last night. It had been intended to give an old-time minstrel show but owing to the fact that several of the leading artists could not attend, a general program of vocal and instrumental music, recitation and monologues was given. All of the participants made a distinct hit and the happy members of the audience showed their appreciation by vociferous applause.

The numbers on the program were as follows: Medley of choruses, entire company; harmanica solo and jokes, William F. Richards; recitations, Miss Tryaphena Mattox; selections by the junior quartet com osed of W. H. Conger, George Simon, Robert Gulberg and John Richards; recitations, Helen Heyers; mandolin selections, George Simon, and a monologue by Fred Coombs. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and during their distribution the junior quartet sang several numbers.

Alpaugh, of East Sixth street, regarding the stringing of wires in front of his property, has investigated the matter and learned that the wires complained of were those of the New York Telephone Company and not of the Public Service Corporation. Mr. Alpaugh in his communication said that lighting wires had been placed on his property. The trouble will be remedied.

HOW RAPACIOUS DEALERS DEFRAUD

Superintendent of Weights and Measures Tells of Cheating Methods Pursued.

PROFIT IN PACKAGES

Estimated That 92 Per Cent. of Dealers Found Using Crooked Weights are Simply Following Trade Custom.

Methods by which dishonest merchants try to defraud their customers were described at a meeting of the Elmora Association in Elmora by Augustus W. Schwartz, superintendent of weights and measures for Union county. Mr. Schwartz illustrated his talk with a number of defective scales and measures which he has seized on his various raids throughout the county. A short history of the growth of the movement for securing supervision of weights and measures was also given.

In his talk Mr. Schwartz showed how weights and measures have been used through all ages, but that the superintending of these by the state is comparatively new.

Purchasers, Mr. Schwartz said, should ascertain if the dealer's weights and measures are inspected and sealed, and should also make occasional tests to see if quantities purchased are of hte right weight and measure.

Mr. Schwartz showed what great rofit is made by concerns which sell their goods in packages or containers. The quantity of goods which a certain amount of money will buy is much smaller in the case of goods in packages than in the bulk, and the consumer pays for the paper or tin in which the goods packed. As an example of how great the amount thus lost is Mr. Schwartz gave a little problem which he worked out. He said that investigation has proved that for every pound of flour used on goods in packages there is a two ounce substitution of pa er or other material used as a container. One large concern uses five million barrels of flour each year. At $5 per barrel for flour the saving in flour because of the substitution of the materials used as container, would amount to $3,125,000.

Do dealers mean to be dishonest? asked Mr. Schwartz. According to the investigation, the alacrity with which dealers responded to the demand for honest weights and measures, whenever he demand is made, would confirm the claim that short weights and measures and short weighing and measuring are "trade customs." It is estimated that 8 per cent. of those found in possession of short weights and measures and "fast" scales are intentionally dishonest. It is conceded that the other 92 per cent. were forced by "trade customs" to follow the example of the eigh fraudulent dealers.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT HELD UP THE CIRCUS

Tardy Appearance of the Inspector—Need of Investigation Questioned.

Because the city Health Department was not prompt in meeting Robbins' circus upon its arrival in Plainfield early this morning, there was considerable delay in pitching the tents and getting everything in readiness for this afternoon's performance, while the time of holding the street parade had to be deferred from 10 o'clock to an early hour this afternoon.

The circus management was disgruntled over the delay of the health authorities in giving the show people a clean bill of health. J. C. Kelly, the legal adjuster for the show, called on Mayor G. W. V. Moy and expressed his displeasure over the action of the Board of Health. He considered it unfair to subject the show people to such an examination, explaining that the circus had been out only two weeks and during that time had not been out of the State. The show has appeared in a number of nearby towns, and the health of the circus people has not been questioned.

For some unexplained reason the health inspector did not reach the circus grounds until late in the morning, and it was impossible for the circus management to go ahead with their work until the show was passed by the inspector. Every employe was found to be in good health, with no evidence of contagious disease.

THIS IS CIRCUS DAY IN PLAINFIELD, ALL OF US ARE YOUNGSTERS NOW

Bigger, better, grander than ever, Frank A. Robbins' All-Feature shows, dear to the hearts of Jerseymen because its winter quarters and permanent address are at Jersey City, rolled into Plainfield early this morning for its annual exhibition. Several hundred small boys of the ubiquitous type and more than a few curious adults were at the North avenue freight yards long before the big train of cars rolled in from Red Bank, and superintended the process of unloading. When everything had been gotten off to the satisfaction of the crowd, adjournment was taken to the grounds at West Front street and Grant avenue, where the circus will give its performances this afternoon and tonight. The work of putting up the "big top," the side show and managerie tents and all the smaller canvases was completed before 11 o'clock, the combined "white city" covering every available foot of ground.

The street parade has always been a feature of the Robbins' shows and this year's is no exception to the rule. The procession left the lot shortly after noon, preceding through the most important thoroughfares of the city and borough. The open dens of animals, the gaily decorated horses and riders and the hundred and one things that go to make up a circus parade were viewed by thousands of people all along the route. Three bands of music furnished plenty of accompaniment for the marchers.

From all the cities where the circus has appeared this season, nothing but favorable criticism has been heard. It has been greatly enlarged and embodies many high-priced attractions never before seen in Plainfield. Hillary Long, the incomparable head balancer, who created such a sensation here last year by hopping down a flight of steps on his head, has been retained and will present another novel act of the same startling nature. Other artists who will be seen in the two rings and stadium of the main tent are Dare Devil Devoe, who stands on his head on a trapeze, balances himself for a moment and suddenly slides down a sixty foot wire, righting himself as he reaches the ground.

The Leons, Iva Orton and the flying Benschlin troupe are among the stars of the canvas dome. Among the wire walkers are the Cevene troupe, and the Carreas, two dainty equestrians. For those who like ground acts the Herbert and Morey troupes provide acts of skill and strength. Among the animal acts are the eight imported Belgian stallions, originally brought to this country three years ago for the Barnum and Bailey show at an expense of $16,600, and "Prince," a splendidly trained high school horse.

The circus tents are absolutely water-proof and as the ground is high, despite the weather the public will find no discomforting conditions at the big show.

After the show tonight the circus will go to Somerville, where it appears tomorrow, and on Friday it will show at Westfield. Saturday the circus will be at Elizabeth, after which it leaves this section of the state.

Whitehouse.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Welch, sixty-three years old, wife of Bloomfield Welch, was held at her home near New Germantown yesterday. Rev. Dr. John P. Krechting, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiated. Mrs. Welch died from burns sustained when her garments caught fire as she was preparing supper. She leaves two daughters.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Reed, seventy-one years old, wife of Abram Reed, was held at Dreahook yesterday afternoon. Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, officiated. Mrs. Reed died after a long illness. She leaves three sons.

Now that Peapack and Gladstone have voted to become a borough an effort is being made to install a municipal water system. A mass meeting will be held in the near future to consider the proposition.

A number of residents of Whitehouse Station have had a coating of oil spread on the macadam through that place. The oil was covered with a light dressing of sand.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Peapack and Gladstone will be held at the home of Mrs. Amos Fenner, Saturday afternoon, May 18.

Miss Iola Lewis, of Newark, is spending a few days with Miss Ella Felmly at the Felmly farm, in Round Valley.

Mrs. John Marcus arrived at her home at South Branch yesterday, after a visit to her sister in South Somerville.

Mrs. Mattie Price, of Pottsville, is spending a week in Newark, where she formerly lived.

Hunterdon County.

While attempting to board a westbound coal train on the Central Railroad at Hampton Monday afternoon, Francis Sonn, of Easton, Pa., twenty years old, was thrown under the cars and his right arm cut off. He was taken to the Easton (Pa.) Hospital on an engine.

After spending several days at the home of Mrs. Jennie Landenberger, in Glen Gardner, Mrs. Charles Wallendar returned to her home in Hampton Monday.

Former Freeholder and Mrs. J. Henry Hawk, of Union, spent Sunday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hawk, at Changewater.

Russell Rush, of Glen Gardner, was a Sunday guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Rush, in Wilmington, Del.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Manager Alberts intends giving Frank Lee, the local pitcher who has been pitching a good game for Leal's team, a chance to break into faster company if he can make good. Lee will no doubt hold the "box office" down as he has been against some of the best school teams in this section of the State and has made good.

"What Happened to Jones," will be presented by the young people of St. Mary's parish, in Excelsior Hall on Saturday evening, May 18.

Miss Leora Henry, who has been spending several days with Miss Evelyn Buckley, has returned to her home in Plainfield.

The township road gang is now at work putting the roads in the eastern end of the township in condition.

The weekly prayer and praise meeting of the Baptist church will be held tonight in the chapel.

Dunellen & Vicinity.

The long delayed and much discussed telephone franchise was passed on its third and final reading by the Dunellen Council Monday night. It will now go in effect as soon as the legal requirements have been adjusted. The ordinance gives the New York Telephone Co. a fifty year right to use the local streets for poles and wires but amendments may be made to the various sections at the expiration of thirty years. The petition for storm sewers was not taken up at the meeting, owing to the lateness of the hour at which routine business was disposed of. The matter will probably be considered at a special session.

Rev. Ernest R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is the owner of a new Pierce-Arrow auto which he purchased recently. The board of trustees of the church will erect a garage for him on the parsonage grounds and have given the contract to J. N. Apgar.

Borough Engineer Lewis T. Churchill has been busy the past few days erecting street signs throughout the local intersecting points. The signs are of the enamel variety, similar to those in Plainfield, and are greatly appreciated by strangers in town.

Mrs. Alfred Osmun has returned to her home in the borough after a lengthy stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bodine, of Plainfield. She is much improved in health.

In the event of weather conditions improving, Dunellen and New Market will be represented by large delegations at the Robbins' circus in Plainfield tonight.

Rev. George Donaldson, of New York, will deliver his lecture, "Corn Is King," at the Methodist church tonight. Admission is to be free.

A bungalow is being erected for Isaac Line on the lot which he recently purchased on New Market road.

Bound Brook.

Roy Rinehart, carrier No. 3, of the Bound Brook postoffice, was in Newark yesterday, where he took the railway mail examination. Substitute carrier William Bolenger served his patrons during his absence.

Dr. F. A. Wild has been chosen president of the Board of Management of the State Institution for the Treatment of Tubercular Diseases, at Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wenman, of Morristown, have been visiting Mrs. Wenman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. VanDoren, of New Bound Brook.

A regular meeting of Pioneer Council, No. 58, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in Hamilton Hall tonight.

G. V. Van Doren & Co. has leased the Lynan property on Mountain avenue to Joseph J. Miller.

William Midgely has secured employment with J. J. Boril, of North Church street.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB PLANS.

The Plainfield Democratic Club decided at its regular meeting last night to proceed with its preliminary plan of education for arousing interest in the commission form of government. The organization has been agitating the subject for some time and it has now reached the stage where a progressive attitude is to be taken. Only a small amount of business was transacted, the bad weather holding down the attendance.

"MOTHERS' DAY."

"Mothers' Day" will be observed at the First Baptist church on Sunday, when an effort will be made to secure the attendance of all the mothers of the church and congregation, especially the aged and infirm, who cannot go to church regularly. All the members who have automobiles and other means of conveyance have been requested to make use of them in carrying out the plans for the day.

Connor Morris and Thomas McDonough have been guests of Miss Mary E. Salmon and Mrs. John Roach, of West Seventh street.

MRS. EDDY'S GIFT TO HER CHURCH STANDS

Son Loses Suit to Break Provision of Will.

Concord, N. H., May 8.—The supreme court of New Hampshire handed down a decision in the bill in equity of George W. Glover against Henry M. Baker, executor of the will of Glover's mother, Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy.

The court holds that the residuary clause of the will, giving most of the estate valued at $2,000,000 to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, "creates a valid trust."

The court says:

"Issues of fraud and undue influence in securing the will are not open in this proceeding.

"The residuary clause is not a gift to a church, but a gift for religious purposes, sustainable as a charitable trust."

An amendment may be filed by the plaintiffs, according to the decision, as should they be able to show that the bequest is for the pecuniary private profit of the church the trust would be void.

BIG FIRE IN PROVIDENCE.

Rubber Company's Storehouse and Lumber Yard on Fire—Loss, $600,000.

MOSQUITO WARNING COMES VIA NEWARK

Meadows Headquarters of Pest Army—Many "Wigglers" Killed in Elizabeth.

Newark, May 8.—Screens up! Warning has been issued by the Essex County Mosquito Extermination Commission that a stinging, singing army of culex cantata, meaning meadow mosquito, is today maneuvering on the Newark meadow training grounds, and by tonight or tomorrow at the latest Newark must face a vanguard of some hundreds of thousands of thirsty skeeters.

From the front comes the good news that already a tremendous victory has been won. The crop of salt marsh mosquitoes up to this time has been cut down ninety per cent., so the army of exterminators declare. This means that only ten per cent. of the number of pests that annoyed man and beast last year will come singing around this year.

This great work of extermination has been carried on by the state under the personal supervision of Hergan H. Brehne, executive officer in charge of the massacre, detailed at the New Brunswick experiment bureau. The 3,500 acres of Newark meadows was the scene of the slaughter.

Early in April Mr. Brehne and his forces took to the tall grass of the marshes, where the cowardly enemy lay in ambush. It was realized that without water they must perish and so 100,000 additional feet of ditches, 10 by 30 inches, were dug to drain the land wherein the skeeters had made their winter quarters. The Newark Board of Health sent reinforcements to clean out the old ditches, which had become clogged up, and then these ditches, which soon became filled with water, were thoroughly oiled.

The early crop of mosquitoes is known as the culex cantator. In great swarms they have been in the custom of reaching Newark in the latter part of April or the first of May. Mr. Brehne says the cold weather has been responsible for their advent being belated so far, but they were hatched all right on schedule time, in the latter part of last month.

Work on the salt marshes will be completed in the next two weeks, according to Mr. Brehne, and a total of 800,000 feet of ditches in the Newark meadows will be laid as the final resting place for the buzzers that would otherwise not have met their sad end until crushed by the heavy hand of some victim.

It is also promised that the migration from other sections will not be large. In the Frank's creek section, over in Kearny, which last season sent a htriving swarm to invade Essex, precautions have been taken by the Kearny Board of Health. It is said that 85 per cent. of the larvae in he creek have been killed off.

State funds are being used for the campaign in the Jersey City and Secaucus meadows, where 100,000 feet of additional ditches are being put in, making a total number of 400,000 feet. Just as soon as the skeeters flocked to these ditches for a bath they were doused with oil. The total loss which the mosquito world suffered in that locality so far is said to amount to ninety-five per cent. of its population.

Down in Elizabeth there was an enormous crop of "wigglers," according to reports, but eighty-five per cent. were slaughtered before they were old enough to say "mamma." The work on the Union county meadows cost the state $2,000. In concluding the summary of his activity so far Mr. Brehne said:

"The work by the state is still going on on the meadows in Essex, Hudson and Union counties, and in another two weeks conditions will be so that the Mosquito Commission will have easy sailing as far as the salt marshes are concerned, and Newark should be practically free of mosquitoes if the inland work in Essex county is properly done."

CHANCE TO GET GLASS EYE AT AUCTION SALE

Jersey City, May 8.—There was an opportunity for persons in need of a glass eye to get one at the postoffice this afternoon, when United States Marshal Thomas J. Alcott held a public auction of 13,960 good eyes and one broken one, seized as smuggled goods from Carl H. Schulze, of Hoboken, some time ago.

It is claimed that the eyes were brought to this country by Schulze from a little village in Germany where the inhabitants devote themselves to the industry.

For a month past the postoffice authorities in Jersey City have been fairly over run with inquiries about the eyes. There have been letters, telegrams and postal cards. Some people wanted to know the shade of the eyes, others the price, while a few grew humorous in their description of the imitation optics.

The eyes are to be sold in lots of a half dozen, and each lot will be a half dozen, and each lot will be made up of a variety of shades, so that the purchaser will be sure to get one that will match his good eye.

DRIVEN INSANE BY FLOOD TERROR

Many Starve to Death Before Help Comes.

SUFFERING IS TERRIBLE.

Marooned Victims Face Harrowing Trials as Angry Waters Whirl Them to Brink of Death—Governor Asks Mayors to Lend Financial Aid.

New Orleans, May 8.—This was a day of mingled hope and gloom in the flood swept section of Louisiana. For the first time in nearly a week there was practically no rain at the danger points, and the water soaked levees thus gained a partial respite, while the weary workers were able to carry on the struggle without discomfort.

When the official river gauge at the head of Canal street registered 21.5 feet weather officials were of the opinion that the Mississippi was near the crest of the greatest flood ever recorded in the valley.

The work of rescuing marooned persons in isolated districts progressed rapidly today, and boats coming into the concentration camps were loaded with women and children. Reports of terrible conditions were brought into Newroads, Lafayette, Opelousas, Baton Rouge and other places from points far in the interior.

A number of men and women were crazed with fear and hardship, while many others were so ill they had to be hurried to hospitals or given such temporary relief as surgeons on the rescue party could supply.

Harrowing Tales of Suffering.

Women with babies born since the flood swept down upon their homes, men and women fainting from hunger, crazed survivors fighting rescuers are some of the stories culled from the sad abundance of such incidents.

Governor Sanders telegraphed mayors of towns all over the state asking aid. It was reported that elaborate ceremonial of Governor Elect Hall's inauguration would be omitted and the funds used to help flood sufferers. Governor Sanders declined to accept a banquet from his personal staff, and the money for this banquet was forwarded to the relief committee.

As an example of the number of homeless in the section from Rosedale, Miss., to Natchez and from Arkansas City, Ark., to the Red river, 105,000 persons are shown to be absolutely dependent upon the government for rations.

NAVY TO AID DISTRESSED.

Three Vessels Ordered to Join In Mississippi Relief Work.

Washington, May 8.—By order of Secretary Meyer, the navy department will join in the work of relief in the flooded Mississippi valley. Captain Wood of the battleship Nebraska and Captain Dismukes of the gunboat Petrel, now near Vicksburg, were instructed to do all in their power to relieve the distress. The gunboat Isle de Luzon will also join in the work.

Reports from the army officers at work along the Mississippi state that torrential storms have added to the general misery. The river has risen four inches in twenty-four hours, and incalculable damage is threatened, the officers report, if it continues to rise.

MONUMENT FOR BUTT.

President's Aid Provided Plans and $500 For Erection of Stone.

Washington, May 8.—The will of Major Archibald W. Butt, late military aid to the president, one of the victims of the Titanic disaster, was offered for probate. It directs that he be buried in the Arlington National cemetery. Attached to the will are a blue print plan for a monument in Arlington. The sum of $500 is set aside for the monument. The will directs that this inscription be placed upon the monument:

"Archibald Willingham Butt, son of Joshua Willingham Butt and Amelia Robertson Butt of Augusta, Ga., born Sept. 26, 1865, captain and quartermaster in United States army."

NAMES REGICIDE PLOTTERS.

Man Who Tried to Kill Italy's King Betrays Accomplices.

Rome, May 8.—Dalba, the young man who attempted to murder King Victor Emmanuel some weeks ago, gave the police the names of two accomplices, Denelli and Diamantini.

The police arrested both men. Dalba divulged their names under the application of the third degree.

REWARD OFFERED FOR INHUMAN AUTO DRIVER

New Brunswick, May 8.—At the request of Prosecutor George S. Silzer, the Board of Freeholders adopted a resolution providing that a reward of $250 be offered for the capture and prosecution of the driver of the auto who ran down and killed Isidor Fedol, four years old, at Deans on May 1. The boy was crossing the street when he was knocked down and killed. The autoist failed to stop.

The car is said to have had a license tag of the State of Pennsylvania.

FAMOUS PHOTOGRAPHS.

Every American home is full of memories of the great Civil War that happened fifty years ago. The famous Brady War Pictures, lost for many years, worth a king's ransom, are now being placed within the reach of every reader of the paper. They are yours practically for the asking. When the Philadelphia North American heard of the magnificent undertaking, it at once determined to secure the prize for its readers, regardless of expense. Our plan is to issue each week, commencing Sunday, May 12, 1912, a complete section, containing from 40 to 150 photographs, representing important scenes, such as Bull Run, Shiloh, Corinth, Fredericksburg, Appomattox. These sections are printed on heavy white coated paper, and will continue for sixteen weeks, and can be obtained by securing a coupon issued with the Sunday North American and 10 cents, 15 cents by mail. Each section will be complete in itself. You can obtain one or all, just as you desire. In addition to the Brady photographs each section will contain one beautiful colored plate; that for Section No. 1 will be the battle of Bull Run. Don't fail to notify your newsdealer to save you a copy of the Sunday North American. There will be an extra demand for this and succeeding issues, and if you desire to secure this Pictorial History of the Civil War you will have to get busy at once.

Danish Lutheran service will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Swedish Pilgrim church, West Sixth and New streets, with preaching by Rev. N. H. Nyrap, of Brooklyn.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

We believe that the majority of taxpayers are dissatisfied with the Common Council as at present constituted. We believe that they are so displeased that should they be given the privilege of voting for the abolishment of that body and substituting in its place a commission form of government that the verdict would be in favor of the change. On Tuesday next, Elizabeth and Atlantic City, both of which municipalities are aroused against their present administrations of public affairs, will hold special elections on the proposition for the innovation. The commission plan means no waste of public funds, no extravagances, a sensible and practical administration by five men who will devote their whole time to the people's business each and every one of whom may be recalled when not in sympathy with the trend of public opinion. Although no organized opposition was made against the re-election of some of our councilmen last fall they narrowly escaped defeat at the polls. Were an election to be held tomorrow, we feel sanguine that the verdict would be for the dismissal of these servants. But what is needed is to get at the root of the evil. The only way to do that effectively is to inaugurate a government by commission.

Anything pertaining to the nation-wide fight against tuberculosis is of interest to the average man or woman. It follows that what is being done by the local league appeals to the people here and therefore their favorable attention will be attracted by the announcement that Ernest Eaton, secretary of the Newark Anti-Tuberculosis League, has consented to deliver an illustrated lecture here on "Open Air Schools." Mr. Eaton's talk, which will be illustrated by stereopticon views, will be given at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on Tuesday night, May 21, and the public is extended a cordial invitation to be present. "The Open Air School" idea is rapidly becoming popular. It has proven most satisfactory and beneficial wherever tried. Many otherwise well-informed citizens are lacking in knowledge concerning this health scheme for children. Mr. Eaton's lecture will serve to enlighten them.

Acting on the repeated recommendations of the President, the United States Senate has passed a workmen's compensation act as framed by its Employers' Liability Committee, one or two important amendments having been agreed upon before the bill went through. Briefly summarized, this measure provides an exclusive remedy and compensation for accidental disability or death to employees to railways engaged in interstate commerce on the theory of insuring each employee against the results of injury in employment without reference to contributory negligence or any of the common law rules limiting employers' liability. It goes further than that for there is a provision for medical service for the injured and means for money recovery, properly proportioned to the pay of the victim.

Mayor Moy has shown time and again that he will not permit the people's money to be wasted. The most recent instance was when he vetoed a resolution of the Common Council to engage the firm of Patterson, Teale and Dennis to audit the city's accounts for $1,500. He considered the price exorbitant as almost any business man naturally would. In a communication to the city fathers on Monday night the Mayor stated that he had received offers from expert accountants who pay taxes here and that one of these offered to do the work for $750, while another made a proposition to render similar service for $40 a day or in round figures $500 for the job.

The contributing editor for next Saturday will be a man who gave many years to the service of the city and under whose administrations many improvements were made. He will discuss a matter of public health, vitally interesting not alone to Plainfield but to the whole country. These Saturday contributed editorials from the pens of the foremost men of the community, have become so popular that it is needless to suggest that our readers peruse the next one.

Prior to Tuesday, May 21, members of district boards of elections, who have moved from the district or ward in which they resided last fall, are requested to inform the Union County Board of Elections of that fact to the end that their places may be filled from the eligible list furnished by the Civil Service Commission.

Do not neglect to attend the Common Council meeting on Wednesday night, May 22. Impress the city fathers with the fact that you want the city to make a contract for the disposal of garbage by your presence.

TO BAND TOGETHER TO AID Y. M. C. A. WORK

Councilmen Suggest That Club Be Formed to Pay Dues of Boys Who Want to Join

J. E. Kimball, president of the Y. M. C. A., has received the following letter from a member of the Common Council who takes an active interest in civic affairs and announces that if any citizens desires to join in the generous offer he will be pleased to hear from them:

"I had a seat in the gallery on Thursday evening last when the "College League" had their dinner, and was much interested in the addresses and the proceedings. Permit me to congratulate you on the marked success of the affair.

"My son has been a member of the Y. M. C. A. for nearly two years, and I am satisfied that the association has done much for him. With a father's pride I may say that in him you had good material to work on, but the gymnasium and the other work of the association has been beneficial.

"However, what I have said is not the purpose of this letter. I am sure that the Y. M. C. A. does much for the physical, mental and moral welfare of the boy. I learned a day or two ago of the case of a boy who had a longing to join the association, but whose parent, a widow, was unable to pay the necessary fees for his entrance. A charitable lady heard of it, supplied the means, and soon the habits and manners of the boy were so greatly improved that his mother had a new sense of joy and happiness.

"It has seemed to me that it would be a good idea if the men of Plainfield could be organized by your association into a club with the view of having each member pay into the association the dues of one, two or more boys who are hemselves able to pay, and then have the proper officer of association gather in the boys. I should not consider this a charity but rather a civic duty, as the more boys that we can train up in the way it is done in the association the better it will be for our community. But whether the club is feasible or not, I want to say that if your association will select two (2) boys, I will furnish the amount of their dues and supply them with the necessary gymnasium outfit and pay the rent of the lockers that may be required. I shall hope to be able to continue he payment of the dues for additional terms, but of course do not now feel that I should commit myself beyond the present year.

"If this proposition meets with the approval of your directors please consider it closed so far as I am concerned."

COFFEY OFF FOR EUROPE.

The police learned yesterday afternoon that Edward Coffey, the youth who escaped from the local station house a week ago, has left the country. Ever since the lad's disappearance the police have watched his chums and haunts closely and they came across a letter from him yesterday to a friend here in town. It stated that he had left on a steamship for Europe.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARADE. by Mrs. E. F. Feickert.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARADE

Why was anything as spectacular as a parade necessary? Because until that method of work was adopted, the general public refused to believe in either the quantity or quality of the workers for woman suffrage. In the face of all the quiet work that had been done in New York city, the hundreds of meetings that had been held and the large delegations which had gone to Albany to work for the movement, the "Times," one of the few actively anti-suffrage newspapers, evidently believed that a few ambitious, restless women were the only adherents of the cause, for it said after the parade of 1911, in which three thousand women and three hundred men marched, "We are now convinced that the suffrage organizations are composed of more than leaders." It took the parade to show them that there was a rank and file in the movement, soldiers behind the officers. The parade on last Saturday, in which there were sixteen thousand women and fourteen hundred men, must have been even more enlightening.

As to quality, the same paper is particularly agitated this year over the fact that the paraders were "all surely representative of good types of womanhood, for they were obviously healthy and appeared to be intelligent." Is that a good reason for being against the cause they represent? In addition to the marchers, there are many times sixteen thousand women working for equal suffrage who lacked the physical strength, the moral courage or the opportunity to march. If such a body of women are working for a cause, does it not indicate that they have a deeper motive than those ascribed to them by their detractors? The same reasons were given by the opponents of higher education for women. An educated woman would lose interest in household duties, in husband and children; she would become bold and brazen and seek to usurp the occupations and offices of men. Does anyone today expect such results from a college education for women?

The workers of today find the roughest of the work done for them, their path is prepared. Much of it has been cut and blasted out of the solid rock of public disapproval by the pioneer workers, Susan B. Anthony, Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucy Stone, Frances Willard and many others. Almost all of them are gone, but one is still with us, and she was in the parade on Saturday, the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, aged ninety-four. She was kept busy bowing and smiling in response to the hearty cheers and waving handkerchiefs which greeted her all along the line of march. Many descendants of the men and women who suffered abuse and villification for their support of the abolition of slavery were also among the paraders. Oswald Villard, whose grandfather was William Lloyd Garrison, marched with the men and Harriet Stanton who organized the parade is the daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

Consider too, the quality of many suffrage workers who are not supported by family tradition. Does anyone think that Jane Addams does not know what she is talking about when she says that the working woman needs the ballot more than anything else? Jane Addams is vice president of the National Woman Suffrage Association! And there are many others second only to her in the work which they accomplish for heir fellow women, Florence Kelley, Frances Squire Potter, Mrs. Simkhovitch, almost every woman in fact who is actively engaged in either educational or philanthropic work.

The fact that there were fourteen hundred men willing to brave the ridicule of eight hundred thousand people (which is a conservative estimate of those who saw the parade) is a notable thing. And such men! College professors, ministers of the gospel, Jewish rabbis, lawyers, writers, business men, almost without exception men of prominence in their respective walks of life, and without exception men whose presence on the firing line may well thrill the hearts of the women workers with admiration and thankfulness.

The suffrage workers today should be proud to work, and to suffer if need be, for such a cause. Every worth-while movement has had its sacrificial victims. "The blood of the martyr is the seed of the church." Beyond the natural fatigue from walking three miles, the paraders on Saturday endured no suffering. The whole great crowd greeted them with respect, and much of it with enthusiasm. Twenty members of the Plainfield League marched, and every one of them went home more enthusiastic than ever, and determined not only to march herself next year, but to bring her friends with her.

"Bloch" PULLMAN SLEEPERS 1912 Models

More than 20 years' experience is behind "Bloch" Baby Carriages; not only are they obviously the best in material and construction, but they are scientific in design. The importance of this would be better appreciated if more women knew how often infantile troubles are traceable to baby carriages of average construction. The "Bloch" Cradle gear gives that adequate support to the spring that means comfort and health combined.

"Bloch" Pullman Sleepers are finished in natural color, oak and white enamel; are made of the best quality reed, have sanitary removable cushions and seats; steel tubing pushers and heavy rubber tire wheels; you pay no more for "Bloch" Carriages than you do for any ordinary make.

The prices range from $16.50 to $45.00.

NO APPEAL COURT FOR THE METHODIST CHURCH

Minneapolis, Minn., May 8.—The plan to form anotherbody of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be known as the Court of Appeals was rejected yesterday by the General Conference. Discussion of the report of the Commission on Judicial Procedure, which was appointed four years ago, occupied the forenoon session. Dr. James R. Joy and Dr. H. K. Carroll, both of North Plainfield, N. J., took part in the debate. The question of the establishment of such an organization has been before the General Conferences of the Church practically for a century.

The commission in its report to the conference read yesterday recommended the establishment of such a body, with power to hear and determine all appeals. As planned, the court was to consist of three bishops, six ministers, and six laymen chosen by the General Conference. The General Conference now has the power to pass on all cases. Among those who spoke yesterday in favor of establishing such a court was Judge Thomas H. Anderson, Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

Helena, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Kansas City probably are the places where Episcoral residences will be established. Other cities which are making a close race for resident Bishops are Cleveland and Bismarck, N. D. With the establishment of four or five new episcopacies, it is said the conference at the present session will be forced to elect at least ten Bishops.

E. V. LORTON, TREASURER.

Orange, May 8.—In its tenth annual convention here yesterday the New Jersey State Building Trades Council elected the following officers. President, John T. Cosgrove, of Elizabeth; vice president, J. P. Holland, of Jersey City; secretary, Jesse W. Davis, of Perth Amboy; treasurer, Eugene V. Lorton, of Plainfield. The convention decided to adopt a universal working card to be good in all parts of the State. It adopted a resolution for the restriction of immigration. In his annual report President Cosgrove favored industrial training for the inmates of the State Reformatory and industrial courses in the public schools.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

FRUIT CHARLOTTES.

A CHARLOTTE is a fruit or cream preparation poured into a mold with a cake lining. It is delicious.

Strawberry Charlotte.—Take lady fingers, split them and use enough to line a dish capable of holding a quart of strawberries. After lining the dish with cake place a layer of berries on the bottom of it and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Cover with whipped cream, then put in another layer of berries, well sugared, and more stiffly whipped cream until the dish is full. Garnish the top with berries. Stand on ice until it is to be served.

A Nice Dessert.

Orange Charlotte.—Take a third of a cup of cold water, a third of a cup of boiling water, a third of a box of gelatin, a cup of sugar, the juice of a lemon, the pulp and juice of an orange and the whites of three eggs. Soak the gelatin in cold water, then add the boiling water, the sugar and lemon juice. After straining add the orange with a dash of the grated rind. Set the mixture in a pan of cold water and beat when it begins to get cold. Then add the beaten whites of eggs and whip the mixture until it is stiff enough to drop into a mold lined with split lady fingers or sponge cakes. Garnish with whipped cream.

Bread Instead of Cake.

Baked Apple Charlotte.—Cut some slices of bread about a quarter of an inch thick, butter them on both sides and lay some of them at the bottom of a well buttered pie dish. Fill the dish with apples, cored and sliced; add brown sugar to taste, two cloves and the juice of a lemon. Put more buttered slices of bread on the top of the apples. Cover them with apple peelings to prevent their burning. Put the dish in a moderate oven for a couple of hours. At the time of serving remove the apple peelings.

Dainty Cakes.

Almond Charlotte.—Beat four eggs, whites and yolks separately first and then together. Sift together one cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt, one-half teaspoonful grated chocolate, one cupful sifted flour and a teaspoonful of almond extracts. Add the eggs. Pour in tins greased and floured and bake for thirty minutes in a hot oven. When cold cut circles in the tops of each cake. Scoop out the crumbs and fill with thick whipped cream flavored with vanilla. Replace the circles of cake lightly on the cream and the cakes are ready to serve.

Woman's World

Mrs. Carpenter, Candidate For President of Women's Federation.

MRS. PHILIP CARPENTER.

Mrs. Philip Carpenter of New York city and Mrs Percival Pennypacker of Texas are the two opposing candidates for the presidency of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Carpenter has been nominated as the candidate of Sorosis, the mother of clubs, an association of 15,000 women representing the national club movement.

In honor of the New York candidate a special train de luxe on June 12 will carry the delegates to the coast convention, which will be held in San Francisco on June 25.

Mrs. Carpenter has twice served Sorosis as chief executive and has been president of the New York State federation.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S PLANS.

She May Set Up a Court of Her Own at Marlborough House.

Queen Alexandra may have a court of her own at Marlborough House this season after the second anniversary of King Edward's death has passed.

She is already having some of the larger rooms redecorated and refurnished, and she has told the ladies in her entourage that she means to lighten her mourning and take up public life again. She appeared at a Queen's hall concert a few days ago attended by a large suit, and the storm of cheers which greeted her brought tears of pleasure.

She has always reveled in the enthusiasm with which her subjects acknowledged her presence and rejoices in the fact that even now she is far more popular than her daughter-in-law, Queen Mary, who is merely greeted by respectful salutes and a few subdued cheers.

The queen mother also intends to appear regularly at the opera. She will sometimes share the royal box with her son and his wife, but more often she will be accompanied by Princess Victoria and some members of her suit, for King George and Queen Mary are not ardent music lovers and are not seen at Covent Garden more than four or five times during the season. And then the two royal ladies are not congenial enough to wish to be together more than they can help.

Queen Alexandra resents being supplanted in her position as first lady in the land, and Queen Mary disapproves of her mother-in-law's amazingly youthful appearance and beauty, as well as her frivolity and love of dress and jewels.

What Women Are Doing.

Miss Grace Wishaar is said to be the only woman theatrical scene painter in the world. She began her career as the assistant of a man scene painter and was so successful that she went into the business for herself.

Miss Italia Garibaldi, granddaughter of the Italian patriot, is investigating the condition of Italians in this country for the purpose of making a report to the General Council of Italian Women, a philanthropic organization headed by the queen of Italy. Miss Garibaldi has visited the Italian settlements of New York, Brooklyn, Newark and the vicinity. She will soon begin a tour of the west, visiting settlements in all the large cities. Miss Garibaldi conducts a school for girls, in which the daughters of the poorest families are taught useful employments. Assisted by her mother, she recently opened a dispensary and hospital at Capri for the poor and also equipped and turned over to the army a hospital at a seaside village in which sick soldiers can receive treatment.

Said About Womankind.

Nature has given beauty to women which can resist shields and spears. She who is beautiful is stronger than iron and flame.—Anacreon.

Modesty in women has great advantages. It enhances beauty and serves as a veil to uncomeliness.—Jean Gaspard Dubois Fontanelle.

The destiny of women is to please, to be amiable and to be loved.—Rochebrune.

Men would be saints if they loved God as they love women.—St. Thomas.

PRINCETON SEMINARY IS HUNDRED YEARS OLD

Princeton, May 8—Elaborate exercises marking the centennial celebration of Princeton Theological Seminary were continued in Alexander Hall Monday. The exercises were begun Sunday in the First Presbyterian church with a notable sermon by the institution's president, Rev. Dr. Francis Landey Patton.

Monday's program included the academic procession under Marshal Kerr Duncan Macmillan; the addresses to the graduating class by Rev. Dr. Ethelbert Dudley Warfield, president of the seminary's board of directors, and by Dr. Patton; announcements of fellowships and prizes, conferring of degrees and several other addresses.

More than 500 of the alumni are back for the celebration, and more than 200 delegates from other institutions are here.

Rev. Dr. Daniel Freeman, of New York, of the class of '47, the oldest living graduate, was present at the opening.

Other notables present include three moderators of the general assembly, the moderators of the general assemblies of the Church of Scotland, the United Free Church of Scotland, the Free Church of Scotland and the Free Church of Ireland.

Among the twenty-three foreign seminaries represented are those in England, Canada, Scotland, Ireland, Japan, China, India, Africa, Syria, Turkey, Brazil, Mexico and Halifax.

HOUR'S COURTING LEADS TO DOUBLE MARRIAGE

Jersey City, May 8.—One wedding of a couple who became engaged after knowing each other for about an hour led to a second marriage. The ceremonies took place at the parsonage of the West Side Avenue Methodist church. Rev. George W. Gardner officiated.

It was Miss Amelia Harrole, of Yonkers, and James Forbes, of 32 Mallory avenue, this city, who plighted their troth after an hour's acquaintance. Miss Anna Cogan, a cousin of Mr. Forbes, of the Mallory avenue address, and William Shanporoi, of 151 Culver avenue, were the second couple wed.

Miss Cogan invited Miss Harrole, an old schoolmate, to visit her Friday night. Mr. Forbes and Miss Harrole met for the first time that evening. Within an hour he had proposed and been accepted. They decided to be married Saturday morning, but had to wait twenty-four hours to get a license.

Miss Cogan was then told and spoke of the marriage to Mr. Shanporoi, whom she had known for several years. Mr. Shanporoi suggested that they too get married.

FALL FATAL TO HOPPOCK.

Washington, May 8.—Injuries received in a fall on April 27, at which time his left hip was broken, proved fatal to Samuel Hoppock. Pneumonia developed and caused his death. He was seventy-one years old and was born in Pattenberg. A widow, who was formerly Miss Amanda Gulick, of Mt. Bethel, survives, with these children: Mrs. Casper Sutton, of Port Murray; Mrs. Frank Woolley, of Beattystown, and Louis Hoppock, of Washington. These brothers and sister also survive: Mrs. Mary A. Rinehart, of Bridgeton; Peter Hoppoch, of Norton; William Hoppock, of Middle Valley; Nathan Hoppoch, of Port Murray, and Joseph Hoppoch, of Dakota. Rev. Dr. F. L. West will conduct the funeral this afternoon. Burial will be in the Port Murray Baptist cemetery.

BOSS PLUMBERS GIVE IN.

Red Bank, May 8.—The Red Bank Plumbers' Union has been successful in its fight for more wages and closed shops, the employing plumbers having acceeded to its demands at a conference Saturday night. The bosses say that the increased amount of work, due to the influx of summer cottages, impelled them to grant the union's request. The union asked for a raise in the daily wage from $3.50 to $4, and that none but union men be employed. Although agreeing to pay the increase, the bosses at first declined to make their shops strictly union. A number of out of town plumbers were hired, but their work is said in many instances to have been unsatisfactory. Monday the union plumbers returned to work. About forty men had been out for two weeks.

EYE PUT OUT BY GOLF BALL.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., May 8.—John F. Whalen, of Chester Hill, an officer of the United Cigar Stores Company, while playing golf Monday on the Siwanoy Country Club links, drove a ball into a tree. The ball rebounded, striking Mr. Whalen in the face and splitting the left eyeball. The eye will have to be removed. Mr. Whalen is a brother of George J. Whalen, of East Front street, Plainfield, the president of the United Cigar Stores Company.

BOY DIES OF TYPHOID.

Summit, May 8.—Typhoid fever caused the death Monday of Allen Gallagher, nine years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Gallagher, of Mountain avenue. It was thought at first that the fatal illness might have been caused by impure milk, but it was said at the house yesterday morning that the milk had been analyzed and found pure. Mr. Gallagher is president of the Young Men's Christian Association. Funeral services were held at the Gallagher home last evening.

ORGANIZE FOR CANAL INQUIRY

Godfrey Made Temporary Chairman of Commission.

HEARINGS OPEN TO PUBLIC

With Nine Original Appointees Present the New Commission to Investigate the Morris Canal Abandonment Proposition Met For Organization.

Trenton, N. J., May 8.—With nine of the original appointees present the new commission to investigate the Morris canal abandonment proposition met for organization at the statehouse. Assemblyman Carlton Godfrey was made temporary chairman, and Assemblyman Stickel of Essex county temporary secretary. They were made permanent.

Mr. Stickel read the resolution under which the commission was appointed, after which the meeting was thrown open for discussion among the members as to how the work assigned to it should be undertaken.

John I. Blair Reiley moved that all meetings and hearings of the commission be open to the public. Mr. Stickel inquired whether this resolution was not so broad as to prevent private discussions which might be desirable. Mr. Westcott joined with Mr. Reiley in advocating the utmost publicity. The motion was carried unanimously after it had been pointed out that it would not preclude conferences.

In furtherance of the policy of economy Chairman Godfrey suggested that steps be taken to obtain from the various departments, notably the state board of assessors, all the data and information they have without cost. The surveys and maps of the assessor, he thought, would be of particular value.

It was just prior to the meeting of the commission that it became known that Attorney General Wilson, a member of the former commission, had made up his mind not to serve on the new commission.

Although any authoritative announcement of the attorney general's action was withheld for the time in the hope that he might be induced to alter his decision, the report was confirmed in such a manner as to leave no doubt of its accuracy. The governor endeavored to reach the attorney general by telephone prior to the time for the commission's meeting.

There was also a report current that the governor was having difficulty in securing the services of the men he wanted on the commission, and it was hinted that other threatened withdrawals were imminent.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Been pretty lean pickin's for the baseball man for a couple of days again.

More postponed games that will add to the large number of double-headers already chalked up in the league.

But we'll hope for good weather on Saturday when Plainfield will be full of games.

On that day the Manufacturers' League will start the ball rolling. Keep that in mind.

Jack Martin has been home recuperating for a day or so. He was taken ill in last Friday's Athletic game.

Hand and Slocum were in town yesterday, leaving in the afternoon for New York to join their team in the U. S. League.

Columbia holds Scholastic Day next Saturday. Over 300 boys have entered the games.

At the balloon race scheduled for June, Dartmouth, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Williams and Virginia have entered teams.

"Bugs" Raymond is trying to pitch for the Chicago club of the U. S. League. His trial on Monday was not a very warm one.

Manager Wolverton predicts that the Yanks have shaken the jiux, and that they are going to start something against the western invaders.

They are still a long way from the top and can afford to start soon.

"Brown and Brown of the Browns" sound funny, but it is easily desciphered. It means that there are two pitchers, A. Brown and C. Brown, on the St. Louis team, brown as the Browns.

The use of oxygen has been barred by the Olympic committee in the games this summer. They consider it a drug.

Hall Chase is ill in a New York Sanitarium.

Leon Ames in his first League game pitched masterful and lifted out two hits.

Charley Victory Faust, the jiux chaser, still hangs around New York in hopes that McGraw will change his mind.

So far it doesn't look as tho the jiux was troubling the little Napoleon very much.

The Giants have won twelve of the last thirteen games played.

Manager Bogardus has a husky looking combination judging by Saturday's game with Cranford. They will have to play ball every minute to keep even with last year's record.

Carroll Taylor, who broke his leg in the Borough-City High School game last Saturday, is getting along nicely, but will be compelled to remain in the house for some time to come.

When Johnny Kling made his debut as manager of the Boston Nationals in Chicago, Monday, all the Cubs stuck close to the bags. They knew what Johnny could do and took no chances.

Boys who are interested in taking long tramps should join Mr. Ostlin's "Hiking Club" at the Y. M. C. A.

Manager Alberts, of the Scotch Plains team, lost Hand after all.

Just a little bon mot: The New York team of the U. S. League should take a "Hand" in winning a game or two now. I'm coming, officer.

PARK VIEW ATTRACTION AT WESTFIELD OPENER

Westfield, May 8.—The Westfield Baseball Club will open its season Saturday afternoon, May 18, at Recreation Park, meeting the Park Views, of Newark. A street parade will precede the game at the park, the players being headed by a brass band. Manager Edward F. Flynn, of Newark, who has had long experience as a leader of baseball teams, has, it is believed, gotten together a fast team to represent Westfield. Jack Kurfess, of the Summit club, will captain the team and play second base. Hass, of the Madisons, will play first base. Evans, the clever Orange shortstop, will appear at the same position for the Westfields. Jake Ulrich, who is regarded in Newark as one of the best third basemen playing the position in that vicinity, will be at third base for the Westfield team. Left field will be looked after by Tommy McAuliffe, of last year's Roseville team, of Newark. Gus Lang, the hard-hitting Ironside outfielder, will be in centre field. Kull, also of the Ironsides, is to appear in right field.

Scotty Waters, who was the leading twirler for the Rosevilles, of Newark, last season, will do the bulk of the pitching for the Westfields. Tom Gallon, who gained fame as a catcher for Seton Hall, will be a backstop for the Westfields. This combination is believed to be a fast one. Should the Westfields enter the Union County League they would doubtless make a good showing.

The Park Views have made a good showing in Newark, where they are regarded as one of the best semi-professional aggregations in that vicinity. Several Newarkers will doubtless come down to give Manager Flynn encouragement in his new enterprise.

PRINCETON'S FOOTBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Princeton, May 8.—Princeton's 1912 football schedule, delayed for many weeks because of arrangements in connection with the Princeton-Dartmouth game next fall, was announced today by Manager F. Eberstadt, '13. The ten game schedule of last season has been shortened to nine games, one of the two Wednesday contests being omitted. The Harvard game at Cambridge in November is the only contest on foreign territory, an unusual feature of the Princeton schedule.

Stevens will help inaugurate the season on September 28, and Rutgers on October 2, will be the only Wednesday game next fall.

On October 12 the stiffer end of the schedule will start with Virginia Polytechnic Institute. This eleven has not been met since 1908, when Princeton had a close call, though winning through a field goal by Cunningham. Syracuse, after an absence of three years when the Tigers were played to a standstill and a tie score, will appear on October 19. The Dartmouth game, tentatively scheduled for New York city, will be played in Princeton on October 26.

The Princeton faculty has opened two out of town trips for the Tiger football men. Harvard will be met at Cambridge on November 2, and will be followed on November 8 by New York University. The New Yorkers have formerly occupied an early season place on the Tiger schedule, but this year will prove the preliminary morsel to the Yale game, which closes the season here on November 16.

The complete schedule follows:

September 28—Stevens at Princeton.

October 2—Rutgers at Princeton; 5—Lehigh at Princeton; 12—Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Princeton; 19—Syracuse at Princeton, 26—Dartmouth at Princeton.

November 2—Harvard at Cambridge; 9—New York University at Princeton; 16—Yale at Princeton.

SUNDAY GAMES.

The Red Stars would like to arrange games with teams averaging 15 to 16 years for Sundays only. Address William Murphy, Jr., 180 North avenue.

PATERSON TEAM HERE NEXT SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Manager Dorflinger announces that the Paterson team will be the attraction at the Oval next Saturday afternoon at the usual time and price. This is the team that was a member of the Hudson River League in the old days.

The Plainfield team will present the same front that went against the Chathams last Saturday afternoon. Frederickson will do the twirling and Walt Nelson will mitt the shoots. The rest of the stations will be filled in the usual manner.

ROYAL GIANTS TO OPEN WITH NETHERWOOD A. C.

The Royal Giants will open their season one week from next Saturday with the Netherwood A. C. on their home grounds at Filmore and North avenues, in the East End. The Royals will line-up with: Slocum, 1b; Jackson, 2b; Green, 3b; Garner, ss; Simmons, rf; Coleman, cf; Sanderson, lf; Jones, c; Hall or Kline, p.

The Royals desire to arrange games with the West Ends, North Plainfield A. C., Y. M. C. A. and teams of like calibre. Address P. J. Simmons, 12 Madison avenue. 'Phone 1988-W.

PRINCETON PREPARES FOR COLLEGE CHAMPIONSHIP

Princeton, May 8.—With the first of the duo of Penn games to their credit, the Tigers will prepare for the last lap in the intercollegiate baseball championship with some severe work this week. Yesterday's practise was light, as the field was in poor condition on account of rain. Brown will hit Tigertown today, and a hard game is expected. Princeton got away with the first game at Providence, but by a very narrow margin. The Brown pitcher, Conzelman, is a dangerous man, and the Tiger batters have a very wholesome respect for him. Cornell will be the home team's opponent next Saturday, which is Inauguration Day for Princeton.

It is a cause of no little anxiety as to whether Pendleton will be in condition to play against Brown, and even against Cornell. A severe accident last year kept the football star out of the game, and nothing could cause Tiger baseball fans more worry than an indication that he is going to be kept out for any length of time this spring. Pendleton hurt himself by pulling a tendon in his leg last Friday. Kenne Fitzpatrick had him out trying the hundred in his running clothes, intending to start him in the meet against Cornell. It seems that Pendleton, having a high rank as a student, has received some special permission from the faculty to take part in the Cornell meet, as by stretching the rule that no man shall play on more than two teams, which go out of town, he could be allowed to run against the Ithacans. Pendleton can go the hundred in less than ten seconds, and in his prep school days he beat out Rector, of Pennsylvania, at this distance.

Lear, in the box, has proved the find of the season, and he came at a most opportune time. It took him a long time to "arrive," but when he did he made good with a bang. Penn was helpless before his delivery last Saturday, and he held the Brown and Cornell batters in the same style. The whole team works more smoothly behind Lear than it does behind any other of the boxmen, if one can judge by a comparison of the error columns.

The Tiger infield is rounding out gradually. Pendleton was at short for a long while, and then when he was moved, it took a week or so for the infield to thaw out. White went over to short and Shaw took Sam's place at second.

YOUNG'S DAYS NUMBERED.

It now looks as if old Cy. Young's days as a twirler in the big leagues are numbered. The trusty right arm of the "Grand Old Man" has gone lame for the first time in his career. As it now stands, Cy. is unable to throw a swift ball, and President Ward, of the Boston Nationals, which club Young is signed with, is willing to part with the veteran. Early in the spring Young went to Hot Springs to boil out, and later reported to his club at Augusta, Ga. He returned to Boston with the team and shortly afterward his arm went lame. At the present time Young is at home in Peoli, O., and unless his arm responds to treatment it is likely that he will be let go by Boston, notwithstanding the fact that Manager Johnny Kling is anxious to give the veteran another trial.

WILSON 186 DELEGATES AND CHAMP CLARK 140

Gov. Wilson now has 186 delegates to the National Convention to 140 for Champ Clark, according to the assertion made yesterday at Trenton by State Chairman Grosscup. This total, he said, does not include the ten North Dakota delegates, who are expected to support Gov. Wilson after a complimentary ballot to Gov. Burke.

Mr. Grosscup said that the list of Wilson delegates was made up as follows: Delaware, 6; Maine, 12; Pennsylvania, 76; Illinois, 2; Oklahoma 10; Oregon, 10; Wisconsin, 2; Texas, 40, and Porto Rico, 6.

RED CROSS CONVENTION OPENS IN WASHINGTON

Washington, May 8.—With representatives from a score of nations attending the ninth international Red Cross conference was formally opened yesterday in the Pan-American Union building. It is the first international gathering in five years.

Senator Elihu Root made the address of welcome in place of President Taft, who is out of the city, and Ambassador Dagama, of Brazil welcomed the delegates on behalf of the South America countries. Gustav Ador, chairman of the permanent International Red Cross Committee, responded.

The delegates later in the day visited the Red Cross exhibition hall. A reception in the Pan-American Union building was held at 9 o'clock last night.

WILSON ACADEMY BURNS; ALL THE STUDENTS ESCAPE

Somerville, May 8.—The Wilson Military Academy at Finderne, two miles east of here, was destroyed by fire, which started in a bedroom of one of the students early yesterday. All the inmates escaped.

The fifty-five students carried out a lot of valuable personal property from the west end of the building which was occupied by Captain J. Wilson and his family.

The tuition of the students will be abandoned for the present and they will be sent to their homes. The academy was under the direction of Captain Wilson, a retired army officer.

The building was a large frame structure constructed a few years ago for a summer hotel by John C. Shaw, a lawyer of New York city, at a cost of $150,000. The fire started in the east end of the structure. The students and other inmates were routed out of their beds by the taps and fire drill. The students were mustered on the lawn, while the building was still burning, and a roll call showed that all had been rescued.

But few of the inhabitants of Somerville or Bound Brook were aware of the fire until they awoke at the usual house yesterday morning, and neither of the fire departments of the two towns offered any assistance.

—"Every man has his price," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, and it generally about twice what he is worth," added the Simple Mark.

WILL PUBLISH QUESTIONS IN ELECTION BOARD EXAMS

Trenton, May 8 (Special).—Following the course adopted last year, the State Civil Service Commission yesterday afternoon decided to publish a complete list of questions to be asked in the civil service examinations for election officers. The tests are soon to be begun.

Ten questions will be selected from the list for each examination, and as there are 103 questions all together, it will be necessary for the candidates to be familiar with all the questions on the list in order to be able to give the correct answers. The Commission believes as it did last year, namely, that a knowledge of the answers to all the questions asked will be especially comprehensive to qualify any persons for the ordinary duties of an election officer.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHITE WOULD BE STATE SENATOR

Trenton, May 8 (Special).—Assemblyman Blanchard H. White, of Burlington county, who was one of the politicians that Governor's Day brought to the State House yesterday, announced himself as a candidate for State Senator to succeed Griffith W. Lewis. Mr. Lewis' term will expire this year and his successor will be chosen at the election next November.

Mr. White is serving his third term in the Assembly and thinks now he is entitled to the promotion to the Senate. He declared yesterday afternoon that he proposed to wage an active campaign for the nomination and thought that he would win the place on the ticket. He was born in Burlington county and resides in Mount Holly. He is a lawyer.

TO CAMP AT SEA GIRT; 2D REGT. TO MT. GRETNA

By the War Department ordering the entire New Jersey National Guard into active work for the summer maneuvers Governor Wilson has signed the order which for the first time in the history of the Sea Girt grounds none of the troops will be in camp there this year.

The maneuvers in the vicinity of New York will take place from August 10 to August 26, and the First, Fourth and Fifth infantry, First and Second troops cavalry with Battery E, with the signal corps, as well as the First Hospital corps, will take part.

The Second and Third infantry will be sent to the Mount Gretna maneuvers from July 15 to July 24, thus completing the summer tour of service for the Jersey troops, which will be ten days this year instead of the customary week at Sea Girt.

The customary rifle matches and practice will be held at Sea Girt as usual, and as the troops will have to go down to the shore in addition to the maneuvers the cost to the State will be much more this year than for many years past, but the government believes the additional benefits will more than offset the extra cost.

TAFT ON LAST LAP OF RACE IN OHIO

President Puts Up Hardest Fight of Campaign.

FINDS HE MUST WIN STATE

Two Suffragettes Try to Corner Him on Their Problem, but He Sidesteps Wait Till After Chicago Convention He Tells Them.

Cincinnati, May 8.—President Taft is putting up a desperate fight to win Ohio. It is generally conceded that if he loses his native state there will be a stampede to Roosevelt. He is now on his final tour of the state.

Bright and early he left Cincinnati at 6 o'clock in the morning and was scheduled to make fourteen speeches. He began at Batavia and will end at Columbus. The principal address will be at Memorial hall in Columbus tonight.

The campaign in Ohio between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt for the forty-eight delegates to the Chicago convention will be more bitterly contested than the recent political fights in Massachusetts and Maryland. That Taft must win in Ohio to get the nomination is the general feeling.

President Taft, while resting quietly at the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft, received Mrs. Ricketts Snell and Mrs. Sarah Falconer, two active suffragettes, who wanted to ascertain the president's views on woman suffrage.

"The president told us," said Mrs Snell, "that if we write to him after the Republican convention in Chicago in June asking for a statement on the woman suffrage question he will give it to us. He said that he could not properly give his views at this time."

Last night the president attended the musical festival and later was the guest of Lawrence Maxwell at an informal supper at the Queen City club.

Mr. Taft declined to comment upon the result of the Maryland primaries.

BRYAN ATTACKS HARMON.

"Can't Win," Asserts "Peerless One." La Follette to Enter Ohio.

Columbus, O., May 8.—Colonel William J. Bryan continued his tour of Ohio and addressed twenty-six meetings. He again attacked Governor Harmon as Wall street's candidate.

"Harmon and Underwood are working hand in hand to defeat the progressive cause," he said. Continuing he said:

"Ohio Democrats should vote against Governor Harmon in the primaries May 21 because his heart is wrong, and he is not working for the interests of the struggling masses. He can't win."

Governor Harmon intends taking the stump in this state next week and answer the charges of Colonel Bryan.

It was announced that Senator La Follette would speak at Cleveland, Columbus and Toledo.

TEXAS RETURNS BELATED.

Roosevelt and Wilson Leading in the County Conventions.

Dallas, Tex., May 8.—Returns from fifty-nine counties where Republican county conventions were held show the following result:

Roosevelt, 22; Taft, 17; uninstructed, 10; split delegations or contests, 6.

Four of the fifty-nine counties reported no conventions held.

Seventy-six counties where Democratic conventions were held show these results:

There are 244 counties in Texas.

ROOSEVELT SMILING.

"It Went Right," His Comment on Result in Maryland.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 8.—Colonel Roosevelt showed by his smile that the Maryland result had been quite satisfactory.

"It went right," he said.

William Ward was one of his callers. Other visitors were Amos Pinchot, Judge Duell, Eli Hooker, the Roosevelt treasurer; Dean Kirchway of the Columbia Law school, John Galesworthy, the author, and John Lane, a London publisher.

UNDERWOOD LEADS WILSON.

Wins Preference in Mississippi, According to Early Returns.

Jackson, Miss., May 8.—Oscar Underwood led Governor Woodrow Wilson in the Democratic preference primaries. The race was fairly close and, due to slowness of returns, which in many sections are held back by the floods, the result may remain in doubt until late today.

Only the names of Underwood and Wilson appeared on the ballots. Little interest was displayed anywhere.

WASHINGTON FOR CLARK.

Effort to Stampede Democratic Convention For Bryan Fails.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 8.—The state Democratic convention indorsed Champ Clark as its candidate for president. The vote stood: Clark, 455; Bryan 12½, Wilson 106, Harmon 1½.

Previous to the vote and during its progress an attempt was made to stampede the convention for W. J. Bryan, but it was unsuccessful.

OFFICIAL MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union was held at the Courthouse, Elizabeth, New Jersey, on Thursday, April 4, 1912, at 2:30 p. m. Director Cady and all members present.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur, the reading of the minutes of meeting held March 7, 1912, were dispensed with, and they were approved as per printed copies on members' desks.

Communications.

A communication from the Charity Organization Society of Elizabeth, N. J., requesting the Board to appoint a committee to consider the question of patroling men arrested for desertion and non-support rather than place them in jail, was received and ordered placed on file.

Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County:

Gentlemen—At the last regular meeting of the Council of the Town of Westfield, held April 1, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The new State road known as Springfield avenue has diverted a large amount of traffic to Broad street, thereby causing undue wear thereon, which, together with the severe weather conditions, has placed said Broad street in immediate need of reconstruction; be it

Resolved, That the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union county be and they are hereby requested to accept said Broad street from Chestnut street to Springfield avenue, in the Town of Westfield, as a county road, and to proceed to improve the same as soon as possible.

Yours very truly,

CHARLES CLARK, Town Clerk.

On motion by Freeholder Smith, this request was referred to the County Road Committee.

A communication from Frank Marienschek, complaining as to the condition of Jefferson avenue, Plainfield, and requesting that certain repairs be made to same, was read, and on motion by Freeholder Gruener this request was referred to the County Road Commitee.

To the Board of Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your petitioner, The Westfield Avenue Association, respectfully shows that the members of said association are the owners of property fronting on Westfield avenue between Morris avenue and Bayway; that the present telford pavement of said avenue is in a very bad condition of repair, and it is necessary that a new pavement should be laid; that said Westfield avenue is a county road, and your petitioner is informed that it is the intention of your Honorable Board to cause a new pavement to be laid in said avenue for a width less than one-half of the total width of the roadway between curb lines, and your petitioner and the members of said association are very desirous that said pavement should be extended for the full width of said roadway, and believe that the character of the property along said avenue, and the amount of travel over the same is of such a character as to require the whole width of said roadway to be repaved.

Your petitioner further shows that prior to the year 1878, a wooden block pavement was laid in said avenue by the City of Elizabeth; that the cost thereof was assessed upon the property fronting along said improvement, and the assessments have been satisfied, that subsequently said wooden pavement deteriorated and decayed to such an extent as to be utterly worthless, and thereafter the said avenue came under the authority and control of the Board of Freeholders of the County of Union and said board caused a telford pavement to be laid in said avenue for a width of sixteen (16) feet from Bayway to Morris avenue; that on the block between Cherry and Chilton streets, the property-owners, at their own expense, paid the entire cost of extending said pavement for the full width of the roadway from curb to curb; that said avenue was afterward relinquished by the Board of Freeholders as a county road and came again under the authority and control of the City of Elizabeth, and recently said avenue has been made a county road for the second time.

Your petitioner prays that your Honorable Board will cause the new payment to be laid in said Westfield avenue to be constructed therein of a width of at least twenty-six (26) feet in order that the property-owners along said highway may be encouraged to take proceedings according to law to secure the extension of the width of said pavement for the full width of thirty-six (36) feet, being the distance between curb lines, for which expense of pavement of the additional distance of ten feet is liable to be assessed upon the property fronting along said avenue. Your petitioner shows that on account of the cost of the previous pavements to said property-owners, as above mentioned, it is unfair and unjust to require said property-owners to pay for any new pavement for a greater width or distance than ten feet, and your petitioner prays that your Honorable Body will give this matter consideration and will cause the new pavement to be laid at the expense of the county for the full width of twenty-six feet, or that your Honorable Body will give your petitioner such other relief as will be just under the circumstances.

Dated April 3, 1912.

WESTFIELD AVENUE ASSOCIATION.

By Allen N. Lukens, Chairman.

Raymond Foster, Secretary.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener, this request was referred to the County Road Committee.

S. P. T. WILBUR,
AARON D. CRANE,
Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this report was received and ordered placed on file.

April 4, 1912.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on two bridges at Westfield would report that the places where the bridges are required have been visited and your committee would make the following recommendations:

It is recommended that the present small wooden bridge on Prospect street, near Brightwood avenue, be replaced with a new concrete reinforced bridge, to be about ninety feet in length by three feet span, and to cost not more than $600.

Regarding the bridge on Highland avenue, near Dudley avenue, we recommend that a new bridge be built along the gutter of the street, and across the same, about 180 feet in length, and three feet wide, at a cost not to exceed the sum of $1,250.

Signed by the committee,
JOSEPH PERRY,
PETER H. MEISEL,
J. HERVEY DOANE.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

Re. Martine Avenue Bridge, Fanwood, N. J.

April 4, 1912.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on this bridge would report that the present bridge is of wood construction, on loosely laid stone abutments. It is in need of great repairs.

Your committee would recommend that it be replaced with a new concrete and steel bridge, thirty-five feet long by eight and one-half feet span, to cost not more than $500.

Signed by the committee.
J. LOGAN FAY,
P. H. MEISEL,
BURTON P. HALL.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were adopted unanimously.

April 4, 1912.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on bridge on Plainfield avenue, New Providence Township, over Green Brook, would report that it is necessary in our opinion to construct a new bridge of concrete and steel, somewhat longer than at present, at this place.

The bridge is a line bridge between this county and Somerset county, and we would recommend that a new bridge be built, as stated, the cost not to exceed the sum of $550 of which only one-half, or $275 of the total cost, shall be paid by the county of Union.

Signed by the committee,
BRADFORD JONES,
GEO. G. TELLER,
WM. H. RANDOLPH.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was receivd and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

April 4, 1912.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above-named work would report that it has made an examination of the site of the proposed culvert, and would recommend the construction of a new culvert of concrete and expanded metal. The stream should be straightened somewhat in the roadway and immediately below the same, so as to allow of the new work being done at right angles to the roadway.

Your committee is of the opinion that the cost of the work will not exceed the sum of $400.

Signed by the committee,
AARON D. CRANE,
GEO. G. TELLER.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

Re. Sycamore Ave. Bridge, Plainfield, N. J.

Gentlemen — Your committee would recommend that the Public Service Gas Company be authorized to lay the 6-inch gas main across the bridge as proposed, providing a payment of $75 be made to the counties of Union and Somerset by the gas company as compensation for such privilege.

S. P. T. WILBUR,
J. HERVEY DOANE.

On motion by Freeholder Perry this report was received and ordered filed and the recommendations contained therein were adopted unanimously.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on Church Street Bridge walls, Rahway, would report that they have examined this bridge and wing walls at all corners to protect foot traffic. It is also necessary to repair some of sidewalk work.

We recommend that this work be authorized at a cost not exceeding the sum of $400.

ADOLPH H. GRUENER,
HENRY KROUSE,
D. F. HENNESSY.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

New Business.

By Freeholder Meisel:

Resolved, That the plans, profiles and specifications for the improvement of Shunpike road, from Westfield avenue to Morris avenue, be and the same are hereby approved and adopted; further

Resolved, That the committee on county roads be empowered to proceed with the securing of bids on this work.

PETER H. MEISEL.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder McMane:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed for the purpose of investigating as to the advisability of building a new culvert across the county road at the intersection of Morris avenue and Springfield avenue, city of Summit.

Dated April 4, 1912.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this resolution was adopted unanimously. The Directer appointed as said committee Freeholders McMane, Darby and Acken.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the bridge over brook on Rivington street, near St. George avenue, Roselle, N. J., to report at the next meeting of this board as to the advisability of building a new bridge, with the probable cost of the work.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was adopted unanimously. The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Krouse, Hall and Fay.

By Committee on Elizabeth Drawbridge:

Resolved, That this committee be authorized to replank the drawbridge over Elizabeth River at South Front street, Elizabeth, N. J., as the present work is in bad shape, and the entire work needs to be replaced. The cost not to exceed the sum of $450.

Signed by the committee,
JOSEPH PERRY,
PETER H. MEISEL,
J. HERVEY DOANE.

On motion by Freeholder Gruener this resolution was on roll call adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Teller:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the present bridge across the Rahway River on the old Raritan road, Cranford and Clark Townships; the committee to report at a subsequent meeting of this board as to the advisability of widening and rebuilding the bridges, and also a fence between the bridges, together with the cost of the proposed work.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this resolution was adopted unanimously. The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Teller, Krouse and Bourdon.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Resolved, That portion of Wood avenue, situated in the Borough of Linden and described as follows: All that portion of Wood avenue situate in the Borough of Linden and described as follows: Beginning at the southeasterly line of the borough and running thence northwesterly to the northwesterly line of the borough, being eighty (80) feet in width and about three-quarters of a mile in length, be improved by the construction of a macadamized roadway in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act providing for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State," revision of 1905, and the supplements and amendments thereto; and be it further

Resolved, That a survey of said road be made, plans, cross sections and specifications of the work to be done, and the same be prepared and be submitted to this board for its approval or rejection, and if the same shall be approved by this board that the same be then submitted to the State Commissioner of Public Roads for his approval or rejection.

On motion by Freeholder Randolph this resolution was adopted unanimously.

By Freeholder Teller:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the two present bridges on West Holly street, Cranford, N. J., to report at a subsequent meeting of this board as to the condition of the same, the necessity of their reconstruction, and the probable cost of the work.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Director appointed as said committee Freeholders Teller, Meisel and Jones.

By Freeholder Pierson:

For cool days or cold days the SQUARE POT is best.

For "taking the chill off the house" in late fall, or making it cosily warm in the dead of winter—the faultless square pot boiler can be relied upon to do it satisfactorily, quickly and economically.

With its convenient regulator you can instantly increase or reduce the heat to just the desired degree.

The square fire pot shown in the view above was originated and is patented by the

BOYNTON FURNACE CO.

It is responsible for the wonderful success of Square Pot Boilers and Furnaces. It increases the effective radiating area 15 per cent to 25 per cent, thereby cutting down the cost of your heat that much.

Ashes cannot cling to the sides of the square fire pot—no clogging or choking, therefore no disagreeable labor for you.

Ask your dealer, he'll tell you of many other strong features that the Square Pot possesses.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Plainfield People.

One kidney remedy never fails.

Plainfield people rely upon it.

That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Plainfield testimony proves it always reliable.

Mrs. Earnest Dorflinger, 400 Clinton avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I hold just as high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I have for years. The cure they made in my case has been permanent and consequently I am glad to confirm my former testimonial." (Statement given January 19, 1911.)

On August 28, 1905, Mrs. Dorflinger gave the following account of her experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. "The first symptom of kidney trouble in my case was a dull, heavy pain in my back and head. This was followed by a tired, languid feeling and I knew that my kidneys were gradually giving out. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and getting a box at Randolph's Drug Store, I began their use. Before long my condition improved and I continued taking Doan's Kidney Pills until I was cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FORTUNE TO MOTHER IF VINCENT ASTOR DIED

Should Death Come Before Oct. 1 Wife Gets Share.

New York, May 8.—The will of Colonel John Jacob Astor was filed in the surrogate's office. It developed that if Vincent Astor dies before he becomes of age next October his share of the estate will go to his mother, Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, and his sister, Muriel, because he cannot dispose of real estate by will until he is twenty-one.

The will provided that if Vincent died before his father, leaving issue, Vincent's share of the estate should go to his issue and if neither Colonel Astor nor his son had issue to the daughter Muriel or her issue.

The provision under which the widow receives the Fifth avenue house and its contents for her use during her life states that after her death it is to go to Vincent or his eldest son or eldest grandson. The widow is required to give no inventory of or personal security for personal property set aside for her use and is to be held liable for any injury, destruction, loss or waste.

The records of the register's office do not disclose that a release of the dower right of the widow or the first Mrs. Astor has ever been filed.

Grey Says Ambassador Will Return to Washington.

London, May 8.—Ambassador James Bryce will return to Washington in September and will again take up his duties as England's representative. This was the answer given to Henry Page Croft and his followers by Sir Edward Grey when they renewed their attempt to connect the ambassador with the Taft-Roosevelt reciprocity correspondence.

Sir Edward declared that Mr. Bryce was now on his vacation, spending it where he pleased, and would return to America in due course.

NEW PROVIDENCE MAY HAVE NIGHT SCHOOLS

Berkeley Heights, May 8.—New Providence Township, through its Board of Education, is contemplating providing those who missed the opportunity of attending a day school with a chance to go to night school.

The teachers committee, in conjunction with the principal, has been authorized to proceed with an investigation and inaugurate a system that would give the eighteen or twenty young people who desire it the benefit of public instruction during the evenings in the winter months.

Many are compelled to leave school before finishing the regular course and would be willing to take advantage of the evening instruction. According to the figures presented by the principal only twelve pupils will be necessary to make the proposition a success.

The building committee was authorized to get bids on the cost of altering the Diamond Hill School. It is planned to change the entrance from the east side to the south, close up all other windows and put the window space on the side that now contains the entrance. This, it is asserted, will be in conformity with the State law.

The following teachers were approved for re-engagement for the school year of 1912-13: William Woodruff, principal; Miss Ella T. Alden, kindergarten; Elmer R. Loose, in the Diamond Hill School; Miss Walton, in the grades, and Mrs Lillian Ericson.

The borough board has accepted applications for positions in the local teaching staff as follows: Frank M. Burdick, of Erieville, N. Y., a graduate of Cortland Normal, who will succeed Edward E. Baum; Miss Robby Lee, of Cortland, N. Y., will succeed Mrs. Edward E. Baum, formerly Miss Edna Penny. The other teachers re-engaged are: Miss Edna Lamb, Miss Harriet Willcox, Miss Bertha V. Roberts, Miss Inez Vanaupel and Miss Helen Armstrong.

BUILDERS WANT STRICT ENFORCEMENT OF LAW

Lay Violations of Code Before Building Committee--Dual Job too Much For Doane --Health Board Criticized.

Master builders and journeymen of the various trades in the city were given a hearing by the Councilmanic fire and building committee, last night, to afford them opportunity to state sundry grievances, which were chiefly to the effect that there are continued violations of the building code, not alone among non-union men, but union men as well.

It was the contention that there are thirty or more buildings in the city wherein the building code has been violated, a majority of them not being tenantable. Samples of concrete used by contractors who have violated the code were shown, and there were numerous instances cited where buildings should be condemned from a sanitary point of view.

As a result of the conference, it is said, it is the intention of the fire committee to recommend the appointment of a new building inspector, to succeed Chief T. O. Doane, allowing him to give his full time to the fire department. It seemed to be the opinion that Chief Doane could not continued to fill both the positions of fire chief and building inspector and secure a strict enforcement of the building code. The selection of another man as building inspector was suggested by Mayor Moy in his message to the Council last year.

C. W. Krausse, representing the master builders, and William Harding, the journeymen, both addressed the Council, stating that there are about thirty buildings throughout the city that should be condemned. They complained that the inspection of building operations had not been satisfactory. They declared that some buildings had been erected on black muck, and here the Board of Health was criticised for not doing its duty, complaining that such work was not sanitary.

One case was cited where branches of trees and trunks of trees had been used for foundations and it was a wonder that the building withstood for any length of time. The whole argument was for a more strict enforcement of the building code. A building commission to be composed of the Mayor and members of the Council was favored; also a man for inspector who could give his entire time to the work.

It was stated that in the case of some building permits granted a year ago, the contractors were just beginning to dig cellars, the delay being for the purpose of evading certain provisions of the building code, which becomes effective June 1, 1912.

Mr. Harding said that recently he was able to pick a foundation to pieces by aid of an umbrella, and other buildings were described as fire-traps and should not be allowed to exist. In another case, it was reported, a house had settled three feet after its erection, making it unsafe.

George J. Tobin accepted the opportunity to criticise the Board of Health for its lax methods. He thought it about time that that body got busy. He hinted that if the Common Council did not exercise its authority over the Board, others might do so before long.

After the conference, the fire and building committee, with the Mayor, held a short meeting, and practically decided that a new building inspector should be appointed, and conditions complained of remedied at once.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY.

The junior class of the North Plainfield High School will present the play, "Polly in Politics," on Friday night, May 24, at the Park Club. After the play dancing will be enjoyed. Those in the cast are the Misses Florence Coons, Flora Krassue, Helen Hughes, Marion Mann and Richard Underhill, Thomas Featherstone, Raymond Kline and Leroy Herman.

W. A. JOHNSON'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Walter A. Johnson, who died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, 629 West Fourth street, Tuesday night, will be held at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Father Bogan will officiate. The burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW LEGAL FIRM

S. S. Swackhamer Leaves W. R. Codington to Join Forces With G. W. Bird.

Former Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, formerly of the legal firm of Codington & Swackhamer, and George W. Bird today formally announced that they had formed a partnership under the firm name of Swackhamer & Bird, to carry on the practice of law. Their offices will be located at 103 West Front street, where the junior member of the firm has had his place of business for many years. The partnership has been in effect since May 1 but was not made public because of the absence of Mr. Codington from the city.

Both Mr. Swackhamer and Mr. Bird are residents of the borough but have been practicing lawyers in the city for many years. The former was admitted to the bar in 1894 and Mr Bird two years later. They are also members of the United States courts, each holding counsellor's degrees. Mr. Swackhamer became a partner of W. R. Codington fourteen years ago, remaining with him until the first of the present month.

Just seven years ago, the members of the new firm were associated in the defense of George Wood, the convicted murderer of George Williams, the Watchung grocer. Through the "little black man" theory advanced by the two lawyers, the case became one of the most widely discussed in the country. The earnestness of Mr. Swackhamer's appeal to the jury in behalf of his client is credited with securing the second degree verdict brought in. Wood has still thirteen years of his sentence to serve, provided his conduct is exemplary. Much of Mr. Swackhamer's practice has been court work while Mr. Bird has built up a large office business. The new firm starts with the well wishes of its hosts of friends.

DAUGHTER OF REVOLUTION DIES ON ANCESTRAL ESTATE

Mrs. Mary M. Lane, widow of William B. T. Lane, and mother of Mrs. Percy vonOhl, died at the home of the latter on Pemberton avenue, Tuesday night, following illness aggravated by complications. She was formerly Miss Mary M. Lum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Lum, of Seymour, Conn. She was married in Bridgeport, Conn., and with her husband removed to this city fifty years ago. The property they occupied had been in the Lane family since 1712, being a grant from the British King in that year.

The original grant comprised 7,000 acres and extended south to South Plainfield, east to Hillside cemetery and west to Plainfield avenue. Mr. Lane died about thirty-five years ago. Mrs. Lane was a Daughter of the Revolution. She is said to have been a distant cousin of John D. Rockefeller. Surviving beside a daughter, Mrs. vonOhl, is a stepson, William B. T. Lane, Jr., of Brooklyn. The funeral will be held at 402 Park avenue, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial will be in North Plainfield cemetery.

ENGAGED IN HAWAII.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Clark, of West Seventh street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edythe Clark, to Gustave Biorkman, of Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and their daughter are now in Honolulu, where the engagement was announced at a dinner party given by Miss Mary Johnson, of that place. The couple will be married in July in Honolulu and they will make their home there. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will remain in Honolulu until after the wedding.

ARRANGE FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Maria K. Wendell, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anton C. Lazzi, 330 East Third street, Tuesday night, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which Mrs. Lazzi is a member, will officiate. Mrs. Wendell had been ill a long time with a complication of diseases.

MEASLES NOT TO BE QUARANTINED

Health Board Committee Reports Adversely on the Petition Recently Filed.

ISOLATION SUFFICIENT

Report Says Present Method of Guarding Against Spread of the Disease is Satisfactory Enough—Petition Figures Discounted.

The committee on communicable disease of the Board of Health, of which Dr. T. S. Davis is chairman, has reported adversely to the Board on the petition for quarantining measles. Isolation, without strict quarantine, together with the enforcement of the regulation against school attendance by pupils or others living in houses where the disease is present, are held to be sufficient safeguards of public health against the disease. In its report the committee cited these points:

"Firstly, The statutes of the State of New Jersey do not include measles among those diseases which must be reported to local Boards of Health; nor has the State Board of Health ever declared measles to be 'a dangerous communicable disease.'

"Secondly, Out of 575 sanitary districts in New Jersey, only 168 require the reporting of measles by ordinance, and so far as the committee has been able to ascertain no sanitary district within the State quarantines measles. The committee understands that one community at one time did quarantine this disease, but abandoned the practice several years ago.

"Thirdly, While the Boards of Health of a number of cities outside the State have regulations calling for the so-called 'quarantine' of measles, on investigation, we find that the practice is different from that generally pursued in the quarantining of scarlet fever and diphtheria, and amounts to an isolation of the person ill with the disease. This is the practice advised by this Board and this committee is of the opinion that the present co-operation between this board and the Board of Education, by which the public school authorities are promptly notified of every case of measles reported to this Board, together with the requirements of the Board of Education by which no child having measles is allowed to return to school until the disease is entirely over, and the further regulations which prevent the attending of school by any person from a house or other dwelling place in which there is a case of measles unless such person has already had the disease, furnishes sufficient protection along this line. Information concerning this disease is at the command of any school principal or other citizen.

"Fourthly, A canvass of the physicians of Plainfield shows that a considerable majority do not favor the quarantine of measles, and further correspondence with the minority shows that in using the term 'quarantine,' they merely referred to an isolation of the person or persons ill with the disease rather than a quarantine of the premises.

"Fifthly, The committee would call your attention to certain misleading facts in the figures quoted in the petition. The figures cited are taken during a period of time when an epidemic existed in Plainfield, and the comparison is made with figures taken from New York at a time when there was no epidemic. If comparisons of this sort are to be made they should be made from figures taken during similar conditions.

"Sixthly, It is generally considered by the profession that measles is most contagious in the early stage—that is in the incubation period, when it is a practical impossibility to state whether a patient is suffering from measles or an ordinary 'cold in the head.' Your committee does not believe that quarantining the premises or interferring with the movement of the well members of a family or the exclusion from school of persons who have had the disease once would appreciably diminish its spread.

"In view of the above stated facts, your committee would reiterate its opinion that it is unwise for the Board of Health to declare measles to be a quarantinable disease."

The report is signed by Dr. Davis and Dr. William H. Murray.

GIRL ACCUSED OF ROBBING MOTHER

Alleged to Have Drawn Bank Deposit by Means of Fraudulent Order.

TELLS A QUEER STORY

Which Has to Do With Forlorn Stranger, Who Proves Ungrateful to Her Benefactor—Held for Grand Jury.

Charged with robbing her mother of $158 by means of fraudulent orders on a savings bank deposit, Freda Rickter, seventeen years old, of 822 East Second street, was held for the Grand Jury today by City Judge William G. De Meza.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Bertha Rickter, is a widow. Freda, the police say, has been inclined to be wayward.

According to Mrs. Rickter's allegations, she had $158 on deposit at the Dime Savings Bank. When she went to withdraw part of it yesterday she was told at the bank she testified, that her daughter had drawn out all the money.

The bank pays orders on savings accounts to others than depositors when accompanied by the bankbook. The police say Freda is familiar enough with her mother's signature to copy it with a fair degree of accuracy.

Mrs. Rickter told the police of her deposits disappearance, and Detective Sergeant Flynn took Freda into custody. She told him and Chief Kiely a queer story of the bank book.

Two weeks ago, Freda said, she met a forlorn girl at the Grant avenue station. The stranger had no home, no money and no friends. Freda said she took the girl home. There, Freda said, the object of her charity saw the bank book, took it, and went away. Freda said she supposed now that the ungrateful stranger drew her mother's money.

The police show a surprising disbelief in every part of Freda's story. They say it is bosh. Freda was held in $300 bail for appearance before the Grand Jury.

LIFE AND WORK OF WOMAN MISSIONARY

First M. E. Society Learns of Dr. Mary. Stone at a Parlor Meeting.

Under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, a parlor meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nelson A. Miller on Washington avenue, the borough. Mrs. Charles E. Horne read selections from a book written by Rev. Mr. Perkins, an Episcopalian clergyman, on the life and work of Dr. Mary Stone, a medical missionary who has charge of a hospital in China.

Dr. Stone was educated at Ann Arbor, Mich., and for many years has been a successful missionary in China. Mr. Perkins met her there, where he was brought in touch with her work about which he writes. During the afternoon Miss Hope Miller sang two selections in a pleasing manner.

The women discussed plans for the district meeting of the foreign missionary society which is to be held in the First M. E. church the last week in May. Mrs. Miller is president of the district society and the women of the local society will entertain the visitors. Mrs. Mary Winter, president, was in charge of yesterday's meeting. After the business there was a social hour.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN CAN VOTE AT PARISH MEETINGS

An important change in the canons of the Episcopal church, permitting women to vote at parish meetings, was passed at the one hundred and fortieth annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey, at Mt. Holly, yesterday. The committee on church law reported adversely in this matter, but Rev. Charles M. Perkins, of Vineland, took it up on the floor of the convention and succeeded in having the change made. A large vote was cast in favor of the resolution.

The Episcopal churches of the city and borough were well represented at the convention by the rectors and lay delegates. It was voted to hold the convention next year at Atlantic City, the invitation from the Church of the Ascension, that city, having been accepted.

DARBY PAYS FOR WOOLFE'S LIFE

Tardy Juror Enables Counsel to Come to Settlement in Auto Case.

SUM NOT MADE PUBLIC

Lawyers Agree on Payment Satisfactory to Widow While Waiting for Juror Whose Lateness Held up Resumption of Trial.

While waiting for the appearance of a tardy juror, whose non-arrival was holding up a resumption of the trial in the Circuit Court at Elizabeth, today, counsel in the suit brought against Douglas L. Darby, of Westfield, father of Harry and Aaron Darby, by Mrs. Theresa Woolfe, widow of George L. Woolfe, also of Westfield, agreed upon a settlement. Mrs. Woolfe sued for damages for the death of her husband who died as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident. Mr. Darby was the owner of the car which was being driven by his son, Harry, with Aaron as a passenger.

The amount of the settlement was not made public, but it is described as "satisfactory to Mrs. Woolfe and her counsel." The accident occurred on Westfield avenue, Westfield, about 6:30 o'clock on the night of February 7. Woolfe was walking in the roadway to his home in Rahway avenue when the automobile approached, going in the same direction. Woolfe was using the roadway where the walking was better than the sidewalk, which was covered with ice and snow. It is asserted by his widow that as the car passed, the rear wheels skidded so that the tonneau of the machine swung against Woolfe, throwing him violently to the ground and fracturing his skull. An effort was made through witnesses to show that the car was being driven at an excessive rate of speed.

Frederick Faulks was counsel for Mrs. Woolfe and William D. Wolfskiel defended Darby. In deep mourning, the widow was in court yesterday morning holding a two-year-old child on her lap until called to testify.

Testimony was virtually completed by the time adjournment was reached yesterday afternoon, and it only remained to sum up this morning. One of the jurors was late and counsel drifted into a discussion of the case while waiting for the trial to resume. It was found that a common ground could be reached, and before the tardy juror got to court the settlement had been effected.

ANOTHER RACE ADDED TO WATCHUNG MEET CARD

The committee in charge of the ninth annual race meet of the Watchung Hunt Club to be held at the Plainfield Driving Park, Saturday afternoon, has decided to add another race to the card, making eight in all. The extra event will be for the non-winners of the day and a suitable prize will be given the winner.

A total of more than seventy entries have been reecived and they will be announced tomorrow. The track, grounds and grandstand at the park have been put in first-class condition, and all that is needed to make the meet a success is fair weather. Many of the horses entered will arrive here this afternoon and tomorrow morning from Belmont Park, where they have been stabled since the Cedarhurst meet last week.

POLICE EXAMS.

Seven applicants for positions on the local police force were examined by the Councilmanic Police Board, last night. They were Roland McIntyre, Frank Cope, Ernest Speckhardt, James Brown, Ezais Curtis, Martin J. Flatley and Martin T. Welsh. Of course, all do not stand a chance of being appointed, but from the number the police board hope to be able to get extra men to fill vacancies in the force.

PISCATAWAY REFUSES TO CONSENT TO DARLING SITE

Flat Denial of City's Application For Permission to Build Disposal Plant--Action Not a Surprise to Plainfield Officials.

The Piscataway Township Committee has denied Plainfield's application for permission to locate sewage disposal works on the Darling farm in that township. The action has occasioned no surprise. The attitude of the committee was forecasted recently in a communication received by the Common Council from W. A. Coddington, counsel for the township, in which he said that any attempt on the part of the city to build sewage beds in that territory would be bitterly opposed.

The committee, prior to its meeting, learned of a petition signed by residents of the township, opposing the "invasion" of the city, which had been sent to the State Board of Health and at the meeting a delegation of citizens entered a protest against favorable consideration of Plainfield's application.

There were no special comments on the part of the committeemen, except that it seemed to be the opinion that there are other sites either within the limits of Plainfield or nearby that were more suited for sewage disposal works. While the city officials hoped to get the township's permission to build a disposal works there, it is reported that the committee's action may not entirely defeat the plan. Piscataway's consent is not necessary for the issuance of authority for the building of a disposal works by the State Board of Health.

CHAS. NEAGLE WEDS GIRL FROM WEST

Miss Olena Mortensen, of Dell Rapids, South Dakota, His Bride.

Miss Olena Margaret Mortensen, of Dell Rapids, South Dakota, and Chas. Fisher Neagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Neagle, were married last night at the home of the bridegroom's parents on West Sixth street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edwin Shaw, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church, and was witnessed by about forty relatives and friends.

Miss Mortensen wore a becoming gown of white silk and was attended by Miss Eloise Goodwin, of Scotch Plains, cousin of the bridegroom. Stephen A. Conlict, of East Orange, was best man. At 7:30 the wedding party came into the room to the strains of Wagner's wedding march played by Mrs. William Grust, of Scotch Plains. The single ring service was used.

The young people were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Neagle left for an extended tour in the East and upon their return will make their home in this city.

Mr. Neagle holds a responsible position with the David Williams Publishing Co., of New York City, as an illustrator. He was graduated from Plainfield High school with the class of 1904.

HIS RECORD CONFRONTS BARONA IN THE CITY COURT

Andrew Barona's record stood him in bad stead when, with Dan Pelegren, he faced City Judge William G. De Meza today, charged with fighting. Pelegren and Barona live in Cottage Row. They were arrested last night.

Barona has been in the hands of the police at least twice before, and a conviction on a young girl's complaint is said to stand against him. He is rated as "bad" by the police. The charge against Pelegren was dismissed, but the magistrate gave Barona his choice of paying a $25 fine or going to jail for 60 days.

COLORED EXHORTER FINED FOR BEATING A WOMAN

Edward L. Mitchell, colored, who preaches in colored churches as an exhorter, was sentenced to a fine of $15 or forty days in jail by City Judge William G. DeMeza today, for assaulting Mary L. Smith, colored.

Mitchell and the woman live in the same house on West Fourth street. She objected to his using a gas jet which was connected with her quarter meter, and her protest was answered with a rain of blows. Smith blackened both her eyes and cut her head open. She retained Winfield S. Angleman to prosecute the complaint for her.

PATROLMEN'S TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM MESSLER

In recognition of his services while president of the organization, the Plainfield Patrolmen's Association yesterday afternoon presented a token of its regard to William Messler. The gift was a handsome meerschaum pipe and the presentation speech was made by Patrolman Andrew Saffron. Mr. Messler in responding said that while no longer a member of the force his interest in the association is as great as it ever was.

The presentation was made at a meeting held at the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall, where the patrolmen had gathered to honor their former leader. Mr. Messler is now engaged in business as a retail meat dealer.

BROWNING ANNIVERSARY IN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The congregation of the Congregational church devoted their midweek service last night to an observance of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Robert Browning. The religious teachings of the poet were emphasized by the reading of different selections from his works by members of the society. The study of the great man's life and works was divided into periods and some poem or selection read to illustrate his attitude in regard to all phases of life.

Mr. Goodrich opened the meeting with a talk on Browning, followed by a reading by Athol Newman, illustrating Browning's optimism; Mrs. F. G. Updyke reading from Rabbi Ben Ezra, showing the poet's view of life; Miss Alice Barlow read passages from Saul, explaining Browning on the incarnation, while James McClymont took for his topic, "Browning Fronting Death."

Mr. Goodrich then told of Browning's teaching as to immortality and on faith, reading passages from "Death in the Desert," to illustrate his remarks, ending with Browning in the springtime, reading selections from various poems.

SETTLED CASE.

The New Jersey Central has made a settlement with Lucy H. D. Schenck, through her counsel, Mayor G. W. V. Moy, in her suit for damages which was set down for trial in the Supreme Court yesterday. The terms of settlement have not been made public. Mrs. Schenck was injured in 1909 while alighting from a passenger train at the Grant Avenue Station, and she claimed negligence on the part of the company. The company recently made an offer of settlement, but this was refused and a few days ago, a better offer was made and this was accepted by Mayor Moy for his client.

MOTTLEY-CLARK.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Elsie D. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Clark, of Orchard place, and John J. Mottley, also of this city. The couple was married on Wednesday, May 1, in New York, and have taken up their residence there, where Mr. Mottley is employed by the LaFay Automobile Company. The bridegroom was formerly employed as a chauffeur for C. W. Holland, of West Seventh street, and more recently by the Thompson Automobile Company, of Park avenue.

QUIT NEW ORLEANS IN FEAR.

Residents In That District Flee In Terror of Flood Danger.

Washington, May 9.—Dispatches received by the war department indicate that the region about Angola for many miles was being flooded as the result of a break in the west bank. This latest break is near the great Torras crevasse.

A general exodus from the New Orleans district is reported by army officers. The people are panic stricken at sight of the steadily rising river.

Conditions at Memphis and at Vicksburg are reported as without change. All the people and live stock have been removed from the vicinity of Lettsworth and Morganza. Rescue parties sent out from Vicksburg by Major Normoyle are now working near New Roads, where hundreds are reported in great distress. Motorboats have been sent to New Roads to rescue the inhabitants.

Estimates place the probable damage at not less than $50,000,000 in the Mississippi valley. Less conservative estimates than those of army engineers place the total at $100,000,000.

Titanic Steward's Widow Wins Suit.

Liverpool, May 9.—The first case against the White Star company under the workmen's compensation act was brought by the widow of a steward drowned on the Titanic. She was awarded the maximum amount under the law, $1,500. The company did not oppose the suit; in fact it lodged the $1,500 with the court beforehand.

1 DEAD, 3 INJURED IN MINERS' RIOTS

Handful of State Police Charge Mad Mob.

MINERSVILLE TERRORIZED.

More Troopers Rush to Scene—Worse Outbreak Feared—Lawless Foreign Element Is Blamed—Woman Among Those Shot by Fearless Constabulary.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 9.—One man is dead and three others badly wounded and one woman shot as a result of an exchange of bullets between a mob of 1,000 men and women and children and four members of the state constabulary at Minersville.

The dead man is David Davies, and the wounded are foreigners, whose names are not known.

The woman is Mrs. Mary Woll, who was shot in the knee while watching the battle from the porch of her home.

The riot was turned into a battle in a moment's notice after the state troopers had fired shots into the air to frighten the rioters and had received a volley of bullets in return which narrowly missed bringing them down from their chargers.

The trouble started at the Pine Ridge colliery near Minersville, when a mob gathered and held up men on their way to work. In the mob were many foreigners, but there were some English speakers there also.

More Troopers Assembled.

At Shenandoah and Mount Carmel the rioters are kept down only by fear of the state troopers' arms.

In the middle and northern anthracite fields there is peace.

Troopers are scattered over all the region, but there is no sign of trouble.

In the Lehigh section no trouble is reported, but the miners are uneasy and troopers have been sent there to guard against an outbreak. While the lawless element was at first responsible for the outbreaks, the English speaking miners have been drawn into the struggle by their hatred of the troopers.

Scranton, Pa., May 9.—Peckville was the scene of a lively demonstration when 200 men and women armed with clubs and stones tried to stop work at the Ontario washery.

The bosses and union officials explained to the mob that the washeries are permitted to work to supply fuel to keep the pumps and engines working and the mob dispersed.

An old cripple who works as a fireman at the Marvine mine in North Scranton was beaten up in a crowd. Two arrests were made.

Eighteen members of Troop A of the state police from the Greensburg barracks arrived to patrol the Lackawanna region.

FOSS INDICATES HE IS AGAINST RICHESON

Governor Not Likely to Recommend Commutation.

Boston, May 9.—Indications are that Governor Foss will not refer to the executive council the petition for the commutation of the death sentence of Clarence V. T. Richeson and that the latter must pay the death penalty for the murder of Avis Linnell within the week beginning May 19.

The executive council met at the statehouse for a weekly session. The members were interested to know whether they would be called upon to sit on the Richeson case. When the matter was not referred to, several asked the governor about it.

They received something more than a mere intimation from the governor himself that the commutation petition would not be referred to them.

DYNAMITE PLOT IN TURKEY.

Escape of a Minister and Other Officials—Bulgarians Arrested.

Constantinople, May 9.—A plot to blow up the train in which the minister of the interior and the members of the reform commission were traveling was frustrated by the discovery of a dynamite bomb under a bridge between Ochrida and Resna, in Monastic.

$25,000 ROCKEFELLER GIFT.

Providence, R. I., May 9.—A second gift of $25,000 to Brown university from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was announced.

The endowment has now reached $815,000 toward the desired $1,000,000.

Weather Forecast.

Showers today; tomorrow fair and warmer; moderate north and northwest winds, becoming variable.

The official board of the First M. E. church met last night following the prayer meeting and considered matters of a routine nature.

Paint that Stays Painted

That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

FIFTY I. W. W. MEN ARE SENTENCED

Charged With Trying to Intimidate Silk Strikers.

COULD NOT PAY FINES.

Only Two Furnished Necessary $10, So the Rest Were Sentenced to Thirty Days in the County Jail—Recorder Carroll Also Sentenced Frank Young.

Paterson, N. J., May 9.—Forty-seven Industrial Workers of the World were arraigned before Recorder Carroll on charges of disorderly conduct near Bamford Bros. silk works on Cliff street. There had been a strike among the silk workers, and the police arrested the men on the charge of trying to intimidate the other workers at the mill.

They were each fined $10, but when it came to paying the fines only two of the prisoners had the money. The others were sent to the county jail for thirty days each. The two that had paid their fines were sent away from the court, but in a short time they were back again, having been rearrested for the same offense, and this time they were fined $15. They did not have the money and went to jail with the other five.

While they were being arraigned there was a commotion outside. Frank Young, an organizer for the I. W. W., who lives in Detroit, was addressing a large crowd of strike sympathizers. He was denouncing the arrests as outrageous when a policeman was sent to "get him." When Young was arraigned before the recorder the latter said:

"Well, I see you have been trying hard to get yourself into trouble, and you have succeeded. I sentence you to three months in the county jail without bail. Next time I hope you know when you are well off."

When Young was arrested Samuel Silver of Paterson took his place as speaker. He was arrested and then attacked Doorman Adams when the latter was bringing him before the recorder. Adams had his glasses smashed. Silver was sent to jail for one month without bail.

David Platt tried for speaking honors then, and he was also arrested and sent to jail for a month.

PHYSICIANS IN CONVENTION.

Many Distinguished Doctors Meet at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 9.—Physicians from every section of New Jersey, Philadelphia and other cities are attending the annual convention of the State Homeopathic Medical society, which opened here.

Mayor Bacharach welcomed the 200 delegates, and Dr. Charles H. Church of Newark responded. Alfred Drury of Paterson, recording; Charles F. Hadley of Camden, corresponding secretary, and I. E. Hetrick of Newark, the treasurer, reported a general increase in the membership and finances of the organization, and Dr. H. F. Datesman of Passaic paid tribute to the members who have died during the year.

Dr. V. A. H. Cornell of Trenton, head of the legislative committee, reported that no new bills affecting the medical profession, have been passed by the state legislature during the year.

The session will be taken up with the address of the president, Dr. A. W. Atkinson of Trenton and reading of papers by Dr. A. W. Belting of Trenton and Dr. Sprague Carlton of New York.

One of the features of the convention will be an address by Dr. John C. Beckwith of Atlantic City, head of the beach life saving force of the resort, who has treated over 10,000 cases of surf accidents. Dr. Beckwith will illustrate his talk in first aid to the drowning with a series of photographs showing the methods of resuscitation used on the Atlantic City beach.

Tried to Kill Brother-in-Law.

Camden, N. J., May 9.—Earl Barker, twenty-seven years old, of this town, was held under $1,500 bail for court by Recorder Stackhouse, accused of having attempted to kill his brother-in-law, Leonard Stephenson, by shooting at him with a revolver. Barker is alleged to have fired five shots at Stephenson, all of which flew wide. One bullet, however, struck Stephenson's wife, but a corset steel deflected it and she escaped injury. Another bullet grazed the head of sixteen-year old Lena Stephenson, a daughter.

Creates $10,000 Scholarship.

Montclair, N. J., May 9.—In memory of their daughter, Miss Marjorie W. Bethell, who died Jan. 5 last, Mr. and Mrs. Union N. Bethell of this town have created a trust fund of $10,000 to establish a college scholarship for graduates of the Montclair high school. Miss Marjorie was a senior in the school at the time of her death.

Butter For Bruises.

The very best remedy I have ever found for a bruise is butter, says a writer in Harper's Bazar. Whenever one of the children has a fall or knock of any kind I immediately apply butter. This relieves the pain, prevents swelling and keeps the hurt place from turning black and blue. It is a very simple salve and one that is always in the house.

The Home Building & Loan Association

Offers Cheap Interest for a Home Builder or Buyer

It figures out about like this, as a series will run out in twelve years:

If $2,000.00 is borrowed (other amounts in same proportion),
He pays $10.00 a month dues for 144 months	$1,440 00
He pays $10.00 a month interest for 144 months at 6 per cent	1,440 00
Entrance fee, search, etc., about	25 00
Total amount paid	$2,905 00
He has the use of	2,000 00
At a cost for 12 years of	$ 905 00

Which is actual net interest of only 3¾ per cent. per annum.

This is on a basis of 6 per cent. When no money is on hand, the Association will provide money for the borrower at a very slight premium.

The regular meetings of the Association are held at its rooms, 109 Park Avenue, on the third Monday evening of each month. New series are opened at each regular meeting. Further information may be had at that time or by applying to the secretary, Arthur E. Crone, care of the City National Bank. tu-th

MISS DAISYFIELD'S COW.

Roselle, May 9.—Detective J. W. Lohman, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has lodged a complaint against Miss Mary Daisyfield, eighteen years old, of Ninth avenue, Roselle, charging her with interfering with him in the discharge of his duty. It appears that a cow belonging to the Daisyfield family was on the property of the railroad and Lohman drove the animal away. Miss Daisyfield objected and attempted to interfere, it is alleged. Judge Van S. Roosa, of Roselle, has taken the complaint and Miss Daisyfield will be ordered to appear in court.

ELECTION BOARD VACANCIES.

Elizabeth, May 9.—Judge Archer announced Tuesday he would hold a special session of court tomorrow to fill existing vacancies in election boards throughout the county and also to grant transfers to persons who have changed their place of residence since the last general election.

TEN REASONS.

Fifteen hundred replies were received in the contest conducted by "Judge" for the best ten reasons why women should be given the right to vote, the contestants ranging in age from fifteen to eighty-six years. The prize-winning reasons for equal suffrage are so excellent that we reproduce them:

1—They are citizens, and, therefore, entitled to a voice in making the laws by which they are governed.

2—They are taxpayers, forced to help support the machinery of government. History upholds their contention that "taxation without representation is tyranny."

3—They are home makers, and need the ballot to protect the home from adulterated foods, diseased meats and germ infested clothing.

4—They are mothers, and therefore, fitted by nature to set the standard by which the public shall treat children. To make their child welfare work effective, they must have the ballot.

5—They are wives, and realize the necessity for social purity. They need the ballot to help elect candidates who favor strict vice regulations.

6—They are sweethearts, and interest in their future homes prompts the desire to aid actively in securing fair wages, decent working conditions and an eight-hour law for men.

7—They are daughters, and rightfully mindful of their parents' welfare. They need the ballot to swell the ranks of the humanitarians who will vote for old age pensions.

8—They are women, and for centuries have been condemned by convention to confine their activities within the walls of home. They need the broadening influence of active interest in local, State and National affairs.

9—They are workers, and have entered the industrial world to stay. They, therefore, need the ballot to protect themselves.

10—Actual experience in the equal suffrage States has proved the stock arguments against woman suffrage to be groundless, for women have not lost their womanliness nor their love of home or family while they have shown their fitness to vote for the best interests of humanity.

FOR COMMISSION GOV'T.

A petition, complying with the provisions of the Act of April 25, 1911, directed to the city clerk, asking that a special election be called for the purpose of allowing the taxpayers to vote on the question of a commission form of government, is to be found in the Daily Press office. All voters who favor this improved system of municipal government as well as all those who do not, but who want to have the matter submitted to the people, may sign the petition at this office or if they so desire it will be sent to them for their signatures. The movement is spreading rapidly in the East, but the West, where it was first tried with marvelous success, can lay claim for originating it. Several Jersey municipalities have found that under a commission form of government public affairs are handled economically and to the entire satisfaction of the taxpayers. Atlantic City and Elizabeth vote on the proposition next Tuesday. Is there not good reason why Plainfield should seek relief by adopting the provisions of the Act of 1911?

FOR CHILDREN'S PLAY.

In this issue, the editors of our Mothers' Column call attention to the action of the Plainfield Board of Education in forbidding roller-skating on the concrete walks about the high school grounds. They take the view, regardless of the opinion of a concrete maker who asserts that the practice wears out the pave, that the children should not be denied this pleasure and that inasmuch as the high school grounds afford practically the only opportunity for that purpose the board should stretch a point and grant the privilege. The argument is advanced that the damage caused by roller-skating would be so great in ten years that the pave would have to be renewed. Granting that to be true, our Board and all other similar bodies believe that physical exercise should play an important part in the training of the youth. To have a healthy mind one must have a healthy body. The school authorities very properly provide a gymnasium. This means an expense, a necessary expense. But how much better is exercise in the open air than indoors. Therefore, should not the deterioration of a pavement used for roller-skating be included as an item of charge for physical exercise? With due respect to the Board for its good intentions in aiming to save the taxpayers' money, we earnestly hope that it will reconsider its action and permit the children of our city to enjoy their leisure hours as best they can by roller-skating on the concrete walks.

The principal of the Washington Irving Girls' School in New York has isued an edict which places the ban on expensive graduating gowns. No matter how rich her father may be no "sweet girl graduate" will be permitted to wear an expensive dress at the commencement day exercises. According to the school principal, "if any igrl refuses to comply with the suggestion and insists on wearing an elaborate gown, she will be given her diploma at the close of school and thus forego the commencement exercises."

Augustus W. Schwartz, superintendent of the Department of Weights and Measures for Union county, has appeared before public bodies in various parts of the county recently explaining the law and practice as to short weights and small measures. We sugest that the Plainfield Chamber of Commerce extend to that official an invitation to give a talk at one of its meetings at an early date.

In an address at Elizabeth on the advantages of a commission form of government, E. P. Reichelm, of Bayonne, said the other night: "There is one sore spot in the glorious institutions of America for while National and State affairs have been conducted satisfactorily with regard to the system, the same has not been true with respect to municipal government."

Col. Astor, whose death attracted more publicity than that of such benefactors of the human race as Isidor Straus, Millet and W. T. Stead left a paltry fortune of some one hundred and fifty millions of dollars. Of this, he bequeathed the magnificent sum of $30,000 to charity.

Just a little figuring will convince the doubting taxpayer that garbage collection and disposal by contract under city supervision means a substantial saving to the householder who now makes any sort of an arrangement to have the refuse carted away.

A matter of public health will be discussed by our contributing editor for next Saturday. The present standard of efficiency of our city health department is to a considerable degree due to this man's indefatigable efforts while a public official.

The Socialist party will hold its National convention at Indianapolis tomorrow. The strength of this organization is shown in the fact that it polls more than half a million votes.

FEAR FOR KING NICHOLAS.

He Is One of the Most Picturesque Sovereigns of Europe.

Cettinje, Montenegro, May 9.—King Nicholas Petrovich, who is reported seriously ill, is one of the most picturesque sovereigns of Europe. He is the father of six handsome daughters One is a Russian grand duchess, another is duchess of Leuchtenberg, the third is queen of Italy, the fourth Princess Francis Joseph of Battenberg. Two others remain unmarried.

The king was born at Niegoch in 1841. He succeeded his uncle, Prince Danilo I., on Aug. 13, 1860, old style.

GOV. SANDERS SUMS UP FLOOD SITUATION

375,000 Persons Homeless; Property Loss $6,000,000.

Baton Rouge, La., May 9. Governor J. Y. Sanders issued the following statement of the flood situation.

The state of Louisiana is today bearing the brunt in the highest flood that has ever come down the Mississippi river, and a levee system which federal and state engineers had declared to be well nigh perfect, protecting twenty parishes of sixty in the state of Louisiana, has proved in four places unable to withstand the strain.

As a result several parishes are affected in some part by water from the crevasses at Salem in the Texas basin in northern Louisiana and in the Torras and some places upon the Atchafalaya in the Atchafalaya and Mississippi basin.

In nearly all instances the accidental drownings have been due to women and children upsetting boats or by falling off houses into the water.

The population affected by the crevasses in northern Louisiana approximates 125,000, out of which number the federal government is feeding over 50,000, practically all negroes.

In southern Louisiana the population of the parishes affected is approximately a quarter of a million, of whom at least 100,000 will suffer loss and probably 40,000 will eventually have to be cared for before they are able to get to work again on their lands. In the southern district negroes are chiefly the sufferers.

Due to the crevasses themselves, a property loss of at least $6,000,000 has been suffered, while if the waters remain up until July the loss through failure to be able to plant will reach three times that sum.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Mary's church will hold euchre party tonight in St. Mary's hall.

The Epworth League of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church has relected Maurice Warrick president for the coming year.

"Bloch" PULLMAN SLEEPERS 1912 Models

More than 20 years' experience is behind "Bloch" Baby Carriages; not only are they obviously the best in material and construction, but they are scientific in design. The importance of this would be better appreciated if more women knew how often infantile troubles are traceable to baby carriages of average construction. The "Bloch" Cradle gear gives that adequate support to the spring that means comfort and health combined.

"Bloch" Pullman Sleepers are finished in natural color, oak and white enamel; are made of the best quality reed, have sanitary removable cushions and seats; steel tubing pushers and heavy rubber tire wheels; you pay no more for "Bloch" Carriages than you do for any ordinary make.

The prices range from $16.50 to $45.00.

CHURCH VISIT.

A delegation of seventy-five members from the South Orange Methodist church, headed by President Cooper, of the New Jersey Sunday-school Association, will journey to Plainfield in vehicles of various kinds Monday night and be entertained at the Park Avenue Baptist church. They will be received by Superintendent George E. Hall and members of the adult classes, who will conduct an informal program. Rev. Gabriel Reed Maguire will have his collection of African curios at the church and will tell the visitors about them.

MOTHERS DAY SERVICES.

Next Sunday at the First Baptist church "Mothers' Day" will be celebrated both at the morning service and the Bible school session in the afternoon. It is earnestly desired that every mother connected with the church and congregation be present. The sermon by the pastor will be specially addressed to the mothers. It is suggested that everyone come wearing a white carnation in honor of his or her mother, the best mother in the world.

MOTHERS' DAY.

Mothers' Day will be observed at the Park Avenue Baptist church next Sunday. Every Sunday-school pupil will wear a white carnation. Rev. Gabriel Reed Maguire, the pastor, will preach in the morning on "The Model Christian Mother," and in the evening on "The Four Judgments." S. R. O. at 8 o'clock has been the regular thing Sunday nights at the Park Avenue Baptist church for the past few weeks.

DENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Dr. M. L. Rhein was the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Plainfield Dental Association at the Homestead, last night. He took for his subject, "The Treatment of Porrhea," upon which subject Dr. Rhein is a specialist, and illustrated his talk with a stereopticon. After the lecture the members present discussed the question, followed by a business session.

CITY TREASURER ILL.

City Treasurer William F. Arnold is detained at home by illness. In consequence there has been a little delay in the city employes receiving their pay for the month. The bills were approved early Monday night so that Mayor Moy might sign them that night, and thus expedite the payment of them, but at the time it was not known that Mr. Arnold was ill.

OWL CLUB DANCE.

The "Owl Social Club" at a meeting last evening made the final preparations for their sixth annual ball, which is to be held Friday evening, May 10 in Saengerbund Hall. A large attendance is expected.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The three lower classes are making out their schedules today for the course next year. As the addition to the building will not be ready until after the next school year, two sessions will be necessary. The three upper classes will attend in the morning and the Freshmen will be required to attend in the afternoon.

There will be five periods in the morning session running from 8:30 to 12:05, and four periods in the afternoon, from 12:45 to 3:07.

Five new teachers will be added to the staff, while Miss Alice Forsythe, who has been teaching English for the past three years, will leave. The new teachers will include Roy W. Ford, mathematics; Miss Phoebe Lovell, algebra and history; Miss Geraldine Brooks, English; Adolphus W. Hanke, now a teacher in Leal's School, will go to the High School next year to teach German, and Cornelius Lounsbury will teach history.

At a class meeting this morning the Seniors chose the members for the class day committee. They will have charge of the Class Day program. Those on the committee are: Raymond Manley, Bruce Conih, Roy E. Titsworth, Madeline Strades, Katherine Webster, Blanche Beekman, Janette Neighbor, Gertrude Prior and Margaret Howkins. They will meet this afternoon to elect a chairman.

The baseball team will meet the New Brunswick High School nine at Parker Field Saturday afternoon. The game scheduled with Cranford for yesterday was postponed on account of rain as were the games in the class series during the last few days.

Samuel P. Case, of East Sixth stret, left yesterday on a western business trip.

Frank Cuzen, formerly of South America, who has been visiting friends in Plainfield and Cranford, will leave next week for South America, where he will take charge of a sheep ranch.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

LOAF CAKES.

IF you like loaf cakes consider these various ways of making them. For instance, there is a seed loaf cake to be made as follows:

Seed Loaf.—Take half a pound of butter, six ounces of sugar, four eggs, half an ounce of caraway seeds, one pound of flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder, quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and half a gill of milk.

Line a cake tin with three layers of greased paper. Cream together the butter and sugar; then put in the eggs one by one. Beat them well. Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Now stir the flour lightly into the butter and eggs; then add the caraway seeds and milk. Pour into the prepared tin and bake in a moderate oven about one and a half hours.

Two Simple Loaves.

Yeast Loaf Cake.—Dissolve a cake of yeast in water. Mix with it three cups of warm sweet milk, two cups of sugar and flour enough to make a stiff batter. Let it rise overnight.

In the morning, when it is light, add two well beaten eggs, a cup of butter, a pound of seeded raisins and a dash of cinnamon, allspice and nutmeg. Stir well and when light place in pans to bake.

White Loaf Cake.—Cream a cupful of sugar with half a cupful of butter. Add half a cupful of milk and then stir the mixture into two cupfuls of pastry flour that has been sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Flavor with almond extract and just before baking fold in the whites of four eggs beaten to a very stiff froth. Bake in loaf form.

With Bread Dough.

Currant Loaf Cake.—When the dough for bread is ready to mold into loaves take enough for a loaf and work into it a large spoonful of butter, a teacupful of sugar, two well beaten eggs, a teacupful of cleaned, floured currants, a dash of nutmeg and cinnamon.

If too stiff the dough may be softened with a few drops of milk. Shape into a loaf, let it rise and then bake.

A Fruit Cake.

Fruit Loaf Cake.—Take a cup of butter, a cup of brown sugar, a cup of molasses, a cup of sour milk, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a little warm water, four cups of flour, a half teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of cloves, a half pound of raisins, a half pound of currants, a quarter of a pound of citron. Mix these ingredients as for ordinary loaf cake.

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.

Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

The Home and School League is a "get together" movement of parents and teachers in order that the children of Philadelphia may receive more direct results from earnest efforts put forth in their behalf. To celebrate work accomplished, to advertise need of further effort, a "Carnival of Flowers" is held each year.

Many citizens of Philadelphia will be surprised to learn that the little one-room schoolhouse of our grandfather's day, heated slightly by its big old-fashioned stove, boasting perhaps twenty-five pupils of all grades and ages, still exists within the city limits. From two to three miles from railroad or trolley its mud roads, in times of storm call a halt to even the truant officer, yet it is part of Philadelphia's school system, subject to its rules and regulations; the parents of its pupils are taxpaying, law-abiding citizens—and yet under the stress of present financial conditions, which the Board of Education has to meet, these children are deprived of the advantages to which they are as much entitled as the most of more fortunate ones, who develop so beautifully in the environment of modern, well-equipped buildings in other sections.

It is hoped that the carnival of flowers will bring out sharply these contrasts and arouse public opinion to put into the hands of its educative body funds enough to secure the same rights to every child in the conditions of its school life.

Every community would do well to hold a carnival of flowers or its equivalent. Parents may not find it feasible to investigate personally the schools of neighboring towns—although there is also need of this—but surely they should know not by hearsay but by actual investigation, exactly the conditions surrounding their children in school life and how those conditions compare with those of other sections of the same town: if better, why? If not so good, why? And how public opinion can be best and most quickly aroused to provide equally for all children, in the matter of well-equipped, sanitary, adequate school buildings, at least—beyond lies the wide fields of work for smaller classes, and higher salaries—not only for the teachers' sake, but because the rights of the children demand these things.

Do you know, fathers and mothers of Plainfield, how the Franklin School building compares with the Washington? Or the Stillman with the High? And do you realize that upon the parents of a community rests the ultimate responsibility for the conditions of its schools? If you want every child, your own included, to have the equal rights that are the proud boast of our nation, those rights are yours to give or to withhold, according to the measure of your knowledge and active co-operative interest in these matters. The Home and School League of Philadelphia is but a larger edition of our own Parent-Teacher Associations. Will you join in this "Get Together" movement in Plainfield for the sake of the children?

Sex hygiene was discussed in executive session yesterday by the school management committee of the Board of Education, and after adjournment the opinion was expressed that the board will adopt at its meeting next week the proposal to teach the subject in the High Schools in connection with physiology.

It is planned that the Chicago Medical Society select from among its membership men and women physicians best fitted to talk to the boys and girls separately on the subject.

Another proposal is to offer special opportunities for parents of children in the grades to listen to lectures in order that they may the better be able to direct their children along lines of scientific morality.

The committee also discussed in executive session the proposition to teach any modern foreign language in the High Schools where sufficient demand is found. This, it is predicted, will be adopted by the board.

Regular communications of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., will be held on May 14 and 28. On the former date the master mason degree will be conferred on three fellowcrafts, and on May 28, the fellowcraft degree will be conferred on three candidates.

Robert Cuzen, of Newark, has been visiting Plainfield friends.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Home Department of Trinity Reformed church will hold a social at the church, Thursday night, May 16.

Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, will give a five-minute sermon to boys and girls next Sunday morning at 11:25.

The Sunday-school of the Congregational church now meets at 11:50 Sunday mornings and closes at 12:50 o'clock. The regular morning preaching service begins at 10:30 o'clock.

A vesper service will be held at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon, when the pastor, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, will speak of a visit to Iona and "The Story of a Great Apostle, Columba."

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held an all-day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Jones on Mountain avenue, yesterday. Luncheon was served at noon.

The church wardens and vestrymen of St. Stephen's church have issued invitations to a reception to be given to the rector, Rev. Warner E. L. Ward, and Mrs. Ward at Truell Hall, tonight at 8 o'clock.

The members of the First Baptist church are invited to attend a social to be held in the church, Friday night, May 17. An attractive program has been arranged for the occasion and refreshments will be served.

WHITE RIBBONERS OF MORRIS COUNTY MEET

Madison, May 9.—A devotional service, led by Mrs. G. S. M. Doremus; an address of welcome by Mrs Dougal McDougal, and a response by Mrs. H. E. Reed, marked the opening of the semi-annual convention of the Morris County Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the Madison Y. M. C. A. yesterday. Many delegates were in attendance from all over the county, Morristown sending the largest number.

Mrs. E. B. Dickinson addressed the convention on "The Size of Us," and read from a statement many facts on the growth of the union and its work. After a recitation by Mrs. E. H. Tomlinson, of Morristown, the delegates were called upon for a few words each, and many responded. Luncheon was served by the Madison union.

After an executive session another public meeting was begun. The program included instrumental and vocal solos, an address by Mrs. Emma Bourne and a demonstration for children, conducted by Mrs. M. B. Dexter, county superintendent of the Loyal Temperance Legion. Dinner was served to all delegates in the Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock.

Last night a mass meeting opened at 7:45 o'clock. There were a 'cello selection by J. M. Gloeckner, Scripture reading by Rev. George Mooney, an instrumental duet by Mrs. Gloeckner and Mrs. Clayton, and an address by Mrs. Isabella H. Demarest. This meeting was held in Webb Memorial chapel.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Another lean day for the baseball man again yesterday.

Leals and the two High School teams all had to call off their games.

The City High team had counted on their game with Cranford, hoping to wipe out any question as to which team is the better, their first game played here having resulted in a questionable tie.

The Watchung Gun Club holds another shoot day after tomorrow.

Rube Marquard added another Tuesday. We are going to have a rubber stamp made that will announce all of his victories in the future.

But Hub Purdue got his bumps at the hands of the Cubs, Archer registering four clean single at his expense out of his four times up.

"Bugs" Raymond, the erstwhile Giant, has applied for reinstatement to the National Commission and it is thought that he will be successful after paying a $250 fine. McGraw will probably ask wavers upon him as he has no intention of running another Keeley Cure department.

It must be that his Buglets likes not his present company in the U. S. League.

Within a month the Columbia oarsmen will meet Annapolis, Princeton, Pennsylvania and race in the American Henley. Which means a busy session for the water boys.

Judging from the St. Louis games it begins to look as though it would be up to the Giants to show the way before very long.

That seems to be the impression of the St. Louis baseball scribes.

Wolverton seems to think that nothing could have aided the Yankees as the past few rainy days here. The team needed time to catch its breath and the hospital list to recuperate.

We hope that such is the case for they are at the bottom of a very long hill.

One New York scribe says that Leon Ames could always figure on getting a couple of hits during the season, but when he gets two in one day he upsets all dope.

He may not have meant it.

Syracuse has taken the place of the Navy on Princeton's football schedule.

Connie Mack is keeping his eye peeled for college players. Robert Stephenson, a University of Minnesota pitcher, will report in June.

Over thirty boys have signed up for the "Hiking Club" at the Y. M. C. A. so far.

Sherwood Magee, of the Phillies, is back in the game again without having waited for the bones in his hands to fully mend. That is taking a big chance when you consider that a couple of weeks more would have fixed it.

The Chalmers Motor Company have barred any ballplayer who may have won one of their cars from doing so again this season.

That cuts out Frank Schulte and Ty Cobb.

G. A. S.—If the umpire called three strikes and the batter did not run he is out even though the catcher dropped the ball. You are right in thinking that this credits the pitcher with a strikeout.

Chief Meyers, who heads the National League batting list, failed to make a hit in the Monday and Tuesday games.

Matty went to the rescue in another game yesterday. And he rescued it, too.

That doesn't look as though he had lost all of his cunning.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT JACK MARTIN'S JOB

He's Holding Fast to a Grip on It and Isn't Nervous.

Jack Martin has not gone back, neither has he been replaced definitely on the Yankee team by another, as some of his "friends" have been passing out of late. Baseball in the big leagues is a strenuous game and it would be little wonder if the Plainfield favorite should feel a little nervous in his new job at first. Perhaps a few of his "friends" might experience a slight exaggeration of the reflexes under the same conditions. How do you feel when you first start out on a new job?

But Jack hasn't ever been nervous. He has been sick. He told a Daily Press reporter yesterday he felt that he was making good. Those who know the game didn't expect him to go into the game and take Ty Cobb's "rep" away from him the first week and they know that Jack didn't expect to either. But just because he fails to jump into the game and hit .450 these same friends begin to roll their R's at each other on every street corner.

Yesterday Jack talked freely of his big league experience and said that it was not so much different from the minors when one got used to it, aside from the fact that the company was faster. The man that sticks is the man who can go the pace and the big city scribes say that Jack's fielding alone is quite enough to keep him in fast company.

You'll find Martin's name back in the Yankee lineup if the weather man does not compel Wolverton to cut down his squad and organize them into a web-footed water polo team. Even then it's even money that Jack would stick.

PATERSON TEAM FAST SAYS OLD CAP. DRISCOLL

The Paterson team, which comes to the Crescent Oval on Saturday, is strongly recommended by Captain Dave Driscoll, of the Plainfields. That in itself will be sufficient incentive to bring out a large number of fans for Dave knows a ball team when he sees one. If last Saturday's game was a sample of what may be expected throughout the season the baseball loving public will not complain.

Nelson is given the credit for saying that Frederickson has more on the ball than any man he has handled in many a day. These two men with Emery at short make up the list of local players on the team, but the others have cavorted on the Oval so many times that the fans feel well acquainted with them.

Bill Dalton was a favorite here when he played on the old Hoboken team that played here on Saturday afternoons six years ago, and last Saturday's crowd was glad to see him again. The Plainfield team's outfield would be a credit to any minor league in the country. Saturday at 3:30 is the time for the staging of the Paterson attraction.

RAIN PREVENTS GAMES.

The continued rains of yesterday put the quietus on the ball games scheduled by the local scholastic teams. All of these engagements were to have been played out of town and in the case of the City High-Cranford game would have tended to settle the disputed tie of their first game played here on April 24.

JUDGE R. W. ARCHBALD.

Claims Court Justice Under Investigation.

ARCHBALD PROBE REVEALS "DEAL"

E. J. Williams Says Judge Was In With Him.

PLANNED TO MAKE $12,000.

Claims Commerce Court Jurist Was "Silent Party" In Purchase of Culm Banks From Erie Railroad—Note For $500 Figures In the Case.

GROUNDS FOR ACTION IN ARCHBALD CASE.

Alleged activity in buying culm dumps from railroad companies and then reselling them at big profits.

A reported activity in trying to engender the sale of a coal company which was on trial in the United States court in an assumpsit proceeding to the Lackawanna railroad company, which was in turn being prosecuted by the company before the interstate commerce commission.

A transaction in which it is alleged a note of Judge Archbald's for $500 was offered for discount to the defendant in a suit on trial in that court.

A letter purporting to have been written by an official high in the service of the Lackawanna company in which the result of a suit in the district court here and in which W. P. Boland, the independent coal operator behind the charges against Judge Archbald was the defendant was forecasted, it is claimed.

WHAT WILLIAMS SAYS.

Judge Archbald told me he would see the attorney of the Erie about culm bank option. Later he told me he had seen him. Then I went up and got the contract. I offered the judge a half interest in the deal because I thought it was going to be a help.

I referred to Judge Archbald in the papers as a "silent party" because I thought it was unlawful for a judge to be in such a deal. Judge Archbald knew his name was not going to be used. His interest was worth $12,000. He never paid any money.

Washington, May 9.—At the first session of the house judiciary committee which is to determine whether or not impeachment proceedings shall be begun against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States commerce court, evidence was brought out which seems to be unfavorable to the jurist.

Edward J. Williams, a coal broker of Scranton, Pa., who was an equal partner with Judge Archbald in the purchase from the Erie railroad of the culm banks on which they were to make large profits, testified that the New York lighterage cases were pending before the commerce court for decision when Judge Archbald undertook to negotiate with the Erie railroad officials for the purchase of these piles of waste coal. The Erie railroad is interested in these lighterage cases, which were decided against the railroads and were carried to the commerce court on appeal.

A contract drawn between Williams and another Scranton coal broker was introduced in evidence. This contract referred to "a silent party" as holding an interest in the culm piles with Williams. The latter testified that Judge Archbald was the "silent party."

From the testimony of Williams it was shown that he had been unable to buy the culm banks from the Erie railroad until Judge Archbald became his partner; that Judge Archbald conferred with Vice President Brownell of the Erie and that the Erie immediately thereafter granted an option to Williams.

Expected to Make $12,000.

Williams testified that he and Judge Archbald expected to make a net profit of $12,000 in the transaction. The inquiry committee was not confined entirely to this culm bank transaction. There were suggestions that there might be other important developments before the investigation was over.

Williams testified that with the knowledge of Judge Archbald he tried to get W. P. Boland, a coal broker of Scranton, to discount Archbald's note for $500. At that time Boland had a case pending in the United States district court in Pennsylvania before Judge Archbald. Boland refused to discount the note, and a statement purporting to bear Williams' signature was placed in evidence in which Williams is represented as having told Boland he had made a mistake, for he would have saved all the costs in the case if he had discounted the note.

Williams denied that he had ever signed such a statement, but admitted that he may have told Boland that the suit might have been decided differently if he had discounted the note.

T. R. READY FOR FRAY IN OHIO; TAFT BUSY

Colonel Plans For Crucial Battle; President's Final Week.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 9.—As the reports of the Roosevelt successes in Texas, Washington, Kansas and Minnesota roll in on top of the Maryland victory, the colonel is overjoyed.

Ohio is in the foreground now as the next and almost the final battlefield. Colonel Roosevelt refuses to comment on the outlook, saying:

"I'm a better warrior than a prophet."

The ground for the Ohio fight is being gone over most carefully. No detail is being lost sight of. The colonel is going a day ahead of time previously announced, leaving on Monday instead of Tuesday.

"When you hear me squeal because I'm hit, you'll notice it," was the colonel's answer to the president's cry in Ohio that he is being "hit below the belt."

Comptroller Prendergast will aid Roosevelt in Ohio. He will leave for Ohio on Sunday.

Taft's Big Week In Ohio.

Columbus, O., May 9.—President Taft will spend eight days, beginning next Monday, campaigning in Ohio. His itinerary covers practically every city of more than 5,000 inhabitants.

The principal speeches will be as follows: Monday evening, Steubenville; Tuesday evening, Youngstown; Wednesday evening, Sandusky; Thursday evening, Cleveland; Friday evening, Toledo; Saturday evening, Springfield.

Mr. Taft made a vigorous speech at the Memorial hall, in which he criticised the political relations existing between Colonel Roosevelt and George W. Perkins, one of Mr. Roosevelt's campaign managers.

Kansas Goes For Roosevelt.

Independence, Kan., May 9.—The Roosevelt party were in control of the state Republican convention here by a majority of virtually 7 to 1. Out of the 898 delegates in the convention Taft had only 104. Four delegates at large, Henry J. Allen of Wichita, Ralph Harris of Ottawa, John Landon of Independence and Judge A. R. Clark of Sterling were chosen and instructed for Roosevelt.

An Ironing Tip.

Here is a solution for ironing a buttoned frock, shirt or, in fact, any garment that has a row of buttons. Fold a Turkish towel into several thicknesses. Lay the garment with the buttons downward on the towel and iron it on the wrong side. The buttons will sink into the towel, and the garment will be smooth and well ironed.

ALL HEADLINE ACTS ON THE CIRCUS BILL

Head-Walker's Show in Himself—Pretty Girls in Surprising Numbers.

With every act from start to finish a splendid one, Frank A. Robbins All-Feature show gave two performances here yesterday. The bad weather kept many people away in the afternoon, but at night there was a tent full of spectators. The show fully verified the claim that it was an "All-Feature Show." There was not an act that was not well costumed and mounted, or which failed to bring forth applause from the spectators.

Hillary Long about whom so much was said in the advance notices was all that was claimed and more. This young man seemed to be able to do a good many things while standing on his head that some people could not do when in a more natural position. He smoked, drank water and juggled while balanced on his head and swinging in a trapeze, slid down a thirty foot wire to the ground with only a little cap for protection of the top of his skull and later bounced down a flight of eight steps without touching the ground with any other part of his body than the top of his skull. His act is one which it is hard to believe possible until it is seen and he gives a whole show in himself.

There were a score or more of aerial acts, as many as five being in progress at one time, and all were splendid. The Benshlin troupe did a splendid casting act, and there was a graceful and well mounted wire act which is seldom equaled with a road show.

The riding of the Carreas was pleasing, and the work of the performing horses and beats brought forth applause from the spectators. There was a group of clowns, one of them being about as funny as it is possible to imagine. He made up as a burlesque policeman, and he was always in the arena keeping those nearby in constant laughter with his funny antics. The music was far above the average of show bands, and so was the average good looks and youth among the forty women of the troup. The small boy had a real excuse for thinking he looked on angelic being in spangles.

The menagerie has been much enlarged since the show was here last year. One feature of it is a baby kangeroo, which was born during the winter, and which spends most of its time in the mother's pouch, sticking it's little head out when anything to eat is tassed into the cage.

The show was well conducted and the attendants throughout tried to make the patrons comfortable under the adverse weather conditions. It was dry within the tent, in spite of the down pour of rain during the day and on Tuesday, demonstrating that waterproof canvas is literally possible. A show of the calibre of that which appeared yesterday is always welcome in Plainfield.

—Music hath charms, but it isn't the song birds that make the best pot-pies.

W. BIRD, P. M.

Said the 16th President of the United States

I don't think much of the man who is not wiser today than he was yesterday.

Nor do I think much of the man who is not "clothes wiser" this season than last.

You must see these new Spring Suits priced at $10, $12, $15, $18, $20

even if you don't buy them, because it's educational to see how I have gone ahead of any store in Plainfield in the matter of good workmanship and dapper designing.

Double the price at a tailors can buy more aggravation, more disappointments and more tiresome try-ons, but it can't buy more "Style Elegance."

TRENTON DOG CATCHER PAID MORE THAN MAYOR

Trenton, May 9.—In point of financial return it is better to be dog catcher than Mayor of this city. The records show that the dog catcher between March 1, 1911, and February 29 last received more in fees than the Mayor did in salary.

Christian Stubenazy, the dog policeman, collected during the time mentioned $4,063 in fees for wandering canines. He is paid at the rate of $1 per dog, and this means that he rounded up about 340 dogs per month. His return was about $1,000 more than is paid members of the City Commission.

Dog catching is not likely to be so profitable this year, as the city has appropriated for this work $3,000.

RESULT OF COMMISSION ELECTION, LONG BRANCH

Long Branch, May 9.—Five Commissioners were elected under the Walsh Commission Government act to govern the city for four years. The successful candidates and their votes are: Bryant B. Newcomb, 1563; Thomas V. Arrowsmith, 1502; John W. Flock, 1164; Frank L. Howland, 1116; Marshall Woolley, 1064. All but Mr. Woolley held city offices.

The new commissioners will organize next Tuesday. It is expected that Mr. Newcomb will be elected Mayor. His salary will be $2,500. The others will receive $2,000 each.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BANGHART.

Glen Gardner, May 9.—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Banghart, sixty years old, who died at her home near Anthony on Sunday, will be held today in the Spruce Run Lutheran church, of which she was a member. The pastor, Rev. Stanley Haverly, will officiate. Burial will be in the family plot in the old Spruce Run cemetery. Mrs. Banghart was the widow of Watson Banghart and leaves one granddaughter and one brother.

DESPONDENT, HE HANGS HIMSELF TO DOORKNOB

Perth Amboy, May 9.—Despondent because with his low wages he could not see how to pay for a home he recently bought, John Napp hanged himself while his wife was out working.

Napp had complained of not feeling well and remained in bed when Mrs. Napp went out for the day. When she returned at night she had difficulty in opening the door of their bedroom. It was forced open, and Napp's body was found hanging from the doorknob. He had used a strap in killing himself, and his head was less than a foot from the floor.

Mrs. Napp said that her husband had worried a great deal about financial matters since he was discharged as cured from the State Hospital for the Insane at Trenton a few months ago.

ELIZABETH MAN'S BODY IS FOUND ON MEADOWS

The body of Thomas Campbell Dowd, of Elizabeth, for whom the local police were asked to search Tuesday, was found yesterday afternoon by Charles Ward lying in a foot of water on the Newark-Elizabeth meadows. He had been missing from his home, 134 Madison avenue, Elizabeth, since Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Dowd was seventy-seven years old, and for fifty years had been in the employ of the Lackawanna Railroad, being at one time its cashier. He was retired on a pension seven years ago.

The aged man is supposed to have wandered away from home while partly deranged and perished from exposure. He had lived forty years in Elizabeth, and is survived by a widow, two sons and one daughter. The body was removed to Martin's morgue, where County Physician Westcott made an investigation this morning and gave a burial permit.

TO REPAIR ROADS OF BERNARDS TOWNSHIP

Bernardsville, May 9.—Road repairs and a complaint regarding the sale of land for taxes were matters considered at a meeting of the Bernards Township Committee.

The tax complaint was from Mrs. Albert C. Petrick. Chairman Frank B. Allen read a letter from Mrs. Petrick, who explained that lots she owned had probably been mixed with others in the tax sale. The matter was refrred to the clerk.

Property offered by Charles A. Moran for a new road near his place was accepted. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Bernardsville Improvement Society, through its secretary Miss M. Louise Meigh, called attention to the condition of the mountain road which connects the Claremont and Anderson roads. Repairs will be made.

Other roads to be repaired are the thoroughfare past the Catholic church, that near the home of J. E. Hulsizer, Quimby lane, Thompson avenue and three others in that vicinity. The back road in the village of Far Hills will be repaired, as will the highway near the Millington River and the thoroughfare from Somerset Inn to the Bensel and Jockey Hollow road.

Frederick E. Ballentine and David Buist are to report regarding the repairs needed to First, Orchard and Dayton streets. Henry Schenerman was authorized to repair the road near the old schoolhouse at Basking Ridge. Action as to the thoroughfare from Madisonville to Van Horn's mill was deferred.

Electric light poles are to be erected from Van Cleve Meeker's property to Green's Corner. Justice of the Peace James F. Guerin was named recorder at a salary of $150 per year. The committee decided to borrow $1,500 in anticipation of taxes.

The Board of Health heard a complaint from Andrew Carlson regarding a cesspool. A place is to be found for dumping paper and rubbish in Merchantville. F. F. Burnett, of Liberty Corner, was granted a permit to sell ice. The clerk is to notify other dealers to renew their permits.

ADVENTISTS' CONFERENCE

Camp Meeting and Annual Session Here From June 27 to July 7.

DOCTRINE OF BELIEVERS

Members of the Denomination Expect the Second Coming of the Lord in This Generation—Signs They Count On.

The Seventh-day Adventists will hold their next campmeeting and annual conference at Plainfield, June 27 to July 7. Delegates will be sent to these meetings from various parts of the state. Some of their missionaries will also be present from foreign lands.

These annual gatherings of the Adventists are peaceable and orderly occasions, and have left a good influence wherever held. Several such meetings have been held in Trenton, Woodbury and other places.

The Adventists claim the Bible alone as the basis of their beliefs, which do not agree with many views held by other denominations. The name of the denomination is characteristic of their doctrines:

"Seventh-day," because they believe in "following the injunction of Jehovah at creation, when He commanded 'Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy,' and which was reiterated by Jesus Christ when he was on earth when, in speaking to his followers of the imminent destruction of Jerusalem, he said, 'Pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day.'"

"Adventist," believe in the second advent of Jesus Christ to this earth. The Adventists believe that this return will be in the present generation, although disclaiming any knowledge of the day or the hour. They base their belief on the prophecies of scripture, taking, for instance, the inquiry made by His disciples to Jesus Christ while on earth, "Tell us when shall these things be, and what shall be the sign of thy coming and the end of the world." To which He replied, referring to the trees about Him, "When his branch is yet tender and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh; so likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the door." Included in the "these things," as referred to in St. Matthew the 24th chapter, are "the sun shall be darkened and the moon shal not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven." The sun and the moon were darkened May 19, 1780, and the stars fell from heaven Nov. 13, 1833, all of which are still a mystery to science. And it is added, "This generation (That sees these things) shall not pass until all these things be fulfilled," to which St. Mark 13th chapter adds, "And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory."

The Adventists also lay stress in the statement made by Jesus Christ that "this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto al nations, and then shall the end come." They are nowputting out 121 periodicals in 28 languages, and other publications in 70 languages. They have sanitariums and schools in all parts of the world; also publishing houses, from which they sent out publications last year amounting to over a million and a half dollars.

Seventh-day Adventists are energetic in the temperance work. During the political campaign in Maine in 1911, at which time it was endeavored to make the state "wet," they circulated 55,000 copies out of a total circulation of 326,000 of their temperance magazine, the "Temperance Instructor Annual," in that state alone, and the temperance workers give large credit to that magazine for the success of the "dry" campaign. This year the same Temperance Annual is aiming at a circulation of 500,000 copies, of which a large number are now being circulated in New Jersey. Their state headquarters are the New Jersey Tract Society, 1109 Division street, Trenton, N. J.

INVITATION CONCERT BY Y. W. C. A. MUSICIANS

The Glee Club and orchestra of the Young Women's Christian Association gave a concert last night in the association parlors to 160 invited guests. The conductors were E. F. Smith, Mrs. Charles S. Day with Miss Jessie Utter at the piano. B. B. Pedigrue was the soloist and that his selections were greatly appreciated by the audience was attested by the number of encores to which he responded.

The program included three excellent selections each by the orchestra and the glee club, and Mr. Pedigrue was down twice. Following the program refreshments were served to the members and guests.

MRS. E. S. GUNNISON ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Many Out-of-Town Guests Among Those Who Enjoyed an Afternoon at Cards.

Mrs. Stanley E. Gunnison, of East Seventh street, gave a delightful bridge this afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers the color effect being red and white. There were nine tables in play and at the conclusion handsome prizes were given the winners.

Mrs. Gunnison's guests from out of town were:

Mrs. C. W. Mulford, Bayshore; Mrs. J. F. McKinney, Madison; Mrs. Fred E. Gunnison, Miss Adelaide Gunnison, Miss Portia Gunnison, Mrs. Benj. T. Butterworth, Mrs. Henry L. O'Brien, Mrs. Hubert J. Iler, all of Brooklyn, and Mrs. E. B. Latham, Dunellen.

From Plainfield were Mrs. Calvin E. Brodhead, Mrs. John R. Evans, Mrs. Joseph K. Larkin, Mrs. E. L. Allen, Mrs. A. W. Opp, Mrs. William T. Carothers, Mrs. F. W. Carlisle, Mrs. Clifford E. Dunn, Mrs. Ralph L. Morrow, Mrs. P. V. Martin, Mrs. S. L. Crosings, Mrs. C. E. Lipscomb, Mrs. George Brisbane, Mrs. T. O. Budenbach, Mrs. Blancke and Miss L. Curtis.

PARISHIONERS GREET MR. AND MRS. WARD

Reception Arranged by Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church.

The first formal presentation of Rev. and Mrs. Warner E. L. Ward to the parishioners, since the former's induction as rector of St. Stephen's church, was conducted in the assembly room at Truell Hall, last night. The affair was conducted by the wardens and vestrymen, with the assistance of their wives, and was attended by 200 members and friends of the parish. An informal program of music was enjoyed from 8 until 9:30, after which dancing was the leading diversion for several hours, Wetton's orchestra, of Roselle, furnishing the accompaniment. Refreshments were served during an intermission.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward were assisted in receiving by Mrs. H. K. Tetsuka, Mrs. Charles Sturtevant, Mrs. C. P. Hamilton, Mrs. Charles R. Banks, Mrs. Orlando P. Metcalf and Mrs. W. R. Townsend. The officers of the church acting as ushers were Charles A. Sturtevant, W. L. Lockwood, Charles R. Banks, C. D. Hamilton and O. P. Metcalf.

The room was prettily decorated for the occasion with palms, plants and cut flowers. The arrangement was made by a committee composed of Mrs. H. K. Tetsuka, Mrs. Clifford Dunn, Mrs. W. W. Coriell, Mrs. W. M. Uhler and the Misses Curtis.

MRS. H. K. HIGGINS DIES AT THIRTY-SEVEN

Mrs. Howard K. Higgins, aged 37 years, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 431 East Fifth street, following an illness of several months. She was a native of Flemington, and had resided here about twelve years. While a resident of Flemington, Mrs. Higgins united with the First Baptist church of that place, and when she came to this city, she joined Trinity Reformed church, where she was an attendant. A husband, who is employed as bookkeeper by George J. Tobin, and one daughter, Glenna, aged five years, survive.

The funeral will be held at the late home Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Rev. J. Y. Broek officiating, and another service will be held at the First Baptist church, Flemington, on Monday, of which Mr. Broek will have charge. The burial will be at Flemington.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Haney, of East Third street, entertained a number of friends at their home, last night, in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hapney. Dancing and music were features, after which refreshments were served. William Wagner furnished music for dancing.

NEW WALK.

A much needed improvement is being made at the North Plainfield police headquarters. De Nice & Barrett have the contract for laying a new concrete walk in front of the building, to take the place of the old stone one that has become badly worn.

FOR EARLY ELECTION ON COMM. GOV'T IDEA

Howard H. Williams Makes Suggestions Regarding Quick Action.

Editors, Plainfield Daily Press:

Noticing your editorial in Wednesday's issue with regard to Commission Government I write to offer you the support of a considerable number of people who have been interested in obtaining that form of government for Plainfield, and who have had a petition quietly in circulation which has now secured a large number of names although not yet enough to comply with the requirements of the law that 20% of the voters at the last State election should sign such a petition before a special election is called to vote upon the matter. It has occurred to us that it would be very practicable to hold the special election on the same day as the national primaries because a large number of voters will presumably attend the polls on that day to make known their preference for Presidential candidates, and an opportunity could be given them to express their decision on the question of the commission form of government at the same time without involving the city in any additional cost except for the slight expense of the ballots.

If this suggestion should be adopted it would be necessary to file the petition with the City Clerk not later than May 13th, which is next Monday. Such a petition must have no fewer than 500 signatures. It would be impossible for a single group of men to obtain that number of signatures in the few days remaining, but I suggest that if you are willing to do so you might publish in a conspicuous place in your paper a coupon to be signed by those of your readers who are voters and mailed by them to you, to be filed with the City Clerk when a sufficient number is received. This coupon should be in the form of a petition, and either Mr. Moy or Mr. Holt would, I am sure, be glad to give you the necessary phraseology. Last yast Mr. Moy had a number of copies printed for convenience in obtaining signatures and the form he used could be followed. I am,

Very truly yours,
HOWARD H. WILLIAMS.
May 9, 1912.

(While appreciating fully Mr. Williams' valued communication and his commendation of the proposed change in the municipal system, we do not consider it advisable to have this most important matter passed upon with any undue haste. Many voters have not informed themselves upon the merits of this plan of government and we believe that conservative agitation with a campaign of education is necessary. First and foremost the impression should not be made that there is any politics in the agitation. It would be unfortunate indeed if any politics should be allowed to play a part in the campaign or the verdict. During the last few days the editors of this paper have interviewed a considerable number of taxpayers, who hold widely different beliefs in matters of National, State and local politics. Organization and Progressive Republicans, and Democrats of all shades of opinion, have been consulted as to their views, and we have yet to discuss the subject with one who opposes a change and does not favor commission government. But let the matter be talked over fairly and calmly, free from political prejudice, and then the people can go to the polls and give their verdict.—Editors.)

Councilman Francis E. Mygatt, chairman of the Finance Committee, is in favor of the Commission form of Government for Plainfield. The following letter from him appeared in this week's issue of the Constitutionalist:

Editor of the Constitutionalist:

Dear Sir: Enclosed herewith please find petition for Commission Government, signed by me.

I take pleasure in signing this petition, and forwarding it to you. From my experience with the Council I am strongly of the opinion that a Commission form of Government would be of advantage to the City of Plainfield, and I am hopeful that your efforts in that direction may meet with success.

Very truly yours,
FREDERIC E. MYGATT.
Plainfield, May 7th, 1912.

Councilmen Holt and Endress in interviews with the editors of the Daily Press yesterday also strongly favored a commission form of government for Plainfield.

C. E. UNION IN ANNUAL SESSION

Aldene Society Awarded the Banner for Largest Attendance of Members.

PLAINFIELDERS ELECTED

William Conger a Vice-President and Miss Lena Bohan Treasurer—Plea for Support of Mountain Top Court.

Officers were elected, reports for the year preesnted and the attendance banner awarded at the annual convention of the Union County Christian Endeavor Society at the First Presbyterian church last night. While many of the societies throughout the county were represented, the attendance was not as large as usual. Charles Springstead, of Westfield, the retiring president, was in charge.

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor of the entertaining church, conducted the devotional exercises and Miss Ruth Sadler, soprano soloist of the church, sang a solo, accompanied by Fred J. Harold on the organ.

The nominating committee of which Clarence B. LaRue was chairman, presented the following list of officers which was elected, the secretary casting the ballot:

The nominating committee, of Rahway; vice presidents, C. R. Taintor, of Elizabeth; William Conger, of Plainfield; S. Clark Lum, Jr., of Union; Arthur Hazeltine, of Westfield; secretary, Walter O. Anderson, of Elizabeth; treasurer, Miss Lena Bohan, of Plainfield.

Miss Florence Matthews, the retiring secretary, presented an excellent report for the year, giving in detail an account of the many conferences held throughout the county. She reported a total of about 69 societies with an aggregate membership of about 2,000.

Purdy Benedict, the treasurer, reported receipts of $37.44, and disbursements of $37.10, leaving a balance of 34 cents. He made a strong plea for the support of the Endeavorers for the fresh air camp which is maintained near Scotch Plains, stating that $538 had already been pledged for the year, with a balance of $80 in the treasury. The committee in charge of this work, of which Fred C. Lounsbury is chairman, desire $1,500 to carry on the work during the summer.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Aldene was awarded the attendance banner, based on the largest percentage of attendance of active members. This society has twelve active members, nine of which were present last night.

After the business of the evening, Rev. Dr. Samuel Love Loomis, pastor of the Congregational church, of Westfield, addressed the Endeavorers on the subject of "Efficiency." He said that there was a demand for intelligent and skilled workmen, and nowhere was this more apparent than in solving religious problems. He urged the Endeavorers to strive for the greatest efficiency and co-operation in carrying on their work.

The service closed with the benediction by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring.

STANDARD OIL FILES PLANS WITH DOANE

Would Erect a $50,000 Distributing Plant in the West End.

Representatives from the New York office of the Standard Oil Company were in this city yesterday to file an application, plans and specifications, with Building Inspector T. O. Doane for the erection of a new local distributing plant to cost about $50,000. The plant site is on West Front street below Rock avenue. It would take the place of the present unsightly tanks and building on East Second street, between Washington and Richmond.

The plans call for a two-story storage building, an office, stable, wagon shed and a large pit. All of these are to be of solid fire-proof construction, of any material that the Common Council may specify. The company says it is ready to meet any reasonable requirements that may be made by the city fathers.

The application must be considered first by the Fire and Buildings Committee of the Common Council and then by the full Council.

FUNERAL OF W. A. JOHNSON.

The funeral of Walter A. Johnson was held at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock this morning, there being a large gathering of friends of the young man, including his classmates in the eighth grade of the Parochial School. Father B. M. Bogan, pastor of the church, officiated. The burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, classmates serving as pall-bearers.

YOUNG JAILBREAKER CAPTURED IN MAINE

Letter to Relatives the Undoing of Seventeen-Year-old Fugitive.

Edward Coffey, the seventeen-year-old boy arrested three weeks ago with Raymond Wilson, same age, charged with executing a string of petty thefts, who escaped from the station house the next day, was captured in Oakland, Me., yesterday.

Coffey got away from the station house through the window of the washroom. He got permission from the policeman in charge to leave his cell and wash up, and found a window conveniently unfastened. He seized the opportunity, and fled the city.

The police began watching for mail from him to cronies and relatives in this city. A week ago they ran across a letter in which Coffey informed a boy chum that he was about to ship on a freighter bound out of Boston for Liverpool.

The police were getting to the point of cabling the boy's description to Liverpool, when another letter, directed to a relative, fell into Detective Sergeant Flynn's hands. That letter disclosed the fact that Coffey was in Oakland. Chief Kiely made the wires to Oakland hum, and the arrest followed. The boy will be extradited.

NEW BELL WILL BE BLESSED BY BISHOP

Impressive Ceremony at Mt. St. Mary's College on Sunday, May 19.

Bishop McFaul, head of the Catholic diocese of Trenton, and other dignitaries of the church will be present at Mt. St. Mary's College Sunday, May 19, to take part in the blessing of the new bell which will take the place of the one destroyed in the fire that gutted the college building in March, 1911.

It is expected that at least 10,000 people will attend the impressive ceremony. All the societies of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's parishes will turn out in force. The priests and societies of all the neighboring parishes have been invited, and good-sized delegations are expected from as far away as Trenton.

The service will begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

P. S. R. RESPONDS TO MAYOR MOY'S SPUR

Manager Writes That Division Superintendent Has Been Ordered to Get Busy.

Mayor G. W. V. Moy received a letter today from General Manager Danforth, of the Public Service Railway, acknowledging receipt of his letter complaining about the defects in the local trolley equipment, and informing the executive that the complaints had been referred to the superintendent of this division with instructions to give them his attention.

The defects complained of included loose joints in trolley tracks, depressions in the roadbed alongside the tracks, and loose-hanging overhead wires. The Mayor gave the company thirty days in which to make ther epairs. Failure to comply with the request makes the company liable to a fine of $20 a day for each and every day after the expiration of the specified period.

Morrow, Republican, of Plainfield, acted on the recommendations for appointees, mally appointed by the court. maly appointed by the court.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WENDEL.

The funeral of Mrs. Marie K. Wendel, widow of Henry Wendel, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the late home, 330 East Third street. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. The burial was in North Plainfield cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Martel, of West Fourth street, have removed to Duer street. Their former residence has been reased by Frank J. Shattle.

MEYER SACHAR TAKES REVENGE ON FATHER

Ordered from House, He Chops up Harness and Mars a Carriage.

Disgrunted because he had been ordered to stay away from his father's home on West Third street, Meyer Sachar, 26 years old, son of Jacob Sacher, went to his father's barn yesterday afternoon and destroyed a set of harness and ripped the upholstery from a carriage. The young man is being held at police headquarters today, for examination as to his sanity.

There has been ill-feeling between Meyer and his people for several years. Last Saturday he created a disturbance at the house, and his father had him arrested. Jacob Sachar told City Judge William G. De Meza that he didn't want Meyer about the house, and the young man was ordered to stay away by the magistrate.

Yesterday afternoon Meyer went to the Sachar barn and after chopping a set of harness into little bits, he ripped every stitch of upholstery from a carriage. When Sachar discovered the damage it wasn't hard to guess who had done it. Meyer's arrest followed.

He told Judge De Meza today that he went to the barn to "get square." With Mr. Sachar's consent the young man was remanded for examination as to his sanity.

LIMIT OF LAW FOR "BAD" COLORED MAN

Britton Drew Knife on Restaurant Keeper After Refusing to Pay Bill.

The heaviest sentence in the power of the court to inflict was passed today on Eugene Britton, colored, by City Judge William G. DeMeza. Britton refused to pay for fifteen cents worth of food he ordered in Smelson Bros. restaurant on Somerset street last night, and flourished a knife when Max Smelson barred his escape from the place.

Britton has a record that includes commitments to Rahway Reformatory and State Prison. He appeared at the restaurant at 11:30 o'clock last night, and ordered ham and beans and coffee. After finishing them he made for the door and laughed scornfully at Smelson's request for fifteen cents. Smelson dove from behind the lunch counter and got ahead of him to the door.

The negro pulled a knife. Smelson dodged the weapon and closed with Britton. Louis Kadesh, who lives next to the restaurant, saw the tussle from outside and ran with tidings of it to Policeman Nolan on the corner. When Nolan came up on the run Britton tried to escape through a back door of the restaurant. The policeman overhauled and overpowered him.

Judge De Meza fined the negro $100 and sentenced him to fifty-nine days in the county jail, and held him for the Grand Jury in addition on charge of felonious assault.

PROBATION COURT CASE.

Herman Shrager, of West Third street, and William Locke, 18 years old, of West Sixth street, were arraigned in the City Court today, charged with fighting at Plainfield avenue and West Third street, last night. Shrager told City Judge William G. DeMeza that Locke, in company with several other youths, insulted two young women with whom he Shrager, was conversing at the corner. Shrager said he protested, and that Locke returned and started fighting. The complaint against Shrager was dismissed, and Locke was ordered to appear tomorrow before the probation officer.

SODALITY EUCHRE.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Mary's parish gave a largely attended progressive euchre in Commercial Hall, last night. Twenty-five tables were in play and the leading prizes were awarded as follows: Women's, first, Miss Helen Walsh; second, Miss Helen Reagan; men's, first, James Kyle; second, David B. Doyle. Dancing was enjoyed to conclusion. The committee in charge was composed of the Misses Anna Sullivan, Margaret Connolly, Catherine Powers and Elizabeth J. Brown.

LODGE CARD PARTY.

Unity Lodge, No. 162, K. of P., entertained a large gathering of members and friends at a euchre and social in its castle hall, last night. Souvenirs were presented Mrs. Thorn, Mrs. Wyckoff, Howard Ayers and D. J. Gavin for excellence in scores. Refreshments were served. The affair was arranged by a committee composed of Charles W. DeGraw, Jerry VanWinkle and Joseph Sheppard.

BULLOCK WRONG ASSERTS BERGEN

Head of Water Co. Takes Exception to Former Councilman's Statement.

SAYS CONTRACT IS MET

Pressure up to Specifications, Plainfield-Union President Contends, Except for Few Days During Sultry Spell in 1910.

Frank Bergen, president of the Plainfield-Union Water Company, has written a letter to the Daily Press in which he takes exceptions to some statements made by William Starr Bullock, in a contributed editorial published last Saturday night. Mr. Bergen says that the service which his company gives the city is fully up to the specifications of the contract, and that the editorial in question was very much in error. His communication is as follows:

Newark, N. J., May 9, 1912.
Editor Plainfield Daily Press,
Press,

Sir: The practice of publishing the views of prominent citizens on public affairs is so commendable that unnecessary fault finding should be avoided, but there are several erroneous statements in the article of Mr. William Starr Bullock, published in the Press on the fourth instant that should be corrected. Discussing the water pressure in Plainfield, Mr. Bullock says: "The water company's agreement with the city was—and is—that there should be maintained a pressure sufficient to throw six streams eighty feet vertically. There has not been an hour in the last five years when this test could be met." There are three errors in that short statement: (1) the company has no agreement with the city; (2) the agreement made May 1st, 1892, which expired on the 1st instant, did not require the company to maintain pressure sufficient to throw six streams eighty feet vertically; and (3) it is not true that there has not been an hour in the last five years when the test stated in the agreement could be met.

The test for pressure that appeared in the contract and was prescribed by the city was this: "Five (5) streams shall be thrown, each one eighty (80) feet high to extreme drops, at one and the same time, each through fifty (50) feet of two and a half (2½) inch hose, with one and one-eighth (1⅛) inch straight conical nozzles, from any fire hydrants on the mains of the company within that part of the city bounded by Richmond street, Green Brook, Grant avenue and Ninth street, to be designated by said Council, or committee or chief."

The contract mentions any five, not six, hydrants, and they must be within a defined part of the city. The company began to supply water in Plainfield on the seventeenth of October, 1891, and there has not been an hour from that day to this when the test prescribed in the contract could not be more than fulfilled, except for a few hours on five or six evenings during the sultry and dry summer of 1910, when the water works were being used somewhat recklessly for irrigating and refrigerating purposes. When misuse of the works was stopped the maximum pressure was immediately restored. Since 1910 the capacity of the pumping station has been doubled.

Mr. Bullock also says: "The water mains are old, with but few exceptions. They are not large enough in most instances to supply the present day needs of the city and at the same time efficiently handle the overload of fire requirements. The auxiliary stand pipe on the mountain near the Groszmann School in North Plainfield is practically a failure in relieving the situation." The fact is there never has been a fire in Plainfield that exhausted the water in the large tank on the mountain. The quantity of water used at a fire in Plainfield is trifling compared with the capacity of the pumps at Netherwood, and does not add appreciably during fires to the quantity that is being used for other purposes.

The statement that the mains are not large enough in most instances to supply the normal present day needs of the city and at the same time handle efficiently the overload of fire requirements is also incorrect. Part of that statement may be corrected by opening a faucet, and the rest by the record of the fire department of Plainfield. There are three hundred and seventy-three hydrants in Plainfield and all of those hydrants except three are on mains six inches and larger in diameter. A sixteen inch main extends from the pumping station at Netherwood to Somerset street, and a twelve inch main nearly surrounds the central part of the city. The entire built-up portion of the city is covered by a net work of six inch mains connected with larger mains and reinforcing one another.

The effectiveness of a hydrant de-

German Valley

Improvements are being made on the old Gulick farm near Chester. The farm has been idle since the mining boom nearly twenty years ago. A Philadelphia man has purchased it and will make his summer home there.

M. Bird Robinson, Benas Larison, Elmer C. Searles, Jr., Arnold Nichols and Hillard F. Best, pupils in the Chester Public School, have entered the Morris county corn-growing contest.

Memorial Day will be observed in German Valley by a celebration under the auspices of Sago Tribe, I. O. R. M., and Evening Star Lodge, K. of P.

Mrs. Samuel V. Pullman and daughters, of New York, will occupy their summer home in Chester, the last of this month.

Jacob Bleudenthal, of Atlantic City, is spending the summer with John W. Rourk and family, in Chester.

James M. Frost will move from Chester to his farm, near Coomb's Hollow within a few weeks.

Mrs. William Parker, of German Valley, is entertaining her sister, Miss Laureda B. Cooper.

FOR GOVERNOR WILSON'S PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

Trenton, May 10.—Members of the State Democratic committee, candidates for election as Wilson delegates to the national Democratic convention and other Democrats identified in the movement to secure the nomination of Governor Wilson for President met here yesterday. They talked over the outlook for the Governor and made plans for the conduct of the campaign that will end with the primaries on May 28. The meeting was held behind closed doors.

Governor Wilson was in attendance. From Essex county came John L. Armitage, one of the candidates for alternate-at-large; the other five candidates for alternate-at-large, the candidates for delegates from the Eighth, Ninth and Tenth districts, together with the alternates, besides members of the Wilson League.

HEAR VETERANS' TRIP HAS BEEN ABANDONED

Washington, N. J., May 10.—Local members have received word that the annual excursion of the Fifteenth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteer Regiment, will not be run to Southern battlefields this year. It had been planned to run the 1912 excursion, May 14, to Virginia and Washington. The requests for tickets, however, did not warrant the officials in going ahead, and it was decided to abandon the idea.

The association has conducted six annual excursions and from ten to twenty-five Washington residents took the trip, which started from Newark, and usually lasted four or five days.

BASEBALL POOLS ARE BEING INVESTIGATED

Evidence against gambling promoters who have established in various cities headquarters for pools on the results of baseball games played by the teams of the three big league is being collected preparatory to starting a crusade to save the national game from the stigma which clung to and eventually crushed the sport of horse racing in this country. Several such pools are being conducted in this city on a large scale.

Thus far the investigators have established that thousands of dollars are being spent daily by patrons of the pools. Tickets in a majority of the pools sell for twenty-five cents each. The purchaser selects one club in each three big leagues—the National, the American and the International. The scores made by the three clubs during a week's playing are totaled and the person who has named the three clubs having the highest score wins the first prize.

EVERYONE WONDERING WHY RAYMOND WAS REINSTATED

Cincinnati, O., May 10.—One of the most humorous decisions perpetrated by the National Commission was handed down yesterday in the reinstatement of Arthur L. ("Bugs") Raymond, the eccentric spitball tosser of the New York Giants. As a result the baseball sharps of this burg are speculating as to where to hang the joke—it might be tacked on "Bugs," McGraw of the Triumvirate.

Possibly it was meant for an infliction on McGraw, who passed up Raymond's case as hopeless last winter. At that time he required reinstatement for "Bugs," hoping to use this questionable property in a trade. Raymond spent the carfare advanced him, and McGraw said "Good night." Mac was so disinterested in Arthur that he didn't even take the trouble to suspend him for failure to report.

The irresponsible Raymond has violated about every known rule of organized baseball. In fact, at the present time he is an active member of Chicago's United States League entry. This league is not under protection and Raymond's offence in joining it was generally considered a serious affront to organized baseball. He jumped his contract reserve. In reinstating him the commission makes no comment. It is believed that the erratic "Bugs" was restored to good standing without suffering a fine.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

A call for a meeting has been issued for a meeting of the athletic association of the Young Men's Christian Association for next Tuesday night. The object of this meeting is to more thoroughly organize the association and to appoint committees to carry on the separate interests.

Paint that Stays Painted
That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. I stand back of every job I do, and when I am allowed to use my own judgment in regard to the best method of doing it, I will gladly make good any work that by any chance proves defective.

Plainfield, N. J., May 10, 1912.

OUR BIRTHDAY.

The Daily Press calls the attention of its friends to the fact that it is twenty-five years old today. In doing this, we do not propose to weary the readers with a vain-glorious dissertation of what has been achieved by this paper during its first quarter of a century, neither do we propose to recount its history. What has been done in the past is as familiar to the Plainfield public as it is to ourselves. It matters not, however, for people are interested more in what the Press is going to do.

A trifle over four months ago, after being owned and controlled by one of its founders since the death of his brother and partner, The Daily Press came into new hands. The new editors and managers had made well defined plans for the paper's future. The policy of the paper as announced on January 2, 1912, was thus set forth:

"It will be the aim of the present owners to make the Plainfield Daily Press a continued influence for all that is good in this community, and to deserve the confidence and support of the citizens of Plainfield and the people of the State. It is not our purpose to make promises nor to boast of what shall be, but to let our readers judge for themselves as the future shall demonstrate the facts. We intend to try to make the Press an indispensible visitor in every home in the city of Plainfield. Our first love is Plainfield, and our chief object will be to promote, what we believe to be, the best interests and surest prosperity of our city. In politics we shall be independent. * * * This paper will not be a political organ. Such newspapers no longer have influence. It is just as much the duty of a newspaper to voice public sentiment by just criticism of its own party, when that party is wrong, as it is to support it when it is right. The party which keeps its promises, and nominates men who can be depended upon to do the right thing by the people, and the business interests of the country, is the one which will secure support in the future."

Whether we have been living up to our promises is for our readers to say. In the first four months of the year, our circulation has increased over fifty per cent., and every day brings more subscribers and friends. We dot not record this fact in a boastful spirit but rather as showing simply that the people approve of the independent policy of the Daily Press, for the circulation today is the largest in its whole history. As for the future, let us be judged by our promise above quoted. We have frequently said that Plainfield demands a real, live, honest and independent newspaper, one not only a credit to the town but to the State. That is our aim.

IDEAL BOARDING HOUSE.

Cease scoffing you men and women who know not the joys of a home and exist in what is commonly called a boarding house. You call it a "hash house" and when you hie yourself to it you act as if you were being led to the penitentiary. You claim that there is no such thing as an ideal boarding house or an ideal boarding house keeper. You're wrong. Out in Chicago she has been found in the person of a kindly elderly woman who has retired from the business with a comfortable fortune and with the praises of her lodgers. This good old soul has let the world know the secret of her success. Her rules have been published and here they are:

"Give everybody plenty to eat.

"Make the food plain and good.

"Make your table and house homelike.

"Don't run too much to style. Men would rather have a thick, juicy beefsteak than cut glass and fancy silver.

"Make your boarders behave themselves, but give them plenty of liberty.

"In other words, be an easy boss. My boys always told me their troubles and sought my advice."

A Trenton paper in lauding this dear old woman for her business virtue goes on to say:

"Of course this dear old lady made a fortune. She is entitled to it. And any other woman who can follow in her footsteps, whether she be keeping a 'boarding house' for her own children, or a 'home' for somebody else's boys, is bound to get rich—in happiness, at least."

And a New Brunswick paper is led to assert:

"This ought to work well in keeping a boarding house. But one wonders if there are any such boarding houses, and if the same rules applied by every woman who presides over an establishment would not put the divorce courts out of business.

"If the word mother or wife were substituted for 'boarding house keeper,' would it not be evident that the rules we have given would insure cheer and prosperity anywhere?

"It is a rare and happy woman, whatever her station may be, who can say, 'My boys always told me their troubles and sought my advice.'"

It is said that the Bonnie Burn sanitorium authorities want permission to connect the sewerage system of the institution with the city system, and that there is opposition to such action by certain of the city fathers, because they think the city sewer plant is not capable of doing any more work. It seems to us that this is the wrong view to take of the matter, for it must be considered that if the sanitorium should build its own sewer beds, the sewage would go into the grounds in the vicinity of the Plainfield-Union Water Company's wells, and thus might contaminate the water supply. Would it not be much better to have the present beds overflow than to face the possibility of an epidemic of disease because of trouble with the water? Then again the sewer system will soon be enlarged, and if the Bonnie Burn flow should temporarily crowd the capacity of the beds now in use, it would only be for a few months at the most. The matter is one that should be looked at in its broadest sense, and determined to the best interest of both the county and the city.

What excuse there can possibly be for the trolley company not replacing the roadway where they have relaid their tracks across Park avenue at Fourth street, we do not know. But one thing is sure, and that is that it must be a mighty weak excuse. The work of replacing the rails was completed there a week or more ago, and yet the old ties, which were thrown between the rails to serve as a crossing while the work was in progress, are still there, making it decidedly uncomfortable for those who have to bump and bounce over them in automobiles and carriages. Where the pedestrians usually cross there is a ditch between the tracks, and it is necessary for them to take to the middle of the street, or do a broad jump, if they want to get on the other side. Such a condition should not be tolerated by the city authorities.

Some Democrats who call themselves Cleveland men are shouting for Champ Clark. Here is what the Speaker of the House once said in reference to that distinguished President:

"There are but two men in the hoary registers of time that Cleveland's name ought to be associated with—Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold. Shades of Arnold! Forgive the profanation. He at least did not have a substitute to do his fighting. . . . . Upon reflection I think I really ought to beg the pardon of Judas Iscariot, because after his treason he did have the grace to go out and hang himself.—Congressional Record, 55th Congress, Second Session, p. 4539.

Invited by the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Confederate Veterans will attend the semi-centennial of the battle of Gettysburg next year The occasion will be a fine display of a reunited country and will be a most magnificent lesson of good will.

May the good housewife rest content now that Congress has passed a bill authorizing the coinage of half cents and three-cent pieces. She can buy dry goods at 98½ cents a yard —if she has the price—and she can buy butter at 20½ cents a pound—if she can find it at that quotation.

The contributing editor for tomorrow's issue will discuss a matter of vital importance to every householder. He will give some timely advice. Read what he has to say and your time will be well spent.

Now that the half-cent piece is to be made, department stores will please change their price to read 98¾ cents.

FRESHMEN GET FIRST GAME WITH SOPHS

P. H. S. First Year Team Takes Opening Clash With Chief Rivals.

The freshmen baseball team of the Plainfield High School defeated the sophomore nine on Parker Field, yesterday afternoon, by a score of 8 to 5, in the first contest of the season between the two teams. The freshmen secured a lead early in the game by making five runs, to which they added three more tallies. This lead the sophomores were unable to overcome, although they were credited with good stick work.

LaRue, the freshmen pitcher, held his opponents safe, and kept the hits well scattered throughout the game. The freshmen scored four runs in the first inning, one in the second, two in the fourth and one in the sixth, while the sophomores tallied one in the third, one in the fifth and three in the eighth. The freshmen will meet the seniors today. Yesterday's lineup and score by innings:

Judge Atwater, sitting in the Orphans Court at Elizabeth made an order revoking the administration papers issued to Mrs. Rose Scanlon, of West Third street, Plainfield, for her husband's estate, and appointed her executrix in place of Scanlon's mother, who was named in the will. Scanlon died November 5, 1911, leaving all of his personal property and real estate to his mother, with the exception of $1 to his widow.

The mother of the testator lives in Ireland, and it was not known until some time after her son's death that he had left a will. Before this fact was established, Mrs. Rose Scanlon, the widow, applied and was given letters of administration. The principal beneficiary renounced her right to be executor of the estate, but it has taken from the first of the year until today to get the necessary papers through. When the widow was appointed executor this morning the will was admitted to probate, but there is a likelihood of an appeal being taken by the widow before the time of expiration.

The second degree will be conferred upon one candidate at the regular meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., tonight.

HOME RULE WINS IN SECOND ROUND

Bill For Irish Rights Passes by 101 Majority.

CHEERS FOLLOW DEBATE.

Measure Now Up to Committee of the Whole For Action on the Numerous Amendments — Redmond Jubilant. Bonar Law Hurls Shafts of Criticism.

London, May 10.—Division on the second reading of the home rule bill in the house of commons tonight brought out one of the fullest votes in recent years.

The vote in favor of the second reading was 372 and against 271, giving the government a majority of 101.

In the present state of parties in the house the government has 392 votes, of which 84 are Nationalists. Only 81 Nationalists voted, so that the combined British majority in favor of the bill was only 20.

The closing hours of the debate on the second reading of the bill, to which seven days had been devoted, were tense with excitement, but there were none of the acrimonious secens which attended this stage of former home rule bills.

Former Irish M. P. Ejected.

The stirring incident of the evening was the ejection from the house of a Mr. Boyle, a former Irish M. P., whose indignation was so stirred by the speech of one of the Ulster members that he shouted protests from the strangers' gallery.

When the debate was resumed John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, said he thought that Ireland had reason to be well satisfied with the course of the debtae on the main proposal that Ireland should have the right to manage her own affairs without any interference from imperial supremacy. It had been generally conceded, he said, that the moment home rule was granted it would be to the highest interests of all to safeguard the constitution and protect it with the moderation of success. He accepted the bill as a final settlement for Ireland.

Bonar Law Reviews Attack.

Bonar Law, who followed Redmond, taunted the ministers with not answering the criticisms of the opposition that if the constitution created a bill that would be so unworkable in theory that the government would not attempt to defend it, what earthly chance would there be for its working out in practice. Mr. Law ridiculed the alleged safeguards for the constitution as illusory.

Mr. Law strongly criticised the financial provision of the bill.

The succeeding three stages in the house of commons—namely, the committee, report and third reading—will, it is calculated, occupy seventy-eight days before it reaches the house of lords.

English Navy Gasps Till King Floats Up Again.

London, May 10.—England's naval officers had ten anxious minutes when King George went down in a submarine boat.

During the king's second day as active commander of the fleet he expressed the desire to take the plunge in a submarine. Submarine D-4 was the vessel chosen and the king with several officers of his staff boarded the boat.

CUT PIER TO SAVE MAN.

Atlantic Hero Clings to Piling While Rescuers Work.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 10.—While working on a frail scaffolding under the steel pier Howard Marks lost his balance and fell into the water. Unable to swim, he was battered against the concrete piling by the waves.

His cries for help were heard by Fred Warner, an electric light company's lineman, who dived off the front of the pier, swam back under it and reached the now fast drowning Marks. Warner tried to swim back to the front of the pier with him, but the tide was running in and he was not strong enough. Grabbing a piling with one hand, he kept Marks' head above water with the other.

OLDEST WOMAN IN STATE DIES, 104

Doctor Says Mrs. Farrell Possessed Wonderful Vitality.

CROSSED OCEAN 7 TIMES.

East Orange, N. J., May 10.—Mrs Winifred Farrell, who, it is said, was the oldest woman in New Jersey, died at the age of 104 years. She had been battling against death for the last three weeks, and Dr. A. W. Bingham who attended her, said she possessed the most remarkable vitality he has ever known.

Here death occurred at the home here of her granddaughter, Mrs. Patrick F. Haggerty. Mrs. Farrell, who was born in Ireland, made America her home nearly fifty years ago, before Mrs. Haggerty was born. She helped take care of Mrs. Haggerty when the latter was an infant, and Mrs. Haggerty's home became hers.

Mrs. Farrell crossed the ocean seven times. She was a native of County Roscommon, where she reared a sturdy family of her own. She became a widow early, and her children were all grown when she made her final visit to American shores.

Endowed with a physical frame of unusual size, Mrs. Farrel had health to match. Until she was more than 102 years old she had not known a day of illness nor a moment of dependence on others. At that age she was as clever with the needle and as well able to read as if she were but sixty. Never in her long life did she feel the need of glasses. In spite of her great age she had not wasted much time, even in her last illness.

About the time of her one hundred and fourth birthday last December Mrs. Farrell began to show signs of failing. Then it was feared she would not reach the fourth milestone beyond the century. She rallied, however, and in the late winter her vigor seemed almost restored. Then her eyesight failed and she became quite deaf. Mrs. Haggerty was compelled to be on the watch with her night and day.

Mrs. Haggerty, her sisters, Miss Margaret and Miss Louise Burns of Orange, and Mrs. Haggerty's two sons, Michael E. and John P. Haggerty, are the only known direct descendants of Mrs. Farrell living.

CLARENCE V. T. RICHESON.

Condemned Minister Who Is to Die Week of May 19.

A final effort to save Clarence V. T. Richeson, who poisoned his former sweetheart, has been made. Governor Foss has been appealed to on the grounds that Richeson is insane and has always been insane. He is to die during the week of May 19.

$30,000,000 BAT BOY.

Junior Leeds Becoming an Enthusiast In the National Game.

Montclair, N. J., May 10.—Little William B. Leeds, heir to the $30,000,000 estate of his father, the late William B. Leeds, since coming from England and taking up his residence in the $250,000 mansion here is acquiring a more democratic spirit than he displayed upon his arrival. "Junior Leeds," as he is known, was bat boy for the juvenile teams of the Montclair academy, which he is attending while separated from his mother, who, it is reported here, is now about to start for this country.

One day when he was playing at snow forts on the lawn of Hampden E. Tener, adjoining the Leeds estate, with a son of Mr. Tener, he noticed that the Tener boy had placed an American flag on the fort.

"That's not the flag to put on a fort," said Leeds heir, and he ran into his own home and brought out a British flag, which he stuck into the snow mound.

BULLOCK WRONG

pends much more on the size of the main by which it is supplied than on the pressure per square inch. A hydrant with fifty pounds pressure supplied by a six inch main would be much more effective than a hydrant with a pressure of one hundred and fifty pounds supplied by a pipe two or three inches in diameter. If Mr. Bullock's suggestion that a pressure of one hundred and twenty pounds be maintained in the central part of the city should be adopted it would cost the city for bursted hose and the citizens for repairs to plumbing much more than could possibly be saved from fire by excessive and unnecessary pressure.

On the outskirts of the city the hydrants are too far apart for effective service, and the practice of using hydrants to fill sprinkling carts should be stopped. If not properly closed hydrants are apt to freeze in winter and are sometimes injured by careless use. No one should be permitted to open and shut hydrants but firemen and employes of the company, who understand how to do it properly. The company has repeatedly offered to erect hydrants at its own expense to be used exclusively for filling sprinkling carts, but the offer has not been accepted.

The record and reputation of the fire department of Plainfield does not seem to agree with Mr. Bullock's dismal opinion. My understanding of its record is that the fire department of Plainfield is efficient and successful, much more than other fire departments in similar cities.

While the practice of discussing matters of public concern by leading citizens is useful, accuracy is also quite important. To make a public diagnosis of diseases of the body politic may sometimes be a necessary step in the process of healing, but in most cases it would be better for prominent citizens to get together and effect a cure, and then, if notoriety is desired, publish the result of their labors.

Respectfully,
FRANK BERGEN,
President Plainfield-Union Water Company.

AT RUTGERS' DRILL.

There are a number of Plainfielders in New Brunswick this afternoon attending the exhibition drill of the Rutgers College cadets on Neilson Field. This is the final dress parade and inspection of the corps and at this afternoon's drill next year's officers will be announced. All of the Plainfield boys attending the New Brunswick college are members of one of the four companies. Arthur B. Titsworth, of West Fifth street, who graduates this year, is cadet captain of Company D.

LADIES' AID ENTERTAINS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Netherwood Reformed church gave an entertainment last night in the church parlors. Those taking part included Arthur Cooper who recited, as did Mr. Wilbie and Miss Dorothy Smith. Miss Iona Wood pleased the audience with a number of musical selections. After the entertainment refreshments were served.

PORT'S NEW STATION.

The plans of the Central Railroad Company for a new station on the Elizabethport and Perth Amboy branch, between First and Second avenues, were made public today. The work will be started early in the summer, it is understood, and the entire construction will be featured by its durability and attractiveness. It will cost $20,000.

MASSIE-BLAND.

Miss Estelle Massie and Ernest C. Bland, of this city, were married Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunham, 637 West Fourth street, in the presence of a few friends. Rev. Edward W. Roberts, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church, colored, officiated. The couple will reside here.

VETS FAIL TO ELECT.

Camp Bagley, Spanish American War Veterans, did not elect officers last night as planned, owing to the lack of a quorum. A meeting will probably be held Monday night.

They Lack Brains, Sir, Brains

That's the trouble with most $15 suits; they lack the distinction, the style, the fit and the backbone which can only be put into a garment by tailormen with brains, and that's one reason why our $15 suits are so unusual, because we've put brains in them. You will find

Brill Special Suits $15

For Men and Young Men at

Are more than mere fabrics and tailoring, brains have been put into them and make them look smart and snappy; brains give them long lasting shape and fit; brains make suits out of them, that can readily replace the $20 suits which many economically inclined Men and Young Men have felt it was necessary to buy, in order to be well dressed. Come, see them. You will find the famous U. S. True Blue Serge Suits, Quaker Grays and a vast assortment of fancy blues, fancy greys and browns.

New Brill Ten Suits $10

Wonder Values Ready-to-Wear, at

That's what they actually are—wonder values. We could call them $15 and $18 values without stretching the truth much, for they're made from fabrics that usually go into suits that sell at those prices—but, though well tailored, they are not tailored up to the Brill standard of $15 or $18 suits, and for that reason these smart new patterns and durable stylish fabrics are sold at $10, and you couldn't buy better suits at that price. Blue serges, fast color blues, fancy blues, grays, browns and tans.

The Brill Twenty $20

Most Famous Suits Sold at

You can buy suits at higher prices, you can get better fabrics and better trimmings in those higher priced suits, but you cannot buy at any price more suit satisfaction, more style, more distinction or more individuality than you will buy in a Brill Twenty. The other day a prominent New York manufacturer bought one to study it and find out why it looked so much better than suits he makes to sell at higher prices, which we refused to buy because they were not up to the Brill Standard. Among Brill Twenties you will find the Dixie grays, fancy grays, blue serges, fancy blues and browns in an unusually large assortment.

TILT ON MEAT WITNESSES.

Solicitor McCabe Attacks Burroughs, Who Will be Called Next.

Washington, May 10.—Solicitor McCabe of the department of agriculture attacked the credibility of witnesses called by Representative Nelson of Wisconsin in support of his resolution calling for an investigation of the meat inspecton service before the house committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture.

Mr. Nelson had announced that his next important witness would be J. W. Burroughs, "a man who spent seven years in the meat inspection service and resigned of his own accord a month ago," when Solicitor McCabe interrupted.

"That man was forced out of the service for borrowing money from packers," he said.

"Yes, Mr. Chairman, that is the practice of the department," said Mr. Nelson. "Charges are denied by attacks on the reputation of others."

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Chalk up one more to Old Sol.

It is rumored that the National Commission is after a new schedule drafter. They want one who can dope out the rainy days better than the present incumbent.

Just so Saturday turns out to be a good day the fans here in Plainfield will be satisfied.

The offering is a fat one for tomorrow with the Manufacturers' League starting, Dorflinger's speed boys cavorting with the Paterson team, Leal's and the City High both playing home games and many other games, all going on here in the city, to pick from.

The second of the series of the Y. M. C. A. matinee races will be run off tomorrow afternoon on the track at the City Playground.

Walter Craig has signed up with the Bound Brook team that opens its season tomorrow.

Roger Bresnahan doesn't like to stay in a hospital. He left yesterday, giving out the following statement: "I'd rather die with my spikes on than to have that family of mine lose any more games."

Dartmouth and Cornell are to meet on the football field next fall for the first time, Dartmouth taking Chicago's place on the Red team's schedule.

Cornell has lost Bowen, stroke of last year's 'varsity crew, leaving a place that will be hard to fill.

May 30 is the new date set for the opening of the bass and pike season in Jersey.

After thumping the ball for three bases, Sherwood Magee, of the Phillies, stole home in the game with Cincinnati Wednesday.

That looks as though he had returned to the game.

If Frederickson can put them across for the Paterson team as he did for the lads from Chatham they are quite liable to be eating out of his hand the greater part of the game.

The P. H. S.-New Brunswick game tomorrow should prove a good one. Unquestionably the local High School team is the best one representing that institution in a number of years and the team from the Raritan have a good record behind them.

In Thursday's games played in the big leagues three serious accidents occurred, two in the National and one in the American. Lee Tannehill, Chicago White Sox shortstop, broke his wrist, getting it in the way of one of Walter Johnson's speedy ones; Umpire Owens and Manager Charles Dooin, of the Phillies, were both hit by thrown balls and rendered unconscious.

Where are the people that have their annual fling at football? Here's a chance to work overtime.

The Giants are on the top of the heap again, taking one from the St. Louis team while Cincinnati lost to the Phillies.

Matty had the pleasure of turning the trick.

The Yanks now face a list of ten double headers to be played off before the final bell rings.

PROBLEM FOR MAN WITH HALF-HOLIDAY

He Will Have Many Things to Choose From Tomorrow Afternoon.

It is going to be a hard matter for the busy fan to choose just which game he will attend tomorrow afternoon. He can get on almost any trolley at about three o'clock and go in about any direction and see a ball tussle. As usual the Arlington avenue line will take him to Crescent Oval or Parker Field, where he can see either the Plainfield-Paterson or the P. H. S.-New Brunswick High School games. Or should he care to see one of the Manufacturers' League games he can take the main line car going west, get off at Grant, walk over to Myrtle avenue and see the Commercial-Public Service game. Should he care to see the Spicer-International Motor game he can keep on the main line car to Clinton avenue and a short walk will bring him to that contest. Over in North Plainfield the Banks will line up with the R. G. E. team on Hyde Field.

The Leal's School team will try to break their streak of hard luck by taking one from Carlton Academy, while the Borough High School team will take a trip up the line and meet the High Bridge High School combination. The borough team will be somewhat handicapped by the loss of Carroll Taylor, who broke his leg in last Saturday's game with P. H. S., but have great hopes of taking one from the upland boys.

Manager Bogardus has a stiff argument on his hands for his aggregation. They meet the Raritan team on the West End Club's grounds at Somerville. Last week's game with Cranford gave the railroad town fans good reason to feel somewhat confident of a victory in their second contest. Dunellen played the Raritan team twice last season, losing both games by the scores of 3 to 2 and 13 to 5. With Warry McLaughlin, Britt Martin and Tommy Mullen added to the pick of last year's combination the team is at least twenty-five per cent. stronger.

At Netherwood the North Plainfield A. A. will quarrel with the A. C. team. Both teams will be out for the prize and consequently will present their strongest line-up. M. Terry and V. Terry will be the points for the Netherwood team, while the Perry brothers will offer up the borough boy's assortment.

Before the P. H. S.-New Brunswick game is called the Y. M. C. A. will run off the second of the series of five-mile races. Fritts, who won last week's race, will be barred from winning the first prize tomorrow, but should he come in first he will be credited with points that will count towards the final prize.

Both the Country and Park Golf Clubs will be open for business. Although the regular season has not opened on the mountain course it is expected that a great many members will be out to limber up. The season has already opened on the Country Club course and on the first day a goodly number of enthusiasts were out.

The Watchung Hunt Club will hold their ninth annual race meet tomorrow afternoon at the Plainfield Driving Park. It will start at two o'clock. There will be approximately sixty entries and society within motoring distance will be attracted by this meet.

Over on the Watchung Gun Club grounds the club will hold their weekly shoot. So far this season these shoots have been interesting events and tomorrow's contest should attract its share of attention.

LEW SLOCUM AND HAND BUMPED IN FIRST GAME

Lou Slocum and his receiving mate, Frank Hand, did not receive a downy reception in their first appearance as members of the New York team of the United States League, yesterday. Lou started the game against Washington in the city of high hats but his career in the box was short lived. The boys who are not allowed to vote at home started right in at the very beginning and made things very uncomfortable for the Plainfield youth, forcing him to retire and place the heaving burden on other shoulders.

The ones that followed him, there were four of them, were no more successful than Lou, falling before the Capitol boys one after another, lasting on an average of one and a half innings each. Hand was also replaced although he caught a good game and had one bingle to his credit. So far the New York team has the record of no wins to its credit and Lou had been counted upon to pull one or two out of the fire and give the Bronx boys a start.

QUALIFYING ROUND IN P. C. C. MAY HANDICAP

Scheduled for Tomorrow—Cup Play at the Park Course Expected.

The scheduled event at the Plainfield Country Club tomorrow will be the May handicap, qualifying round, 18 holes, medal play, handicap. Two sixteens to qualify regardless of class. Match play rounds at 18 holes, handicap, will be continued on May 18, 25 and 30. C. W. King presents the cup for the Class A players and S. D. Lounsbery the prize for the Class B play.

The club has engaged a regular caddy master and club-maker, who will be on duty at the caddyhouse throughout the day to add to the convenience of the members. Private functions have already begun and the prospects for a busy season are promising.

It is expected that regular competitions will be started at the Park Golf Club, tomorrow, with the initial play for the President's and Golf Club cups, weekly contests to run throughout the season. The rainy weather of late caused a postponement in opening the active season as parts of the course were too heavy. The links are now said to be in excellent condition. George Anderson has been engaged as steward for the summer and is now in charge of the clubhouse.

More Aggravating Than a Muffed Fly With the Bases Filled.

Of course, you're going to argue that there isn't anything more aggravating than that.

But there is. It's to read of big promises in clothing ads., and to expect big results from a suit of clothes, only to have it fall down in every department.

SOUTHERN VETS ACCEPT INVITATION BY THE G. A. R.

Macon, Ga., May 10.—The United Confederate Veterans in annual reunion here Wednesday afternoon, accepted an invitation to join with the Grand Army of the Republic of the semi-centennial in 1913, in celebration of the battle of Gettysburg. The invitation came in a letter from General Trimble, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

Other features of the day was the selection of Chattanooga, Tenn., as the next convention city, and the crowning of Miss Mary Scandrett, queen of the reunion, before a crowd of 20,000 persons assembled on Coleman's Hill.

HALF POSTAL DEPOSITS IN 32 LARGEST CITIES

Washington, May 10.—Nearly half the total of postal savings deposits in the country are in offices of the thirty-two largest cities, according to a statement of the Postoffice Department yesterday. Of deposits aggregating $16,200,000 on March 31, $6,437,641 was confined to these cities:

New York and Brooklyn together had $1,162,268, while Chicago has $902,841; Portland, Oregon, ranking twenty-eighth in population, is third in amount of deposits with $407,547; St. Paul, twenty-sixth in population, is fourth in deposits; San Francisco, eleventh in size, is fifth in deposits; Cincinnati, thirteenth in size, is sixth in deposits, while Philadelphia, third in size, is eleventh in deposits.

Deposits largely increased during March, the greatest gain being made by Columbus, O., with 35.5 per cent. An analysis of the figures for the number of accounts opened to date and the number remaining open on March 31, shows that in every city three-fifths or more of the accounts opened still remain current. The average amount deposited far exceeds the average withdrawal.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

"'The Typhoon,' playing at the Fulton theatre, is the strangest and most original tragedy New York has seen since 'Madame Butterfly.' Like that Oriental poem, 'The Typhoon' deals with the theme of a love affair between yellow and brown, with the difference that in this case not the brown woman but the white girl is the cast off, who then turns to spurn the repentant brown idolator. But the conflict in this drama from the Hungarian is between the intense love of country characteristic of the high born Japanese and his passionate infatuation for a seductress. It is astonishing how well the difficulty of impersonating the dozen Japanese in 'The Typhoon' without making them unconvincing is met by Walker Whiteside and his associate, notably Henry Bergman, as the elder counselor of the colony.

The Fifth Avenue announces for next week the first New York presentation of a new musical offering entirely different from anything seen in ages, Mabel Hite's Clowns in a burlesque of the latest American graze, entitled "The Cafe Cabaret." Vincent Bryan wrote the nonsense and that celebrated stage manager, Ben Teal, produced it. Miss Hite, preeminently recognized as the cutest funny woman on the American stage, has corralled a company of twenty-five that is most unique for the reason that they are all natural born comedians or clowns and not actors. As a consequence, everybody in this jolly organization does something distinctly different with the result that Miss Hite's Clowns present everything known to vaudeville and cabaret. Their entertainment consists of fourteen distinct vaudeville acts or feature numbers; more than is ordinarily embodied in a regular program, and the excitement and fun, which are fast and furious, last for an hour and twenty minutes, the longest time ever allotted to vaudeville acts even though it receives the largest salary known to any vaudeville production.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

"Macushla" (Pulse of My Heart) Chauncey Olcott's new play, which that clever romantic Irish actor and a powerful supporting company will soon bring to the Plainfield theatre, is from the pen of that noted author, Rida Johnson Young, who in collaboration with Rita Olcott furnished this popular star with "Ragged Robin," one of his greatest successes. The scenes of the play are laid in County Kildare, the most picturesque section of old Erin and one identified with the greatest hunting and sporting sets of the old Irish gentry. Mr. Olcott plays the part of a fox-hunting, horse loving young aristocrat, in which he finds ample opportunity for the exercise of that finished art which is so distinctly his own. The character fits his personality in an eminent degree and his performance of it is delightful. There is an excellent supporting company in which there are many well-known players, and the production is magnificent. This play will appear at the Plainfield theatre Wednesday night, May 15.

A Big Lot of Trimmed Hats

IN THE RING TOMORROW.

With the sun measuring up to its job, shining on us patronizingly, we are emboldened enough to offer this lot of upwards of 1,000 beautifully trimmed hats, most of them produced especially for this sale tomorrow. We hope to give you values such as will make it well worth your while coming for a hat tomorrow. Our trimmers have been busy thru the rainy days catching up, working ahead to get a big stock on hand, and they have turned out many remarkably pretty hats, in many cases copying them from the latest imported models, and in almost every case purloining an idea here and there from the highest priced effects, bringing to you at small cost all the beauty and much of the worth that usually must be paid for somewhat extravagantly.

One large lot of Trimmed Hats—very smart effects; new color combinations, some you have never dreamed of, that would readily sell at $5.75 to $7, are priced for Saturday at $3.50

Another lot of very beautiful Hats in unusual variety, that would sell at $7.25 to $10, will be marked for Saturday at $5.00

Charmingly Trimmed Hats—many of which would ordinarily sell at $10.50 to $15, will be priced, Saturday.. $7

In addition we offer—

Genuine Hemp Hats—no disputing them—the real thing, latest and best shapes, in black, white or burnt, regular price $3.95; marked for Saturday $2.50

Ready-to-Wear, Tailored and Suit Hats—newest and smartest shapes, braids, trimmings and color combinations, regular price $2.95; take them at $1.45

Little Girl's Trimmed Hats—many pretty shapes, bright colors and attractive effects, regular $1 hats that you may have Saturday for 69c

REVOLUTIONARY MUSKET EXHIBITED IN LIBRARY

Rahway, May 10.—A flintlock musket taken from the hands of a dead Hessian soldier, after a skirmish between the troops of Cornwallis and Washington February 23, 1777, has been contributed to the library by "Jack" Edgar.

The trophy was secured by an ancestor of Mr. Edgar. Accompanying the musket was a rifle taken from a Confederate after the battle of Fort Donaldson and brought here by a member of the Edgar family.

NEGROES CHEER TAFT AND T. R.; DON'T INDORSE

Cape May, May 10.—Though both Taft and Roosevelt were cheered by the New Jersey Republican League of Negro Voters, which was permanently organized here Wednesday night, neither candidate was indorsed. James A. Lightfoot, editor of the Atlantic City Advocate, who was elected chairman of the league, said that one of its objects was to keep the negro from selling his vote.

About one hundred leaders from South Jersey were present. The conference was presided over by Charles F. Ferguson, of Cape May, who was chief butler at the White House in the term of President Harrison.

N. J. STATE EMPLOYE IS HELD FOR BRONX CRIME

New York, May 10.—Frank N. Muehlfeld, twenty-two years old, is a prisoner in the Tombs charged with the murder of Patrick Burns in his saloon at 935 Forest avenue, the Bronx, last February. Muehlfeld was arrested yesterday by New York detectives at Vineland, N. J., where he was employed at the New Jersey Training School for Feeble-minded Persons. The prisoner denied the accusation of murder and agreed to waive extradition.

During his stay at the Vineland Institution, Muehlfeld became a keen student of criminology and its relation to hereditary instinct. He frequently claimed that criminal instinct was hereditary. Muehlfeld has a criminal record and his picture is in the rogues' gallery.

Another prisoner at the Tombs is Henry Miller, a cousin of Muehlfeld. Miller is accused of highway robbery in holding up a jeweler on 126th street. It is claimed by the police that Miller knows something about the murder of Burns. Burns was shot late at night. A gang entered the place and demanded that the saloonkeeper hand over his receipts. One of the men pointed a gun at Burns. Burns rushed at the man and a moment later fell dying. It is asserted by the police that Muehlfeld was the man who fired the shot.

DAVIS ESTATE'S SUITS ARE AMICABLY SETTLED

Jersey City, May 10.—By agreement between the principals interested, the suits in chancery involving the distribution of the estate of Robert Davis, late Democratic leader in Hudson, were settled Wednesday.

That the dower rights of the widow may be protected and a title to the several properties pass to the heirs and other persons interested, Vice Chancellor Garrison said he would prepare a decree that will establish the validity of the marriage of Davis and Mrs. Annie Toppen Davis, and straighten out real estate tangles. There also will be a judicial ruling on points in the interests of the infant heirs, Hugh Dugan Davis, a son of the dead man and his second wife, and William E. Davis, a grandson. The widow was the third wife of Davis.

The suit by the widow against William A. Higgins, a clerk in the county register's office, to compel him to turn over to the estate the Parmly Memorial church property also was settled. At the time of the courthouse investigation, in which it was indicated that Davis had borrowed $30,000 of the county funds from Collector Egan to pay for that property, expecting to sell it to the city for $40,000 and failed, had turned it over to Higgins.

Although he stated himself on the stand that he knew nothing of Davis, having put the property in his name, until a long time after the deed had been executed, Higgins filed a crossbill in the suit Wednesday, and his counsel, Peter H. Bentley, asked that he be given compensation for acting as trustee for Davis. While some of the heirs of the estate were willing to give Higgins a fee, Vice Chancellor Garrison could not see where the clerk had performed any real service other than making a deed back to the estate and filing an answer to the suit brought against him by Mrs. Davis, and for these acts he will be allowed expenses under the decree made in the cases.

The deeds to several pieces of property executed by Davis, his sons, Robert and George, before his last marriage, but not filed until after his death, were conceded to be in force by the widow. Properties deeded similarly to other heirs also were conceded by her.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

FRESH STRAWBERRIES.

FRESH strawberries! Well, isn't it nice that they are in the markets again? No fruit is more popular. The berries deserve it, for they are very wholesome.

If you want a nice pastry for a bride's spring luncheon try strawberry hearts. Here's a way of making them:

Bridal Hearts.

Strawberry Hearts.—Roll some puff paste very thick and, with a heart shaped cutter, stamp out, chill and bake. Take from the oven, cut out the centers of the hearts and fill with fresh berries coated with powdered sugar. Decorate with whipped cream.

Strawberry Sponge.—Bake some sponge cake in thin sheets and cut out in fancy shapes. Hull, wash and cut in half some large firm strawberries. Dip in powdered sugar and lay on pieces of sponge cake. Cover each with another layer of cake. Decorate the tops with whipped cream and whole strawberries.

Dainty Cakes.

Strawberry Gems.—Take a granite saucepan and into it put a half pint of milk, a scant quarter of a pound of butter and let boil. Add a cup of sifted flour and boil for two minutes, stirring all the time. It should be quite smooth when taken from the fire.

Taking one at a time, beat in four eggs when the mixture has had time to cool. Butter tins and drop by spoonfuls on these. Bake in a hot oven twenty minutes.

While still warm coat with strawberry icing made by adding strained strawberry juice to ordinary icing. When cold break a gem, fill with sweetened strawberries, either crushed or whole, and serve.

A Fruit Mold.

Strawberries and Rice.—Boil a half cup of cleaned and well washed rice in two cups of milk. When it is soft pass it through a sieve.

Stir in the strained juice of half a lemon, a cup of powdered sugar and a half teaspoonful of salt. Beat the whites of six eggs stiffly and fold into the mixture.

Butter a border mold, one that provides for a hollow space in the center, and pour the mixture into it. Bake for thirty minutes in a moderate oven. Turn out on a dish and fill the hollow center with berries dipped in powdered sugar. The top may be ornamented with whipped cream and strawberries.

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

(Through a mistake in the composing room the following article was omitted from the Mother's Work column, although editorial reference was made to the matter elsewhere in the paper.)

It is understood that the action of the Board of Education at its last meeting in passing a resolution prohibiting roller skating by the children of the city upon the school concrete walks was predicated upon the opinion of expert engineers that a continuation of the practice would cause a disintegration or wear out the walks, which in the case of the High School, represents an original cost of twenty-five hundred dollars. Roller skating on the smooth surface of the school walks has given healthful pleasure and innocent amusement to hundreds of children of the city. As an investment for right and healthful play of the children it is considered cheap at the cost of a renewal of the High School walk when worn out and it is to be sincerely hoped that the resolution will be immediately reconsidered and abolished.

WATER PLANT PROJECT ADVANCED BY STANHOPE

Stanhope, May 10.—The Borough Council Wednesday night took another step toward securing a municipal water plant. Specifications were taken up, amended where necessary and adopted. It was decided to use an eight-inch main for 9,000 feet from the reservoir to and through Main street, instead of a six-inch pipe. The balance will be four-inch pipes. This will add about $2,000 to the cost of the system.

Mr. Taintor, an expert from New York, gave a talk on the possibility of a low pressure gravity system for ordinary uses, with a standpipe and pumping system for fire purposes. He said the watershed to the north of the town was sufficient to furnish an ample supply, as there would be approximately a flow of 150,000 gallons, which would be double that of the proposed pumping station. As this matter has already been settled, the suggested plans were not considered. Engineer Wood, who is in charge of the work, differed with the New York expert.

—Conscience is a still, small voice that tells us when we are found out.

—"That get rich quick man is as busy as a bee." "Yes," replied Mr. Sumrox. "He's one of those busy bees who can't manage to gather honey without incidentally stringing somebody."—Washington Star.

ELIZABETH MAYOR NOT FOR COMMISSION GOV'T

Elizabeth, May 10.—Mayor Alfred A. Stein, in making an address at the silver anniversary of Opeechee Tribe of Red Men in Turn Hall Wednesday night, denounced the movement for a commission form of government for this city. The question will be voted upon next Tuesday. The Mayor defended the present administration.

The toastmaster at the banquet was General Dennis F. Collins, who made a short address. Others who spoke were: Former Mayor Patrick J. Ryan, of this city; Sheriff Nowrey, of Camden, past grand sachem of the order; former Judge William N. Runyon, of Plainfield; Dr. Walter S. Whitmore, of Oceanic, past grand sachem, and Ignatius Hallem, of Bayonne, also a past grand officer.

COMMUTERS' "VICTORY" OF THE HOLLOW KIND

New Jersey commuters on the Erie have little to hope for in the way of reduced rates to New York, in spite of a published announcement in New York yesterday morning that a "great victory" had been won for them before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The order of the Interstate Commerce Commission affecting the situation was handed down several months ago. The commission at that time suggested that the Erie readjust certain of its commutation schedules. But the commission has already approved all the commutation rates now in force within a distance of thirty-two miles of New York. This means that only a few of the more distant New Jersey points have any chance of securing reductions.

At the general offices of the Erie in New York, it was stated today that the railroad is in communication with the commission over the subject of rates. It was stated, however, that any announcement of new rates would contain little of interest to New Jersey commuters. There is no certainty as to when the new schedule of rates will be made public.

A Washington dispatch says that the Interstate Commerce Commission decided yesterday that the fifty-trip rates of the Erie needed no revision, and that the fifty-trip and sixty-trip rates on the West Shore would not be disturbed for the present.

CHANCELLOR UPHOLDS THE B. AND L. RECEIVERS

Trenton, May 10.—Chancellor Walker has filed an order approving the action of the receivers of the State Mutual Building and Loan Association of New Jersey in refusing to accept $20,000 in settlement of the claims against Israel G. Adams and other officers and directors of the defunct association.

The order was placed on file after the chancellor had examined the correspondence looking toward a settlement which had passed between the receivers and the defendant directors. Claims against the particular directors involved in the suit under consideration amount to approximately $150,000. The defendants were willing to put up $20,000 without a contest, but the receivers decided that it would be advisable to press their claims for the restitution of a larger sum.

The fact that the defendants have offered a substantial sum in settlement, although it cannot be used against them at the trial, is significant as indicating an admission of liability on their part. The State Mutual was an association made up very largely of prominent politicians from all parts of the state. Its affairs were practically run by a few officers, the body of the directors taking little or no apparent interest in its management. The failure of the concern, with the heavy indebtedness brought to light, created a state-wide scandal.

N. J. GUARD OFFICERS CALLED FOR A TEST

Ninety-seven Per Cent in State Will Attend "School" at Sea Girt.

Orders issued through Adjutant-General Wilbur F. Sadler, Jr., for the government and routine of the officers' school, which will be held at Sea Girt during the week beginning May 27, were received yesterday by the various colonels commanding the state infantry. Ninety-seven per cent. of the officers of the five regiments have signified their intention to attend the school, and have been enrolled.

There will be about 200 guard officers at the camp, and there will be one regular army officer as instructor for about each twenty office pupils.

There is to be a radical change in the camp this year, the staff, departmental and line officers being divided into different classes, as distinct from each other as the medical corps. The ultimate end of the instruction will be to establish a continuity between the different branches so that the state organization will work as a harmonious whole in the military maneuvers scheduled for this summer.

Major General Peter Farmer Wanser, division commander, with Brigadier General Edwin W. Hine, commandant of the First Brigade, and Brigadier General Dennis F. Collins, commondant of the Second Brigade, will be in command of the camp, which wil be put up by men from the quartermaster general's department.

Because of the absence of the greater number of officers throughout the state none of the infantry organizations will appear in the Memorial Day parades in their respective home stations, and Colonel John D. Frazer, commandant of the First Regiment, today notified those in charge of the local parade that his command will not be able to turn out.

There will be six classes, the first for field officers, those of the adjutant general and inspector generals departments and regimental adjutants. Class 2 will be for captains, with the exception of the regimental commissary and quartermasters. Class 3 will be for lieutenants, with the exception of battalion commissaries and quartermasters. The fourth class will be fore regimental quartermasters and commissaries, together with selected battalions, commissaries and quartermasters. The fifth class will be for the brigade and division staffs, with a few officers from other departments, and class 6 will be physicians from the first and second brigade staffs.

The order provides that the officers wearing full equipment but without arms report at the camp not later than 10 o'clock on the morning of May 27.

The course of instruction will be in mapmaking, theoretical attacks and defenses, the feeding, quartering and transportation of troops and supplies, sanitary methods and general field work. The officers will be put through a course of "sprouts" that will bring out all they have learned or are supposed to have learned at the army officers' schools under Major Evan M. Johnson, Jr., U. S. A., during the winter.

COMPANY REPORTS FILED BY ABOUT 5,000 CONCERNS

Trenton, May 10.—Out of possibly 20,000 miscellaneous corporations in this state between four and five thousand have thus far filed their annual report with the State Board of Assessors.

Under the provisions of the law governing such institutions, they are to file reports with the State Board beginning the first Tuesday in May, and the department makes its return to the state comptroller on June 1 of each year. The companies filing reports, include gas, electric light, trolley, telephone and district telegraph concerns.

WEDDING ALIEN COSTS WOMAN SCHOOL OFFICE

Hackensack, May 10.—Because she married a Canadian, Mrs. F. L. Bowman has not only become practically an alien, but she has lost an office.

In March last she completed a term as school trustee in Bogota and was re-elected by a substantial majority. She failed to qualify, and at a special meeting of the Board of Education, Mrs. H. B. Bartlett was chosen to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Bowman's failure is due to a federal law providing that an American-born girl, on her marriage to a resident of a foreign country, relinquishes by so doing all rights and privileges as a citizen of the United States.

Bowman is a Canadian, and has never, it is said, become a citizen of the United States. After consulting lawyers, Mrs. Bowman decided not to attempt to qualify.

To regain her citizenship, it is said, Mrs. Bowman will have to make application for naturalization papers, as if she were foreign-born.

COAL DEALER ON TRIAL; CHARGE SHORT WEIGHT

New Brunswick, May 10.—Peter Larsen was placed on trial before Judge Peter F. Daly and a jury Wednesday afternoon on the charge of selling short weight coal. Larsen is the first of several Perth Amboy coal dealers accused of short weighing. It is alleged he sold on February 7 of this year 1,820 pounds of coal for 2,000 and got $6 for it. Larsen was represented by Theodore Strong.

The testimony of the State showed that Mrs. Fannie McDonnell, a widow, had sent a postal to Larsen ordering a ton of coal. The order had been turned over to Larsen's son. The driver, Raymond Sears, weighed the coal, made out the ticket and started for the McDonnell house with it. On the way, it was alleged, Sears was stopped by Henry Toft, the sealer of weights and measures at Perth Amboy, who had the load re-weighed. He found it 180 pounds short, it was said. William Waldren, State superintendent of weights and measures, testified that he had tested Toft's standards and found them correct. The coal was in twenty standard one-hundred-pound bags.

The defense was that Larsen had no guilty knowledge that full weight was not given; that the scales had been tested by the weigher and found to be correct; that he had given orders that full weight be given and that he was not present when this coal was delivered. Larsen testified that his scales had been tested twice and were recognized as city scales.

INVESTMENT BANKERS WERE DISAPPOINTED

New York, May 10.—The spring meeting of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association, in session for three days at Briarcliff Lodge, Briarcliff Manor, closed Wednesday with hearings on committee reports and business matters to be reported to the general convention of the association in Detroit beginning on September 9. Among the committees that reported Wednesday were those on express companies and money orders, on fidelity bonds and burglary insurance, on forms for national and State banks and on the investment bankers' section.

The last committee was formed to provide if possible an investment bankers' section in the association similar to the savings bank, clearing house and other sections. The proposition, however, was turned down hard by the executive council. It is said that a new association may be formed by the investment bankers as a result.

The work of the other committees dealt with routine matters. The committee on express and money orders reported progress and the members said that they would make their final report in September. The committee on fidelity bonds and burglary insurance after making their final report asked to be discharged, recommending that a small committee of three be appointed to attend the current matters. It was also decided that the association should be represented at the National Chamber of Commerce and that the chairman of the executive council shall not be eligible for any further office until one year after his term has expired.

A unanimous vote of thanks was given to those who have entertained the bankers. Wednesday night the trust company section of the association entertained the bankers at dinner at the Waldorf. Among the speakers were Governor Baldwin, of Connecticut; Mayor Gaynor and Chauncey M. Depew. Colonel F. H. Freis, president of the trust company section, acted as toastmaster.

TUBE COMPANY SEEKS RAILROAD AVE. RIGHTS

Jersey City, May 10.—The Hudson and Manhattan Railroad Company, through former Senator William D. Edwards, Wednesday asked Mayor Wittpenn and members of the Street and Water Board for leave to use a part of Railroad avenue.

The company offered to pay $840 a year rental for a franchise of twenty years. Another conference on the subject will be held today.

Mr. Edwards said the company also wishes to continue the use of the Grove Street Station on payment of $100 a year.

HIBBEN IS HEAD OF OLD NASSAU

President, Chief Justice and Other Notables Attend Impressive Ceremonies.

HIS INAUGURAL SPEECH

Keys of Princeton University Delivered to New President—Executives of Yale, Harvard and Other Famous Institutions Were Present.

Princeton, May 11.—The inauguration of John Grier Hibben as president of Princeton university took place today at 11 o'clock. President Taft, the chief justice of the United States, and the presidents of several universities attended the ceremony.

The official program of the inaugural exercises began with two musical numbers, a prelude from Mendelssohn's march from "Athalia" and a chorale, "Veni Creator Spiritus," by Palestrina. These were followed by Scripture reading and prayer by Dr. Henry van Dyke, '73, Murray professor of English literature, after which the oath of office was administered to the new president by the Honorable Mahlon Pitney, '79, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. After President Hibben had taken the oath the charter and keys of Princeton university were delivered to him by the Hon. John Aikman Stewart, senior trustee and ex-president pro tempore of the university, and then President Hibben delivered his inaugural address. At the conclusion of the president's address the one hundredth psalm was sung in unison by the choir and the assembly. The benediction was pronounced by the Right Rev. Edwin Stevens Lines, bishop of Newark, and the ceremony came to a close with the postlude from "Svendsen."

The entire ceremony took place on the steps of Nassau hall, with the audience seated on the campus.

At the alumni luncheon given by the university after the inaugural ceremoney in the gymnasium at 1 o'clock M. Taylor Pyne, '77, of the board of trustees, presided, and all the addresses of congratulation to the new president were delivered at this luncheon. Among the distinguished speakers were President Taft, Chief Justice White, Dr. Francis Patton, president of Princeton Theological seminary and ex-president of Princeton university; President Abbott Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, President Arthur Twining Hadley of Yale, President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia and other men of national importance. The luncheon concluded with the singing of the famous Princeton song, "Old Nassau."

President Hibben's Address.

In his inaugural address President Hibben said in part:

In entering formally upon the duties of the high office of president of Princeton university I wish to present in my inaugural address the essential principles of our philosophy of education. We believe that the chief end of an education is the making of a man. It is the process of developing a power within which enables the human being to dominate the instincts and habits of his animal nature, assert himself as a free personality and direct his life according to the light of reason. While he is a part of the natural world, man belongs also to the world of mind and of spirit. The particular function of education is to give him the power of freedom and to make him sensible of the duties and worthy the privileges of a person in the midst of a universe of things.

It is of the very nature of education, however, that it does not result in a complete and finished product, but rather in a progressive process. There is nothing final about it. Its achievements always mark new beginnings. It is the power of an endless life. To say that a man is educated signifies that he has finished merely the preliminary stages of a continuous and progressive development.

There is a common phrase, "to receive an education," against which I would most emphatically protest. No one receives an education any more than he receives health or strength or life. It is the fruit of a firm and intelligent will. It is gained only by active effort, continuous and determined. An education is won by work.

As freedom is the distinctive mark of a vigorous personality, all the processes of education must be directed to secure this essential end. Therefore the ideal university education may be described as consisting of two phases—a phase in which every effort is directed to the attainment of freedom and, secondly, a progressive phase of development in which the freedom gained in the earlier stages finds for itself varied pursuits and pleasures in the fields of knowledge.

The Required Course.

It would seem essential, therefore, that in the early years of one's university experience those studies should be pursued which are peculiarly conducive to the discipline and training of the mind and eventually to the evo-

BOROUGH REPUBLICANS FORM NEUTRAL CLUB

Bears Nobody's Label, and Its Support is in Storage for Nominee.

Republicans of North Plainfield met in Deble Hall, last night, in response to a call by the executive committee of the Somerset County Republican Committee, and organized a Republican Club. It was decided to work for no Presidential candidate, but to lend support to the man who is nominated for the Presidency. This course was thought wise for the reason that there are admirers of both Taft and Roosevelt among those who are identified with the organization.

Edward P. T. Smith, of the county committee, called the meeting to order and explained the objects, after which Councilman J. J. Stahl was made temporary chairman and Edmund Rushmore secretary. The following were named as a committee on organization: Edward P. T. Smith, Andrew Lutkins, Charles Nash, William L. Smalley and John Schenck.

The committee will meet in the office of Mr. Rushmore on Park avenue, Monday night to formulate a report to be presented at the next meeting of the club, when permanent officers will be chosen and plans for the campaign will be discussed.

CHECKMATE FOR SCHOOL BOARD IN THE SOUTHEAST

George H. Frech, of Prospect avenue, has contracted with Charles E. Drake, of West Front street, for the erection of a house on Prospect avenue, near his present residence, to cost about $7,000. The foundation has been dug and work on the foundation will commence next week.

The erection of the house practically balks the plan of the Board of Education to build a school in that vicinity. The new residence will be in the center of the tract the board proposed to buy and it is believed another suitable site is not to be had. The trustees' plan relative to the proposed structure are not known at the present time.

COMMISSION BERTHS.

Governor Woodrow Wilson has announced the appointment of members of several commissions provided for by the recent Legislature. A. C. Pleydell, of North Plainfield, has been made a member of the commission to suggest changes in the present system for the administration of tax laws. General J. Madison Drake, of Elizabeth, is made a member of the Valley Forge commission, and former Governor J. Franklin Fort is made a member of the New Jersey commission for the exposition to be held in SanFrancisco. General Dennis F. Collins, of Elizabeth, is also made a member of this commission. Joseph Hannon, of Weehawken, is appointed deputy supreme court clerk, succeeding Charles Codding, of Westfield.

LOCAL TALENT WILL SHINE IN GORGEOUS FANTASIA

The pick of local talent is to be utilized in the production of "A Trip to the Moon," the gorgeous musical extravaganza to be given at the Plainfield theatre, May 23 and 24.

This gorgeous musical extravaganza gives promise of being one of the most beautiful and elaborate spectacle ever staged in this city.

The musical comedy is described as a fantastic drama spectacle with a well defined plot, a quaint and interesting story set in a framework of dazzling scenery, surprising transformation, beautiful music, magnificent costumes and wonderful electric effects.

It goes without saying that nothing in the way of an operatic production on so large a scale has ever been attempted in Plainfield.

The story of the piece lends itself to humorous incidents and complications and introduces many novelties, and there will be nothing amateurish about "A Trip to the Moon."

The production wil be given under the auspices of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, assisted by the Plainfield Amusement Club and the School Athletic Association.

OWL CLUB ENTERTAINS FRIENDS AT A DANCE

Saengerbund Hall was the scene of a successful dance last evening, when the Owl Social Club entertained about 150 friends. Suhr's Imperial orchestra furnished the music for the twenty-four dances and encores that comprised the evening's card. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schlick. Refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of the arrangements was composed of George Meade, George Schlick, Edward Matteli and Jacob Schlick.

A NEW RESTAURANT.

The Hotel and Home Dairyroom Company, E. H. Cievely, manager, will open the old McVey Hotel at 117-119 North avenue, as a first-class restaurant this afternoon. The food and the service will be first-class in every respect and Mr. Cleveley's reputation as a restauranteur insures the utmost satisfaction to the patrons. The business man will find there a dainty and wholesome luncheon, quickly served, at very reasonable prices.

OILING THE STREETS.

Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett having received a shipment of oil has had his men busy of late spreading it on the streets throughout the city. The work is being carried on in a systematic manner and before warm weather arrives practically all of the streets over which there is much travel will be treated.

PUPILS' RECITAL.

The pupils of Miss M. Florence Nicholl will give a recital in the Fanwood fire house on Saturday evening, May 18, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Sibyl Anderson, violinist, will assist.

Purchased Studebaker E. M. F. Car.

NEWFOUNDLAND PREMIER IS HERE

Sir Edward Morris and Lady Morris the Guests of J. D. Loizeaux.

LUNCH AT QUEEN CITY

Given for Eminent Canadian by Plainfield Directors of a Newfoundland Pulp and Lumber Corporation—He Admires America.

Sir Edward Morris, premier of Newfoundland, and one of the best known of the Canadian officials, arrived in Plainfield today for a brief stay as the guest of J. D. Loizeaux, of Hillside avenue. He was accompanied by Lady Morris. It is probable that they will remain until Monday. During their visit they will be shown the attractions of "City Beautiful."

Sir Edward is by way of being an admirer of the United States and its institutions, although a loyal Briton. He said today:

"The country I represent is small but we realize that no country is quite so great as the United States. Your institutions are the largest and the most wonderful in the whole world. We of the British colonies are able to see the advantages of your republican form of government, while still remaining loyal to Great Britain. In fact, England welcomes any movement looking toward bringing together the two great English speaking nations in a closer bond of friendship.

"Yours is the triumph of democracy. Your are unique, for you have violated every economic principle. That there is still room for development is indicated by the fact that you are now in the throes of a primary election. It is almost impossible for us on the outside to understand how such an institution came into being. Apropos of that election we know, of course, that there is always bound to be war between the Republican and Democratic parties, and that the fight between Taft and Roosevelt is simply a family quarrel."

The Gande River Pulp & Lumber Co., a Newfoundland concern, has ten directors living in this city, and they gave a luncheon in Sir Edward's honor at the Queen City Hotel this afternoon at 1:30.

DR. MOLDENKE'S LECTURE ON HIS TRIP TO EUROPE

Dr. Richard Moldenke will describe his experiences in Europe in 1909 in an illustrated lecture under the auspices of the Improvement Society of North Plainfield Township, at the rooms of the society in Watchung, on Wednesday night, May 15. He will also give this lecture Thursday night, May 16, at St. Peter's German Lutheran church, at Grove street and Mercer avenue, for the benefit of that church.

Dr. Moldenke made a number of investigations in Sweden, Germany and Italy in connection with iron ore, coal and coke. At the same time he was commissioned by the Government to investigate the European attitude toward the accident question in mines and industrial establishments. The lecture will be illustrated by a number of views of European Capitols, but will depart from the usual description of places of interest.

IN BOROUGH COURT.

William Crowley, of Somerset street, was drunk and disorderly last night in the borough and was removed to the station house for safe keeping. This morning Recorder Gano fined him $5 and sent him back to his cell for three days to sober up. Edward Jones found that it cost $1 to ride a bicycle on the sidewalk. Cheif Weiss picked up Fred Bergen, of Somerville, this morning, in an intoxicated condition. He will be arraigned Monday morning.

WOMEN TO CONSIDER LIVE LOCAL SUBJECTS

Sewerage, Water and Garbage in Last Lecture of Miss Philbrook's Course.

Miss Mary Philbrook will give a lecture on local government before the civics class of the Equal Suffrage League next Monday afternoon at 3:30, at the residence of C. L. Riley, on Myrtle avenue.

Each member of the civics class is privileged to bring a guest. The live topic of sewerage and water supply, as well as the collection of garbage for Plainfield, will be considered. Miss Philbrook has interviewed several public officials and has given much time and thought to the questions.

Opportunity for question and full discussion will be given. This is the last lecture of the course on Government.

MIX-UP OVER SITE FOR WARREN SCHOOL

Board Appeals to Superintendent Krebs and Deputy Commissioner for Advice.

Appeals for advice have been made to County Superintendent H. C. Krebs and Deputy State School Commissioner J. Brognard Betts by the school officials of Warren Township, who are struggling with a mixed state of affairs over the site for a new school at Mt. Bethel.

The Township School Board recently obtained a vote of the people in favor of building on a plot of ground to be procured from Mr. Stoelz. But Mr. Stoelz declined to sell the land, and announced his intention of resisting by all legal means the taking of it for school purposes. Of course the Board could acquire it in spite of him by resorting to condemnation proceedings, but that would be an unpleasant and tedious process, and the cost of it would probably exceed the amount at the disposal of the Board, since the people voted only $300 for the acquisition of land.

There are other sites available, some of which are regarded by many as preferable to the one on Mr. Stoelz's land. John Cooper, for example, offers a plot free of cost. But none of these other sites are on the main road, and it is stated that the authorities at Trenton will not permit a school to be built on a side road.

In this state of affairs appeal has been made to Mr. Betts, the Deputy State Commissioner, and to Mr. Krebs, the County Superintendent, and it is hoped that they will be able to suggest a way out of the difficulty. Plans have been prepared for a one-room school building, 24 by 36 feet in size, and work will begin as soon as land is secured. But it now looks much as through there would have to be another election, either to authorize taking another site or providing for the necessary condemnation proceedings.

At last week's meeting of the Board of Education the question of the supervisorship was brought up and discussed with much animation. A proposal to abolish the supervisorship was made and hotly discussed, and finally rejected by an overwhelming vote. By the same vote it was then decided to continue the supervisorship, which has been of great value to the schools of the township.

GIVE SURPRISE PARTY TO MISS VAN DENBURGH

A surprise party was given to Miss Grave Van Denburgh at her home on Franklin avenue, last evening. The house was decorated in yellow and green and pink apple blossoms.

Seventy-five guests were present, including many persons from out of town. Among the guests were: The Misses Mildred Smith, Beatrice Akerman, Margaret Currin, Bertha Boylan, Gilberta Van Nest, Letha Hoagland, Magdeline Latin, Ethel Hall, Helen Yates, Clara Mills, Elsie VanDenburgh, Miss Bessie Curtis, Mrs. Helen Caldwell, and Marcus and Edward Waldron, Eugene and Newton Spencer, Raymond Becker, Arthur Hones, Roy Force, Robert Hebert, Walter Thomas, Clarence Patrick, Harold Woolston, William and Dewey Dobson, Nathan Boylan, George Hummel, Wilbur Hoffman, Walter Smith, Edson Dey.

PARK COMEDY CLUB LIVES UP TO NAME

Real Humor by Finished Players is Shown in "Facing the Music."

Members of the Park Comedy Club delighted an audience which filled the Club House last night, when they presented the lively English comedy, "Facing the Music." Excellent acting, coupled with an attractive setting, held attention for a fell two hours, and during that time there was not a dull moment. It has been said many times that professionals look upon all amateur performances with scorn, but if many of the professional shows were given with the skill displayed last night, there would be little question as to their success. The play chosen by the members of the Comedy Club was one in which the success or failure largely depended upon those who portrayed the parts, and in the cast there was not a weak spot.

The plot centers on two John Smiths, one a clergyman and the other a breeder of race horses, both of whom live in the same apartment house on different floors, and both of whose wives have been away prior to the opening act. The wife of the minister had never seen her apartment, and when she returned she got into the sporting man's rooms, with the usual complications resulting. Throughout three acts, the scene for which is laid in the apartment, the plot was carried, and it was only at the end that everything was straightened out satisfactorily.

Although he was called into the cast within a very few days, William T. Pelletier, who was the Rev. John Smith of the cast, made a capital parson, his make up and stage presence being thoroughly in keeping with the part. Roswell G. Rolston as the "other John Smith," and Brown Rolston as Dick Desmond, the "other Mr. Smith's" guest and chum, were depended upon for a large part of the comedy, and while they were on the stage they kept the spectators in a constant round of laughter. Charles H. Lyman, as the "other Mr. Smith's" uncle and Alston M. Abbott, as Sergeant Duffel, a detective, were also big factors in working out the plot, and each portrayed the part assigned with rare ability.

Of the women in the cast it can be said that their work was so well balanced and presented that no one excelled another. To Miss Elizabeth Goddard perhaps may be accorded the most praise because of the fact that she had but a week's rehearsal, having come into the cast when Miss Elizabeth McGee was compelled to withdraw because of the death of a relative. Miss Goddard, as Mabel, the Curate's wife, and Miss Eva Brown, as Nora, the "other Mr. Smith's" wife, had the bulk of the work for the women, and there was never a moment when either was on the stage that action was lacking. In addition to being becomingly gowned they had splendid stage presence, good carrying voices, and made the most of every opportunity to use the aids in working out the plot. Mrs. Alston M. Abbott as Miss Fotheringay, an actress, and Mrs. Francis E. DuBois, as Mrs. Potting, the "other Mr. Smith's" housekeeper, had smaller parts, but their attention to detail went far toward completing all the situations while they were on the stage.

The stage setting was well arranged, with great attention to detail. Following the performance the women of the cast were the recipients of many handsome bouquets from those in the audience.

The patronesses were: Mesdames Augustus Van Deventer, George T. Rogers, C. Everett Murray, Morris J. Dumont, Henry K. Dumont, Judd Stewart, George D. Hallock, Brown Rolston, Leslie M. Hallock, William J. Roome, Jr., William B. Nash, Hugh C. Pierce, Henry D. Hibbard, John Valiant, Nelson A. Miller, J. Laurence Watson, Samuel Townsend, James C. Peck, Donald A. McGee, Frederic Harrington, Charles S. Powell, Josephus H. Howell, Henry A. McGee, Horace M. Fisher, Francis L. Sill, Stuart H. Patterson, Charles H. Detwiller, L. D. Albin, William A. Garrigues, Frank H. Hall, Arthur M Harris, G. W. DuBois, James W. DeGraff, DeWitt Hubbell, George Megrew, Charles H. Lyman, Edward P. Sharretts, George L. Megargee, Edwin S. Hooley, Alexander Milne, John P. Stevens, Alfred E. Morrell, John A. Van Mater, Frederick O. Ball, Lewis A. Williams, Jr., Allen B. Laing.

COMMISSION IDEA MUCH IN FAVOR

Citizens of All Shades of Political Belief Want Question Submitted.

FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

Organization and Progressive Republicans, Democrats and Independents Alike Endorse Move for a Business Government.

On all sides favorable comment is made of the agitation in favor of a commission form of government for Plainfield. Republicans and Democrats alike and of all shades and party beliefs are equally hearty in accord with the idea that a special election be called to decide whether the municipality shall be conducted as a modern business corporation is or continue in the slip-shod, aimless and extravagant rut it has followed recently.

Former Sheriff B. Frank Coriell, the Republican mayoralty nominee less than two years ago, had no hesitation in voicing his opinion when seen by a Daily Press representative yesterday. Like the majority of citizens he had something uncomplimentary to say of the Common Council for its course in the water matter and also as to the sewage disposal proposition.

"You can quote me in favor of a commission government for our city," he said. "Some of us are getting disgusted. At first I did not take to this commission plan, but the more I learn of it and the more I see what the Council is doing the more I favor the new scheme of municipal government." So much for Mr. Coriell's views.

LeRoy J. Ellis, formerly president of the Plainfield Democratic Club and editor of The Constitutionalist, called attention to the fact that his weekly was the first to formally boom the plan.

"You can't say anything too strong for me, if you want to say anything at all, why we need a change and why we should be under commission rule," he stated.

Howard H. Williams, one of the Progressive Republican leaders, expressed his opinion in these columns yesterday. He considers that the plan cannot be put into action any too quickly here and the quicker it is done the better he will like it. It is known that Mayor Moy heartily concurs with Mr. Williams. So do many other Progressives.

When Republican County Chairman Frank H. Smith was asked where he stood he stated that he could not see any sound reason why Planifield should not have government by commission. He said that he spoke as a private citizen and that in such capacity he would not regret the day when the plan is adopted in this city. Former Republican City Chairman Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., had little to say, but he went on record as friendly to the idea.

Mr. Hetfield has signed a petition for the calling of a special election for this purpose. Among others who have already gone on record in this way are former Assemblyman Calvin E. Brodhead, now a member of the Union county tax board; Councilman Fred Endress and Councilman Frank L. Holt. Councilman Frederic E. Mygatt's views endorsing the proposition were published in this paper yesterday. He has signed the petition.

"I have believed right along that as a city is a corporation it should be managed the same as any business corporation," said A. E. Force, one of the leading merchants. "The taxpayers are the stockholders of the corporation and they should choose managers for their affairs as such just as if the city was a private business being run for profit and mutual benefit and not for loss and waste. Of course, you can say that I welcome the day when we can vote on this matter."

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring today signed a petition for an election. "We need a businesslike management of the city's affairs," he said, adding that he knew of no better government for municipalities than the commission plan.

"As a private citizen," said P. H. Burns, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "I would like to see a government by commission here. We need that more than we do municipal ownership of the water plant, sewage disposal or anything else. Let us have a commission and then the improvements will come in due order. Commission government is sure to come and the sooner the better."

John W. Murray, Jr., declared that he considered most people favor the commission idea and that should an election be held the plan would be carried. I don't see any objection to it. The men who I have heard discuss the subject seem to feel very favorable towards it. Yes, I would like to vote on the proposal and I

Plainfield Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Plainfield citizen:

A. C. Lazzi, 44 Elm place, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I still endorse Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity and I confirm all I said in their praise when I publicly recommended them some years ago. You are at liberty to continue using my statement, for this excellent medicine cannot be given too much praise. For several years I was annoyed by a distressing backache, together with pains through my kidneys. My head also ached severely and the kidney secretions were in bad shape. I went to several physicians and also took so-called kidney cures, but it did not seem as though I could get relief. As time passed and I did not improve, I became discouraged. When suffering intensely I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I got a supply at Randolph's Drug Store. As if by magic my pains and aches disappeared and my condition improved in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve the entire credit for restoring me to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

tution of a self determining and self realizing will. They deserve the name of liberal studies so far as they may tend to free the mind from the natural and artificial obstacles to its progressive development.

One who is to maintain the health and growth of his intellectual life must come, however, at some later period in his development to delight in the tasks of the intellect. To rejoice in the labors of the mind is not a prevailing characteristic of the natural man. As Aristotle has put it, "All men naturally desire knowledge, but not all men desire the labor of learning." It often happens, however, in intellectual discipline, as in the development of moral virility, that a course of action which is done for a time under the stress of a sense of obligation and as a grievous duty becomes after a time a pleasure and a joy.

The practical problem, therefore, for the teacher and particularly for a faculty of teachers is to choose that body of studies which will best produce a spirit of devotion to the cause of knowledge and of joy in its service. Any satisfactory solution of this problem must rest upon the basal principle that true intellectual freedom is gained only through discipline.

Not only the human world, but also the world of nature, must be a part of this general body of knowledge. In these first stages of education the study of science should form a very central and essential part of this prescribed course of study. Princeton has been at times misunderstood as regards her attitude to science, and upon this occasion particularly I wish to state distinctly and emphatically and in words which give no uncertain sound that we regard the study of science as essential to a liberal education.

Within this same group of studies also there should be some provision for a training in the accurate and facile mode of giving expression to knowledge. The ability to put thought into appropriate and adequate form essentially characterizes a free spirit in the world of mind. To see, to think, to feel and to remain dumb within—is any bondage more intolerable?

After this early period of required studies the liberty which is born of discipline can be wisely encouraged to manifest itself in the free choices of studies for the remaining years of the university course. It is in accordance with the Princeton program that this freedom of choice is granted to every student at the beginning of the second half of his undergraduate course—at the opening of his junior year—but the choice is not allowed to lose itself in a maze of unrelated subjects.

While the student's work is centered in the region of his special interests, it must be taken up in a broad minded spirit which transcends the utilitarian demands of any particular profession or technical pursuit. The undergraduate courses are not specifically designed for the purpose of fitting a man directly for the daily duties of his future work in life. They should not attempt to develop a particular talent for a particular task, but the whole man. He who has laid a broad and secure foundation will have no difficulty in erecting the superstructure. Whatever he builds he will be able to build himself into the work of his hand and brain. Make a man, and he will find his work.

At this stage of the developing mind every effort should be put forth to secure originality of thought. We should not require of our students mere acquisition, but a high order of reflective thinking which manifests itself in methodical habits of clear and efficient reasoning, in breadth of vision, in an intellectual curiosity, in a tolerant spirit and an open mind. Let us not standardize either the teacher or the student, but allow the full play of fresh original impulse.

To Make a Whole Man.

The results which by the four years of training we hope and expect to produce I would characterize in a single sentence: It is a transformation of the schoolboy into a man of the world—a man who can move freely and familiarly in the midst of the world's varied activities, who speaks its language, who is conversant with its manners and who can interpret its thought. Do not misunderstand my meaning, however. It must be the world conceived in no narrow and limited sense of the term. The true man of the world is not confined to the knowledge merely of his own day and generation. He must know the world of the past, as well as the world of the present, for if he knows the past he is more capable of serving the present. He must be free from provincialism, not only as regards space, but also as regards time.

After the four years of the strictly college course have been completed there should be satisfactory facilities offered in a university for the varied pursuits of advanced students, where all of the powers broadly and profoundly developing during the preparatory years may be concentrated upon some subject which is to become the absorbing work of life. The buildings of our new Graduate college, now in process of construction, form a home where our special scholars through daily intercourse one with another may broaden their friendships and interests, and at the same time find themselves stimulated in their zeal for the particular subjects which they are pursuing.

These buildings of the Graduate college are to center in the Cleveland Memorial tower, a national gift presented by those who love the man whose name it bears and who wished gratefully to express their appreciation of his distinguished career as the chief magistrate of our country and as the servant of the American people.

Bearers of Light.

If there is an especially favored class in the world it is the group of men who have profited by the privileges of an education. It is their duty to prove themselves worthy of recognition as an aristocracy—as an aristocracy, however, in the original meaning of that word. It is in no sense a survival of the fittest, if he who survives is content to survive alone. Our universities must teach to their students in season and out of season this lesson of life: With all their getting let them get understanding—that understanding of their station and their duties which will reveal to them this supreme law of privilege, that he who commands the sources of light must become a bearer of light to others.

We are highly honored upon this occasion by the presence of our distinguished guests, his excellency the president and the chief justice of the United States. Your illustrious predecessor in office, Mr. President, the first president of our country and the first American, received in this building the grateful acknowledgments by the Continental congress for his service in establishing the freedom and independence of the United States. For a part of the year 1783, from June to November, Nassau hall was the capitol of the young republic, and here Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, Oliver Ellsworth and their distinguished colleagues sat in counsel. And now by your presence on this occasion, Mr. President and Mr. Chief Justice, you give an enhanced value to our patriotic possessions. The love of country has been a central lesson in the teachings of our university.

This institution was not founded in the spirit of civil liberty alone, but in the spirit of religious liberty as well, in that Christian faith and hope which is our most treasured tradtion. Our fathers learned the lesson of the Great Teacher that the law of life is a law of liberty, a liberty which finds expression, however, in a law of service and a law of sacrifice. Our hope and our prayer is that their sons who bear their names and who are of their breed and blood may keep faith with the past while moving forward to possess the new lands of promise and of plenty.

COPS STABBED BY STRIKERS.

Policemen Hurt and Many Injured in Newark Riot.

Newark, N. J., May 11.—In a battle between the city and park police forces and the striking members of the Independent Laborers and Diggers' union of Essex county in the southern end of Branch Brook park two policemen were stabbed and several other persons were injured.

Shots were fired and bricks were thrown.

The trouble started when a crowd of about 250 strikers marched through the park in an effort to secure recruits from county employees. Two park policemen ordered them out of the park, and the strikers refused to go.

F. Devereaux Hurt.

Camden, N. J., May 11.—Frank Devereaux, fifty-one years old, for many years sergeant at arms of the Camden district court, was thrown from a trolley car and seriously injured. At the Cooper hospital it was found that he had sustained a fractured skull.

THE HOUSE FLY.

Why did God create the Fly? The filthiest, nastiest and most dangerous of all insects. No doubt for one good reason, to teach man he must be clean not only in mind and body, but in his surroundings as well, or suffer the consequences of sickness and perhaps death. The common little house fly notwithstanding its wonderful and one might say beautiful being is absolutely nasty, filthy and a spreader of disease, a dangerous, murderous creation of the worst description directly responsible for more deaths than all the fierce beasts of the forest or poisonous snakes and reptiles. Filthy and nasty for the reason that from the very beginning, even before life itself appears, this insect must have filth. The egg is laid in filth of the worst character, hatched in filth, and the first ten days of life the infant fly or maggot lives in filth, feeds on filth, develops in filth, and without filth must die—could not exist. The second ten days the young fly feeds on this same filth and nastiness, and at the end of that time as the fully developed animal lays or deposits its eggs in filth to produce the next generation. A fly will lay at one time about one hundred and twenty eggs, and during its short existence will lay from four to five batches. For this reason it takes but a very short mathematical calculation to account for the millions and millions of flies. This, however, cannot be unless filth and nastiness are provided as a place to lay the eggs and develop the young. The favorite breeding places of the fly are animal manure, human excrement, garbage, decaded animal, fish and vegetable matter, and other filthy substances. If the fly stopped her and remained and lived continually in and on these various substances man would not have to worry, but it does not. In feeding, the fly stands on the substances, rubs its feet over its head and wings, washes and bathes in this filth and then enters the kitchen, pantry and dining-room, alighting on the sweets and pastry, bread, cake, milk, cream, coffee, sugar, and while eating its desert deposits these various filthy substances, not only from its body, but out of its body distributing poison and nastiness to the very food and drink that is later served and eaten or drank by human beings.

The Fly Committee of the American Civic Association has published a special bulletin entitled "Kill Flies and Save Lives," which is here reproduced.

Flies should be kept out of our houses, killed if they enter them, and prevented from hatching their eggs in stables, manure-heaps, swill pails, and other filthy places.

BECAUSE FLIES ARE FILTHY. They are born in filth; feed on filth; they walk on filth; and then, with filth sticking to their feet, legs and bodies, they feed and walk on the food which has been prepared for human beings to eat. It would disgust you, wouldn't it, if you saw a fly feeding on the filth of the street, the stable, the garbage can, or on something even worse, and then saw the same fly go through the open door or window of your dining room and wipe his feet on the sugar, tangle his legs in the butter or take a bath in the milk? If you should watch every fly that comes into the house, you would see that most of them had come from such filth to the food on your table.

BECAUSE FLIES ARE DANGEROUS. Bad as filth is, it is not the worst thing that flies carry about. They swarm about open sewers, drains and outhouses which receive millions of disease germs which have passed through the bodies of sick people. Flies in this way pick up and carry on their bodies, heads and legs (which are covered with fine hairs—just suited for catching and holding this sore of thing) the germs of typhoid fever, cholera infantum (or the summer diarrhoea of children), tuberculosis and several other diseases. Dr. L. O. Howard, Chief Entomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, calls the common house-fly the Typhoid Fly, because so many cases of typhoid fever have been caused by his carrying the germs from one sick person to another. These germs are so small that you cannot see them without a microscope, but the fly that is eating from the same plate with you may be carrying a million of them.

Flies kill more people than wild beasts and poisonous snakes. Many of these beasts and snakes never get a chance to kill any human being; but any one of the millions of flies found in most of our towns and cities has a chance, if he comes into a house carrying typhoid germs, of killing a whole family.

You have been told why you should kill flies and prevent their breeding; this is

HOW TO DO IT.

Most house-flies in cities are hatched from eggs which have been laid in horse manure. Some breed in other forms of filth, such as garbage cans, heaps of refuse in back yards, etc. The fly lays 120 or more eggs at a time. These, if they are not disturbed, become maggots in about twelve hours. In from five to eight days more, the maggots enter the pupa state, as caterpillars do, and after from five to seven days come out of the earth or manure in which they have buried themselves in the form of flies, ready in a few days to become the fathers and mothers of large families. They breed so rapidly that in one summer the children and grandchildren of one pair of flies may amount to thousands of millions. And remember that the germs they carry multiply much faster than the flies.

TO PREVENT FLIES FROM BREEDING.

Screen stables if possible.

Remove the manure at least twice a week.

Keep the manure, while it is in the stable, in a closed bin or pit.

Every time the stalls are cleaned, and the manure placed in the pit or bin, sprinkle it with dry plaster (powdered gypsum) or slaked lime.

Be sure that you sprinkle the cracks and crevices of the bin or pit, as well as the cracks between the planking of the stall floors.

If flies begin to breed in stored manure they may be killed by thoroughly spraying it with kerosene or Paris green, and then pouring on enough water to wash the oil or poison well in.

The objection to the use of kerosene is that it ruins the manure for fertilizing purposes. A solution of iron sulphate (one pound to a gallon) applied at the rate of one gallon a day in a stable where on horse is kept, will kill all the maggots. It costs about $1 per hundred pounds; so that the cost of keeping flies from breeding in a one-horse stable is about one cent a day.

It is well to abolish old-fashioned outhouses where possible. Where this cannot be done a liberal amount of lime should be used, applied in small amounts daily. Chloride of lime is better than slaked lime, but slaked lime is better than none at all.

Garbage cans should be thoroughly cleaned after emptying, and the contents should be sprinkled with crude oil, lime or kerosene oil.

SCREENS AND TRAPS.

Keep garbage cans closely covered, unless you have a fly-trap attached to them. Such traps may be obtained at most hardware stores.

Screen the doors and windows of your home, especially those of the kitchen, dining-room and pantry. If you cannot do this at least screen the food itself, especially the milk, in which germs multiply with more than ordinary rapidity.

Screen sick-rooms, or at least the bed of the patient, and do not allow flies to have access to his excreta, which should be treated with chloride of lime or some other disinfectant.

Screens are especially needed in towns which have no sewer system, or in which the sewers drain into a stream, on the banks of which flies swarm, attracted by the filth from the sewers.

If flies do get into the house in spite of screens, they may be killed or trapped.

Sticky fly-paper and a variety of traps may be used, as well as poisoned fly-paper.

FLY POISONS.

A cheap and reliable fly poison, which is not dangerous to human life, is bichromate of potash in solution. Dissolve one dram, which may be bought at any drug store, in two ounces of water, add a little sugar, and place about the house in shallow dishes.

To clear rooms of flies use carbolic acid, heating a shovel and pouring on it 20 drops of the poison. The vapor will kill the flies. Another method: Burn pyrethrum powder in the room. The flies will fall to the floor stupefied and may be swept up and burned. The powder should be moistened and molded into cones, and, after drying, each cone should be placed upon a dish and lighted at the top. It will burn slowly, and the odor is not disagreeable.

Flies pass the winter hidden in cracks and holes in attics and cellars. Many of these may be killed in the spring by the two methods just described.

Be sure that all drugs and chemicals used are fresh and pure, otherwise results may not be satisfactory.

SOME FLY DON'TS.

Don't allow flies in your house.

Don't permit them near your food, especially milk.

Don't buy foodstuffs where flies are tolerated.

Don't have feeding places where flies can load themselves with dejections from typhoid or dysenteric patients.

Don't allow your fruits and confections to be exposed to the swarms of flies.

Don't let flies crawl over the baby's mouth and swarm upon the nipple of its nursing bottle.

REMEMBER
THAT WHERE THERE IS NO FILTH THERE WILL BE NO FLIES.

Clean up your own premises. If you still have flies it is because your neighbors are harboring filth. If they won't clean up ask the Board of Health to force them to do so.

That you are not safe from diseases carried by flies unless your grocer, your butcher, your baker—everyone from whom you buy foodstuffs—is as careful as you are. See that your town has a food-screening ordinance, and that it is enforced.

When merchants screen their goods against flies, patronize them, recommend their goods to others and give them "honorable mention" in the newspapers.

Health is a man's greatest asset. The public should rise up in arms and fight this terrible and common enemy.

The State Board of Health and all local boards should make the extermination of flies one of the most important matters to bring to public notice. Educate the people and do all in their power to kill and eradicate this obnoxious and dangerous insect.

MOTHERS TAKE WARNING.

A fly in the milk may mean baby in the grave.

Millions of germs of summer complaint are transmitted by flies.

Keep them away from child and food—remember—no filth, no flies.

SAVE THE BABIES.

Now is the time—get busy—keep busy—clean up—keep clean—kill the flies.

An Odd Court Incident.

Sensational incidents are not uncommon in the closing stages of famous criminal trials. One of the most remarkable occurred in Melbourne on the last day of the trial of Ned Kelly, known as the "ironclad bushranger of Australia." A knife dropped from a gallery overhead and fell at the feet of the desperado in the dock. He had every temptation to grasp it and put an end to his existence, for there was not the slightest chance of his escaping the gallows. But it was promptly picked up by a bailiff, and its owner was arrested and brought before the judge. He pleaded that the occurrence was purely accidental, and the explanation was accepted by the court.

Trials of an Author.

It is not generally known that J. H. Shorthouse had some difficulty in getting his famous historical romance, "John Inglesant," into print. Shorthouse was engaged ten years in writing the book, and every page as he wrote it he submitted to the discriminating criticism of his wife. When the story was finished no publisher would accept it. Four years passed away, and then Shorthouse resolved to publish 100 copies at his own expense. When this was done a copy came into the hands of Alexander Macmillan, who recognized the merit of the novel and published it, with the result that all the world knows.—Treasury.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

CHERRY DESSERTS.

RIPE cherries should be served with clusters of the leaves adhering to the bunches. Wash them well to remove any of the small insects that, in spite of all other precautions, seem to stick to fresh fruit. Arrange in a glass dish on a lump of ice and use the green leaves as a background.

Baking a Cherry Pie.

The best pies are made with the common red cherries. It is no objection that the fruit is a little tart.

Deep Dish Cherry Pie.—Clean, stem and stone the cherries. Make a plain puff paste and line a buttered pie dish with this. The paste must not be too thin. Then fill with the cherries, sugar to taste and sprinkle with a little flour. Cover the top with a layer of puff paste. Trim the edges and press tightly together so that the cherry juice may not overflow the sides. Also make an incision in the top of the crust. Bake and serve hot.

A Sweet Shortcake.

Cherry Shortcake.—Prepare a sponge cake foundation in two layers. The ingredients for this are three eggs, a cupful of sugar, a cupful of sifted flour, two tablespoonfuls of hot water and a tablespoonful and a half of baking powder. While the cake is hot cover with whipped cream sweetened with powdered sugar. Scatter over this the chopped and sweetened cherries. Put a layer of the sponge on top of this, sprinkle with sugar and adorn with cherries and whipped cream.

A Fruit Omelet.

Cherry Omelet.—Cherry omelet made according to the following recipe is said to be delicious: Stone about a pound of cherries. Wash them and strain off the juice. To the juice add a half cup of sugar. Beat the yolks of four eggs with a tablespoonful of thick cream. Then add the whites beaten to a froth and the cherry juice. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in an omelet pan, pour in the omelet mixture and stir gently until it sets. Then roll on a hot dish. Sift sugar over it and serve hot garnished with fresh whole cherries.

Cherry Betty.—Butter a deep baking dish and put in layers of stoned cherries and breadcrumbs. The fruit should be liberally sprinkled with sugar, nutmeg, and cocoanut. Add cherry juice enough to moisten and crumbs until the dish is full; bread on top. Cover and steam in the oven one hour, uncover and brown quickly. Serve hot with sweetened cream.

Red as a Relieving Note Appears In New Modes.

There seems to be a continuance of red as a relieving color, and a few rather dark red linens are among the imported models.

An extremely effective striped taffeta model has a broad, closely fitted girdle of black satin tied in a soft knot with long falling fringed ends.

The leather belt is sometimes made in sections, buckled together or linked with rings of gold or silver.

NEW ORLEANS AGAIN TREMBLES AT FLOOD

Cloudburst and High Winds Send Terror to Hearts.

New Orleans, May 11.—Rains of cloudburst proportions falling along the Mississippi river country and winds of high velocity again renewed the flood danger. At several endangered points it was admitted that the fight was practically hopeless.

High winds put the New Orleans river guage at the head of Canal street to twenty-two feet, one and six tenths feet higher than the record of any previous year, half a foot above the maximum stage predicted by the government. Water was slopping over the sandbags all along the levees guarding the older part of the city. In the city itself many stores were inundated as a result of the terrific rain, and car service was paralyzed and many streets were impassible.

At Baton Rouge the high winds washed a considerable amount of water over the top of the dyke, but men battled heroically with the elements and word was sent to New Orleans that the dam around the capital still holds.

Another very gloomy feature was the break at Vidalia. That place is just opposite Natchez, Miss. and was considered comparatively safe. It has a population of nearly 2,000.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS LEAGUE'S COLUMN

WHAT OUR LEAGUE IS DOING.

BY

Mrs. Allan Cowperthwait.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League started its fight against the "White Plague" by trying to care for incipient cases, and so built the camp, which has been used very successfully these last three years for that kind of work; arresting the development of tuberculosis by treating patients in time.

This is a very necessary part of any anti-tubercular crusade, and is fairly well known in its results to our townspeople. However, it is an expensive way of stamping out the disease; and slow, for only eight cases can be treated at a time in the pavilion. Therefore, to supplement the work of the camp, Miss Leahy is employed by the Nursing Bureau, a department of the Charity Aid Association work, and paid by the League to look after any people suffering with tuberculosis who are reported to her by the various physicians of Plainfield; a record of such cases also being kept by the Board of Health. She not only visits actual sufferers doing trained nurses' work in caring for them herself, but she shows the members of the family how to treat the patient in the most healthful way and so to safeguard themselves that there shall be no infection of others in the household. On her list at present are twenty-five cases for daily visits, and one hundred more that she keeps track of by monthly or semi-monthly visits. In this latter number, are the patients who have been at the camp or at other sanitoriums and have been sent home to further convalesce. There were six new cases reported last month, four of whom were sent to Glen Gardner for treatment, while the other two the visiting nurse is looking after. There were also two deaths from tuberculosis reported in April.

Another way these discharged patients are watched over and helped is by means of the Friday afternoon class held at the Anti-Tuberculosis rooms under the charge of Dr. Krans. This class is really a clinic where those wishing an examination can have it and where Miss Leahy is present to give out cod liver oil if prescribed, and to weigh and instruct any who wish to come. Other cases the society is trying to keep record of in order to be sure of improvement. There are a number of children who come who have to be entertained while awaiting their turn to see the doctor. It would be of great assistance to Miss Leahy if any interested in helping with the work of the society would be willing to give occasional Friday afternoons to this class; and by telling stories to the children or playing games with them, assist her in keeping them orderly and interested. So far women and children are the only visiting patients, because the camp received only women and children, and these arresterd cases are the ones for whom the class was started originally, but that does not mean that others are excluded. The society is very anxious that people should feel free to consult Dr. Krans or ask for help and instruction from the nurse on any subject touching this anti-tuberculosis work. Now that the camp has been turned over to be used for men exclusively, parents having children with any tubercular tendency could bring them to this clinic for advice as to diet and general care. Rest, fresh air and plain nourishing food are, of course, two of the best agencies both for prevention and cure, and it is remarkable what gains in weight and strength result when this simple treatment is conscientiously pursued.

A general diffusion of knowledge as to causes and means of prevention is another most important department of anti-tuberculosis work. Therefore educational exhibits in the schools and talks on the dangers of tubercular infection are important parts of physiological instruction which children should receive. Through the interest of Mr. Maxson and Miss Boice, the school nurse, the exhibit shown to the public last November has been kept moving from school to school and has been explained by the teachers. Text books on the subject have been advantageously used in the public schools of New York city and great interest is shown by the children in this information. That consumption can be stamped out if there is proper knowledge of causes and effect gives to this publicity branch of the League's work a very hopeful and inspiring character.

If people can be cured in the early stages of the disease through proper treatment, afforded them at home (as is being tried out in the Vanderbilt tenements), or in sanitariums provided by the state or interested individuals, then it is incumbent upon us all to work for this result; and also to see that in future there be no more incipient cases where proper knowledge of sanitation might have prevented them. It is curious to note how interrelated are all the conditions making for the public health. If there are unhealthy dwellings, bad sewage, dark and dirty streets, careless methods of disposing of garbage, and other objectionable waste, we may expect not only tuberculosis but other diseases.

It is encouraging to feel that good work in one part of the forward line of march helps in other directions, so no effort is lost, but coordinated effort accomplishes more. Especially all preventive work undertaken by society, whether for tuberculosis or not, assists the Board of Health, the Commissioner of the Poor, and all the other philanthropies, public and private, undertaken for the good of humanity.

Education is a most important factor, so again the cry is "Begin with the children." Tubercular children are at present excluded from school attendance; and delicate, anaemic children are usually behind in their classes, a discouragement to the teachers, and a hinderance to the other scholars. Plainfield will be fortunate when it has established in connection with the Public School system a class for tubercular children and classes for backward and anaemic children, as they have in Newark and have to some extent in Orange and Montclair.

On Tuesday, May 21, at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium there will be given by the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Plainfield and North Plainfield, at 8:15 in the evening, a free moving picture show, and an informal illustrated talk on Open Air Schools by Ernest Easton, of Newark. He will tell of their equipment, management, expenses, and results already proved most satisfactory. The moving pictures will deal with concrete cases of tubercular infection and show how simply they might have been prevented and with what profit to all concerned.

The public is cordially invited to come so what will be, it is expected, an agreeable novel and interesting entertainment.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

"Bunty Pulls the String," the wonderful little Scottish comedy which has been the attraction for the entire season at Wm. Collier's Comedy theatre under the management of the Messrs. Shubert and Wm. A. Brady, is nearing its three hundredth New York performance.

The star revival of "Patience," which opened Tuesday night at the Lyric theatre, New York City, under the management of the Messrs. Shubert and Wm. A. Brady, is evidently going to be an even greater popular success than the two previous Gilbert & Sullivan star revivals made by these managers—"The Mikado" and "Pinafore." The critics generally agreed that the present company is quite the most excellent yet organized for the preesntation of comic opera here and far surpasses the companies seen in the other two pieces. Moreover, the humor of "Patience" though perhaps a little less obvious than the fun of "The Mikado" or "Pinafore," is the very acme of delightful satire, and the presentation brought this out in every detail. The principal roles are cast as follows: Reginald Bunthorne, De Wolf Hopper; Archibald Grosvenor, Cyril Scott; Col. Calverley, George J. MacFarlane; Maj. Murgatroyd, Eugene Cowles; The Duke, Arthur Aldridge; Patience, Maria Doro; Lady Angela, Viola Gillette; Lady Saphir, Alice Brady; Lady Ella, Christine Nielson; Lady Jane, Eva Davenport. Every role is both admirably sung and splendidly acted. "Patience" is announced at the Lyric theatre for a brief limited engagement only. It will be followed immediately by a revival of "The Pirates of Penzance," yet another Gilbert & Sullivan masterpiece, which will be presented by the same company with several important additions.

ECHO OF TAX SORENESS IN NEW PROVIDENCE

The annual report of the Clerk of the Union County Board for the Equalization of Taxes rouses the Passaic Valley News to sharp comment on certain tax matters in New Providence township. The News says the report "shows to what an extent the board rebuked the shameless attempt arbitrarily to increase certain tax assessments in New Providence township while reducing others. From this report it appears that in the township there were granted reductions of $7,250 on land, $2,100 on buildings, and $250 on personal property, a total of $9,600.

"This was a much greater amount than was granted in any other community, in proportion to its population and valuation. It was more than the reductions in the first, fourth and fifth wards of Elizabeth put together, or in the seventh or eighth ward of that city. It was more than in the First ward of Plainfield. It was more than twice as much as the total of all the reductions in the city of Rahway. It was more than in the Borough of Roselle. It was three times as much as in Linden and Kenilworth put together. It was more than in Fanwood and Garwood put together. It was more than in Cranford, and nearly three times as much as in Clark.

"It is quite obvious that the bungalow system of assessment for political purpose does not meet with official favor, and gives the township a notoriety which is not enviable."

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

Chauncey Olcott is happiest in depicting one of those romantic, dashing characters of the early nineteenth century, and Rida Johnson Young who has given him "Macushla," has him ever in mind when writing the play, and has furnished him with a role that will undoubtedly be one of his most famous creations. Mr. Olcott gives his art full swing in the wide scope of the character Sir Brian Fitzgerald, thus creating a character that is new to the drama of our times. The most able of stage directors and managers, Augustus Pitou, has equipped his star with an excellent supporting company and a production of such magnificence as one rarely sees outside of a metropolitan theatre. Mr. Olcott's songs, as usual, will be a feature of the performance, and it is whispered he has some of the best he has ever written. This play will be seen at the Plainfield theatre, Wednesday night, May 15.

Martin B. Stutman, a lawyer and secretary of the Taft Club, signed the petition this morning.

"I think that we are in awful bad shape," said Charles H. Hand, one of the largest taxpayers in the city, when asked for his opinion. "I'm coming down right now to sign that petition and I'm going to vote for the commission government."

"You can quote me and say that I am very much in favor of a commission," asserted Tax Collector William R. Townsend. "I agree with you that the people should be educated on the subject before an election is held."

"I'll sign that petition," said G. Stuart Simons.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The Factory League starts off today.

With three games keeping the six teams busy.

Spicer-International game on Clinton avenue grounds; Banks-R. G. E. game on Hyde Field; Commercial-Public Service game on Myrtle avenue grounds.

The Scotch Plains team opens its season tomorrow.

While the Columbia crew is rowing the Middies today, the track team is trying to beat the sailors on land.

Today is a big days in Tigertown. Everything going on there from the inauguration of a "Prexy" to a boat race.

Perhaps the Jinx is after the umpires also.

The Olympic committee is facing a desperate situation as the result of rather flimsy financial support. The minimum requirement of every day from now on until the team sails on June 8 is $1,500.

In the days of the old Greeks if they didn't have the price they walked—or ran.

In a trial put Ralph Rose heaved the shot 52 feet 1 inch the other day. This is not an official record but it looks as though a new one would be set before long.

And Rose is practically sure of a berth on the Olympic team.

The Athletics raised their championship flag yesterday in the Cleveland game. Three times before had they tried to put the rag up.

Roy Aiken, third baseman of the Waco, Texas League team, retired the Houston team in the first inning of a recent game with a triple play.

Triple plays are few and far between these days and when one is made the player making it is quite apt to get his name in the papers.

Rumor has it again that Hal Chase is to be traded. One arrangement being for Washington to exchange Walter Johnson for him.

If our guess is good for anything we'll offer the dope that Clark Griffith is about as liable to be a party to that transaction as a humble bee is to deposit honey on an icicle.

O'Toole, the $22,500 beauty, does not seem to have been such a keen boy for keeping the Pirates near the top as it was hoped at first.

The New York Giants now occupy the position of bell cow in the National League.

The Phillies seem to be picking up some on their trip. It is quite noticeable that some of the injured ones are back in the game.

McGraw says that he has no use for "Bugs" Raymond. When he reports he will be sent to the minors.

The fact is that the New York team does not need him. They have been hitting it along pretty well with their present staff of flingers.

The school games here today include P. H. S. vs. New Brunswick H. S. on Parker Field, and Leal's vs. Carlton Academy at Crescent Oval.

The Borough High School team is at High Bridge playing the high school team there.

Calero Explains Mexico's Difficulty.

Washington, May 11.—In presenting his credentials to President Taft Manuel Calero, former minister of foreign affairs under President Madero and now ambassador from Mexico to the United States, ascribed the present troubles in Mexico to the inexperience of his fellow countrymen in operating democratic institutions.

WESTFIELD GAME.

The Westfield team will play at South River tomorrow against the A. C. team. The game will start at 3 o'clock and wil undoubtedly draw a big crowd from the low land town.

TIGERTOWN BUSY PLACE OVER THE WEEK END

Today is a big day at Princeton being somewhat in the nature of a repetition of last year's gala day, May 20 which was the Tigers big day, in all sports. President Taft will be in town and will in all probability witness the baseball game in the afternoon. This morning Dr. Hibben, as president of Princeton University, was formally inaugurated. In the afternoon there will be a luncheon in the gymnasium. Over 1,000 alumni are expected to visit Princeton for the event. Meanwhile the track team wil be competing against Yale at New Haven and the tennis team against Harvard at Cambridge. At night there will be a performance of the Triangle Club's "Main Street" in the Casino.

The Tiger track team is expected to repeat its victory of last year and take the meet on the cinders against Yale. Thomas is looked upon as a sure winner in the 100-yard dash and he is well backed up by Curtis, Hays, Sawyer, McKinney and Stickney are all men who stand very good chances of winning points. Reports from New Haven are not particularly bright as to the outlook for a successful track year. Yale has the pole vault event stowed away, as the best that Fiske, the Princeton boy can do is 12 feet 2 inches, while Wagoner, the Blue wonder, goes seven inches higher when he is good. Bissell, the former Newark academy athlete, should bring home a first in the hammer throw. Eddie Hart is another man who is expected to get placed in the weights.

This is the first year that Keane Fitzpatrick has had full charge over the track squad. If he does as well with runners as he has done with football men, there won't be any stopping of the Tigers. Inasmuch as Cornell was beaten by Pen on the cinder path, Princeton is casting envious glances toward a victory over the Ithacans, a thing which hasn't been hoped for by even the most enthusiastic Tiger rooters for several years.

Lake Carnegie saw its first 1912 crew race yesterday afternoon, the freshmen crew winning from the Central High School of Philadelphia. Princeton crews have had to be developed out of material which never handled an oar before they came to Princeton, a fact which places Dr. Spaeth, the coach, under a handicap which few eastern coaches encounter.

The baseball team will stack up against Cornell with Lear appearing upon the mound. Pendleton will be back in the game.

"FROSH" FORFEIT GAME THROUGH INELIGIBILITY

The game which the P. H. S. freshmen thought they had taken away from the sophomores for safe keeping turned out to be a boomerang, for they were compelled to forfeit the game to the sophomores because of their playing ineligible men. The score at the end of nine innings was 8 to 5 in favor of the first class men and they came home with their ears set back to make room for their smiles.

But the corners of their mouth were destined to turn in the opposite direction for it was announced yesterday morning that certain of the "Fresh" were back in their studies and were consequently ineligible. This takes away from them their hard earned victory.

SENIORS MEET DEFEAT; FRESHMEN TURN TRICK

The Plainfield High School freshmen nine started off with a victory yesterday afternoon at Parker Field, when it defeated the Senior Class team in a one-sided contest by the score of 24 to 3. The Seniors didn't have a lookin at any time during the game, while the Freshmen added several runs to their score in every inning except one.

This is the first game that the upper class men have played this season and their limited material, with little practice, accounts for their overwhelming defeat. They had several chances to score during the game, but the three runs brought across the pan were all made in the fourth period. Wilmerding, who was twirling for the Freshmen, loosened up in this period and after the bases were filled forced in one run while two more came home on Conlin's single.

The Freshmen scored at will and flouted both Line and Manley, who did the box work for their big brothers.

The line up follows:

Seniors—Manley, c. & p.; Doane, 3b.; Line, p. & c.; Champlin, ss.; Conlin, lf.; Fountain, 2b.; Fine, cf.; Hunting, rf., and Cullen, 1b.

Score by innings:

Freshmen	3	2	3	4	0	6	3	3	x—	24
Seniors	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0—	3

Umpires—A. Doffett, R. Veghte.

RUTGERS TENNIS TEAM SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Manager A. A. Neilson has announced the Rutgers tennis schedule for the present season. The list of contests includes matches with N. Y. U., Columbia, Stevens, Union and Lafayette, the majority of which will be played at home. With Fountain, V. Havens, Prentiss and D. Havens, of last year's team still in college, the season should be a most successful one. The schedule follows:

May.
11—N. Y. U. at New Brunswick.
18—Lafayette at Easton.
22—Stevens at New Brunswick.
25—Union at New Brunswick.

June.
1—Stevens at Hoboken.
4—Columbia at New Brunswick.
15—Lafayette at New Brunswick.

SCOTCH PLAINS PLAYS FIRST GAME TOMORROW

The Scotch Plains team will open its season tomorrow afternoon against the strong Orange A. C. Manager Alberts has succeeded in getting a fast lot of ball tossers together for this contest and has great hopes of starting the season off with a win. While Hand left to join the U. S. Leaguers he has succeeded in filling his place. As the season progresses the management expects to add other players well-known to the local fans.

For tomorrow's game the 'Plains' team will line up: H. Alberts, c; Miller, p. or rf.; Lee, p. or rf.; Frentz, 1b.; J. Albert, 2b.; Mullen, ss.; Gray, 3b.; Nolan, cf.; Boltz, lf. Heller, Hobletz and another pitcher have been signed up for the future games. The umpire will be Mr. Keley.

OPEN AIR MEETING.

The second of the series of open air meetings that are being conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this evening at Madison avenue and West Front street. Brief addresses will be made by Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of Grace M. E. church, and Rev. E. C. Conover, of the Temple Baptist church. Whitney Frazee will play several cornet solos. The speakers will talk from an automobile.

TO MEET ATTY.-GEN'L.

Assistant Prosecutor Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., has accepted an invitation to attend a reception to be given by the Law Department of the University of Pennsylvania in honor of Attorney-General George W. Wickersham at the Law building in Philadelphia next friday night. The Cabinet officer will deliver an address on "The Judicial Function."

MOTHER'S DAY OBSERVED.

Mothers' Day was observed at the morning services of the Seventh-Day Baptist church today. Rev. Edwin Shaw spoke of the significance attached to the day, telling of the great growth the movement has made in the last few years.

RECEPTION BY GIRLS' GREEK LETTER CLUB

Sigma Gamma Kappa of N. P. H. S. Entertains Delightfully at the Y. W. C. A.

The Sigma Gamma Kappa of the North Plainfield High School gave a reception to their friends at the Young Women's Christian Association yesterday afternoon. The girls were assisted in their entertaining by Mrs. Percy H. Stewart and Miss Eva Terry, a teacher of the North Plainfield High School. The reception ranks as one of the chief social events of the school year.

Games were played on the back lawn, after which the High School Glee Club sang and Miss Mary Martin recited in Irish dialect.

Refreshments were served on the back porch, which was prettily decorated to match the rooms, the club colors of old rose and white being used. The Misses Mildred McAuliff and Rose Andrews poured chocolate.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Epworth League of Grace M. E. church, last night: President, R. V. Miller; first vice president, Benjamin Schuck; second vice president, Miss Mabel Stevens; third vice president, Miss Della Voehl; fourth vice president, Miss Mary Steiner; secretary, Miss Minnie Nelson, and treasurer, J. R. Harden.

It was decided to send a delegate to the Epworth League Institute to be held at Madison, July 9 to 18. The president was impowered to name this delegate, which will be done at an early date.

BOYS' A. A. CONQUERER OF NETHERWOOD SCOUTS

The Boys' A. A. defeated the Netherwood Boy Scouts in their game played yesterday afternoon on Loizeaux Field by a score of 11 to 10. The Athletics had things all their own way during the first part of the game but toward the end the scouts began to creep up very nearly taking the game from the A. A. team.

The line up:

Athletics—Dale, p.; Mills, c.; Dickinson, 1b.; Irons, 2b.; Case, ss.; Blake, 3b.; Zelie, lf.; Stevens, cf.; Williams, rf.

WOOLMAN THE THEME.

The local Young Friends' Association and the New York "Quakerism" class were charmingly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swan, members of the other branch of the Religious Society of Friends, at their home in Westfield, last evening. The simplicity of the life and work of John Woolman, one of the pioneers in anti-slavery and other reforms, formed most interesting topic for discussion. It is hoped that a meeting of these associations of the different branches of Friends may be made an annual affair.

"Rothberg Suits Everybody!"

That's what one of the boys told a party of friends the other night. "When I buy a suit there, he not only suits me, but suits my pocketbook, and above all—he suits my wife. And she is hard to please in the matter of clothes, believe me."

It's a fact, I've had lots of people say the same thing to me. Bring your wife along and see my collection of

BRANDT IN CELL; NEW FIGHT BEGUN

Former Valet of Banker Schiff Loses Liberty.

NOW LOCKED IN THE TOMBS

Appellate Division of Supreme Court Reverses Justice Gerard's Decision Out of Prison Two Months, Where He Was Serving Thirty Year Sentence

BRANDT'S STATUS AS DEFINED BY COUNSEL.

"Brandt's status is this: He must remain in custody of the sheriff for thirty days, which is the time allowed in which to take an appeal, and at any time during that period he can furnish bail conditioned on his guaranteeing that he will appear before the appellate division after the decision of the court of appeals and abide by the decision of that tribunal.

"As soon as the order of the appellate division is filed, which will be on Monday, notice of appeal will be served.

"This notice will act as a stay to prevent him from being removed to Dannemora until his appeal has been decided. This stay is absolute for thirty days, and in case he gives bail will continue until his appeal has been heard and disposed of."—Statement by Mirabeau L. Towns, counsel for Brandt.

New York, May 11.—Mirabeau L. Towns on Monday will seek to obtain the release from the Tombs of Foulke E. Brandt, whose liberty was terminated by the ruling of the appellate division of the supreme court. This decision reversed Judge Gerard's decision liberating Brandt on a writ of habeas corpus.

After more than two months' liberty on a writ of habeas corpus, Mortimer L. Schiff's discharged valet has been ordered returned to Clinton prison, where he was serving a thirty years' sentence imposed by Judge Rosalsky in the court of general sessions on Brandt's plea of guilty to a charge of burglary in the first degree.

As soon as the action of the appellate division had been communicated to Carl Nott, acting district attorney, he sent Detectives Rayens and Thomas to Flushing, N. Y., where Brant has been living since his release. The valet was brought in and arraigned before Judge O'Sullivan of the court of general sessions, who had issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

His Bail Doubled.

Judge O'Sullivan increased the $2,500 bail in the assault charge to $5,000 and in default of this Brandt was remanded to the Tombs, there to await his return to Clinton. The formal order of the appellate division will be filed with the clerk of the Tombs on Monday, after which Brandt will be recommitted. Mr. Nott said he did not see how Brandt could be admitted to bail while waiting for the consideration of his case by the court of appeals.

The appeal was made by Attorney General Carmody, assisted by District Attorney Whitman of New York county, and District Attorney Hogue of Clinton county. It was supposed at the time that the appeal was purely perfunctory and that the attorney general and Mr. Whitman were in sympathy with the man fighting for freedom.

EYES ON CALIFORNIA.

Betting Odds 10 to 4½ That Roosevelt Will Carry the State.

San Francisco, May 11.—With both sides claiming California by over 30,000, about the only safe method of gauging the result of the primaries next Tuesday is from the betting odds. Harry Corbett reports odds of 10 to 4½ that Roosevelt will carry the state by 30,000 and will also carry San Francisco. Good observers are inclined to think betting men have sized up the result very fairly.

Roosevelt's campaign has been ably handled, and he has had Governor Johnson as a spellbinder.

Roosevelt's managers claim the state by 30,000, and they base this figure on the success of Johnson in the gubernatorial campaign. The Taft managers claim 35,000 majority and declare that they have returns to bear out this estimate.

AGED EMBEZZLER PARDONED.

Governor Plaisted of Maine Shows Mercy to Richmond H. Ingersoll.

Augusta, Me., May 11.—Richmond H. Ingersoll, the aged ex-treasurer of the York County savings bank at Biddeford, was pardoned by Governor Plaisted and council.

Ingersoll was serving a two year sentence for the embezzlement of certain funds of the institution, which speculations forced it to close in September, 1910.

Ingersoll was charged in four warrants with having embezzled $3,300, although discrepancies in his accounts were estimated at $340,000.

Twice Ingersoll tried to commit suicide, but on Jan. 13, 1911, he was sentenced to serve two years.

POOL MEMBERS AFRAID TO TRUST EACH OTHER

How the Distrust Cropped Up. Fluctuation of Steel Prices.

New York, May 11.—The subject of price fluctuations was taken up at the hearing in the government's suit against the steel corporation. Judge Dickinson stating it to be the government's purpose to show that a sharp rise in prices for steel product followed the formation of the large subsidiaries and the steel corporation itself.

Alvin I. Findley, editor of the Iron Age, showed by figures that prices increased rapidly until 1901, when they began to sag because of the spirit of competition that began to show itself among the large producers and which the complaint in the government suit refers to as the "coming battle of the giants," which the steel corporation was formed to avert.

Frank J. Newberry of John A. Roebling's Sons' company, who was a member of the various pools, gave testimony as to the rules and procedure of the Rubber Covered Wire association, the Weatherproof and Magnet Wire association and others, all of which resembled the Houseshoe association, each participant depositing a certain amount as a guarantee, and having a certain proportion of the total business allotted to it. Mr. Newberry admitted that prices had been regulated, claiming the object was to maintain a fair level of prices.

From letters introduced it appeared that members of these pools were constantly distrustful of one another.

The hearing adjourned until Monday morning.

FIGHT ALL OVER MEXICO.

Many Clashes Reported In Affected Portions of Country.

Washington, May 11.—Fighting is taking place simultaneously in all the disaffected portions of Mexico, according to advices received at the state department.

What seems the most important battle is reported in progress at Toahuallilo, in the state of Culiacan, the forces numbering altogether about 4,000 men. Two carloads of wounded from the battlefield near Monclova have passed through Saltillo, but no definite news of the engagement has been received.

Another fight is raging between federals and Zapatists in Morales, near Tres Marias.

Fighting by bands not connected with the forces under General Orozco has been reported from Tanaulipas and in San Luis Potosi.

T. R. FRIGHTENED? NOT HE!

Declares He Is Not Going to Chicago to Direct Convention Fight.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 11.—"I am not frightened and am not going to Chicago," was Colonel Roosevelt's answer to the report that he is going to be on the ground at the convention and direct his fight on the floor for the nomination.

His opponents in Chicago, according to the report, are gloating over this story as a sign that the colonel is getting frightened about his chances.

RICHESON'S FATE HANGS IN BALANCE

Doomed if Governor Is Advised Prisoner Is Sane.

EX-MINISTER IN TEARS.

Begs on His Knees Not to Be Sent to Death House—Report of Several Alienists to Governor Foss Will Settle Murderer's Life.

Boston, May 11.—Governor Foss' secretary gave out a statement concerning the case of the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, sentenced to die in the chair in the week beginning May 19 for poisoning Avis Linnell. The most significant part of the governor's statement follows:

"The governor is not seeking to save this man's life. He abhors, as does every one, the awful crime to which Richeson has confessed, and if it is found that he is and was legally sane at the time the crime was committed he would not think for one instant of extending to Richeson executive clemency.

The governor realizes, of course, that on his decision may rest the life or death of this man. He has asked Dr. L. Vernon Briggs to make an exhaustive study of the case, and is now awaiting the report from Dr. Briggs, but the governor has also called into conference Dr. Henry B. Stedman, Dr. Morton Prinnee and Dr. Fernald, and their opinions will also be most important factors in arriving at any conclusion which the governor may reach.

While it is well known the governor is opposed to capital punishment, he will not for a moment allow his personal views to influence his decision. The whole thing hinges on this one point—was Richeson insane at the time the crime was committed?

If the opinion of these expert alienists called into the case by the governor is to the effect that Richeson is and has been insane, then the governor must call together his council, have presented to it the evidence and leave to their decision the question of Richeson's sanity. The governor has no vote in their deliberations, is not present and will abide by their decision.

The governor does not know whether Richeson is sane or insane. He will be guided wholly by the reports of these alienists and the decision of the governor's council if he decides to refer the case to the council.

Richeson on His Knees.

With tears streaming down his face Clarence V. T. Richeson sent down on his knees and begged that he be allowed to remain in the Charles street jail until the question of the commutation of his death sentence is settled.

In a public letter to Governor Foss Mayor Fitzgerald asked the governor not to refer the Richeson case to the executive council.

HENRY B. HARRIS' WILL.

Titanic Victim Drew Up Testament Just Before He Sailed to Europe.

New York, May 11.—The will of Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager, who was lost on the Titanic and whose body has not been recovered was filed for probate and indicated that he had a premonition that he might not return from his trip abroad. The will was executed on Feb. 21 last just before he sailed for Europe, and after making bequests of $5,000 each to the blind babies of the Sunshine society, the Hebrew Infant asylum and the Actors' Fund of America, it says:

"All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, wherever situated, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Irene W. Harris, should she survive me for a period of fifteen days. If my beloved wife does not survive me fifteen days I give, devise and bequeath to my wife's mother, Rachael Wallach, the sum of $25,000 and the remainder to be divided between Mrs. Samuel B. Sterne, Mrs. Eugene Loeb, Mrs. William Harris, Jr., and my niece, Ruth P. Harris."

(In the Matter of the Application of the Executors of the will of Samuel Dreier, Deceased, to Show Cause of Sale of Land to Pay Debts.)

Pursuant to an order of the surrogate of Union county, dated the 1st day of May, 1912, we, the undersigned executors of the will of Samuel Dreier, deceased, hereby give notice to all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased, to exhibit the same with the vouchers thereof, to the subscribers, executors of said deceased, at the office of Frederick Dreier and Harry Dreier, Executors, etc., of Samuel Dreier, deceased, in the City of Plainfield, in said county, on or before the 1st day of November next, and that all persons indebted to said deceased are requested to make payment to the subscribers, executors of said deceased, at the office of Frederick Dreier and Harry Dreier, Executors, etc., of Samuel Dreier, deceased, in the City of Plainfield, in said county.

Dated this 1st day of May, 1912.

HAMLET BURNING UP BY GRADUAL PROCESS

Newton, May 11.—Fire is slowly and surely wiping out the village of Flatbrookville, in Walpack township. From a prosperous town of 250 inhabitants, thirty-five years ago, the place has dwindled to a hamlet of less than thirty.

The destruction by fire of the stores and dwelling-houses, one by one, is given as the principal cause for the slow abandonment of Flatbrookville. Rarely are the burned buildings replaced.

Today there are eight buildings in the hamlet, including a hotel and a combination store and dwelling-house. Four of these eight are unoccupied. Up to Saturday night there were nine buildings, but a fire, supposed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed the vacant Isaac Bunnell house.

Flatbrookville is situated at the junction of the Delaware River with the Flatbrook. Here thirty-five years ago the principal industry was lumbering, and the town was a trading as well as a stopping off point for lumbermen. At that time the village boasted of two blacksmith shops, two cooper shops, three stores, two hotels, a saloon, a combination grist and sawmill, and forty families.

'SKEETER SLAYERS ARE EMPLOYES OF COUNTY

Trenton, May 11.—Basing his decision partly upon a previous ruling of his department, Assistant Attorney General Nelson B. Gaskill has advised the Civil Service Commission that appointees under the act of last winter, providing for the extermination of mosquitoes, are to be rated as county employes and not as employes of the State. Consequently civil service regulations will govern the appointments only in such counties as have adopted the civil service law.

"I observe," said Mr. Gaskill in his opinion, "that the mosquito commission is to be appointed by a justice of the Supreme Court, who is in turn an appointee of the Governor. This fact, however, is not sufficient, in my judgment, to establish the status of employes of such commissions as state employes. They cannot under any circumstances be regarded as a part of the judicial system of the State, and not, therefore of that branch of the government from which the appointments come. It seems to me that these commissions are clearly county commissions and that their employes are county employes."

SUFFRAGIST DISPERSES DANCERS AT ELIZABETH

Elizabeth, May 11.—A dance that threatened to become disorderly was stopped here early yesterday by Miss Nellie Schwartz, city dance hall inspector. She dispersed a group of Newarkers, two of whom were about to settle with their fists a dispute over a young woman. In addition to being superintendent of the Charities Aid Association Miss Schwartz is active in suffrage work.

Miss Schwartz, as superintendent of the Charities Aid Association and city dance hall inspector, was called back after she had once decided favorably on the dance, which was that of the Sally Association. She learned that two young men named Clary and Weinstein were about to fight out a disagreement on the street.

Summoning a policeman, Miss Schwartz invaded the hall, ordered the dancing to stop and after disbanding the merrymakers, saw to it that the Newarkers had boarded a homebound car before counting her duty done.

Miss Schwartz came here from Brooklyn to take charge of the charity organizations and has taken a conspicuous part in the suffrage work of the women of the city.

WANTS STOCKHOLDERS TO LEAVE SCHOOL BOARD

What some of the local people have described as extraordinary action was taken at the meeting of the Bernards Township Board of Education, when the president, Joseph E. Buck, asked for the resignation of two members, Dr. Clare M. Henry and Charles L. Roberts, on the ground that they were interested in contracts with the board which would profit them pecuniarily. Mr. Buck said that they were stockholders of the Bernards Water Company, which concern sold water for school use, and thereby they were ineligible as trustees. On motion of Watson Allen, a member of the board, Messrs. Henry and Roberts will be allowed to continue in office until legal counsel gives a decision.

James E. Bathgate accused President Buck of arbitrary methods, but the chairman held that he was right, according to law.

There is said to be a widespread feeling among residents that in demanding these resignations a point is being overstrained.

KEEPING AIR CLEAN.

J. I. Lyle, of the Carrier Air Conditioning Company, of New York City, will deliver an illustrated talk on "Dust, Contagion, Ventilation," before the Men's Club of the Congregational church, Tuesday night, May 14, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Lyle is considered an authority on the handling of air and its relation to the above subjects. The lecture, it is believed, will be of special interest to members of Boards of Education, Boards of Health, Anti-Tuberculosis League and all heating and ventilating engineers.

"FIFTY MILES FROM BOSTON."

The Trinity Club, of Princeton University, will appear at the Plainfield theatre Saturday night, May 18, presenting "Fifty Miles From Boston," George M. Cohan's great success. A great deal of time and expense have been expended in order that a finished performance may be given. Local interest is attached to the forthcoming production for the reason that J. Sewell Ulrich, of this city, will appear in a leading role.

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services at the Temple Baptist church tomorrow will be appropriate to Mothers' Day. Rev. Evart C. Conover, the pastor, will preach a sermon to mothers in the morning and in the evening there will be a service of story and song by the chorus choir, arranged by Meredith and Tullar. There will be no sermon in the evening.

CONCERT AND LECTURE.

A concert and illustrated lecture with sixty-five stereopticon views of the Jewish life and its institutions in Palestine, will be given in Y. M. H. A. Auditorium tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of J. H. Camp, No. 57, O. B. Z.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Many individual executors are unfamiliar with the details of settling an estate and while they are acquiring the necessary experience the interests of the estate may suffer.

This Company, because of the large volume of its trust business and the special training of its officers, is thoroughly familiar with the duties of executor and administrator.

The fees allowed a trust company for acting as executor or administrator are the same as those allowed an individual.

Here they are—

This car has style and speed galore. Look at the lines of the body. This is a big car. It has a 120-inch wheel base, 36x4 tires, and a 45-horse-power motor that really develops its rated capacity under the brake test. It's a self-starter, too.

After comparing you would expect to pay at least $1,000 more than we ask.

MOON "40" Torpedo $1800

You can tell pretty well what a car is if you know what kind of a motor it has. The motor in this car is genuine T-head construction, the same as the high-priced cars. It's long stroke, 4½ bore and 5-inch stroke, with spiral gears, roller tappets and solid turned cams and cam shaft. The 1¾-inch crankshaft bearings are 11 inches long.

Look at the specifications: Moon self-starting device—multiple disc clutch—extra size nickle and black Solar lamps—big artillery wheels, with full 1⅛-inch second growth hickory spokes of special design—36x4 detachable tires with demountable rims—extra demountable rim—120-inch wheel base—genuine honeycomb radiator—full kit of tools, including pump and jack—goggle and glove box under the driver's seat—veil pocket in tonneau—folding foot rail—dual ignition and a lot of extras and luxuries besides.

Don't decide until you see this car.

MRS. TILNEY AND SISTER ENTERTAIN AT A DANCE

Mrs. Albert A. Tilney, of Central avenue, and her sister, Mrs. Joseph W. Sandford, of Stelle avenue, gave a delightful dance at the Plainfield Country Club, last night. There were about eighty guests, mostly young people. VanEps Brothers furnished a popular program of dances which was continued until about 11 o'clock. During the evening supper was served by George W. Eke, superintendent of the club.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated for the affair with dogwood and lilacs, the arrangement in the large reception hall, where the guests danced, being particularly effective.

MRS. WHITE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. William C. White will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at her late home on Grove street. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, former pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Vassar, of Elizabeth, will officiate. The burial will be in Hillside cemetery and the pall-bearers wil be John G. MacLaughlin, J. Herbert Case, Charles Conover, H. C. Carmer, Runyon Fields and Newton B. Smalley.

LINKE SEEKS LICENSE.

Former Judge W. A. Codington, of this city, yesterday applied to Judge Daly, at New Brunswick, for a wholesale license for Frank Linke, for 158 North avenue, Dunellen. Judge Daly announced that he would grant but one wholesale license in Dunellen and that Joseph M. Maier, of Dunellen, would get unless some substantial objections were made against the man's personality. However, at the request of Judge Codington, he set the application down for a hearing on May 24.

"HUSKIN BEE" STIRS BOUND BROOK RISIBLES

"The Old-Fashioned Husking Bee," under the direction of Harry C. White, for the benefit of the organ fund of the Reformed church, was repeated last evening in Voorhees' Hall, Bound Brook. H. D. Hageman, Louis Ulmer, Eddie Rockcliff, Mrs. A. Hodge, J. Addison VanDoren, Mrs. O. B. Mathews, O. B. Mathews, Herbert Hall, Stella Beger, Leonard Hodge, Philip Koechlein scored in their parts.

Prof. Beam, of Boston, with his humanophone, made a big hit, assisted by the following young women: Madalyn Clark, Ada Baxter, Florence Evans, Alice Wyckoff and Ethel Gillespie.

In the chorus were Misses Iverna Wiggins and Effie Dibble, Messrs. LeRoy Fisher, J. Mathews and C. Zimmerman, pianist, Mrs. George Wyckoff; cornetist, Franz Kaltner.

Music was furnished by the Bound Brook High School orchestra. The performance was financially successful and a laughing hit.

HOWARD A. HORNER.

Howard A. Horner, aged 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Horner, died this morning at his home, Woodland avenue and Randolph road, after a brief illness from pneumonia. He was taken ill last Saturday night, after returning home from New York, where he was employed by the Wells-Fargo Express Company. Beside his parents he is survived by one sister, Miss Amy Horner. The funeral will be private.

MOTHERHOOD THEME IN ALL THE CHURCHES

White Carnations on Many Lapels—Exercises in Sunday Schools.

In accordance with the custom throughout the country pastors of many of the Protestant churches in the city and borough observed Mothers' Day yesterday. Appropriate sermons were preached in the churches and special services were features.

Mothers' Day was originated by Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, who advocated a day in May for the recognition of motherhood. She thought of a flower to be worn on the day, and choosing the second Sunday of the month, designated the white carnation as a fitting symbol. On Mothers' Day the while carnation is worn on the corsage or lapel.

When the founder presented her idea to the public the women were less enthusiastic than the men, because, it is said, it is the province of man rather than of women to lead the march when praise of the mother is the goal in view.

At the suggestion of their counsel, A. R. Talbot, 1,250,000 men, the Modern Woodmen of America, adopted the suggestion of Miss Jarvis and took the initiative in observing Mothers' Day.

At the present time there are few Sunday-schools in the country where the day is not observed by a special program.

The closing part of the Sunday-school session at the Park Avenue Baptist church was devoted to "Mothers' Day." The program included remarks by the superintendent, George E. Hall; a violin and flute duet exquisitely rendered by Arthur Mosher and Elmer Wheeler, and a vocal selection given by a double quartet consisting of Mrs. Robert Humpston, Mrs. Ada Cuming, Miss Adelia Runyon, Mrs. Charles Steiner, Nelson Runyon, Karl Wilson, David Runyon, Charles VanWinkle. The singing was accompanied by Mrs. John Manley, pianist, and the regular Bible school orchestra, under the direction of Arthur S. Mosher.

At the session of the Trinity church Sunday-school Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardner made a short address appropriate to "Mothers' Day," and a printed program of responsive reading and prayer in charge of Superintendent F. E. Smith, was followed.

An informal program appropriate to the day was followed at the Bible school of the First Baptist church. Superintendent Arthur M. Harris was in charge. There was a vocal duet by the Misses Emeline Manning and Mabel Foster; recitations by Miss Emily Pilger and Miss Anna Sherwin and a motion exercise by children from the primary department. There were also short addresses by Arthur M. Harris, Frederick S. Thompson, Dr. Norman H. Probasco and James E. Church.

GERMANS GO ON THEIR FIFTY-FIRST MAY WALK

Despite the threatening weather of yesterday 30 members of the Gesang and Turn Verein started out yesterday morning at an early hour upon its fifty-first annual May walk. The scene of the day's festivities was Schoonmaker's pond, which was reached by stage, carriage and automobile, where a day of good times and a sumptuous repast confronted the thirty.

The afternoon was spent in the playing of games, including baseball and quoits, and in fishing; all of the members thoroughly enjoying a day in the open. The return trip was made about 8 o'clock.

BAD LITTLE BOYS.

A half-hour after a false alarm was turned in from box 19 at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Policeman McGinley found Andrew Santa Barba, 12 years old, who lives in the district "covered" by the box, downtown and arrested him on suspicion. Andrew said he didn't pull the box, but that James Scharado, a small boy living at 822 St. Mary's avenue, did. Scharado, today, said it wasn't he who pulled the box, but he admitted that he and William Shubert, of South avenue and Terrill road, broke into Percy Cannon's store on East Second street Thursday night and stole balls and bats. Scharado and Shubert were held, and Santa Barba was released.

FOREIGN POTATO BUYER.

John Mehl, of Hoboken, formerly of this city, spent yesterday in town as the guest of his father, George Mehl, of West Second street. Mr. Mehl recently returned from abroad, having passed the winter in Scotland and Ireland buying potatoes for the American market. He shipped an average of 60,000 bags to this country every week. Mr. Mehl greeted many old friends before returning to Hoboken.

UPSET MARS TRIP OF YOUNG CANOEISTS

Member of Party Who Can't Swim Saves Himself by Clinging to Craft.

A party of four West End young men, Allen and Guy Snyder, of West End avenue; Joseph Muir, of Grant avenue, and Aleck Burke, of West Third street, underwent a thrilling experience, yesterday, in paddling a large canoe along Green brook from Lincoln to Bound Brook. When midway in one of the deepest parts of the stream, a short distance from its entrance to the Raritan river, the little craft was caught by a treacherous swirl and upset. Guy Snyder and Muir were carried to shallow water by the current but from the manner in which they fell, Allen Snyder and Burke remained in a section of the channel fifteen feet deep. Burke is unable to swim and only for the fact that he clung desperately to the upturned canoe, the upset might have resulted in a fatality. He was rescued from his perilous position by Allen Snyder, who swam to his side, while the others held out pieces of branches.

Burke was the unfortunate member of the party in another respect. Allen Snyder and he had removed their shoes and socks, coats and hats in order to be free in paddling and less hampered in case of trouble When the canoe turned turtle all the articles were spilled out. Burke's footgear disappeared entirely, also his coat, together with a meerschaum pipe belonging to Allen Snyder and a nickel watch of Muir's. A diligent search failed to bring any of them to the surface. One of the young men loaned Burke his socks and this was all the foot covering he had on the home journey. He tried to borrow or buy a pair of shoes in Bound Brook only to receive repeated turndowns.

The canoe, which bears the name of "Chip," is the property of Allen Snyder. He keeps it at Bound Brook during the summer and the other three were accompanying him on the trip. The craft was carted to Lincoln and paddled along Green brook to the Raritan River. It was righted after the upset and gotten safely to its destination.

31ST ANNIVERSARY OF A TRINITY SOCIETY

Special Sermon to Ladies' Christian Work Members By Rev. J. Y. Broek.

The Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church observed its thirty-first anniversary yesterday, and last night the members of the society attended service in a body and listened to a special sermon by Rev. J. Y. Broek, his theme being "A Woman Full of Good Works."

In connection with the service, Mrs. Frank Templin, secretary, read her report. This showed an active membership of 65. The society, among other benefactions, sent a box of useful articles, valued at $122.15, to the Western School, and gave $88.81 toward thec hurch deficit and pledged $100 toward the $3,000 church debt.

Rev. J. Y. Broek, in his sermon to the society, said among other things:

"I do not know whether or not Dorcas possessed physical beauty and grace, but I do know she had a sweet and beautiful Christian character. She was an earnest Christian and that fact charmed her life and made her attractive. The secret of her winsomeness, beauty and charm was her Saviour.

"The fragrance of her life faw her good works. Her home was a centre of blessing and sunshine. The noblest and most beautiful sphere of woman is found in the home. Her home is her throne. Here, her power of refinement is prodigious. Her grace, her subtile intuition, native purity, truth and sweetness, her martyr spirit of endurance and sacrifice, her deathless love radiates and pierce from the home, to purify and uplift the world.

"While a woman's throne is the home, her influence is not limited there. She is active in all good works. Her genius blossoms in discoveries of science, in literature, art, music and on the canvass. In church work, women are especially active in good works. From human standpoint the work of the kingdom would be retarded without her help."

SEWER STATION SHUT DOWN BY A STARLING

Bird Driven Against Compressor When it Alights on Pumping Engine.

The sanitary sewer pumping station on Monroe avenue was temporarily put out of commission early this morning in a peculiar manner. A starling, in its flight about the station, entered a small opening in the brick wall alighting on top of the engine. When the engine started up the bird was forcibly thrown over against the air compressor and instantly the amchinery was brought to a standstill, and remained so until Raymond L. Bonham, of Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett's staff, stopped at the station according to his daily custom.

Mr. Bonham found the bird securely fastened in the compressor, having been crushed to death. As soon as the bird was removed the engine started up again. Mr. Bonham brought the dead bird to the street commissioner's office.

MUSICALE AND TEA FOR BENEFIT OF CHARITY FUND

Under the auspices of the Unitarian church, and the direction of a committee of which Mrs. O. C. Titus was chairman, a musicale and tea was held at Truell Hall, Saturday afternoon. The proceeds from the affair will go toward a fund to establish a free bed at Muhlenberg Hospital. The musicale comprised solos by Mrs. Guy Bender, soprano, of this city, and Miss Helen Nisbuhr, contralto, of New York; piano selections by Stephen Haff and Mrs. Charles L. Lewis and violin selections by Mrs. Violet Truell-Johnson.

A feature of the program was "Minuet" and Greek dances by children of Mrs. Titus. After the entertainment tea was served by the committee in charge, assisted by other women of the church. The affair was successful.

PEDAGOGUES GO CANOEING ON THE PLACID CRANFORD

Teachers of the Plainfield High School enjoyed a picnic and canoe trip Saturday afternoon. The party went to Cranford by trolley, and spent the afternoon in canoes on the Cranford River. Henry Hubbard was in charge of the party. After following the river a distance of about three miles, a stop was made in a grove, where supper was enjoyed.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Best, Henry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Beers, Allen Doggett, the Misses Lena Bass, Katherine Ball, Alice Forsythe, Esther Edgerton and Ann K. Miller.

TOOK A DUCKING TO ESCAPE A RUNAWAY

Gilligan Saved Himself from Trampling by Jumping Into So. Plainfield Pond.

William Waldron, of South Plainfield, whose fast black pacer was entered in the farmer's race at the race meeting of the Watchung Hunt Club Saturday afternoon, failed to reach the track in time. Mr. Waldron was driving from his home along the South Plainfield pond, when his horse was frightened by an automobile, owned by Archie Steengraafe, which was going in the opposite direction.

The frightened animal in its rush narrowly escaped running over James Gilligan, who, to save himself from injury, was obliged to jump in the pond. The horse after going a short distance stumbled and fell, cutting its knees. Judge Kaine, who was walking along the road, caught the animal before it was able to do any more damage. Mr. Waldron escaped uninjured.

MANY SEE SUICIDE'S BODY, NOT HEEDING

Lay for Twelve Hours in View of Trolley Passengers and Crew.

The body of a young man, apparently 21 years old, identified by cards as Herman von Bargonz, of New York, was found yesterday afternoon near the long trolley bridge at East Bound Brook. A pistol clutched in one hand and a bullet wound in the right temple indicated that he had committed suicide. The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Edgerton, of Bound Brook, and Coroner Harding, of Middlesex county, afterward conducted an investigation. The body is being held at Bound Brook pending the arrival of friends from New York.

A New Brunswick trolley crew first noticed the lifeless form at 5:30 yesterday morning, but believed it was an intoxicated man. From then on, all through the day, the body was seen by crews and passengers in cars crossing the bridge but no one believed the man dead. Finally the same crew that had first noticed the form, decided to make an investigation. They were accompanied by Frank Gregory and Joseph Downey, of Bound Brook, all of whom saw what had happened as soon as they approached.

The pockets of the clothing contained $12 and a blue stickpin. There was also a card giving his name and the address "721 East 82nd street, New York." A certificate from the International Auto School, at 137 East 40th street, New York, was also in pocket, showing he had paid for a course of instruction. A telephone message to this concern verified the suicide's name and address.

BOOKMAKERS AT WATCHUNG MEET

Open Defiance of the Law and No Interference From Officials.

DETECTIVES OBLIVIOUS

Deputy Sheriffs As Undisturbed As Pinkerton Men — One Welcher Forced to Disgorge By Victims at Station.

Openly defying the law as regards gambling, a large number of bookmakers plied their trade at the race meeting of the Watchung Hunt Club at the Driving Park, Saturday afternoon, without hinderance or interference on the part of the officials In addition to the Pinkerton men who were engaged by the club, the sheriff of Middlesex county had several men stationed about the grounds but they were all seemingly oblivious as to what was going on in the way of betting.

There was one instance, it is said, where an official "called" a bookmaker for laying bets, but the latter told the official to mind his own business, which he did after that. The lack of any enforcement of the law made the "bookies" bold, and they accosted people right and left in an effort to get money up on the different races.

One of the "bookies" who was out for all he could make, made wholesale collections on one of the races and then skipped. Several who were caught by that operator found him at the North Avenue station just as he was about to board a train for New York, and succeeded in getting most of their money. They cleaned him out on doing it, despite his earnest pleas, and how he reached New York is still a mystery.

The Watchung Huut Club, it is said, did not approve of the betting, putting the matter up to the Middlesex county authorities. The officials say that the large crowd present made it almost impossible to stop the practice.

STRIKE CAUSES BIG COAL PILE TO SHRINK FAST

Owing to the practical suspension of operations at the coal mines, the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, has laid off about one hundred men at the coal storage plant at South Plainfield, and not more than twenty men are employed there at present. It has been the custom of the company to keep in storage about a half million tons of coal at South Plainfield, but the huge pile is now practicaly reduced to a few thousand tons and this will not last much longer.

There was a report two weeks ago that the big pile was virtually exhausted. It wasn't true then, but it is now.

Limited supplies of coal are received at the storage plant, but no regularity is maintained in the shipments and for this reason the usual large supply cannot be stored. No information has been received by those in charge at South Plainfield and at the present rate it will not be long before the entire supply of coal is exhausted.

MRS. ANN MANNING.

Mrs. Ann Manning, widow of Hugh Manning, died last night at the home of her son in Fanwood. She was eighty-three years old and had resided in this vicinity a long time. MISS HARRIET QUIMBY.

American Woman Here Who Flew Across English Channel.

© American Press Association.

WOMAN AVIATOR ARRIVES.

Miss Harriet Quimby Will Make Flight From Mineola.

New York, May 13.—Harriet Quimby, the first woman to fly across the English channel from Dover to Calais, arrived by the Hamburg-American liner Amerika. She made the channel trip in thirty minutes and steered mostly by compass, as a dense fog prevented her doing otherwise. In two weeks she made $6,000, but she declared that did not indicate that she was following aviation as a commercial enterprise. She is the first American woman to get a license here and in France to navigate the empyrean.

She brought with her on the Amerika a seventy horsepower Bleriot, with a capacity for four passengers. She went to Mineola, and the aeroplane will be sent to her tomorrow, and she will mount the clouds in it some time this week.

Aged New Yorker Won Bride on Business Trip.

New York, May 13.—Relatives and friends of Lewis Cass Wanamaker, the broker, who, although related to the dry goods merchant of the same name has no business connection with him, learned for the first time that he has married the second time nearly a year ago.

Until a few days ago Mr. Wanamaker had been living with his bride, who was Miss Emma Silvia Cardiff of Brockton, Mass., twenty-five years old, at the Hotel St. George, but they are occupying a new home in Brooklyn. Mr. Wanamaker, who is seventy years old, said he had kept the wedding secret for "purely personal reasons, which I do not care to discuss."

Mr. Wanamaker's first wife, who was Miss Susan E. Noyes of Brooklyn, died in January, 1910. In June, 1911, while he was on a business trip to Brockton, Mass., he met his present bride. On June 28 they went to Jersey City Heights, where they were married.

ALLEN FIRED WHEN SHOT.

Alleged Hillsville Murderer Says Sheriff's Bullet Hit Him.

Wytheville, Va., May 13.—Floyd Allen, on trial here for the Hillsville murders, on the witness stand charged that Sheriff L. F. Webb fired his pistol at him and that Clerk of the Court Dexter Goad also shot at him before he (Allen) reached for his pistol.

"I happened to see Clerk Goad wink at Sheriff Webb," declared Allen on the stand, "and I saw both of them take out their revolvers. Then I rose up from my chair and said, 'Gentlemen, I'm not a-going.' I had a paper in my hand, and I started to put it in my inside coat pocket. Then Sheriff Webb fired. He missed me. Clerk Goad fired next, hitting me in the hip, and I fell on Judge Bolen, my counsel."

RAMMED BY BATTLESHIP.

Steamer Damaged in Fog and Is Run Aground to Save Her.

London, May 13.—In a thick fog which came down suddenly over the English channel a serious collision occurred off Folkestone between the battleship London and the British steamship Don Benito, trading to Buenos Aires.

The battleship, apparently undamaged, proceeded to Sheerness for examination, but assistance for the steamship had to be signaled to Dover. The steamship was run aground.

Late Edwin Hawley's Brother Dead.

Chatham, N. Y., May 13.—Charles Hawley, brother of the late Edwin Hawley, is dead at his home here. For many years he was one of Chatham's foremost business men. He inherited one-fifth of Edwin Hawley's estate, his part being estimated at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000, which goes to his son William and daughter Clarissa.

The Young People's Society of the First Baptist church will have charge of the meeting at Salvation Army Hall, Thursday night.

Whitehouse.

At a meeting Thursday of committees representing the Sunday-schools interested in the annual union excursion from Whitehouse Station, Lebanon, Annandale, High Bridge and Hampton it was decided to go this year over the New Jersey Central Railroad to Central Park, near Allentown, Pa. The date selected was Saturday, July 27. The High Bridge baseball team will go along and play a game on that date with Bethlehem.

Postmaster William C. Swackhamer, of Whitehouse Station, is planning improvements to the postoffice. The interior will be partitioned off so that the office will be separated from the store of William Shafer. The letter-boxes will be turned about so they face the street. Eugene Hoffman will relinquish his coal office and the partition between that and the postoffice will be removed so as to give the latter more room.

Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, lectured in the school house at Centreville yesterday afternoon. This was the first of the season's series of lectures at Harlan, Centreville, Pleasant Run and Three Corners.

The polling places in Readington township for the primary election on Tuesday, May 28, will be at Bonnell's Hall at Whitehouse Station for North Readington township and in Dilt's Hall at Three Bridges for South Readington.

At a meeting of the consistory of the Reformed church at Lebanon on Thursday plans for the new chapel were orederd prepared.

The Lebanon Cornet Band will give a concert in Odd Fellows' Hall Thursday evening, May 23, for the benefit of the band.

Mrs. Katherine Davis, who has been critically ill at her home at Whitehouse Station, is improving.

High Bridge-Califon.

After undergoing an operation at a Philadelphia hospital, James Bowers has returned to High Bridge much improved.

The senior class of the High Bridge High School produced "The Cool Collegian" in the Reformed chapel Thursday night.

Union services were conducted yesterday in the High Bridge Methodist church by Rev. John May.

The High Bridge Fire Department will celebrate Memorial Day with a festival in Riverside Park.

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cravatt at High Bridge.

Owen Allen is improving his property in Church street, High Bridge.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

An important meeting of the official board of the Grace M. E. church will be held tonight.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Sunday-school Board of the First M. E. church will be held in Vincent chapel tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. A. M. Dickey, the new contralto at the First Baptist church, sang a pleasing solo at the morning service, yesterday. The selection was "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," by Sullivan.

The social at the First Baptist church Friday night, is planned for every member of the church, it being the desire of the pastor and officers that so far as possible all will attend for the purpose of getting acquainted. There will be a program and refreshments.

The annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Elizabeth district will be held in the M. E. church, Westfield, on Wednesday. The morning service will be held at 10 o'clock and the afternoon session at 2 o'clock. The local M. E. churches will be largely represented.

Miss Mary Morrisey, of New York, is spending a week with Mrs. E. H. Guest, of Terrill road.

AN ORDINANCE

For the Permanent Improvement of Certain Streets and Portions of Streets of the City of Plainfield, with Permanent and Durable Macadam Pavement, and to Provide the Necessary Funds in Advance of the Collection of Assessments for Benefits.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the following streets and parts of streets of the City of Plainfield shall be permanently improved with durable macadam pavement to be completely laid and constructed on or before the thirtieth day of November, 1912, said macadam pavement to be of the depth and width hereinafter specified, the macadam to be in every respect equal to the macadamizing on Randolph Road, between Arlington Avenue and Cedar Brook. All work to be given out upon contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and only after bids therefor shall have been solicited and received according to law, all bids to specify prices for each of said streets or parts of streets separately:

Cameron Avenue, from the macadam on Randolph Road to the northerly curb line of Laramie Road.

Sec. 2. That said streets and portions of streets described in Section 1 shall be macadamized for the width and depth shown in the following schedule, and the macadamizing preparation shall be laid down to the grades already established by ordinance for said streets or portions of streets, respectively:

	Width, Feet.	Depth, Inches.
Lenox Avenue	30	6 to 4
Cameron Avenue	30	6 to 4
Laramie Road	30	6 to 4
West Third Street, West of Clinton Avenue	16	6 to 4
West Third Street, from Madison Avenue to Arlington Avenue	20	8 to 6
Arlington Avenue	20	8 to 6
George Street	16	6 to 4
Netherwood Avenue	16	6 to 4

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of obtaining money by the sale of bonds hereinafter specified for the permanent improvement of said streets and parts of streets as aforesaid, in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits, to an amount not exceeding fifteen dollars per capita for each of the inhabitants of said City according to the last official census, but not for more than the amount limited by law, the Common Council of said City do hereby, pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of said State entitled "An Act to authorize the Improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same, and for the assessment of the benefits of such improvements upon the land and real estate benefited thereby," and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, authorize the issuing of eighteen coupon municipal bonds of the City of Plainfield of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) each, and amounting in all to Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000), which bonds shall be dated June first, 1912, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum (5 per cent.) per annum, payable semi-annually, and be payable three years from the date thereof, with the option to the City to redeem or pay off the said bonds, or any one or more of them, at any time after one year from the date thereof and before three years from the date thereof, on giving personal notice to said holders of said bonds or thirty (30) days notice by advertisement in the official newspapers of the City of the intention to make such redemption or payment, which bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and bear the corporate seal of the City and be attested by the City Clerk, and may severally or collectively when ordered by resolution of the Common Council be sold for an amount not less than par value; and there shall be raised by tax in each year hereafter such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on all outstanding bonds and the principal of such bonds as may mature during that year, and the money derived from the assessments upon the property benefited shall, when collected, be held as a fund toward the payment of said bonds.

Sec. 4. That after said improvements shall have been completed, the Common Council shall, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, apply to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union for the appointment of Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits upon the owners of the lots or parcels of land and real estate peculiarly benefited by such improvements, in proportion, as near as may be, to an amount equal to the amount of benefits actually acquired by the lands and real estate bordering on said streets or portions thereof respectively, by reason of such improvements respectively; and in case the costs and expenses aforesaid shall exceed the amount of said benefits, the excess thereof shall be paid by the City at large and raised by general tax; no property or owner thereof to be in any case assessed beyond the amount of benefit actually derived from said improvements.

Adopted by the Common Council, May 6, 1912; approved by the Mayor, May 10, 1912.

GEORGE W. V. MOY, Mayor.
Attest: J. T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

AGAINST TROLLEY CO.

Morristown, May 13.—The suit of William Steer, of Rockaway, against the Morris County Traction Company, for injuries, loss of wages, etc., which occupied the time of Judge Black, Friday, resulted in a verdict for the defendant. Steer claimed that by the car starting and stopping suddenly on March 6, 1910, he was injured so that he was unable to work for several weeks. The accident happened at Dickerson's bridge, between Dover and Rockaway. The remonstrance against the application of Albert W. Kayhart for a hotel license at Montville was withdrawn and Judge Mills granted the license Friday.

The monthly business meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will be held in Vincent chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

AUTO NOTES.

Infractions of the new reciprocity law are said to be quite frequent among a certain class of motorists in this vicinity, and the matter has been brought to the attention of the officers of the New Jersey Automobile and Motor Club for investigation.

The chief cause of complaint is the practice of New York business men who have residences in New Jersey and who have heretofore kept their cars in New York, running over here daily under a New York license, thereby abusing the reciprocity privileges, which only call for fifteen days' touring in this state in any one year. It is an illegal use of the license and is subject to a fine of $500. It is said that certain persons violating the law in this matter can be seen passing through this city almost daily.

It is also said that many New York automobilists have more than exhausted their fifteen days' touring privilege in New Jersey already. This assertion was made at the annual meeting of the New Jersey Automobile and Motor Club Monday night. There was a protest from the local motorists regarding the matter and a warning was sounded that continued abuse of this privilege would likely lead to an agitation in favor of modifying the reciprocity law at the next Legislature.

Still another form of law violation quite frequent about this section is the abuse of the manufacturers' license. These licenses are issued simply as a matter of courtesy, for the manufacturers to give demonstrations with their cars principally. Instead, it is asserted that some of these tags are being used as regular licenses. One case is cited of a man, not a dealer, who drives his car daily to and from his home in Orange to Newark. There is some talk among dealers who are living up to the law, to round-up these violators.

Confronted with several serious problems of highway rehabilitation in preparation for the Vanderbilt Cup and Grand Prize road races, the race committee of the Milwaukee Automobile Dealers' Association has eliminated all but two. There remain the proposition to build stretches of concrete roadways for the racers and the more simple one of simply facing up the highways selected for the course and making the turns wider and safer.

In order to get data on the efficiency and cost of concrete roadways, a delegation of motorists has been sent to Wayne County, Ind., to study the concrete roadways installed in the Hoosier territory. Test runs are to be made on the concrete roads, from which technical experts will draw deductions on wear on tires, safety under speed conditions and the factor of engine efficiency.

"Milwaukee learns from the East that fifteen nominations are as good as made for the Vanderbilt race," said a Cream City motorist. "That makes it look as if it were time for Milwaukee automobile interests to get together to accomplish something definite in regard to the course for the big race.

"We have several routes available, the co-operation of the city's commercial and professional leaders and promises of funds for road improvement as well as offers of trophies. Haste might mean waste, however, in the matter of roadway preparation, hence the desire to ascertain whether or not we can afford a permanent concrete race roadway."

By winning the light car class in the Santa Monica road race, averaging 61.8 miles an hour for 101 miles, a Maxwell car, entered and driven by a private owner, has established a new light car record and recovered the title which the Maxwell won in the Long Island stock car derby at Riverhead, N. Y., three years ago.

Although the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor Company and other divisions of the United States Motor Company have withdrawn from racing, the performance at Santa Monica will be certified to the contest board of the American Automobile Association by the United States Motor Company.

This does not mean, however, that the company will resume racing. For two or three years the officials have not favored speed contests, believing that reliability contests furnish a better test.

"Some of our competitors have said that we did not believe in racing because our cars were not speedy," said Benjamin Briscoe. "It is true we never made a specialty of making racing cars, and have believed for years that racing was not the best test of motor car efficiency.

"It gives us some satisfaction, however, to note that the owner of a Maxwell car, making entry without our encouragement or co-operation, has broken the speed record for cars with a piston displacement up to 231 cubic inches, the light car limit."

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Summit, May 13.—The Newark District Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Newark Conference will hold its annual meeting in the Methodist church here next Friday. The morning session will be opened by the president of the society, Mrs. Charles E. Coffin. Devotional exercises will be conducted by Mrs. William I. Haven, of this city. Rev. A. H. Tuttle, pastor of the church, will extend greetings. Following the appointment of committees, reports for the year will be presented by these officers: Mrs. William T. Green, of this city, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mahlon R. Drake, Newark, treasurer; Mrs. A. M. Guerin, Young People's work; Mrs. Edward H. Jones on miteboxes. An election of officers will follow and a report will be given on the deaconness work by Mrs. Charles S. Woodruff, the conference president. Luncheon will be served by the women of the local churches. At the afternoon session addresses will be made by Mrs. A. M. Guernsey on "Schools in the South," and by Mrs. Anna Kent, bureau secretary of New Mexico and Arizona.

TO ENTERTAIN LEAGUE.

Perth Amboy, May 13.—The Raritan Yacht Club has named a committee of forty of its members to arrange for the annual meet of the New Jersey Waterway League in this city June 20 and 21. The Raritan Club will be host to the fleet of the league and preparations are being made to entertain the skippers of more than 500 yachts and launches. Commodore Frank C. Henry heads the committee, which includes in its membership Representative Thomas J. Scully, Prosecutor George S. Silzer, County Collector Thomas H. Hagerty, Sheriff Albert Bollschweiler and County Clerk B. M. Gannon.

GAMBLING AT RACES.

Viewed from a standpoint of public morals or from any other position, gambling is an evil that should not be countenanced by right minded citizens. It is an offense against the laws but even above than an affront on public virtue.

The Watchung Hunt Club is composed of many of the very best members of this community. The sport in which the association engages is one of the healthiest and best in the world. It should be fostered in every proper way.

Our information is that on Saturday at the Watchung Hunt club races, in Middlesex county, bookmakers plied their trade openly. Had this been the first time that such occurence is said to have had taken place at the Watchung Hunt Club's meets, the offense would not be viewed so seriously for it could be expected naturally that the club would take pains to see that there would be no repetition of evil-doing. But it is not the first time, our information is, that the bookmakers have been conspicuously at work. An end should be put to the practise. It spoils the event and it is a clear violation of the statutes of New Jersey.

These sublime thoughts of Mother were contained in a newspaper display advertisement of John Wanamaker on Saturday:

"You remember her voice, her touch, the gracious sense of her presence, further back than anything else that lingers of childhood.

"You remember how in your childish terrors you fled to her.

"You remember that when in pride or temper or folly or selfishness you became ridiculous to everyone else, she was always the one who did not ridicule, but comforted.

"You remember that when your conscience lashed you like a scorpion whip you went to her, sure of solace for heart and mind in the bottomless depths of her forgiveness.

"You remember that she never required anything whatever in return for all that she had given you.

No longer is it necessary for Mrs. Wifey to go through Mr. Hubby's pockets to get what change is there. When Mr. Hubby's pay day comes around, Mrs. Wifey can walk right up to him and demand her share of the earnings. That's the ruling of a Chicago jurist, whose name singularly enough, is Goodnow. This wise one holds that a wife is a regular employee of her husband and as such is entitled to a regular salary. Hearken unto the court "A wife is not obliged to follow her husband about like a monkey with her hand out, asking for money. She is entitled to a fair proportion of his wages. I will see that she gets it, too, in all cases that come before me."

The Jersey Journal under an editorial caption of "Good Sense" says: "The Board of Education has acted wisely in deciding to permit the schools of Jersey City to be used for political meetings." A public school building is the property of a municipal corporation whose stockholders are the taxpayers. These stockholders, majority and minority factions, must meet now and then to discuss their political affairs. What more appropriate place is there for such meetings than the public school hall?

Building and loan associations throughout the country are interested in a suit about to be instituted to test the Federal Income Tax Law. The Act as framed exempts these concerns. A ruling of the Government, however, makes the exemption apply only to "mutual" associations, meaning those conducted for the equal gain of all the members, but not to those having a fixed rate of five per cent. interest. The latter class is declared to be banking institutions subject to the tax.

Says the New York Press: "Plainfield has a live Mayor. It is worth while to have a municipal executive with stamina enough to force the Public Service Corporation to keep its trolley equipment so that it at least is considerate of its patrons' needs."

The design of the five cent piece is to be changed, but not its purchasing power.

HUDSPETH THINKS WILSON WILL LAND NOMINATION

Trenton, May 13.—Robert S. Hudspeth, vice chairman of the Democratic National committee, believes that not until the Democratic convention is in progress in Baltimore will developments occur that may lead to the selection of the candidate for President. Indications at present, said Mr. Hudspeth, are such as to inspire belief that the outcome will be favorable to the candidacy of Governor Wilson.

"Governor Wilson or Speaker Clark," said Mr. Hudspeth, "might, either of them, have 600 delegates pledged on entering the convention, but under the operation of the two thirds rule, this would not insure the nomination to either of them.

"There is a variety of elements to be considered in connection with the nomination and all these, in their various aspects, will not be known until the delegates are assembled. Many of the statements, therefore, that are being made about the candidates are without solid foundation.

"Governor Wilson, undoubtedly, in the minds of many of the national leaders stands in the most advantageous position to secure the nomination. This is practically acknowledged by all his rivals, for they have found it necessary to combine against him in order to gain strength themselves.

"I have reason to know that some of the delegates pledged to Speaker Clark from other States and many of those who are unpledged, really believe that Governor Wilson is the best candidate to name if the Democratic party hopes to win in the election.

"They frankly admit that he can get the independent and the Progressive Republican vote and that this is something that neither Clark, Harmon nor Underwood can do. And it will be necessary for the Democratic candidate to get a good part of the vote that lies outside of the Democratic party."

PERSONAL.

Miss Elizabeth Runyon, of Newark, has returned home after a visit with friends in this city.

J. Harry Milligan, of Newark, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. H. N. Holder, of Orchard place.

Mrs. E. E. Kenyon and Miss E. F. Kenyon registered at the Hotel Nassau, Long Beach, L. I., on Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Gilbert, a member of the First Baptist church choir, will leave on Saturday for Wales, Eng., where she will spend several months with relatives.

William Holmes, of Sycamore avenue, who owing to some throat trouble was obliged to give up singing temporarily, has practically recovered and will return to the First Baptist church choir the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Donohue have returned from their wedding trip to Bermuda, and were among the patrons of the Watchung Hunt Club meet Saturday. Mrs. O'Donohue was formerly Miss Carolyn Bryce, and was prominent as a horsewoman.

Rev. Dr. Rush Rhees, president of Rochester University, was the guest of his uncle, C. W. McCutchen, of the borough, over Sunday. On Saturday he attended the installation ceremonies of Dr. John Grier Hibben as president of Princeton University.

LOVERS OF RACING ENJOY GREAT SPORT

Thrilling Finishes Mark all the Events of Watchung Hunt Club Meet.

Close finishes, the kind that make the blood tingle, were features of the eighth annual race meet of the Watchung Hunt Club, held at the driving park, Saturday afternoon. Ideal weather and a fine program combined to provide an afternoon of rare sport for the two thousand people who thronged the grandstand and crowded along the rail. There were seven races in all including the farmer's scramble, and all were well filled. With the exception of one, the winner was in doubt until the finish line was crossed.

Fred Alpers, one of the most popular gentlemen riders, brought his mounts home in two races, Jack Cade coming in less than half a head in front of Raymond Belmont's Culvert, and later riding H. A. Bourne's Blundara under the wire a half length ahead of Henry W. Warner's Nosegay. In the first race, Mr. Alpers up on Thomas F. White's Nester, came in second to Henry W. Warner's Faultless with E. C. Cowdin, 2d up. After taking the last jump, Nester tired, and Faultless won easily.

There was another exciting finish in the next race, the Middlesex Scurry, for galloways, when Mr. Alpers displayed clever horsemanship and brought Jack Cade home a winner with little more than a neck to the good. The race proved one of supremacy between Jack Cade and Culvert, and Mr. Alpers was successful in turning what looked like a dead heat into a victory for himself.

The rather unexpected defeat of Nosegay in the third race was chiefly due to Mr. Alpers' good work on Blundara. He got the rail position at the start with Nosegay behind and Archibald Barklie's Delphie on the outside. The horses remained in these positions until near the finish, Nosegay being pocketed. On the homestretch Delphie dropped back, and Nosegay being too far behind, Blnndara came under the wire a half a length in the lead.

Edward R. Finch's Duchess of Cypremort, with Jack O'Day up, furnished the only bad spill of the day, but fortunately neither horse nor rider were injured. The horse went down in the fourth race at the jump to the left of the grandstand, but O'Day cleared the animal and was up in an instant. The jockey, unusualy small, was obliged to carry forty-eight pounds of lead to make weight, but on his first time around he dropped the lead pads, which in a measure was responsible for the accident.

R. H. Towner's Sunlight, with C. F. Wildey in the saddle, won this race easily. C. Wesley Holland's Japan was a favorite, but his first time around he crashed into the left wing of the jump near the grandstand, and Schuyler Casey, the rider, gave up in despair, much to the disappointment of the owner and his friends.

Henry Lawrence Bell's St. Leonid with Mr. Lewis riding, won the Watchung Hunter's purse, from H. E. Dreier's Gus Helm. Peter Hauck, Jr.'s, Essex B, the third horse in this race, furnished the amusement for the spectators, as usual. After taking the lead at the start and holding it the greater part of the way, was distanced at the finish by St. Leonid in a fine spurt.

The consolation purse, for the non-winners of the other races, was won by Raymond Belmont's Culvert, it being one of the best events of the afternoon. The winning horse covered the five furlongs in 1:05 1-5. The pace was unusually fast from the start.

The farmer's scramble, as usual, furnished good sport for the local contingent, which was on the lookout for "ringers." William Clark's Dick, with H. L. Clark up, won handily; Leslie Lambert's Kiddo, with J. Smith up, being second, and P. J. Kelly's Ben, with John Sharp in the saddle, third. In this race, Alfred Nelson riding his father's mount, Fritz, went down on the first lap, and the horse came home alone. The rider was not injured.

The club earlier in the afternoon served dinner for the farmers, over whose lands the members hunt, and their families, and also provided free entertainment for its out-of-town guests. In the evening the club entertained at its clubhouse on Plainfield avenue. An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was the music by Charles Suhr's Imperial Band.

The summaries:

First race—The Plainfield Hurdle race, for three year olds and upwards, about one and a half miles: Henry W. Warner's Faultless, first; Thomas F. White's Nestor, second; Rufus C. Finch's Harold A. Frank, third.

Second race—The Middlesex Scurry. For galloways, about three furlongs: H. A. Bourne's Jack Cade, first; Raymond Belmont's Culvert, second; Robert Kelly's Kinderhook, third.

Third race—The Oak Tree purse, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile: H. A. Bourne's Blundara, first; Henry W. Warner's Nosegay, second; Archibald Barklie's Delphie, third.

Fourth race—The Reynard cup, forh orses owned by the Watchung Hunt Club, about three miles over a post and rail course: R. H. Towner's Sunlight, first; John J. O'Donohue's Lion Heart, second.

Fifth race—Watchung Hunter's purse, for bona-fide hunters, about three miles over a post and rail course: Henry L. Bell's St. Leonid, first; H. E. Dreier's Gus Helm, second; Peter Hauch, Jr.'s Essex B, third.

Sixth race—Consolation purse, for three year olds and upwards, five furlongs on the flat: Raymond Belmont's Culvert, first; M. DeW. Bamberger's Nuggett, second; Rufus C. Finch's Harold A. Frank, third.

Farmer's Scramble, for horses the bona-fide property of farmers over whose land the club hunts, half-mile: William Cark's Dick, first; Leslie Lambert's Kiddo, second; P. J. Kelly's Ben, third.

BOY KILLED BY STATE TROOPERS NEAR SCRANTON

Scranton, Pa., May 13.—A riotous demonstration Saturday by foreigners at Olyphant Colliery No. 1, Delaware and Hudson Company, resulted in the killing of George Robaresky, fourteen years old, by the state troopers.

The State troopers were riding down a crowd of rioters who were displaying firearms and hurling stones and clubs at the state police. Robaresky was standing in the front yard of his home and the mob, it is said, stood near, daring the troopers to come on.

Just as a volley of stones struck them the police moved forward. Several pistol shots were fired by the crowd. The troopers had their guns ready and were ordered to shoot. They were told to fire low and the bullet that hit the boy passed out through his back. He died shortly afterward.

The shooting cowed the rioters, but on learning the boy was dead they gathered in greater force. More troopers from the Hickville Station and from Wyoming Barracks arrived at Olyphant shortly after the shooting.

There was no trouble today at the Cayuga breaker in North Scranton, where Saturday's disturbance occurred, and several men were wounded. State, local and railroad police are still on guard.

Leaders of the United Mine Workers are endeavoring to keep the foreign-speaking miners throughout the region from gathering in crowds about the mines.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. George Bolsterle, of Wynantskill, N. Y., formerly of this city, will preach at Trinity Reformed church next Sunday, in exchange with Rev. J. Y. Broek.

The Teachers' Training Class of Trinity Reformed church will meet this evening at the home of F. E. Smith, 607 Central avenue, when the State examination will be held.

The Dutch Arms, of Trinity Reformed church, will hold its monthly meeting Monday night, May 20. Officers will be elected and an excellent entertainment will be provided.

Rev. Gilbert Lovell will give an address in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, telling of his work in China, illustrated with stereopticon views.

COOL, COMFORTABLE RUGS.

For the Summer Home.

Our big Rug Dept. on the second floor is given up almost entirely to the display of new and popular priced Summer Floor Coverings.

Rug makers have harked back to the days of our forefathers for the new ideas for summer beauty and comfort. Rag Carpets, like grandmother used to make, have given much of the inspiration and have been made to furnish some wonderful ideas. In this splendid exposition of new will be found all the latest styles. Rugs to fit any space, or to harmonize with any scheme of color or decoration.

Summer Floor Coverings

Our showing of Japanese and China Matting is replete with the newest effects in both styles of weave, our importations now being complete.

THE MIRROR CANDIES NEW YORK SUCCESS REFLECTS EFFORT

"MIRROR CANDIES."

The fame and success of the "Mirror Candies" are based primarily on quality—all the quality the money can buy, quality so evident in the candies themselves that customers could not fail to recognize it—and tell their friends.

The manufacturing is conducted under the most scrupulous conditions of sanitation and utter cleanliness. When in need of candy try this excellent make. You'll be more than pleased.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

The largest and best line of men's goods in town at "Dry Goods Prices," which means a saving of at least 25 per cent. IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

PEANUT FOODS.

ONE of the most useful foods in reducing the amount of the butcher's bill is the peanut. Vegetarians have a number of ways of serving these nuts that may prove acceptable even to those of us who do not adhere to their cult.

When Buying Peanuts.

In selecting peanuts, get only freshly shelled ones. Perhaps it is advisable to buy them in the shells. The nut meats should not be exposed to the air for any length of time as the oil is rapidly affected.

Peanut butter may be used as a substitute for ordinary butter and in many ways in cooking.

These sandwiches are nice for the children's lunch.

Dainty Sandwiches and Salad.

Lettuce Nut Sandwiches.—Cut sandwich bread very thin, spread with peanut butter and lay a leaf of fresh young lettuce sprinkled with salt between the slices.

Nut and Celery Salad.—A simple salad may be thus prepared. Chop about a half cup of white tender stalks of celery very fine, press two hard boiled eggs through a colander and add a half cup of peanut butter. Chop all together and season to taste. Place on fresh young lettuce leaves and pour the following dressing over the salad.

Salad Dressing.—Rub a tablespoonful of peanut butter into half a cupful of hot water and let boil. Take off the fire, stir in salt to season and the juice of half a lemon. Beat all these together and it is ready for use.

Peanut Soup.—A nice soup may be made thus. Bake a pint of sweet milk. Rub a half cup of butter to a cream in part of the milk then stir into it the rest of the milk and add a cupful of water. Put into a double boiler and when it has reached the scalding point thicken with a tablespoonful of cornstarch flour.

A Nut Pudding.

This recipe for a pudding is said to be very good.

Peanut Pudding.—For this dish scald a pint of sweet, fresh milk, add two tablespoonfuls of butter, beat three eggs, add to them two-thirds of a cupful of sugar, two ounces of chopped peanuts and 10 drops of almond extract. Butter molds, fill with the mixture and bake for 20 minutes.

VOGUE POINTS.

Stylish Footwear For the Summer Girl of 1912.

Plain black silk hose, with black clocks and buckleless suede shoes, also sable hued, are popular. Such shoes, well cut and well fitting, would make even clumsy feet look attractive and pretty ones even prettier. But colored shoes are by no means entirely taboo, and if of morocco, dyed to exactly match the gown, they may look exceedingly smart and dainty.

Malines, point de milan, chantilly, Spanish and "shadow" laces will be inseparable from the summer costume.

Peplums are just as much used upon morning jackets as they are upon blouses. This one is the newest and prettiest model that has appeared this spring.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for a 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7414, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

Milady's Mirror

Puffy Flesh Under Eyes.

After a period of illness sometimes the flesh will recede about the eyes. This leaves the skin loose and shriveled in appearance. For treatment warm almond oil is excellent. Dip small soft cloths in the oil and as often as convenient during the day and when retiring at night lay them on the loose skin.

The skin about the eyes of a person who is recovering from illness is too delicate to be massaged. The small veins and capillaries are very weak, so it behooves one to be extremely careful in this treatment. Foods which are easily digested, wholesome and strengthening are preferable to dainty or fancy dishes, and resting the eyes as often as possible is recommended.

Lack of sufficient sleep and internal derangement are responsible for the rolls of loose flesh under the eyes. If you hope for a cure then see to it that internally the system is in as nearly perfect condition as possible. When you are sure of this then you can start outward treatment. First be sure you are having sufficient sleep. From seven to eight hours each night is none too much, and the best hours are from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m. The loose flesh and all about the eyes externally may be gently massaged with equal parts of rosewater and glycerin. If there is any smarting sensation reduce the amount of glycerin to one-third, with two-thirds of rosewater. Once or twice a week tiny ice bags may be allowed to lie for fifteen minutes on the puffy flesh, and occasionally bathing the parts in cold water will also prove beneficial.

Sun Bath For the Hair.

The crisp fresh air, the bright light and the sunshine of this season of the year are all good for the hair. It is the hot summer sun that is injurious to both skin and scalp. Just now and for months to come a daily sun bath would be a life giving treatment for the scalp as well as it would be for the whole body.

If you have a room into which the sun shines brightly make it your sun parlor for at least an hour during each day. Take all the pins out of your hair, shake it free and loose every morning or any time through the day and sit in the sun. This will be more beneficial to the scalp than quarts of tonic.

To get good results from a sun bath all pins must be removed from the hair. If they are not, the scalp, which needs the tonic, will be untouched and only the hair on top or outside will receive the bath.

The scalp, although seemingly tender, never burns even in the hottest summer days. The girl who has exposed her head much during such weather when playing tennis, etc., will remember that near the head the color of the hair is unchanged, however much the remainder may be streaked. This is because the scalp oils protect the hair.

Therefore when taking a sun treatment the hair should be loosened, the tresses should be parted and occasionally tossed about. Sit in a comfortable chair during the process, and the bath will be found restful to the nerves as well as the head.

Sleep For Looks.

Sleep is one of the best known preservatives of youth, and every woman should get as much of it as possible.

A short nap after meals is an excellent thing. Take it if you have time to lie down only for fifteen minutes.

On getting up you will feel composed and in readiness for any tasks that may await you.

Many women think they cannot afford to rest for a few moments, yet in the end this rest pays.

Regular hours are the best of helps to keeping one's youth and good looks.

Make it your business to get to bed at a seasonable hour every night and try to keep this hour the same.

Early rising will enable you to make up for the hours given to sleep at night.

If you are troubled by sleeplessness undress leisurely, brush the hair, massage the scalp a little and bathe the face and eyes in warm water.

Then stand before an open window in a heavy dressing gown and take a few deep breaths.

Lastly, drink a cup of hot milk and then get into bed, stretch the body out, relax and think only of something pleasant. Sleep should not be long in coming.

Toilet Hints.

Warm water, pure soap and a complexion brush are valuable aids in reducing enlarged pores. The brush should be used vigorously and followed by the application of a good skin food.

For keeping the hands white and soft use a lotion of rosewater, six ounces; glycerin, one-half ounce; tincture of benzoin, one teaspoonful; borax, one teaspoonful. Shake well and allow it to stand ten minutes before using.

Simple but valuable is a face bleach of sour milk. The milk should be applied after the skin is thoroughly cleansed and allowed to remain on until dry. If an unpleasant odor remains it will yield to a mild solution of vinegar and hot water followed by an application of cold cream.

For the Children

Miss Mary Taft Holtz a Youthful Suffragist.

A short time ago the Women's Political Union of New York City offered to pay 1 cent a word for the best article of 300 words on the subject, "Why Am I a Suffragist?" Among the many responses received there was one from a girl of twelve years, living in Brooklyn. The judges who were selected from the officers of the W. P. U. decided that Mary Taft Holtz, for that is her name, was entitled to the prize, and she received the money.

When interviewed later Mary said she had become interested in votes for women through the parade last year and that she had then decided to study up the subject. She became convinced that it was right for women to have the ballot, although her parents are not much interested in the subject of suffrage. Here is one of the reasons she gave for wishing the ballot:

"Because women are human beings. They have each a soul and a brain as well as a physical body. They are therefore as clever and noble minded as men. Yet they are not allowed the same rights that men have. Why? There is no good reason."

Bachelor's Kitchen.

All the children sit around the room on the floor, with a grownup as "it" in the middle, who asks each player what he or she will give to an old bachelor for his kitchen.

Anything can be named that enters a boy's or girl's head, from a cow to a soap dish. "It" goes from one to the other, asking all sorts of questions, to which the answer must be the name of the thing given by that particular player.

For instance, "it" might inquire, "What is your head made of?" The answer must come with a perfectly straight face, "Potatoes," "Door scraper" or "Tabby cat"—a thing easier said than done. Whoever laughs must pay forfeit.

Personations.

To play this game the company seats itself in a circle, while one of the players begins to describe some persons with whom most of the other players are familiar and continues until one or other of the company is able to guess from the description who the person may be.

The one guessing correctly then proceeds to describe some one. If, however, the company is unable to make a correct guess the player goes on until some one is successful.

Conundrums.

What is the difference between 100 and 1,000? O (nought).

What kind of a robbery may be said to be not dangerous? A safe robbery.

When is a schoolmaster like a man with one eye? When he has a vacancy for a pupil.

Why is love like a potato? Because it springs from the eyes.

Why are young ladies so partial to sunset and twilight? Because they are daughters of Eve.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Chinese Names For Other Nations.

England is known to the Chinese as Yinkkwo, or "the flourishing country," kwo meaning country or nation. France is Fakwo, "the law abiding country." Germany, known as Twakwo, is "the virtuous country," and Italy is Ikwo, or "the country of justice." The United States is the Melkwo, or "beautiful country."

The "Tootums."

Johnny started in at school.
He recites the Golden Rule
(Not the rule of three),
But every morning you can hear
Him recite a table queer.
And it puzzles me.
It's the Tootums family.
Twelve of them there seem to be.
Such odd people too,
For I cannot understand
All about this Tootum band.
Such queer things they do.
"Tootums won ertu"—dear me!
Now, what can "ertu" be
That a Tootum's won?
I've asked Tommy to explain,
But he cannot make it plain
Just what Tootum's done.
"Tootums threer's sick"—poor thing!
Thus does Tommy ever sing.
"Tootums forer ate."
What he ate I do not know.
"Tootums ate a sixteen," though
I've heard him relate,
Tommy knows the Tootums well,
But he really cannot tell
Of this family anything.
But he says that is the way
That the children every day
Stand in line and sing.

SAYS T. R. WILL WIN ON FIRST BALLOT, 602

Charles H. Duell Invites Remembrance of Prediction.

New York, May 13.—Charles H. Duell, chairman of the Roosevelt city committee, announced that Colonel Roosevelt would have 602 votes on the first and only ballot at the Chicago convention.

Declaring that he does not make political forecasts recklessly, but only upon a careful examination of underlying conditions, Judge Duell submitted this table and requested the public to compare it with the actual result of the first ballot at the convention:

New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, 142.

Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, 112.

Maryland, West Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, 67.

States west of the Mississippi and east of the Rocky mountains, excluding Texas and Arkansas, 114.

States west of the Rocky mountains, 60.

Southern states not elsewhere enumerated, 107.

Total, 602.

ROOSEVELT DOESN'T CARE.

Claims He's Not Anxious For Nomination Now, as He Was In 1904.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 13.—Confidence that the result of his fight can be nothing else than his nomination at Chicago was written strongly on every feature of Colonel Roosevelt today. He refused, however, to make any estimate or prediction.

"I have had one great advantage to start with," said the colonel, speaking of the present fight, "and that is that personally I am not in the least agitated or excited one way or the other however this election turns out; that personally I have not the least concern whether I am nominated or not. It was not so in 1904. Then I was tremendously concerned personally. I wanted the nomination to round out and complete my career for my family, my children, myself.

"But this time I utterly loathed the thought of coming out for the nomination. I did not want the nomination. I came out because I believed I was the only one who could lead the fight for the progressive faith to success."

Mr. Roosevelt will leave New York tonight for his Ohio trip.

AEROPLANE MAIL DELIVERY.

Aviator to Carry a Hundred Pounds on His Initial Trip.

Washington, May 13.—Postmaster General Hitchcock authorized the postmaster at New York to dispatch mail to Washington on May 22 by aeroplane on request of a Washington aeroplane company. Dr. Christmas will carry it. The postmaster general hopes that ultimately the regular transportation of mail by aeroplane may be practicable.

In the experiment between New York and Washington an effort will be made to carry at least a hundred pounds of mail without stop. Under the order of the postmaster general the aviator must be sworn in as a mail carrier and the transportation must be without expense to the government.

SHIP DOCTOR TAKES LIFE.

Found Dead in Cabin of Hamburg-American Liner.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 13.—Dr. Jean C. Smith of the Hamburg-American steamship liner Westerwald was found dead in the cabin when she arrived here.

It is alleged the doctor committed suicide by injecting heavy doses of morphine into his arm.

RAINY SPRING LEADS TO FEAR OF BRICK SHORTAGE

New York, May 13.—Dealers and consumers of common brick are troubled by assertions on the floor of the Building Material Exchange and at the distributing centres, to the effect that the continued rains of the spring had prevented manufacturers up the river from reopening their plants, and that there would be a shortage of common brick on the market.

The reports were to the effect that dealers would be well advised to buy in anticipation of a brick famine, and that consumers should make their reservations now for brick in anticipation of a sharp advance in price when brick became scarce.

The reports were carried so far as to affect the Raritan River district, and even the Hackensack manufacturers were surprised to receive unexpected inquiries for immediate deliveries for various parts of the district not usually served at this time of the year.

Investigation showed the stories to have been inspired. Eighty-five per cent. of the 110 brick manufacturers in the North River district reported that each had from three to five barge loads, aggregating 325,000 brick each, available for the metropolitan district. This represents about 83,955,000 common brick still in shed.

In the Raritan River district the supply is not burdensome, but there is plenty of brick along the sheds of the South River to meet all the requirements of the district until new brick begin to come in.

It was said that new brick would be due in this market by about June 15, providing good weather prevailed for the next fortnight. Inasmuch as there are between 5,000,000 and 8,000,000 brick on hand in the various brick centres in New York and the suburbs, the total amount of brick available from all sources and at present prices for this market today is estimated to be 87,000,000. This does not take into consideration the brick now in the city.

The normal weekly consumption of Hudson River common brick in this city is approximately 20,000,000, so that there is enough on hand in the Hudson Valley district alone to take care of the demands from this city.

Prices remained steady, at $6.25 to $6.75, and Raritans held firm at $6.50, dock New York.

There was some discussion in the trade to the effect that July cement would be scarce, and that prices would advance by that time. The trade is expecting a general clearing out. The depression due to the recent bad weather conditions is only another incident that will hasten the final break which will re-establish the cement industry upon a paying basis.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEEMEN RESENT TAFT MESSAGE

Washington, May 13.—Resentment at President Taft's message urging the appointment of a commission to investigate the patent laws has been expressed by Democratic members of the House committee on patents.

The committee is at present engaged in giving hearings on the Oldfield bill, which revises and codifies the present patent laws, and they declare the President's action to be an intrusion, particularly in view of the fact that the bill represents the views of the commissioner of patents, an appointee of Mr. Taft. The recommendations of the President have been referred to the committee, and will likely stay there.

The Oldfield bill is far-reaching. One section of it is designed to overcome the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the Dick case. It was there decided that the owner of any invention had the right to impose restrictions by way of contract in the price and use of the machine and the purchase of accessories. The bill provides that it shall be unlawful to insert a condition in any contract for the sale or lease of a patented article, the effect of which will be to prohibit the free use of it or the purchase of any accessory from any other person than the owner of the patent or his nominee.

Several Jersey concerns, including the Edison interests and the Ingersoll watch corporation, are vitally affected by the bill, and are opposing it. Edmond G. Whittier, of East Orange, is appearing before the committee for the Ingersoll company.

It is claimed for these concerns that the bill will prevent them from maintaining uniform prices that are a benefit to the consumer. They now have fixed prices that are maintained by contract.

Another radical thing proposed by the bill is that any inventor who fails to develop his article within four years must grant a license to exploit the invention to any one who applies to him after that period.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The Manufacturers' League started off with a rush on Saturday.

Considering the amount of practice that the six teams have been able to put in there were three good games.

More than one fan was surprised at the way some of the old ones could come back.

Take a look at the cup the teams are fighting for and see if you can blame them.

The City High School was just a little too much for the New Brunswick High School team. It was a case of lacking the final punch on the part of the boys from the city on the banks of the old Rar-i-tan.

If our memory serves us correctly, a team from the same school failed to turn the trick a year ago.

We venture the opinion that the team that is representing the City High is the best aggregation of their class in this section of the State.

But until they meet Cranford again the lads from the smaller town will probably dispute that question. But we think not afterwards.

Four hits in five times at the bat is a record that many a ball player envies, but when a batter can make two of them two-baggers he has something to put down in his diary. That was the way Ed Stallings frames up in the box score for Saturday.

Some one made the remark on Saturday that they "couldn't see how such players as the Stalling brothers and Driscoll kept out of the big game." Those things are hard to dope out at times but some people hold good jobs that pay them just as much money as they could get in baseball even if they played in fast company.

Frederickson pitched another fine game Saturday, although the Paterson team touched him for two more hits than did Chatham a week ago.

Clancey was the only man to steal on Walt Nelson. They all realized after trying it once or twice that stealing second was a bad habit to get into.

Walt was unkind all last year to those who tried to vacate first without a through ticket.

Chalk up another to the credit of New York's lanky portsider.— Marquard got his sixth against the Cubs on Saturday.

The Cubs seem to need to grow some before they can successfully tackle the Giants again.

Although Yale and Princeton tied in the number of points scored in their meet last Saturday, Yale won the meet according to a previous agreement made that in case of tie the team scoring the greater number of first places would be the winner. Yale had seven to offset the five firsts captured by the Tigers.

BORO H. S. SWAMPED BY HIGH BRIDGE TEAM

High Bridge High School proved to be a tarter and had the borough school team breaking thir backs in their game Saturday afternoon in the upland town when the highland team won by the one-sided score of 13 to 1. The visiting team found a fast bunch of ball players as their opponents and were unable to put anything over until the ninth inning when Townley, who was the only man able to hit the home twirler, came across with the winning run.

The borough team played a very lose game in the field, and their opponents hit Spencer freely.

With Nature at her best and the fans turning out to show their approval at all the games the Manufacturers' League started off with a rush, Saturday afternoon. All six teams were out to win the first game, and considering the youth of the league and the lack of practise that each team had been able to get in owing to the rainy weather, the playing was of a high order in all three games. Even at this stage of the race rivalry was keen at all of the contests and the Daily Press cup race bids fair to be a live wire in the city's activities until August 17, when the last game will be played.

The games brought out a number of the old stars, players who used to shine in the old City League, and they demonstrated to the fans that they had not forgotten how to handle the horsehide covered pill. There were some others who have been seen wearing different uniforms on local diamonds who lived up to their past reputations, while an occasional new face appeared whose owners will try to win fame for their team and a reputation for themselves before the close of the season. All of these worked together with a will to get the first game and start the season off as near the top of the list as possible.

Realizing that the games would be sure to attract attention the Daily Press offered, at one of the early meetings of the Board of Directors a cup to the winning team. This cup is one of the best ever offered as a trophy for any contest here in Plainfield and has been the object of the most favorable comment by all who have seen it. It is now on exhibition at the business office and will be shown to any who may wish to see it. A trophy of this nature is sure to make every team go its limit in order that they may be its possessor.

There were some errors in all of the games but there were many fine plays as well. In every case the managers and captains of each team were trying out men and under those conditions it was impossible to play the article of ball that may be expected before the league is much older. It was the first time in most of the cases that the pitchers had handled a ball to any extent this year, and in one or two instances the first time in a number of years. They all showed, however, that they had the stuff to put on the ball and that it will not take them long to get back into form.

The attendance at all of the games was very gratifying. The fans turned out to see what the different teams could do and all of them left feeling well satisfied with the result. Another week will see more of the backward ones following the lead of the bell cow fans, and for their benefit let it be known that the playing fields are going to be roped off at the future games so that the plays may be followed better by everybody.

The story of the three games and the scores are as follows:

TIGHT GAME THIS

The Universal Joint team proved to be too much for the Motor Truck representatives and took their scalp to the tune of 8 to 6. The Fourth street lads had to fight for everything that they got and it was only after scrapping an uphill fight that they were able to take the big side of the score home with them. It was nip and tuck for the first five innings, each side pulling three in the third, but in the sixth Spicer added one more in their half of the inning and the Motor boys went them two better in their's.

These runs were scored on singles and a sprinkling of errors. After that the Joint makers held the whip and did not allow Saurer another run. There were streaks of very sharp fielding and at all times it was a surprise to those who had come out expecting to see a loose article of baseball.

Scott, after pitching good ball, stepped on a batted ball in the fifth inning and turned his ankle, causing him to retire from the game. Dolan, who followed him, pitched well although he was a little wild at the start. Coons, the twirler for the Motor team, had nine strikeouts to his credit and will probably make himself felt before the season is finished.

EASY FOR COMMERCIALS

With Freeman handing them over in mid-season style and the whole Commercial team putting up a more seasoned article of ball, they had little trouble in their first game with the Public Service Corporation, taking the game 12 to 1. The Clerks hit Terry pretty freely, Randolph taking the slugging honors with 4 hits in his 5 trips to the bat.

The Service team showed a lack of practise that the advancing season will remedy, while the Commercial team hit the ball and let themselves out like leaguers in the last end of a training trip.

Freeman struck out seven of the Corporation lads and had them batting them into his own hands in a number of instances, getting credit for six assists and one put-out. Terry also caused six of the lads of Commerce to fan the breeze and took the burden of assisting seven of his opponents to retire, as well.

F. Terry took the batting honors for the losers with three hits in his four times up, while Houston made their only run.

R. G. E'S WALKOVER

It was a case of too much Montross with the Bank team, Saturday. Jimmy had the money changers subdued at all times and the R. G. E. teah was able to win easily by the score of 22 to 5.

Bailey and Ricketts, who twirled for the Bank team, showed that they lacked from as did the whole of the Bank team. The factory team played together in much better style than did their opponents. The errors were frequent on both sides and the majority of the bankers' misplays counted on the R. G. E. score.

PATERSON EASY FOR PLAINFIELD

Home Team Takes Game from Visitors by 7 to 2 Score.

STALLINGS BIG HITTER

Start-off Is a Rush and Visitors Are Swept Off Feet in First Inning—Frederickson's Good Pitching—Visiotr Not Dangerous.

Not satisfied with their record of a week ago, Dorflinger's Plainfield baseball team took a turn at twisting the tail of the Paterson team Saturday afternoon and added another to the long string of victories that they are out after, by a 7 to 2 score. They have gone two games without a defeat and the excited fans are wondering if the combination can keep up the tremendous pace.

It was an ideal day for baseball and a large number of fans were at the Oval when the game was called and felt that they had been amply repaid for their pains as they watched the home players put it over the visiting team in every department of the game.
